For further particulars enquire at the drug store, North Verdale, Minnesota, where prescriptions are compounded that will cure all such ailments—Selah.

Alex. Cook shipped to this station the head and horns of a "Rocky mountain goat." Some of our folks of the gentler sex went to the station the other day to behold the "living" wonder (as they supposed) armed to the teeth with broomstick and fire-shovel to protect themselves from the vicious "vermin" which they knew would exercise the prerogative of every intelligent goat, that of butting anything and everything that crossed its path. They were considerably disconcerted when the facts in the case were revealed, and the broom and shovel were used on other parties, whose names it is not necessary at this sitting to mention.

Last Friday when the thermometer marked 30 below zero, a horse being driven at a keen trot dropped dead in the roadway. The theory prevails that inhalation of cold air while in rapid motion was the cause. The horse, owned by Hibbard & Stinson, livery keepers, was valued at $150.

Northfield people do not indulge in any great expectations in regard to the alleged "new road," that is, the line surveyed by the Illinois Central, whose northern terminus will be in West St. Paul. The idea current here is that the Cannon Valley branch, so-called, will be purchased, that from Waterloo, the line will be extended, the branch will be utilized to Northfield, or the connection or junction may be on the west side of the Mississippi river, at a point eight miles from Northfield, called Cascade, and proceed from thence to West St. Paul. So the conjectures run.
