TELEGRAPHIC.

New York, June 22.

The Herald's Havana correspondent says: Breckinridge and party were all near to Jeff. Davis when he was captured, but they managed to elude the national troops, and traveled across the States of Georgia and Florida to the coast, where they secured a small boat, in which they put to sea, and arrived at Cardinas on the 11th inst., after three days and nights being passed almost without eating or sleeping. At Cardinas they were serenaded, and received marked attention from the Spanish Government and people. They expected to remain at Havana for some time.

The Herald's Richmond correspondent says that Gen. Gordon was relieved of the command of Norfolk on Monday last. The city is restored to civil rule. His successor is instructed to act merely as military commandant of the port.

Columbus, June 22. The Ohio Union State Convention, yesterday, nominated Gen. J. D. Cox for governor, by acclamation.

Washington, June 22. The President has issued a proclamation providing for a re-organization of Alabama, appointing Lewis E. Parsons provisional Governor.

New York, June 22. The Times' Washington special says that Philip Lee, of Kentucky, John R. Davis, of Tennessee, and James L. Seward, formerly a member of Congress from Georgia, were paroled to-day.

The South Carolina delegation arrived to-day and had a pleasant interview with the President, and afterwards with the Secretary of War. The delegation ask that their State be placed upon the same footing as the other wayward sisters, and that a provisional Governor be appointed.

The Tribune's Washington special says: It is stated that Ex-Governor Wright, of Indiana, will be tendered the mission to Berlin.

The President has rescinded the orders of the Secretary of the Interior, creating a new Board of Examiners for the Kansas branch of the Pacific Railroad.

Richmond papers of the 20th contain the following: At the late election, the counties of Accomac and Northampton gave Wm. H. B. Curtis, for Congress, 1,150 majority. For the House of Delegates, Virginia, Thomas H. William and Dr. John W. Field were elected. Both are conservatives. Curtis was the Union member of the Virginia Convention, and a conservative and opposed to confiscation.

Tyler is at present United States collector for the destitute citizens of Dinwiddie. The meeting ad opted resolutions prohibiting negroes from coming upon their plantations, except upon business, fixing their pay at five dollars per month, and refusing to employ any unless recommended by their previous employer. While recognizing Pierpont as Governor, and appreciating his generous sentiments, they deprecate the constitution of the State of Virginia as now in force, and for Virginia that was for North Carolina.

The Commercial's bulletin says: The 2d U. S. Cavalry (colored) mutinied on board a steamer lying at the wharf in Portsmouth, last Tuesday evening. They took possession of the vessel, and refused to allow it to leave. The next morning they went ashore armed, and ran rioting through the town. White troops were summoned from various quarters, and Gen. Graham took command of them. They soon overpowered the blacks and drove them aboard the ship. They were disarmed and sent down the bay.

The Tribune's special says: Among the vast number of applications for pardon filed at the White House, there is not a single instance in which the applicant does not assert that he opposed the inauguration of the rebellion.

Several parties in the South who were acting as postmasters when the war broke out, have reported the amount of their indebtedness and have expressed their desire to liquidate the same. A few have forwarded the money.

Washington, June 22. Wm. H. Gale and Charles F. Halley have been commissioned as Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of Colorado, and Jacob Houghton as Justice of the Supreme Court of New Mexico.

The fleet for the Brazil station, under the command of Admiral Gordon, left Hampton Roads yesterday.

The Herald's special, Brownsville 15th, says: Information has been received at the headquarters of Gen. Mejia, at Matamoros, of an engagement which lately took place between the Imperialists and the Liberals, in which the latter were defeated, losing 700 killed and 2,000 prisoners, together with arms and ammunition. Negrete is reported to be a prisoner. Callado and Blanco were supposed to have been captured and shot.

Gen. Jackson, commanding the colored troops, had reached Texas safely, and had disembarked.

New York, June 23. A Washington special to the Herald says: Preparations have commenced for mustering out between 40,000 and 50,000 troops, from the armies of Gen. Meade, Hancock and Logan. About 18,000 of those effective, whose terms of service first expire, will be mustered out from the army of the Potomac by the regimental organizations.

Hancock's veteran command will be reduced to 7,000. The Army of Tennessee will lose fully 15,000.

Three assassinations of Union men have occurred in the vicinity of Alexandria within a week past.

The Herald's special says: Gen. Butler's friends are presenting his name for the military governorship of South Carolina, in case he should fail in obtaining the civil one of Idaho.

