County Commissioner Schaefer is lying dangerously ill at his residence.

All desiring a good dinner at a nominal price should visit the Boston restaurant.

The Masonic Mutual Aid association has a membership of 1,523 and $2,217.09 in its treasury.

J. C. Plumb, a noted Wisconsin horticulturist, is attending the annual session of the State Horticultural society.

A dissolute female named Mabel Young was on the municipal court yesterday for tipping the cup. Sentence was suspended.

Wesley Doran, the young man afflicted with epileptic fits, was removed yesterday from the county jail to his home at the village of Champlin.

The Congregational church on Jefferson street northeast, will be organized on Tuesday, 29th inst., and Rev. R. A. Torrey installed pastor of same.

About twenty members of the G. A. R. will leave to-morrow morning at 9.30 o'clock, from the Omaha depot, to attend the state encampment at Stillwater.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following couples yesterday: H. R. Mason and Mary Conlin; Oscar Ebel and Tilda Finske; John Chandler and Frances Popp.

T. J. Moriarty, of Richfield, was awarded $5 for the killing of a wolf. Wolf hunting in Hennepin county is a profitable pastime to farmers of sporting proclivities.

Mary Wilson was charged with vagrancy again yesterday. Judge Bailey took pity in her deplorable condition and allowed her to go under a suspension of sentence.

The following officers have been elected by the Masonic board of relief for the ensuing year: A. M. Greeley, president; Jacob Breyer, secretary; W. H. Cheney, treasurer.

A lad named Benjamin Church was tramped upon yesterday afternoon on Washington avenue by a runaway team. His right arm was fractured and his body severely bruised.

The subject that engaged the attention of the Presbyterian alliance, of this city last evening at the Franklin avenue church, was "How to win souls to Christ." Rev. Peter Stricker, D. D., presided.

The council committee on water works met last night and labored with the new ordinance regulating water rents. They will report the matter back to the city council at the meeting this evening.

The drill corps of the City commandery has elected A. M. Shuey, captain, and W. D. Marsh, secretary. The first drill will be given next Monday at Market hall where they will drill thereafter on every alternate Monday.

The uniform of the Minneapolis base ball club will be black with cardinal stockings. Their engagement begins April 10, when they will go into practice somewhere in the south. The schedule of games of the league has not yet been arranged.

A grand Jewish wedding, followed by a banquet and ball, will take place this evening at Wintham hall, the contracting parties being L. M. Lowenthal, of Topeka, Kas., and Miss Lottie Hall, of this city. Upward of 600 invitations have been issued.

John Campbell, foreman of the Minneapolis boiler works, was painfully injured on Monday night. While turning a nut his wrench slipped and he was thrown backwards striking his head with violence against some machinery inflicting a bad scalp wound.

William Turner and William Huse are two wayward fellows who instigated a general row. They were before his honor yesterday charged with disorderly conduct. During a short period of ten days they will be restricted to the society of the warden in the county jail.

The co-operative association of Minneapolis has memorialized Hon. W. D. Washburn, asking his co-operation in the passage of a law authorizing the establishment of co-operative associations on public lands. The petition has been presented by the congress-man to the senate committee on education and labor.

The following officers were installed at the meeting of Cataract council, No. 669, R. A. last evening: Robert C. S. Bartram; vice-regent, Ira J. Corey; orator, N. L. Cooper; past regent, K. L. Stillman; collector, W. C. Marsh; treasurer, C. G. Shuey; chaplain, C. T. Overbridge; guide, H. R. Brooks; warden, H. F. Converse; secretary, Benj. Moore.

Ed. Campbell is the name given in the municipal court, yesterday, by the young Scotch thief who was wined by officer Fox on Monday night, as reported in these columns. He was found guilty of larceny and sent up for a term of thirty days. He is a hard man and makes dire threats as to what he will do with the officers when he is released. He may be bound over to keep the peace, which would be quite appropriate.

