

REPORTED BY THE W. U. TELEGRAPH COMPANY EXCLUSIVELY FOR THIS TRI-WEEKLY POST.

Annual Appropriations—Arming of Europe—A question of arbitration—Salvage opposes cessation—The Abyssinian war—Insurrection in Spain—The Chicago Convention—Quick justice in Omaha—Editors fined and imprisoned—The St. Thomas case—The removal of Hancock—A novel treaty—J. H. Harvey dead—Bank's Report—Postal Telegraph—New Department.

The Limit of reconstruction—Montana held to account—Rights of Naturalized Citizens—Henry Bell Suit—Disaffection in France—A Lord found guilty of bigamy—Seaman Emancipated—Santa Ana under suspension—St. Francis canonized—Retrospective National Bank—Finnish exploits—Destructive fire in Chicago—J. Ross Brown goes to China, and Robert Cox to Austria—Paris and London Destitution.

Washington, Jan. 24th.—House.—Washington reports the regular appropriation bill to be printed. The appropriations are between eighteen and nineteen millions. The morning hour was devoted to business of a private nature.

A large number of bills were reported from the Committee on Invalids and Pensions, and passed.

Ordered that the session to-morrow be devoted to general debate.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the bill to amend the act in relation to the payment of certain claims of the Government.

Ordered that the session to-morrow be devoted to general debate.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23rd.—The newspapers call attention to the fact that the new French army bill materially increases the power of Napoleon, and is sure to prompt him to assume a higher and a bolder tone in regard to European politics.

Paris, Jan. 23rd.—The Paris, editorially observes that Russia is the only power now in harmony with the rest of Europe.

The efforts to tranquilize the public mind by giving assurance of a prolonged peace are singularly antagonized by the facts that every power in Europe is actively engaged in armaments.

It is said the new French law will amount to seven hundred and fifty millions of francs, and will be surely put upon the market soon.

Washington, Jan. 24th.—Gen'l Pellerone died last night.

The case was argued in the Supreme Court to-day in which the State of Texas is a party. The question was, whether Congress having determined that Texas is not a State in the Union for the purpose of representation, it is not a State in the Union for the purpose of a suit in this Court.

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 24th.—The Convention passed a memorial asking Congress to appropriate one hundred thousand dollars to improve the navigation of the rivers of the State.

An ordinance was passed levying a tax of one cent per acre to defray the expenses of the Convention.

Memphis, Jan. 24th.—In the court room to-day, during a murder trial, an altercation ensued, in which Thomas Malone, Ex-Secretary of the State, was severely wounded.

Though the court room was crowded it is not known who fired the shot.

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 24th.—A house on Division street was burned to the ground. The occupants were perhaps fatally burned and two were injured by jumping from the windows.

Havana, Jan. 24th.—Advisers from Hayti report that Salnave is preparing for a vigorous campaign, and has openly avowed his intention to forcibly prevent the contemplated cessation of the civil war.

The fever prevails in a malignant form at St. Thomas. There have also been a number of cases of cholera.

Washington, Jan. 24th.—Baron Georff, the Prussian Minister, has delivered his credentials.

Paris, Jan. 25th.—The Government has of ficially notified the President of the various departments of France that the passage of the new army law, instead of being a war measure is a pledge of continued peace.

Washington, Jan. 25th.—Yesterday was devoted to specifying, the House sitting as Committee of the Whole. Speeches were limited to ten minutes. The Senate was not in session.

London, Jan. 25th.—The excitement over the Fenian movements still continues. Arrests are made daily. The Sheriff of the Island of Alderney has been removed for complicity with the Fenians and sent to prison to await trial.

The rumor is current in various parts of the Continent, and has even been extensively printed in the press, that the Emperor of Russia has secured the use of the United States Navy in case of war.

The President seemed determined not to recognize Stanton, as he has called on Grant for certain information in reply to the resolution of Congress, which legitimately should have been furnished by the War Department.

New York, Jan. 25th.—The deaths are announced of Lorenzo Draper, formerly Consul at Paris, and Lord Messenger of the American Board, just returned from Japan.

Dani announces that the New York Sun has passed under the control of the new associates and will be issued from the old Tammany Hall. It favors action for President.

Paris, Jan. 25th.—Ten newspapers of this city are fined one thousand francs each, for publishing an illegal report of the proceedings of the Corps Legislatif.

London, Jan. 25th.—Serious anti-Ministerial riots have occurred at Prague. The latest telegrams announce the suppression of discord without bloodshed.

