LOCAL ITEMS. THE CARBONATE GOLD AND SILVER MINING CO.—The members of this Company have located five lodes: the Victoria, White Horse and Yankee Blade, in Summit District, and the Revenue and Branch Mine in Fairweather District. The lodes are all valuable and safe investments. The last three above named are as rich and desirable property as any that we know of in the Territory. The Yankee Blade has a six foot crevice, every ounce of the rock in which yields an unusually large prospect of fine gold in washing—in fact, something worth putting into a pan. It is not a "color," but a substantial deposit of gold. The Company has contracted with the prospector, J. H. Haines, to sink fifty feet on this lode, for $1,250, and the development of the rest of the ledge will follow in due order. The Revenue is near the Jewel House, and the native silver is in pieces when the rock is broken. There is a large quantity of gold also in the prospect. The Branch Mine, near the head of Brown's Gulch, is equally rich in native silver and free gold. The Victoria and White Horse are both gold lodes, and are being prospected by pan process, from average results. The Company have gone about their business systematically; they have been fortunate, and they mean money.

JOE GRAY, whose descriptive powers and stentorian lungs are a perpetual advertisement of his calling, has entered into business on his own account next door below Content's Corner. Mounted on some wonderful cayuse, he is to be found putting on the artistic touches in the way of illustration. When the auctioneer class was invented, Joe was put outside the corral as a specimen.

OLINGHOUSE & Co., sent us a bottle of Cherry Brandy, in order that we might be able to testify to its quality. Our boys are "on the testify," and the notion that a "local" certificate of excellent quality, is issued, was as the Devil observed "carried unanimous." Several trials were made before putting the motion, in order to see whether the quality was uniform from top to bottom.

BARFOOT'S PARADISE.—We were down at Gurney & Co.'s looking at 11 cords of Boots and Shoes. Thick, thin, light, heavy, sewed, pegged, fancy, plain, for gentlemen's wear and for ladies fair, with a few busbels for the babies. We are not going to attempt a description. Go and see and if you are not suited you must be as hard to satisfy as a Dublin Carman—or club-footed. Weston looks fatigued, yet happy. 10 wagon loads are over at this store, besides the old stock.

POLICE COURT.—J. B. Hutchison was charged with keeping saloon without license; not guilty; discharged.—John Oliver, permitting gambling with out license; discharged.—Adele Rouny, assault and battery on Melaine Lanton; fined $25, and costs.—Kate Marshall, assault and battery; fined $40, and costs.—William Norwood, assault and battery; fined $10, and costs.

DISTRICT COURT.—Territory vs. L. B. Lockhart. The defendant indicted and tried by jury for obstructing the public highway on the Jefferson Bridge Road. Verdict of acquittal. After disposing of several motions and other routine business the Court adjourned for the term.

IF you want to see a neatly rigged barber shop, and to get your beard shaved off or your hair trimmed in a neat and comfortable manner, go to the place of F. Wilson & Co., at the old stand of Turley & White, Wallace street.

DEPARTURE.—Our friend Hugh Glenn, and wife, for Austin, to seek among the Silver Mountains of Nevada, a new home and sphere of action. The good wishes of all his friends accompany him and his amiable partner.

HO FOR THE EAST!—Large posters in conspicuous places in town, proclaim the departure of Joseph Knight's mule train, on the first of August, for "America." Parties wishing to spend the winter with their friends in the East, will have a good chance of transportation to the States.

THE first thorough-bred American child born in this Territory since its settlement in '62, is Florence McClurg. The little lady appears to feel quite at home in Virginia City, through which she makes daily excursions, exchanging greetings with the citizens, and apparently fearless of casualties.

A MATCH is made between Fuller Robinson and Co.'s s. c. Swayback, and Joe Patre's b. g. Billy, for $500 a side; Flat-race; owners ride; catch weights; half mile dash, to come off on the 23d. 24 miles east of Virginia City, on the Madison road. The money is staked, and it is "play or pay."

A LETTER from the Hon. Jas. Ashley, which was dated the 10th inst., but came with the Salt Lake papers of the 9th, states that this gentleman hoped to leave in four or five days for Montana. It is possible that he may arrive to-day.

DRS. CREPIN AND JUSTICE have entered into partnership, a fact we are glad to notice, inasmuch as both gentlemen are, to our own personal knowledge, well instructed, experienced and reliable practitioners.