In the case of the Mills Lumber Improvement company vs. J. Dean & Co., being an action to recover of defendants the sum of $30.50 for slitting defendants' logs, Judge Young decided yesterday that the demurrer to plaintiffs' complaint be sustained with $70 costs. It was also ordered that demurrer to plaintiffs' complaint with $10 costs be sustained in the case of the same company against J. B. Basset & Co., in which the amount involved is $210.

William Ferguson and James Smith constitute the "one-legged team"—each having but one pedal appendage—who have been doing the "please mister give me ten cents to buy something to eat," act for some time in this city. They were arrested yesterday for stealing a fine double-barrelled shot gun from F. Von Schobler. The case was continued until this morning and the brace of mendicants were incarcerated. The gun was recovered.

The Crusaders held their regular weekly meeting last evening with a fair attendance. After the transaction of routine business the following question was selected for debate: Resolved, That Lynch law furthers the ends of justice. The following members were appointed as debaters: Affirmative—Messrs. Kennedy, Dibb, Moran, Staab, Courtney, Jordan, Carr and O'Brien. Negative—Messrs. Gavan, O'Donnell, McCann, Mousso, Lephina, Wolsey, Casey and Fox. The three judges are Father Byrne and Messrs. Orrigan and Washington. The society has now a membership of eighty.

In the municipal court yesterday Keef and Sanderson were arraigned, the former charged with disorderly conduct and the latter charged with assaulting James

LEONARD WITH A DANGEROUS WEAPON.

Keef was discharged, there being nothing of a criminal nature shown against him, with the examination of Sanderson was continued until Jan. 22 on $300 bail. The man Leonard is not dangerously injured, although he was unable to leave his bed in the College hospital yesterday. His friends claim that he never before had been implicated in a case of such a character, and that he was led into it by vicious companions.

MINNEAPOLIS PERSONALS.

J. H. Clark and C. H. Peitt with their families left yesterday for New Orleans. L. E. Kelly and wife and L. Swift, Jr., and wife left last evening on a trip to the south west.

Burt Ross, son of the East-side druggist, leaves to-day for Cincinnati to study the violin at the conservatory of music.

Municipal Court. [Before Judge Bailey.] Oliver Kittleson, drunkenness; committed five days.

Ed. Campbell and Peter Johnson, drunkenness; paid fines in $5 each.

Charles Smith, drunkenness; committed five days.

Mabel Young, drunkenness; sentence suspended.

John Downs, vagrancy; sentence suspended.

Wm. Turner and William Huse, disorderly conduct; committed ten days each.

Andrew Kief, disorderly conduct; discharged.

Mary Wilson, vagrancy; sentence suspended.

Ed. Campbell, larceny of a wolf skin robe from Robert Blaisdell; committed thirty days.

William Lamberson, assault with a dangerous weapon; continued until January 22 in $500 bonds; committed in default of bail.

William Ferguson and James Smith, larceny of a double barreled shotgun from F. Von Schobler; continued until this morning in $500 bonds each; remanded in default of the same.

M. P. Robe's, embezzlement of $300 from Hooker & Manley; continued until this morning in $800 bail; remanded in default of bail.

Temperance in Attitude. The Rev. James McGulrick returned yesterday from Milwaukee, where he had spent a week with Bishop Ireland, giving a retreat in the cathedral. Their labor was crowned with success and they had the satisfaction of giving the total abstinence pledge to about 300 persons, and of organizing a society with a membership of 200 seaphtes, whom they converted from the allurements of lager beer saloons in the "Cream City." The fervid eloquence of Bishop Ireland and the keen logic of his able coadjutor influenced even the men who had been habituated to drinking lager beer from their infancy to make a solemn resolution to reject henceforth and forever the cup that cheers to inebriate. They made a bold raid into the stronghold of the enemy and returned victorious.

