

Congressional.

Washington, 25th.—Senate.—Edmunds reported the bill repealing the Tenth of Office act, with amendments, leaving the Cabinet...

REPORTED FOR THE POST.

Mrs. Lincoln Petitions. Washington, Dec. 25.—The following petition was today presented to the Senate...

Washington, Dec. 25.—The following petition was today presented to the Senate...

Frankfort-on-the-Main, Germany. Referred to Committee on Penitentiaries.

France. Paris, January 24.—The Chinese Embassy had an audience today with the Emperor...

Washington Talk.—The Real Estate Market. Chicago, January 24.—The Times' Washington special says, the evidence in the Alaska investigation is pretty near all in and shows...

It is learned that the negotiations of Mr. Seward with the Republic of Colombia...

New York, Jan. 24.—Secretary Seward has submitted to the Senate the correspondence...

Havana, Jan. 21.—Several soldiers belonging to the volunteer and regular force were assassinated today.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—One of the most cold-blooded murders ever perpetrated in this city...

Detroit, Jan. 21.—The Olympic Theatre was totally destroyed by fire last night...

New York, Jan. 25.—10 p. m.—An Havana letter of the 14th, states the insurgent chiefs are reported not to be in accord.

Boston, Jan. 25.—The extensive Pork Packing and Lard establishment of Boynton, Swallow & Co., Brighton, was destroyed by fire last night...

London, Jan. 25.—Reverdy Johnson has accepted an invitation to dine with the Corporation authorities of Manchester in February.

Havana, January 25.—Shots have been fired from the house tops at volunteers in several instances.

A serious affray occurred at the General Louvre House. The volunteers fired upon the guests indiscriminately with fatal effect.

Havana, Jan. 25.—10 p. m.—All quarters of the city, inside and outside the walls, is quiet. Nothing has occurred to-night to disturb the public tranquility.

New York Sailors' Strike. New York, Jan. 25.—The sailors of every nationality struck for thirty dollars per month and marched in procession to Franklin Square...

Grant on the Alabama Treaty. New York, Jan. 26.—The Tribune's Washington special has the following: "General Grant is opposed to the pending Alabama treaty."

Montréal. Montreal, Jan. 26.—The English press strongly protest against the Quebec Legislature giving free grants of land to 10,000 French Canadians who want to return to Canada from the United States.

Morton moved to take up the House bill for the relief of Mrs. McKoskin, postponed at the last session. A discussion ensued until the expiration of the morning hour...

The bill relating to the central branch of the U. P. R. R. was taken up. Sherman moved to postpone and take up his financial bill.

Howard opposed the motion, and urged the friends of the branch bill to keep it before the Senate.

Sherman's motion lost, 21 to 30. Central branch bill was read at 11 o'clock.

The Denver Pacific R. R. Bill. Washington, Jan. 22.—House.—Several bills were introduced, including two railroad grant bills.

Robinson offered a resolution declaring the American people do not approve the ratification of the Alabama treaty nor any other treaty with England while American citizens are held in prison in Great Britain for acts under the American flag.

Jencks offered a resolution to pay the Arkansas members for the full term of the 40th Congress.

Washington moved to lay the resolution on the table. Lost 79 to 88. Resolution referred to Committee on Reconstruction.

The House resumed consideration of the bill granting the right of way to the Denver Pacific Railroad.

Logan addressed the House in opposition to the bill. Windom and Schenck spoke in favor of the bill. The latter said, in reply to the statement by Logan, that even if it was against the wish of the President elect he should vote according to his own judgment and sense of duty...

Covode closed the debate in its favor, and moved the previous question on its passage. Washburne moved to table the bill, and moved a call of the House. He wanted all the members to be present and show their hands.

The call of the House was not ordered. The House refused to table the bill by yeas 85, yeas 95. The House refused to second the previous question, and the bill was referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Senate.—Sherman said the Committee on Finance directed him to report a resolution providing for the appointment, at the beginning of next session of a joint-committee of five Senators and five Representatives, with separate and apart from the recess of the Forty-first Congress to examine and report upon the expediency of reorganizing the civil service in the several Departments of the Government...