It is announced that neither the North German, Lloyd, or Hamburg line will dispatch steamers to America next week. The reason is not stated.

Cork, Jan. 21th.—The Observer asserts that the last dispatches between Lord Stanley and Secretary Stewart finally closed the correspondence relative to the Alabama claims.

Copenhagen, Jan. 24th.—The Rigsdag has ratified the treaty for the transfer of St. Thomas, without dissenting voice. It now goes to the upper House for final action.

Little Rock, Ark., 25th.—The Convention has finally voted eight dollars per day, and thirty cents mileage each way. A committee was appointed to confer with the Convention General relative to drawing the money from the State Treasury.

Washington, Jan. 25th.—Conway, formerly agent of the Freedmen's Bureau in Louisiana, has arrived here, bringing a petition from the Radical Convention of La., asking the removal of Hancock from the office of Secretary of the Reconstruction Committee.

Quebec, Ontario, Jan. 25th.—A resolution was introduced in the House of Assembly to take into consideration the lamentable immigration of the inhabitants of the Province to the United States, and devise means to arrest the same.

London, Jan. 25th.—The latest dispatches from Ausley Bay show the British forces have made no advance beyond Senafe.

It is reported that the British ships are being sent to the coast of Senafe, and are being carefully guarded. Many ferries will be destroyed when the King's men of the British approach, but no demonstrations against their lives had yet been made, and their treatment remains unaltered.

It is officially denied in the public opinion member that any orders authorize the arrest of train men sent from the T. M. O. Co. The local authorities are notified on the local authorities.

Washington, Jan. 25th.—The new treaty with the Fejee Islands has reached the State Department. It is the first treaty since the late war, and is in favor of the purchase of Alaska and St. Thomas.

Havana, Jan. 25th.—Grand religious ceremonies were held in the Cathedral yesterday, and the day was celebrated for the disappearance of the cholera.

Repealer vessels leaving this port will receive clear bills of health.

Charleston, Jan. 27th.—The Convention has adopted a resolution requesting Gen'l Canby to suspend for three months the sale of property by the sheriff.

Washington, Jan. 28th.—Robt. J. Walker has written a long letter giving a history of the annexation of territory to the United States and in favor of the purchase of Alaska and St. Thomas.

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 28.—A squad of freedmen in Jasper county, Miss., way laid a posse of constables who were searching for thieves. Three were killed and five were wounded and captured.

House.—A large number of bills were introduced and referred. None of very special importance. The bill for the relief of the collector of public money within fifty miles of a city, which an assistant treasurer introduced, passed.

Logan introduced a bill to provide for a bureau of civil service. The House retained consideration of the bill declaring forfeited certain lands granted in aid of the construction of the Southern railroads.

In the Senate, petitions from the constitutional conventions of Virginia and Mississippi were presented, asking a modification of the bankrupt law.

Edmunds introduced a bill to regulate proceedings in case of impeachment, and to enforce orders of the Senate in such cases. Several other bills were introduced.

At the expiration of the morning hour the reconstruction bill was resumed, and Frelinghuysen took the floor.

London, Jan. 28.—The Martello Tower at Dunganon, near Wexford, Ireland, was attacked last night by a body of Fenians. The garrison fired upon the assailants, who fled, after returning the fire.

The Fenian blow has turned Queen's evidence and positively identified Barrett as the man who fired the fuse at Clerkenwell.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Two of the most fearful and destructive conflagrations that ever visited Chicago occurred to-night. The fire broke out at 2 o'clock in the store of S. C. Groggs & Co., the largest book selling and publishing house in the West.

The loss by this fire will probably reach a million dollars. While the conflagration was at its height, another broke out on Lake street, between Michigan Avenue and Wabash Avenue.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 28th.—Orders are issued providing for the election for the adoption of the Constitution. The polls will be opened at three places in each county, and remain open four days, beginning February Fourth.

Columbus, Jan. 27th.—Col. Beatty, Republican of the Ohio, has resigned the office of Secretary of the Ohio, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Hamilton.

New York, Jan. 27th.—Theophilus Gilcott has brought action against the New York Times, in the Kings County Court, for libel in charging him with having been bribed by the speaker of the Assembly to join the Republican. The damages asked are $50,000.

Washington, Jan. 28th.—The Secretary of War informs the House that no information has reached Headquarters that the troops are suffering from hunger or cold in Alaska.

London, Jan. 27th.—The Fenian prisoner, who publishes a letter denying any knowledge of the Glasgow explosion, says if it was intended to kill, he has cried out in indignation of such a purpose.