On Sunday the 27th inst., Bishop Ireland will administer confirmation in the church of the Immaculate Conception, and in the evening at 7.30 o'clock a lecture will be given by him in the hall attached to the church. The subject, of course, will be temperance. The address will be political in its character and the position of high license will be thoroughly discussed, with the view of influencing voters in the next municipal election. The bishop will undoubtedly attract a large audience, and the Total Abstinence society will accord him a grand reception on the occasion.

Testing "Jumbo." The experts continued their test of Jumbo yesterday, but nothing especially new was brought out. This test was solely for the purpose of demonstrating the economy of power reached by the mechanism of "Jumbo" and was quite similar to the last test of the previous day. Pumps 2, 3 and 4 were attached to the turbine water wheel of a capacity identical with that which drives the "Jumbo," a full head of water was turned on and the best that could be done was sixty pounds pressure on the square inch. "Jumbo" was then started up and carried the pressure to eighty pounds. A test of the pressure at various points in the city was to have been made but for some reason was either abandoned or postponed.

A $3000 Embezzlement. M. F. Roberts was arrested yesterday at the instance of Hooker & Manley. The warrant in the case alleges that Roberts was, on October 1, 1883, the agent and in the employ of Hooker & Manley, and that he did at that time appropriate to himself the sum of $300, the property of complainants. The preliminary examination was set for this morning at 9 o'clock, and the bonds were fixed at $800, but in default of bail in that amount the defendant was remanded to custody. Hooker & Manley are prominent cigar manufacturers and wholesale dealers, and Roberts was a traveling salesman in their employ. The $300 in question, it is stated, was collected by Roberts and was never properly accounted for.

Rules to be Restored. Chicago, Jan. 15.—The Rock Island and Alton railroads received a dispatch from Commissioner Fink, New York, to day, saying that he saw no objection to a settlement of the misunderstanding between the trunk lines and the western roads through passing business to the Missouri river on the basis of the proposition made by the road, addressed on Jan. 3. The result will be the restoration of rates both to-morrow, and the restoration of the sale of the tickets of the Rock Island and Alton in New York. Notwithstanding this agreement the Burlington road persists in withdrawing from the Chicago and Kansas City pool to-morrow, according to the notice given five days ago, but will promise to maintain rates.

At Key West, Florida, a small comet has been discovered, bearing west from the horizon.

OPENING OF THE NINETEENTH ANNUAL SESSION YESTERDAY.

Of the Minnesota State Horticultural Society. Col. Stevens' Address of Welcome—President Harris' Annual Address—The Exhibits—Small Attendance.

The attendance at the opening session of the nineteenth annual meeting of the Minnesota State Horticultural society yesterday was very slimly attended, but it continues four days, it is quite probable that before its close the members will turn out in much larger numbers.

THE MORNING SESSION opened at 10:30 o'clock in the hall of the college of agriculture at the state university, being called to order by President John S. Harris, of La Crosse, Wisconsin.

Prayer was offered by Rev. G. W. Fuller, of Litchfield, which was followed by Col. John H. Stevens' address of welcome as follows:

ADDRESS OF WELCOME. Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the State Agricultural Society: In behalf of the citizens of Minnesota, I bid each one of you a most cordial welcome, and tender you your warmest hospitalities. They trust that your deliberations will be fraught with much moment to the future destinies of the northwest. Your labors heretofore have been of such a character as to warrant this conclusion; for seldom has an organization accomplished more real, lasting benefit to the people of the state, and judging the future by the past, we may expect to reap a golden harvest in the propagation of fruit, flowers and everything else that appertains to horticulture, through your efforts. Our citizens feel called by your presence, and will endeavor to make you sojourners with them pleasant, assuring you we all feel greatly interested in your noble calling, which has such a tendency to make our thresholds so happy.