Morrill, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported back the pension appropriation bill with amendments, reducing the appropriation for invalid pensioners from ten to nine millions, and other army pensions from thirteen to ten millions; also, the military academy appropriation bill, with slight amendments.

Kellogg introduced a bill to aid the construction of the Pacific Transit Railway and Telegraph from New Orleans to some point on the Rio Grande in the direction of San Blas, on the Pacific. Referred to the Committee on Pacific Railroads.

Augusta, Ga., Jan. 25.—Ex-Gov. Pickens died at Edgefield, S. C., to-day.

Hartford, Jan. 27.—The Democratic Convention is well attended at New London. S. M. Waller presided, and made a strong speech in favor of paying the bonds in gold. Resolutions were adopted ignoring the Tammany platform, and the old ticket nominated.

Trenton, Jan. 27.—The Legislature in joint session to-day declared John P. Stockton elected Senator, and elected Wm. P. Michael State Treasurer.

Albany, Jan. 28.—The Underground railroad bill for New York City was introduced in the Senate to-day. A bill abolishing the death penalty was also introduced in the Assembly.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Senate.—Howe, to the great amusement of the Senators, presented a memorial praying the appointment of a competent phrenologist to examine the heads of all candidates for Internal Revenue appointments, to the end that Government shall no longer suffer from frauds, now so prevalent in that department. Referred to Committee on Retrenchment.

The Speaker recapitulated the business before the House. After discussion, a motion to recommit the specie resumption bill to the Committee on Banking, was carried.

The constitutional amendment and a bill relating to suffrage were postponed until after the morning hour, with the substitutes offered by Bingham and others.

Bingham's substitute provides that no State shall have or enforce any law which shall abridge or deny to any citizen of the United States of sound mind and over 21 years of age, the usual exercise of the elective franchise...

Howard opposed the motion, and urged the friends of the branch bill to keep it before the Senate.

Sherman's motion lost, 21 to 30. Central branch bill was read at 11 o'clock.

The Denver Pacific R. R. Bill. Washington, Jan. 22.—House.—Several bills were introduced, including two railroad grant bills.

Robinson offered a resolution declaring the American people do not approve the ratification of the Alabama treaty nor any other treaty with England while American citizens are held in prison in Great Britain for acts under the American flag.

Jencks offered a resolution to pay the Arkansas members for the full term of the 40th Congress.

Washington moved to lay the resolution on the table. Lost 79 to 88. Resolution referred to Committee on Reconstruction.

The House resumed consideration of the bill granting the right of way to the Denver Pacific Railroad.

Logan addressed the House in opposition to the bill. Windom and Schenck spoke in favor of the bill. The latter said, in reply to the statement by Logan, that even if it was against the wish of the President elect he should vote according to his own judgment and sense of duty...

Covode closed the debate in its favor, and moved the previous question on its passage. Washburne moved to table the bill, and moved a call of the House. He wanted all the members to be present and show their hands.

The call of the House was not ordered. The House refused to table the bill by yeas 85, yeas 95. The House refused to second the previous question, and the bill was referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Senate.—Sherman said the Committee on Finance directed him to report a resolution providing for the appointment, at the beginning of next session of a joint-committee of five Senators and five Representatives, with separate and apart from the recess of the Forty-first Congress to examine and report upon the expediency of reorganizing the civil service in the several Departments of the Government...

Morrill, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported back the pension appropriation bill with amendments, reducing the appropriation for invalid pensioners from ten to nine millions, and other army pensions from thirteen to ten millions; also, the military academy appropriation bill, with slight amendments.

Kellogg introduced a bill to aid the construction of the Pacific Transit Railway and Telegraph from New Orleans to some point on the Rio Grande in the direction of San Blas, on the Pacific. Referred to the Committee on Pacific Railroads.

Augusta, Ga., Jan. 25.—Ex-Gov. Pickens died at Edgefield, S. C., to-day.

Hartford, Jan. 27.—The Democratic Convention is well attended at New London. S. M. Waller presided, and made a strong speech in favor of paying the bonds in gold. Resolutions were adopted ignoring the Tammany platform, and the old ticket nominated.

