and lady masque a prize of $10 each will be given; to the best elegant group of masques, and the most comical group of masques, $10 each, and $5 each to the best character and comical masque.

Superintendent of the mails, C. H. Bosworth and bride returned Tuesday evening from Chicago, where they were united in marriage by Rev. Dr. Thomas last Monday evening. On entering the postoffice Mr. Bosworth was surrounded by the employees and before he could obtain an idea of what was going on, he was presented with a massive gold lined solid silver water service, including goblets. It is needless to say that he was overcome, but he managed to express his surprise and gratification at the splendid remembrance, and after that the cigars were passed around. Mr. and Mrs. Bosworth will be at home at No. 56 West Fourth street.

Irvin E. Rookwell, of the contemplated Democrat Broad Ave., Fargo, was in the city yesterday. The Broad Ave., Mr. Rookwell says, will appear as an evening paper and will make its bow before the Fargo public about the 12th proximo. It will be what its name indicates, an outspoken, keen-edged Democratic paper.

Crowds of purchasers were to be found all day yesterday, at the popular dry goods establishment of Mr. G. Heinemann, profiting by the inducements offered in his tremendous reduction sale. The excellent manner in which business is always conducted at this well known house, and the actually rare bargains which he presents to our citizens is liable to make this a lively fact. Mr. Heinemann certainly means business, and the public certainly took this view of it immediately, judging by the first day's result of this big sale. The opportunity of offers can be found in detail on the eighth page of to-day's paper.