Letters from Paris say the Prefects of Departments report a very unfavorable state of feeling throughout the country on account of the adoption of the bill which would suspend the operations of the bill in all the Departments.

Paris, Jan. 27th.—The Monitor publishes the report of Moque, recently appointed by the Minister of Finance on the financial condition and necessities of the Empire. He says the military preparation on account of the Luxembourg difficulty, involved a heavy expense.

London, Jan. 27th.—A gun shop in this city was entered by a party of Fenians who carried off half a ton of powder. The police made twelve arrests.

London, Jan. 21st.—The trial of Sir Cullum Girdly for bigamy was concluded to-day. It was proven he was married in London, while the wife he married in New York was still living. The Judge decided the New York marriage was valid, and sentenced the accused to eighteen months imprisonment at hard labor.

Savannah, Jan. 27th.—The famous Imperial Gen'l Miquel arrived yesterday from New Orleans. He was captured in New York and went in disguise on a South American vessel.

Dispatches from Mexico say: Romero has accepted the appointment of Secretary of the Treasury.

San Francisco, Jan. 28.—The Senate passed the bill removing the disabilities of R. M. Patton.

Havana, Jan. 28.—It is reported that the Captain General of Cuba has assured Juarez that Santa Anna will not be permitted to undertake any filibustering expedition.

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 28.—A squad of freedmen in Jasper county, Miss., way laid a posse of constables who were searching for thieves. Three were killed and five were wounded and captured.

New York, Jan. 28.—The Tribune special says the committee on appropriations will report the appropriation bills for the legislative and executive departments soon. They cut down the Secretary of the Navy's estimate twenty millions. The estimates of other departments will be decreased in the same proportion. The committee have been making a thorough examination of all the departments, and in all recommended a large reduction of the clerical forces and the abolition of a number of offices, deeming them useless.

United States.—The bill passed after an amendment extending the provisions to collectors of public money within fifty miles of a city, which an assistant treasurer introduced, passed.

Logan introduced a bill to provide for a bureau of civil service. The House retained consideration of the bill declaring forfeited certain lands granted in aid of the construction of the Southern railroads.

In the Senate, petitions from the constitutional conventions of Virginia and Mississippi were presented, asking a modification of the bankrupt law.

Edmunds introduced a bill to regulate proceedings in case of impeachment, and to enforce orders of the Senate in such cases. Several other bills were introduced.

At the expiration of the morning hour the reconstruction bill was resumed, and Frelinghuysen took the floor.

London, Jan. 28.—The Martello Tower at Dunganon, near Wexford, Ireland, was attacked last night by a body of Fenians. The garrison fired upon the assailants, who fled, after returning the fire.

The Fenian blow has turned Queen's evidence and positively identified Barrett as the man who fired the fuse at Clerkenwell.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Two of the most fearful and destructive conflagrations that ever visited Chicago occurred to-night. The fire broke out at 2 o'clock in the store of S. C. Groggs & Co., the largest book selling and publishing house in the West.

The loss by this fire will probably reach a million dollars. While the conflagration was at its height, another broke out on Lake street, between Michigan Avenue and Wabash Avenue.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 28th.—Orders are issued providing for the election for the adoption of the Constitution. The polls will be opened at three places in each county, and remain open four days, beginning February Fourth.

Columbus, Jan. 27th.—Col. Beatty, Republican of the Ohio, has resigned the office of Secretary of the Ohio, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Hamilton.

New York, Jan. 27th.—Theophilus Gilcott has brought action against the New York Times, in the Kings County Court, for libel in charging him with having been bribed by the speaker of the Assembly to join the Republican. The damages asked are $50,000.

Washington, Jan. 28th.—The Secretary of War informs the House that no information has reached Headquarters that the troops are suffering from hunger or cold in Alaska.

London, Jan. 27th.—The Fenian prisoner, who publishes a letter denying any knowledge of the Glasgow explosion, says if it was intended to kill, he has cried out in indignation of such a purpose.

Letters from Paris say the Prefects of Departments report a very unfavorable state of feeling throughout the country on account of the adoption of the bill which would suspend the operations of the bill in all the Departments.

Paris, Jan. 27th.—The Monitor publishes the report of Moque, recently appointed by the Minister of Finance on the financial condition and necessities of the Empire. He says the military preparation on account of the Luxembourg difficulty, involved a heavy expense.

