LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

WANTED.—Five copies of No. 1 of the Montana Post, for which one dollar per copy will be paid at the City Book Store.

—seven large elk were seen yesterday morning on the hill opposite Centerville.

—Doctor J. Cornell, a physician of 30 years' standing has erected his standard at the Nebraska House.

WANTED.—A man that saw the bull fight. Also, a forty-foot pole, a two foot sponge and five gallons of chloroform to catch a grizzly bear.

—The weather has been cool for the last week, interspersed with strong winds, remaining every body of the near approach of winter.

Notice.—Company No. 4, will meet at the Masonic Hall, on next Wednesday evening, October 5, 1884. By order of J. T. Henderson.

—Mr. John A. Nelson's announcement of "Old Bye" &c., to be had opposite the California Exchange, contains the truth, and nothing but the truth. Those who want to know "the whole truth" had better call. A pleasant, cheerful, and entire satisfaction will be the result.

—Waugli's Brass and Quadrille band we should think, is its own advertisement, and a good one at that, to the people of this locality. Those who want good music will make a right call by securing the services of these excellent musicians.

—A notice of the Board of Directors of the Virginia City and Summit Road appears in our columns. Those interested will do well not to miss the meetings at Allen & Millard's on Saturday evenings at 7 1/2 p. m., each week.

—The members of Hook and Ladder company, No. 4, are requested to meet on Thursday, October 6th, 1884, at 7 o'clock, p. m., at Fenton-Legare Hall. A full attendance is desired. By order of Tom Baum, Capt.

—We dropped in at the Nebraska House the other day, kept by Downes & Cornell, and judging from the manner dinner was served up, we came to the conclusion that the Colonel and Doctor are used to good living. Col. we will call again soon.

—Mr. Weary, the affable and gentlemanly banker of the firm of Nowlan & Co., has removed to his new store building fitted up in the tastiest style possible. By the amount of the premiums displayed at his office, he must be doing an extensive business.

BAM.—We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Baume, Angewine & Merry. They have an assortment of cigars, cigars, confectionery, clothing, boots and shoes, miners' tools, etc., which they offer at astonishing low figures. Give them a call.

—The banking offices of the undersigned, will hereafter be closed for the transaction of business on Sundays. ALLEN & MILLARD, E. H. GRUBER & CO., URSULA WEARY, VIRGINIA, SEPT. 22, 1884. Terr. & Docks.

—One of Edwards' Nevada hacks upset, Sunday night last, on the steep place below Centerville. Two passengers were precipitated 30 feet down the gulch. The hack was smashed beyond injury, and retained by other passengers, driver or horse. Look out, Jack!

NEVADA UNION MEETING.—There will be a meeting of the unconditional Union men of Nevada, held at the former residence of Judge Culver, on Saturday evening, October 1st, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of electing four delegates to the county convention for the nomination of a legislative ticket.

—Get ready for next Wednesday, to go to the last party to be given by that prince of ball managers, George Barker, at his hall, over Rockfellow & Dennee's, Jackson street. No better room to "trip the light fantastic too" can be found in the territory, and the arrangement for supper and music are such that nothing will be wanting.

RICH DISCOVERY.—We have in our office a specimen taken from the Leshler Lode, on Granite creek, four miles from Virginia. Mr. Leshler the lucky discoverer tells us that out of one half ounce of ore he has taken ten cents. If the quartz averages as well as the prospect here, this lode will be one of the richest in our territory.

—As will be seen by the programme, Mr. Greenwald, formerly musical director of the German opera in San Francisco, will entertain the people of Virginia and vicinity, to some of the best selected pieces of music, ever produced on any stage. Let everybody turn out and give him a full house, and be assured of his giving entire satisfaction. No pains will be spared to make the entertainment the most select.

—Clayton & Hale, at their Drug Emporium, corner of Wallace and Van Buren streets, are refitting and plastering their store. No better place in town can be found to buy your drugs, medicines, perfumery, fancy goods, etc., etc. They have some of the purest liquors for medicinal (or any other) purposes, which are indeed excellent. See their big advertisement, and give them a call.

—We call the attention of the business men of Virginia and all others whom it may concern, to the notice of our sheriff, Niel Howie. We are given to understand that it will be strictly enforced. We hope so, for our streets are filled up with rogues, who should not be, and we think all who have the interest of our city at heart, will coincide with this important move.

—"Dunk," the inimitable burnt cork performer, has taken hold of the Virginia minstrel troupe, and gave his first entertainment to a full house on Wednesday night. The singing and dancing by Kitty Nuttall was very fine, and by the reported applause she received, we infer that she will become the favorite of Virginia, as she was the pet of the Denverites. Duncan sustains his reputation as a star minstrel, and the rest of the troupe are the best in the land. Go and see "Dunk," and hear how he came to Virginia city.

—We are happy indeed, to see that Edward Coleton has started a general agency office and collecting business in our city. It is just the thing wanted here. We having known Dr. Coleton in other cities, can vouch for his integrity and untiring energy in the branch of business. We are confident that parties having collections to make or other business to transact in his line, would do well to give him their patronage. He is to be found at Dancy's store, and refers to W. B. Dancy, J. T. Sullivan and E. G. Ross, Agents.

Meers, Arnitage & Co., Jackson street, advertise their stock of groceries, provisions, &c. A call will amply convince purchasers of the excellence and variety of their stock.