There will probably be considerable delay in the appointment of a provisional governor for South Carolina. The delegation here do not all represent the Unionists of the State. The State is at present without laws, its citizens are completely huddled, and a fearful proportion of them literally destitute of all means of support, are starving. All manner of lawlessness and crime is alarmingly on the increase. The only hope for public or private virtue is admitted to lie in the protection of Federal law.

Philadelphia, June 23. Rear Admiral Dupont died in this city this morning.

Washington, June 23. The Navy Department has just received official dispatches from Admiral Thatch, dated Galveston 8th, reporting that on the first of this month, Gen. Brown, commanding the U. S. forces, occupied and garrisoned Brownsville.

On the 2d of June, the rebel Gens. Kirby Smith and Magruder met in the harbor at Galveston, Gen. A. J. Smith, representing Maj.-Gen. Canby. Gen. Kirby Smith then and there signed the terms of surrender previously agreed upon at New Orleans. On the 5th of June, full and formal possession of Galveston was delivered to the United States forces, and the flag of the Union was raised. On the 8th of June, Admiral Thatch went ashore and was cordially received by the rebel naval and military authorities, who requested a part of the U. S. naval forces to remain there for their protection.

Galveston is before this time strongly garrisoned by the United States forces and is probably there in no position.

(Signed) STANTON. The President, to-day, has issued a proclamation raising the blockade west of the Mississippi, and declaring all ports open to foreign commerce the 1st of July next, on the terms set forth in the proclamation of the 22d of May last, but says it is to be understood, however, that the blockade now rescinded was international, and was for the purpose of proclaiming the sovereign right of the United States, and the greater or less subversion of civil authority in the region to which it applied, and the impracticability of it at once restoring that in due efficiency, may, for a season, make it advisable to employ the army and navy of the United States towards carrying the law into effect.

The President has directed the Hon. W. P. Dole, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, to proceed to the Indian country, to effect important treaties with the hostile and peaceable Indians. In his instructions to Mr. Dole, the President says he deems the present a fitting time for a renewal of the efforts to press upon the Indians the urgent necessity of abandoning their wild, roving habits, and of adopting the more peaceful and industrious arts of civilized life. There is no longer any region of territory left within the United States where their rude habits and mode of life can prevail as formerly. They are being pressed and hemmed in on every side by the advancing settlements of an adventurous and enterprising people. They must, therefore, adapt themselves to the new order of things, and live in peace among themselves and with their white neighbors, or they must inevitably perish. The policy of settling them upon suitable reservations, where they may, with the aid and friendship of the government, be able to subsist themselves by agriculture and other industrious pursuits, is left without restriction, and familiarity with their character, seem to point him out as the proper officer of the Indian Department to visit the various Indian tribes in the territories, and to enter into such treaties with them as will best secure the permanent tranquility of our borders and promote their future welfare and prosperity.

The commanders of the various military districts have been instructed to co-operate with Mr. Dole, and to render him all the assistance he may require.

Mr. Dole has been unwell for several days, but is now discharging the duties of his office, and will soon be able to leave for the west.

It was said that one of the batteries which the rebels ran into Mexico after Kirby Smith's surrender, would be delivered up to the United States authorities.

The Mexican Imperialists at Matamoros are much exercised in mind regarding the appearance in their immediate vicinity of so many United States troops.

Cairo, June 23. The Orleans Times of the 17th says: Gen. Weitzel and staff have arrived in Texas. Several vessels of his fleet also came up to wood and water.

L. Cabell, M. D. Dorse, W. Gordon, Ezra Haun, J. Jones, J. Marmaduke, D. M. Dubouche, and John R. Tucker, commander of the rebel navy.

No prisoners of war above the rank of Captain are being released at present.

Numerous applications for pardon from prisoners and civilians are filed away for future action. None but exceptional cases are immediately granted.

The Tribune's Montreal correspondent says: General Dix goes to Quebec on a visit to the Governor-General of Canada, to inform him that the abuses of the right of asylum so long practiced by the Canadian government in behalf of the rebel agents, must be reformed.

New York, June 23. Mosby's brother lately applied to the authorities at Lynchburg for a guarantee that the guerrilla should be paroled on surrendering. The application was granted and Mosby came in; but in the meantime the Government had refused to ratify it, and the Provost Marshal felt bound in honor to let him go, which was done.

A special to the Tribune says that the Union men in Alabama are without arms, and the secessionists have plenty. He was present when two thousand of Roddy's men delivered up eighty stand, accounting for the balance as lost. They were hidden only, and are now in their possession.

Fort Smith, June 24. Ex-Gov. Wade gives assurance that no further trouble will be given by the Choctaw Indians. A grand council of twenty tribes met on the 16th ult., and will again assemble on the 1st of September. A delegation of five from each tribe is to be sent to Washington to