London, Jan. 27th.—A gun shop in this city was entered by a party of Fenians who carried off half a ton of powder. The police made twelve arrests.

London, Jan. 21st.—The trial of Sir Cullum Girdly for bigamy was concluded to-day. It was proven he was married in London, while the wife he married in New York was still living. The Judge decided the New York marriage was valid, and sentenced the accused to eighteen months imprisonment at hard labor.

Savannah, Jan. 27th.—The famous Imperial Gen'l Miquel arrived yesterday from New Orleans. He was captured in New York and went in disguise on a South American vessel.

Dispatches from Mexico say: Romero has accepted the appointment of Secretary of the Treasury.

San Francisco, Jan. 28.—The Senate passed the bill removing the disabilities of R. M. Patton.

Havana, Jan. 28.—It is reported that the Captain General of Cuba has assured Juarez that Santa Anna will not be permitted to undertake any filibustering expedition.

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 28.—A squad of freedmen in Jasper county, Miss., way laid a posse of constables who were searching for thieves. Three were killed and five were wounded and captured.

New York, Jan. 28.—The Tribune special says the committee on appropriations will report the appropriation bills for the legislative and executive departments soon. They cut down the Secretary of the Navy's estimate twenty millions. The estimates of other departments will be decreased in the same proportion. The committee have been making a thorough examination of all the departments, and in all recommended a large reduction of the clerical forces and the abolition of a number of offices, deeming them useless.

N. W. T. CO. Quick Time!

Cheap Rates! The North-West Transportation Company!

INCORPORATED under the general Incorporation law of the State of Iowa, will start upon the opening of navigation on the Upper Missouri River, between St. Louis and Sioux City & Ft. Benton.

1,000 MILES! Of the most dangerous and difficult river navigation, lessening thereby the rates of insurance.

One-Third at Least! For information regarding rates, call at the office in NEW YORK, 325 Broadway.

BOSTON, 15 State Street. CHICAGO, 53 Clark Street. ST. LOUIS, 512 Walnut Street.

JOAB LAWRENCE, President.

Great Tumble! PRICES!

TOOTLE, LEACH & CO. Are now receiving and opening the first installment of their

Mammoth Stock OF STAPLE AND Fancy Dry Goods

Yankee Notions! HARDWARE, CARPETS, QUEENSWARE,

Boots & Shoes. STATIONERY LADIES' AND GENTS' Hats and Caps!

OUR STOCK

Defy Competition

Masonic Temple Building, VIRGINIA, MONTANA.

F. R. Monk & Co. Greenbacks! AT PAR

Wallace Street, VIRGINIA, - MONTANA. DEALERS IN Fancy and Staple GROCERIES, LIQUORS, QUEENSWARE, WOODENWARE, HARDWARE, TINWARE, STOVES, &c.

IN CONNECTION, HAVE A TIN-SHOP!

Where we are prepared to execute all kinds of job work, with neatness and dispatch. PRICES TO SUIT THE TIMES.

Fire-Proof Stone Warehouses.

W. F. BARTLIT, GENERAL

Storage and Commission Merchant COR. WALLACE AND VA BUREN STS.

Wines, Liquors, GROCERIES, AND MINERS' TOOLS

Salt Lake Consignments!

SPECIAL NOTICES. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

Is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs.

HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU gives health and vigor to the frame and bloom to the pallid cheek. Debility is accompanied by many alarming symptoms, and if no treatment is submitted, consumption, insanity or epileptic is certain.

Notice. During my absence from Montana, Mr. P. A. Lacey, of the firm of E. O'Connell & Co., Virginia City, is authorized to transact all my business.

Notice. I AM closing up the business of JOHN HOWE in Virginia City, and according to instructions, all accounts payable on the 1st of January, 1868, will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection.

Notice. JAMES P. ISAACS is no longer connected with the mill, mining property or business of McAndrew, Wann & Co., authorized by a full power of attorney to transact all their business in Montana.

Notice. To whom it may concern: M. Wm. D. Wann has just arrived from New York and is the duly accredited agent of McAndrew, Wann & Co., authorized by a full power of attorney to transact all their business in this Territory. No contracts made in their name after this date by any other person will be of any validity whatever.

Sterling Express. THIS Express will leave Virginia City every Tuesday and Saturday for Sterling, and leave Sterling for Virginia City every Monday and Friday. Letters and packages entrusted to us will be forwarded with care and dispatch. Office at J. E. Kelly's store, Virginia City. Collections made in Hot Springs district and made promptly returned. FISH & TOHRE.