GRASSHOPPERS AND CROPS.—A week ago there had not been a grasshopper in Virginia.

During the latter part of the week, a few of them were visible. On Saturday, the hills in this vicinity were covered, and the direction of their flight was from the Passaic, and they ranged toward the Madison. On Sunday and Monday the air was filled with the migratory scourge. Looking upward, it seemed as though a great storm of locusts was descending upon us.

UTAH ITEMS.—The Vedette has ascertained the location of the gold mines toward which a number of prospectors are flocking.

It will be recollected a party left the Vedette for that locality on the 1st inst. The party consisted of Wm. Howard, a distiller of Cottonwood, a dozen miles north of Salt Lake, while preaching salvation to the Indians. He was accompanied by a party of men, and was accompanied by a party of men, and was accompanied by a party of men.

THE MAILS.—The Vedette of the 11th inst. says that nearly 300 sacks of mail matter is lying between Salt Lake and Denver, and that the coaches are arriving there with only express matter and letters.

It would pay better than nosing around after some poor devil who has made an error of a few dollars in his accounts. Now is the time.—Attention is called to the advertisement of the Real Estate Lottery in another column. Judge Ryan is too well and fanatically honest to be deceived by any of the specious distribution of property will be conducted with strict integrity.

BEST CHANCE YET OFFERED.—Siegel & Co. are receiving and opening at their mammoth establishment in the corner of 12th and Broadway, the finest custom-made clothing from the East and California.

Trains are arriving from east and west with the largest and most complete assortment of hats, caps, boots, shoes, men's dress goods, under-clothing, etc., ever offered in one establishment in Montana. They propose to sell for 30 days at second-hand prices, and to transport and transportation charges must be paid. Customers have it all their own way. Goods selling cheaper than in New York or San Francisco. Go and have the first satisfaction of no sale.

GOODS ARRIVING.—Garrison's train arrived from Benton on Sunday and corralled in the public square. Seven wagons were loaded with clothing for Siegel & Co., the balance with boots and shoes.

Our people can now get nearly every business house is receiving immense additions to their stocks of goods, and many new stores are being opened. They generally appreciate the advantages of letting the people know their prices, and we refer to our advertising columns as a reliable directory of the business men of the city.

FOUND.—A large sized pocket book, containing a small sum in greenback and cents, also deeds and valuable papers. The owner can have the same by calling at this office, proving property and paying charges. July 13-14-15-16-17-18-19-20-21-22-23-24-25-26-27-28-29-30-31-1867.

PERSONAL.—Judge Homer arrived from the Gallatin yesterday, having closed the term of court at Helena. Judge Baker returns from the Yellowstone, he having received advice that his commission was merely complimentary.

Not relating that style of business, he reported at his own office practical duty, and returned to legal business as heretofore. Mr. J. P. Rodman left for a home trip to Minnesota and New Jersey per last coach to Benton. Pressure and a quick return.

SOLD OUT.—I have this day sold out my entire stock in trade to M. Hensberg, my former partner in business. Thanking the public generally for their liberal patronage, I bespeak a continuance of their patronage for my successor, M. Hensberg, N. B.—All persons having claims against me are requested to present them immediately for payment. Also, parties knowing themselves indebted to me will please settle up the same on or before the 25th day of July next; after that date I shall proceed to collect by legal process, irrespective of parties.

THE FIRST CANDIDATE.—Captain Rodgers announces himself as a candidate for County Recorder, in another column. The Captain is too generous a Democrat to expect any very complimentary remarks from us on his nomination, and so commending him to the attention of "ye untried Democracy," we hope he'll "read his titles clear" in the office.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—We have received triplicate manifests of the steamer "Lady Grace." In using the one from the clerk of the steamer, we divide our thanks (a thousand thanks) to our attentive correspondents, and we intend to have them re-remember us again. Will A. R. H. please make a note of this!

INFORMATION WANTED.—Of Geo. R. Ives was heard of last in Montana, two years ago. Any one knowing the whereabouts of him, please confer a favor by addressing J. Edward Ives, Bristol, Hartford Co., Conn. W-150151.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Of Justin Smiley, who is supposed to be somewhere in Montana Territory, for information of his whereabouts, they will confer a favor by addressing his brother, James Smiley, Virginia City, M. T. W-151.

REOPENED.—The Elephant Corral, one of the most convenient and largest in the city, has been leased by J. R. Taggart, and is now in the hands of the "traveller." It is a most commodious and moderate charges at the corner of Wallace and Cover streets. Give him a call. W-1518-18.

