High Glenn, of Virginia City, is our authorized agent to receive subscriptions and receive money for same.

LOCAL ITEMS.

The new Masonic Hall in this city forms the upper story of Pfouts and Russell's stone building on Wallace street.

COAL DISCOVERIES.—We have seen a splendid specimen of anthracite, belonging to Judges Miller and A. S. Potter.

PIPES.—Nick Kessler has brought with him from Europe a complete stock of first class Meerschum pipes.

The freight and passengers by way of the river are fast arriving. The Deer Lodge has made three trips, bringing up the cargoes of heavier boats.

NOTICE.—The members of Pioneer Hook and Ladder Company No. 1 will meet for drill in the Olinghouse Hall, at eight p. m., on Monday evening.

STAR RESTAURANT.—The Star Restaurant is open today for the reception of guests. The building and accommodations are all that can be desired.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE FOURTH.—The citizens may look out for a fine time on the Fourth. Besides the usual routine procession, an opportunity of fraternizing with the inhabitants of Nevada, who seem bent upon doing their share, and who will return with the cortege, and take part in the proceedings in the afternoon.

A MILL with fifteen stamps will be placed on the ground of the Oro Fino Company, Hot Springs District, as soon as it can be hauled from the river.

THERE was a heavy hail shower on Tuesday evening. The celestial buck-shot made such a rattle that it was with difficulty the voice could be heard, if the owner was under a single roof.

QUARTZ MILLS.—We are informed by Mr. Busch that seven quartz mills are on the way up the river for this Territory. They are to be located in Blackfoot, Alder Gulch and Hot Springs Districts.

POLICE COURT.—John Crab, charged with being drunk—dismissed. E. F. Travis, assault—fined $5 and costs. Michael O'Hara, drunk and disorderly—fined $10 and costs. John Shoemaker, drunk and disorderly—fined $10 and costs.

NOTICE.—Montana Fire Company No. 2 are hereby notified that a meeting of all the members will be held at the City Hall to-night, at 8 p. m. It is hoped that none will be absent or behind time. By order of L. W. FRANK, Foreman.

TRAINS FROM THE RIVER.—Messrs. Erfort, Busch & Co. have received a train of seventeen four mule wagons from Benton, laden with States flour, sugar, coffee and whisky.

NATHAN BORN has opened out a carefully selected assortment of Cigars, Tobaccos, &c., at the old stand of King, Curtis & Co., Jackson Street. He has also a lot of glass for sale. Those who like a good cigar should give this Store a trial.

Supreme Court.

CHIEF JUSTICE ROSMER, PRESIDING. Henry Brandy vs. John A. Nelson—Suit dismissed with costs.

Root More & Co. vs. Wesley Hill—Motion for time to answer, till the 28th of June. Granted.

The Territory vs. Geo. Scragge, Parrott and Van Cleve—Motion to set aside the forfeiture of the recognizance. Under advisement by the Court.

The Territory vs. Nathaniel Stanley and Adelaide Bidwell. Nolle prosequi entered.

Edward O'Donnell vs. Edward McMann—Motion by defendant to dismiss the suit. Granted.

L. P. Crabtree et al. vs. Schwalter et al.—Jurisdiction. This was an issue to try whether the plaintiffs were the owners of claims No. 3 and 5, below, on Dundee Bar, Nevada District, on the 12th of August, 1864.

Root More & Co. vs. Wesley Hill et al.—Argument on demurrer to defendant's answer. Demurrer sustained.

Spencer Harrison & Co. vs. H. C. Crewell—Verdict for plaintiffs—$393 33.

THE EXCELSIOR MINSTRELS.—The benefit of Billy Sheppard will come off to-night, at the Adelphi Hall, Nevada. This will be the last night's performance at that place.

PROPERTY holders have been notified to clear up the Streets in front of their lots, after this is done, the Marshal will keep the thoroughfares clear, having a cart for the purpose.

THE WEATHER is decidedly hot—at last! Quick-silver is hunting for 90 degrees in the shade.

ALDER GULCH.—All damage by the flood is about repaired, and the water is beginning to settle at the riffles as in days of yore.

E. OLINGHOUSE & Co., corner of Jackson and Wallace streets, have for sale two sets of superior blacksmith's tools and a quantity of quicksilver.

WANTED.—A married woman without children, as housekeeper for a business firm. Apply at the City Book Store.

THE Marshal is not through with the dogs yet.

HELENA ITEMS.

After a week's absence we return to find ourself almost a stranger in our young, fast and prosperous town. New buildings finished, and in all stages of construction, greet our eyes wherever we look.

SHOT THE WRONG BIRD.—One of the dromedaries which lately came into the Territory, was quietly grazing near Snow Shoe Creek, when a hunter in search of game observed the wonderful brute.

THE POSTERS all over town announce that the Grand Pic-Nic on the Fourth will come off in Owyhee Park. Everybody, and more especially the representatives of the fair sex in this portion of the vineyard, is on the look out for fancy articles of attire.

MORE FREE THAN WELCOME.—On Monday morning, an enterprising unit of the "floating population," named Wm. White, confiscated the saddle of a horse belonging to Captain Shaheen, while standing in a corral.

MORE INDIAN MURDERS.—As the pilot of the steamer U. S. Grant was out in a yawl sending the channel of the Missouri river, with four deck-hands of the boat, the party were fired upon by Indians, and three of the men killed.

OUTRAGED.—We conceive it to be our duty to call the attention of the authorities to the highly improper practice of galloping horses through the streets of our town.

ANOTHER "SOFT."—One of the tender-feet being anxious to become rich in a hurry, tried his fortune on the "ten dice game," in the California Exchange, one night last week.

OLIVER & Co.'s COACHES to Virginia arrive and depart daily. The stage to Blackfoot makes tri-weekly trips. Punctuality is the order of the day, and the vehicles are crowded, both going and returning.

BIG BROWN IN BLACKFOOT.—One day last week, Mr. Joe Brown, of Owyhee gulch, ran over nine hundred dollars, and also took out two nuggets—one weighing eleven ounces, and one seven. Surely that is big pay.

DURING the week the streets have been alive with freight wagons. Most of the eight steamboat loads have arrived, and we notice some splendid stocks of all kinds of merchandise.

BIG SALE.—Nos. 7 and 8 on Last Chance gulch below discharge, sold for $12,000 on Tuesday. The gentleman who bought had to bring the dust in a water bucket, not having anything else in the house large enough to hold it.

READ the invitation to the Fourth of July Pic-Nic at Owyhee Park.