President Harris made a fitting response on behalf of the society, thanking the genial colonel for the generous hospitalities extended, acquiesced in the expressions respecting a hopeful, prosperous and profitable future for the society, which had already made wonderful strides in the propagation and cultivation of fruits in this rigidly cold climate, where at one time it had been argued fruit could not be cultivated. The president then followed in his annual address.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS. The following is a synopsis of the annual message:

The close of the present year was more promising than any of the seventeen in the existence of the society. The society has gained much experience during the year. In spite of the universal severity of the elements throughout the country, which have been especially disastrous to the advance of horticulture, there is no reason to complain of the fruit growth during the year. The average fruit yield has been about an average, while the apple crop has been below the average. Good displays have been made at the various fairs throughout the state in fruit exhibits, but several of the exhibitions were held too early for much of the late fruit. The vegetable exhibits have been considered below the average at all the fairs. It would be a feasible plan to present a bill at the state legislature, which should amend the articles of incorporation of the society as to admit of a state board of agriculture similar to Indiana and other states. He suggested that these gentlemen who have in the past done so much for the cause of horticulture be admitted to the society as life long honorary members.

A special tribute was paid to several of the late deceased members of the society. Education in horticulture is the crying want throughout the state, to satisfy which let a portion of the annual appropriation be given over to lectures and organizers who shall go among the people of the state to build up local and county societies.

ROUTINE BUSINESS. Messrs. J. H. Stevens, G. W. Fuller and J. S. Grimes were appointed a committee to report upon the president's address.

Messrs. F. W. Fuller, M. Pearce and A. W. Sias were appointed a committee on accounts, with instruction to examine the finances and reports of the secretary and treasurer, and to report to the society as soon as prepared.

Upon motion of G. W. Fuller, of Litchfield, the secretary was authorized to employ an assistant during the session at an expense not to exceed $20.

The offer of the Delta Sigma society of their rooms for evening sessions was accepted.

It was then voted that the reports and accounts of the secretary and treasurer should first be read to the society before referring to the finance committee.

THE EXHIBITS. About the tables of exhibits all was life and confusion yesterday, the society being busily engaged in arranging the displays. Many boxes are still unpacked and others are expected to arrive this morning, when the display will be of far greater interest, consequently no description will be attempted this morning.

The afternoon session was principally devoted to routine business, and a paper on "Blight in Fruit Trees," by F. G. Gould, of Excelsior.

ALBERT LEA. Senator Sergeant loses 400 bushels of potatoes by frost in his cellar.

The Odd Fellows' lodge of Albert Lea, No. 61, has a membership of sixty seven and $600 in the treasury.

On last Thursday Dr. Magelson was arraigned before Judge E. C. Stacy for assault and battery on O. N. Olberg, merchant at this place. He plead guilty and was fined with costs $10.30.

About a year ago at this place was seen a robust young man, Barney Tierney, twenty-three years of age, employed by the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern Railway company, and the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railway company as foreman of the said companies' union yards at this place. A little less than a year ago, while engaged in said employment, by compelling cars he sustained an injury which resulted in the loss of his left leg. This week he enters court and sues said companies by making legal claims for damages to the amount of $15,000. After being very ably tried on both sides the case was submitted to the jury, who after being out about four hours rendered a verdict of $10,000 in favor of plaintiff.

Among the distinguished men who are holding claims in Dakota is Prof. E. S. Masbhir, a Russian scientist. He has lately received a letter from his mother and sister in Russia stating that they are about starting to live with him. Miss Masbhir graduated from a Russian university with high credit, but will, partly for the romance of the thing, hold a Dakota claim and raise her potato patch.

News Gleanings and Points Special Collected and Forwarded by Telegraph to the Daily Globe.

[Fargo Special Telegrams, Jan. 15, to the St. Paul Globe.]

The extreme cold interrupted work on the prairie at Bismarck for a few days, but it has been resumed, and this week will see the building completed externally, except the tower which is estimated to cost $60,000.