M. C. KENDALL and A. VINCENT, of the Mechanical Bakery, Cover street, announce to the public that they manufacture and keep for sale, bread, pies, crackers, etc. Give them a call.

NOTICE.—The Rev. Mr. Smith, Presbyterian minister, will hold service in the Union Church, Idaho street, at 10:30 A. M., to-morrow.

THE Citizen who borrowed the Mortar at Allen & Millard's Bank, must be troubled with a short memory.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—At a meeting of the County Commissioners of Madison County, after the transaction of the ordinary routine business, the following resolution was passed: Resolved, That the County Commissioners have on the 11th day of July, A. D. 1865, and in compliance with the revenue laws of Montana Territory, section first, levied and provided by law, a tax on all property not exempt from taxation, in Madison County, of one cent on the dollar, for county purposes; for Territorial purposes, four mills upon the dollar; for the support of the poor, one mill upon the dollar.

By order of the Board of Commissioners of Madison County. JOHN POTTER, Chairman. F. K. ROOT, J. E. McCLURG.

Board then adjourned until the fourth Monday in this month. J. L. CORBETT, Deputy Clerk. July 11th, A. D. 1865.

Messrs. J. J. Roe & Co. appear in our columns as advertisers to-day, and we beg to direct the public attention to the list of articles offered by them for sale. On last Sunday, they received twenty-four wagon loads of merchandise. The high reputation of this firm requires no guarantee on our part of the truth of their representations with regard to the extent, variety and excellence of their stock, which comprises a general assortment of groceries, provisions, mining tools, with a large and choice selection of liquors and cigars. They are constantly receiving from their list of goods for sale, by way of the river.

COMMERCIAL. Virginia City Wholesale Market. Corrected Weekly for the MONTANA POST, by ROCKFELLOW & DENNIE, No. 3, Jackson Street, Virginia, M. T.

VIRGINIA CITY, M. T., July 15, 1865. [Non-resident readers will please bear in mind that our quotations are based upon actual transactions, and are gold prices for goods, for the original packages. The retail prices range about ten per cent above quotations.] Since our last report, several large lots of goods have arrived from Benton, and some lots by way of the Plains. These arrivals seem to have the effect of increasing the demand for all kinds of groceries, and are held firmer at an advance, on many articles, over our last quotations. This is owing to the probability of the late steamers not being able to reach Benton, or even Cow Island this year—and the loss of considerable lots of goods on steamers sunk, and also the increase of freight from the river, several steamers having unloaded at Cow Island 120 miles below Benton.

Under this information, dealers from new camps are increasing their orders and buying more freely. FLOUR—No change to note. But little has arrived during the week from the West. Salt Lake, M. Tanners, Provo, $30. Other brands, $18 @ $20, and dull. PRODUCE—Potatoes $7 @ 14c. CORN—Barley $7 @ 15c; Oats $12 @ 14c. BACON—Scarcely, and we note an advance over last week's quotation. It is now held and selling at from 50 to 55 and 50c, for prime new; Hams scarce, 57 @ 60c. LARD—Nominal, 45 @ 50c. CANDLES—In demand. Works Cincinnati, at 65 and 70c; Other brands at 60 @ 65c.

SUGARS—A finer quality is prevalent with holders throughout the market. We quote to-day, N. O. and Sandwich Island, $10 @ 10 1/2; A refined Y, 57 @ 60; crushed No. 1, 60c; Powdered sugar, 65 @ 70. COFFEE—But little in the market, and is held at 75 @ 80c. TEAS—Several lots arrived during the week, but not sufficient to supply the demand. Imperial gold, $3.50; Young Hyson, $2.00; Black, $3.00. GOLDEN SYRUP—But little in market. Molasses and Sogrum in better demand. We quote to-day, Belcher's Golden Syrup, $7 @ 10 gal; Belcher's 80 Lons, per 10 gal, $55 @ 60; Belcher's Chicago Syrup, per 10 gal, $50 @ 55; N. Y. Sugar House, per gal, $8 @ 8 1/2. BUTTER—Salt Lake has been succeeded by States packed which has proven to be superior to any that has arrived from S. Lake this Spring. States, packed, in demand at 75 @ 80; Salt Lake dull, at 60 @ 65; ranch, $1.10 @ 1.25.

FRUITS.—The market firm and all kinds in demand. Dried apples, 45 @ 50c; Blackberries, $4.65; cherries, 70 @ 75c; other dried fruit, 70 @ 75c.