FOR SALE.—One small iron safe of approved manufacture, suitable for the shipment of treasure. Will sell for $100, or less, terms if applied for soon. Call on, or address, J. L. Witt-wit-wit. L. M. Black, Planters House.

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.—There are many causes why the survivors of the Army of the North and Navy should desire to maintain and perpetuate in the days of peace the organization and comradeship in which they were united for so long a period of their lives.

There are many causes why the survivors of the Army of the North and Navy should desire to maintain and perpetuate in the days of peace the organization and comradeship in which they were united for so long a period of their lives. It is an organization of an army of half a million veterans, who have proven their devotion to the Union by honorable service and discharge, and are willing through all the vicissitudes of life to stand by the Union, the blood of the "Fathers" and comrades who sleep with the peaceful dead, is a standing and powerful argument against future rebellion.

DEFINING HIS POSITION.—"Uncle John Stanton" is disgusted with the Democrat nomination for Delegate. He authorizes us to state that he is square set against it, and will not vote for it.

IN ERROR.—The Herald says, "Col. A. K. McClure has, we are very proud to be able to state, finally cut loose from his old moorings in Pennsylvania, and has moved to Montana to establish himself in the prime of his life as a permanent resident of Montana."

EPISCOPALIAN.—Right Rev. Bishop Dana, of the Episcopal Diocese of Montana and Idaho, accompanied by Rev. Edward N. Goddard, arrived per last coach from the States.

RECRUITING.—Captain Turner has been commissioned to recruit a company of service in the militia, and has opened an office in his place.

GURNEY & CO.'S BOOTS & SHOES AT REDUCED PRICES.—Having received the latest and best styles of boots and shoes, we have made a large reduction in price, and are now selling at a great discount.

VOUCHERS.—Vouchers will be taken at the Star Billiard Hall, 75 cents on the dollar. Vouchers of any size will be received on deposit for accounts, and receipts given for balance.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER.—The platform and proceedings of the Democratic party to Monday night should have appeared in our paper. It is a pity that it has not, and we are glad to see it in the hands of the ordinarily very careful gentlemen connected with the Express department of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office at Helena, to put that box on the coach, and to send it to our readers.

WANTED.—By the local reporter of this paper—a better chance for items that existed yesterday, or a dose of prussic acid; items preferred.

THE NEW LOCATION.—Gurney & Co. have removed to the store room recently occupied by the Star Billiard Hall, and moving their business to the new location.

JUST RECEIVED.—One hundred barrels Old Bourbon Whisky, manufactured in Nelson Co., Ky. For sale in lots to suit purchasers. Also, a general assortment of groceries, provisions, and all Lake produce. W. F. BIRKETT, Virginia, July 12, 1867. W-1316-17.

TRY IT AND SEE.—Do you like good ale, "jolly good ale, and old?" Then go to "Pooy and try that 'Muir & Sand's' imported ale. It is a jolly good ale, and is as good as any other. It is a jolly good ale, and is as good as any other. It is a jolly good ale, and is as good as any other.

HOME AGAIN.—The greater portion of the Madison delegation to the Democratic Convention in Helena, returned from that place per last coach.

DELIGHTFUL.—We had two inches of snow in this place on Thursday morning. It only melted away on Friday evening, and the vegetation looks all the better of it.

TURN OUT.—All members of the Union League should attend the meeting this evening, as interesting topics will be discussed.

ATTENTION, COMRADES!—Post No. 1, G. O. A., meets every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. By order of [signature] COMMANDER.

ATTENTION!—U. I. A. of Virginia City. Meetings, every Saturday evening, Jan. 21, at 7 o'clock. CITY BOOK STORE.—Blank books, stationery, Ready Reckoners, etc.

THE READY RECKONER.—Of course you want one. Saves time, trouble and errors.

REMOVAL OF GURNEY & CO.—In straggling about town yesterday we noticed that Gurney & Co. had removed their business to the new location.

NEW PUBLICATION.—We have been kindly furnished by the author with advance sheets of the new publication of the Salt Lake Telegraph, a work entitled "Solace for Saints; or, Fritters from the Frying Pan of a Melancholy Mormon," by "An Antelope." It is a most interesting and valuable work, and is well worth the attention of all who are interested in the progress of the Church. It is published by the author, and is well worth the attention of all who are interested in the progress of the Church.

MANIFEST.—Captain D. Haney; Clerk, J. C. Barr.