The Tribune, the only paper now at Bismarck, probably does not overstate the matter in this: "When it is remembered that only ten months have elapsed since the passage of the act removing the capital from Yankton, the work that has been accomplished has been both marvelous and creditable. Before the meeting of the next legislature Bismarck will have completed and furnished as fine a capitol building as is possessed by any of the western states. The magnificent structure and 320 acres of valuable land to-day stands in the name of the territory as a monument to the liberality and enterprise of the citizens of Burleigh county and as a free gift to the taxpayers of the territory. Not a dollar of the $100,000 contributed and the $20,000 arising from the sale of lots has been wasted or recklessly appropriated, and the territory has more to show for the money expended than has ever heretofore been the case in the erection of public institutions. On the face of so much enterprise, it is to be regretted that the legislature will more than probably be controlled by an element that will refuse to accept the magnificent liberality of the citizens of Bismarck in providing so excellent buildings for their use. If the supreme court should decide in favor of the commission, which is not generally anticipated, still the matter will remain in the control of the legislature with two-thirds of its members from south Dakota. As a matter of policy, Bismarck should now take ground for division, which is clearly impracticable.

Improving the Press Dispatches. Representatives of most of the dailies of north Minnesota and north Dakota met in Fargo to-day under a call issued by A. E. Chanler, of St. Paul, to secure improvement in the telegraphic press reports, which have been unsatisfactory in many respects. There was an effort to secure the adoption of reports outside of those of the regular Associated Press, but nothing was accomplished in this direction. Richard Smith, the Associated Press agent at St. Paul, was present and promised that the causes of complaint should be removed so far as practicable. Among those present were Barke, of Jamestown, Jewell, of Bismarck, Winship, of Grand Forks, Hill, of Brainerd, Hall, of Fargo Falls, Richardson, of Valley City, and representatives of the Moorhead and Fargo papers. They were handsomely entertained, and given the freedom of the city.

H. S. Davis, A. L. Smith and E. W. S. The county board of Hilder has ordered an election on Feb. 11, on the question of issuing $30,000 in bonds for the building of a court house and jail at Steele. There are live men at Steele and its perseverance will probably be eventually victorious.

The two-year-old town of Larimore in the beautiful Elk Valley, has recently completed a $12,000 school house, which was occupied last week for the first time. It is doubted that many towns of less than a thousand population anywhere have so complete and handsome a structure. The last legislature located a normal school for north Dakota at Larimore, and a splendid body of land has been set apart for its use.

It is estimated that the country in the vicinity of Larimore raised some 600,000 bushels of wheat the past year, although the hail damaged the crop to some extent. About one-third of this is still in the hands of farmers. The place has two elevators and a mill and the farmers expect to put up another elevator next season. This is one of the largest shipping points in north Dakota. It is one of the best settled and most desirable farming sections in north Dakota.

A gentleman living on the line of the Northern Pacific, out west of the Missouri, where the cow boys and their adjuncts have been supposed to be particularly numerous, gives a better impression of the population in this statement:

Here is the home of the Christian, the scholar, the statesman, the farmer, the drover, the mechanic. It is not prophetic vision, it is only common sense to assert that the future wealth of Dakota lies on the west side of the Missouri river.

If he had not missed the Christians first some might have supposed that variety not quite so numerous as jackrabbits out there.

The Glendive Times expresses the general feeling in this: Spring is upon us and its advent will start the vast body of home-seekers from the eastern states and from the over-crowded fields and workshops of Europe; we want them here, and the Northern Pacific should say: "Come with us, occupy our land, we will haul you at cost, and treat you fairly after you get there."

One hard-fisted farmer with his red cheeked boys, active boys and few hard earned dollars, is with a train load of Lord this, and Count that and Duke the other that the Northern Pacific has been hauling over the country, and winning and dining, free gratis for nothing.

Action Against a Railroad. New York, Jan. 15.—Richard H. Chapman & Co. began an action in the U. S.