Trenton, Jan. 27.—The Legislature in joint session to-day declared John P. Stockton elected Senator, and elected Wm. P. Michael State Treasurer.

Albany, Jan. 28.—The Underground railroad bill for New York City was introduced in the Senate to-day. A bill abolishing the death penalty was also introduced in the Assembly.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Senate.—Howe, to the great amusement of the Senators, presented a memorial praying the appointment of a competent phrenologist to examine the heads of all candidates for Internal Revenue appointments, to the end that Government shall no longer suffer from frauds, now so prevalent in that department. Referred to Committee on Retrenchment.

key is heavily arming. The Sultan confidently expects peace as the result of the Paris Conference.

Remarkable Case of Trance. Chicago, Jan. 26.—A singular case of trance is reported in Burlington, Wisconsin. A young girl of fourteen years of age told her parents she was going to sleep, but they must not bury her, for she should not be dead, for nineteen days after she had been in this state of trance in the coffin. No trace of life is discoverable, but no signs of decay, only a sinking away of the cheeks. The case attracts much attention.

American killed in Cuba. Havana, Jan. 26.—The United States Consul, yesterday, formally demanded of Gen. Dulce the body of Samuel Collier, the American photographer killed by armed men belonging to the volunteer force. He wished to be informed whether the Government was prepared to send a list of Americans to the Government and authorized the body of Collier to be immediately delivered. Last night passed quietly.

General News. Washington, Jan. 25.—A number of retired officers of the Army, by direction of the President, are relieved from present assignment and allowed to go to their homes.

Paris, Jan. 25.—It is rumored that the cities of Seville and Cadex have proclaimed in favor of the Duke of Montpensier for King of Spain.

New York, Jan. 26.—The Lawrence, Mass., American (General Bank's) district, of the 23d inst., referring to the controversy about General Bank having been appointed super-charge General Grant, says: "We happen personally to know that the official autographic orders are now in the hands of General Grant."

Chicago, Jan. 26.—The Journal's special says the caucus of Republican Senators this morning decided to confirm no more appointments this session, except in cases where a vacancy actually exists.

Washington, Jan. 26.—It is rumored the citizens of Washington, without respect to party, intend to have an inauguration ball. The Supreme Court of the District, in obedience to an order of the Supreme Court of the U. S., has rescinded the order debarring Bradley from practice in the Court, but makes a new rule that no one suspended in any Court of the District shall practice in one of the branches of the Supreme Court of the District, thus practically leaving Bradley in statu quo.

Edward D. Neal of Minnesota, has been nominated for Commissioner of Education in place of D. Barnard.

Alvah Bissell was yesterday sentenced to three years imprisonment for defrauding the revenue, and will tomorrow be brought up again for trial on a charge of subornation and perjury.

The War Department has received dispatches from Gen. Sherman detailing his recent operations against the Indians. Also a letter from Gen. Hazen declaring that Black Kettle's band were on a warlike expedition when attacked by Custer.

The Maryland litigation called in a body on the President's attention to add their voices to the petition for the pardon of Dr. Mudd. The President gave them encouragement that Mudd and other political prisoners would be pardoned before the 4th of March.

General Hancock was before the Military Committee of the House, and questioned concerning the army bill.

New York, Jan. 26.—Thos. McGibbons, an escaped convict suspected of complicity in the Rogers murder, was arrested in Patterson, New Jersey, yesterday.

Hartford, Jan. 27.—The Democratic Convention is well attended at New London. S. M. Waller presided, and made a strong speech in favor of paying the bonds in gold. Resolutions were adopted ignoring the Tammany platform, and the old ticket nominated.

Trenton, Jan. 27.—The Legislature in joint session to-day declared John P. Stockton elected Senator, and elected Wm. P. Michael State Treasurer.

Albany, Jan. 28.—The Underground railroad bill for New York City was introduced in the Senate to-day. A bill abolishing the death penalty was also introduced in the Assembly.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Senate.—Howe, to the great amusement of the Senators, presented a memorial praying the appointment of a competent phrenologist to examine the heads of all candidates for Internal Revenue appointments, to the end that Government shall no longer suffer from frauds, now so prevalent in that department. Referred to Committee on Retrenchment.

Morrill, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported back the pension appropriation bill with amendments, reducing the appropriation for invalid pensioners from ten to nine millions, and other army pensions from thirteen to ten millions; also, the military academy appropriation bill, with slight amendments.

Kellogg introduced a bill to aid the construction of the Pacific Transit Railway and Telegraph from New Orleans to some point on the Rio Grande in the direction of San Blas, on the Pacific. Referred to the Committee on Pacific Railroads.

Augusta, Ga., Jan. 25.—Ex-Gov. Pickens died at Edgefield, S. C., to-day.

No. 63 Main St JOHN P. FINK & CO., WHOLESALE Custom-Made Gents' Ladies' BOOTS, Boys' Misses' WE have just received our first train, comprising in all and every variety of Boot and Shoes. Upper and Sole Leather, and shoe-finding, which we offer at Wholesale Jobbing Prices! NO. 63 MAIN STREET.

Wholesale and Retail Druggists, 64 Main St., Helena, MONTANA. IN PERFUMERIES, SOAPS, BRUSHES, COMBS, TRUSSES AND BANDAGES, IN REPORTS, CIRCULARS AND MINING CHEMICALS, OILS. Messrs. Welch & Poppe pay special attention to preparing PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS AND FAMILY RECEIPTS, and from long experience therein, with the aid of fresh drugs and pure chemicals, furnish them in the most accurate and reliable manner. DEPOT FOR HOSTESS' BITTERS, AYERS', JAYNES' and Hemmell's medicines, Hamburg, Wis., London.

WARREN HUSSEY & CO., Denver and Central City, Colorado Territory. HUSSEY, DAHLER & CO., Salt Lake City, Utah, and Helena, M. T. BANKERS, AND DEALERS IN GOLD DUST, COIN AND CURRENCY. DRAW EXCHANGE ON Salt Lake, Denver, St. Louis, New York, and On All Parts of Europe. Collections promptly attended to. Miners' Exchange Saloon LOUIS CLAREY, Formerly of the Lafayette Brewery, PROPRIETOR. Next Door above the Crystal Palace, Main St. THE Subscriber solicits from his old friends and customers, and the public generally a continuance of that liberal patronage with which he was favored at the old stand, promising them that they may always obtain at his new establishment, the best cigars, wines, beer and liquors of every description to be found in the Territory. LOUIS CLAREY.

NOTICE TO MINERS. U. S. LAND OFFICE, Helena, M. T., Jan. 19, 1893. HORATIO N. FREEMAN, having this day made application to show that the South half of the North West quarter of Section No. 26, in Township No. Nine (9) North of Range No. Three (3) West, is non-mineral land, all parties having claims thereto, are hereby notified to appear at this office at 10 o'clock A. M. on Tuesday the 24th day of February, A. D. 1893, to contest the same. FRANCIS M. DUFFEE, is also hereby notified to appear at the same time and place to contest the right of the said Freeman, to the above described tract. O. B. O'BANNON, Register.

NOTICE TO SETTLERS. UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE, Helena, M. T., Dec. 14th, 1892. NOTICE is hereby given that the following described Township Plats have been filed in this office, and lands therein will be open for entry under the Homestead and Pre-emption laws from and after the 15th day of December, A. D. 1892, to-wit: Township No. Nine, (9) North of Range No. Two, (2) West. Township No. Nine, (9) North of Range No. Three, (3) West. Both of the above described Townships are returned by the Surveyor General as "Mineral Lands." Settlers upon lands in the aforesaid Townships are hereby notified to file their Declaratory Statements and Homestead Applications at this office, within three months from the 15th day of December, A. D. 1892; otherwise their rights will be forfeited. O. B. O'BANNON, Register.

BELANGER & ALLEN, SILVER BOW CITY, DEER LODGE COUNTY, MONTANA. Dealers in GENERAL MERCHANDISE. A well selected Stock of Groceries, HARDWARE, SADDLERY, Liquors, Tobaccos. Always on hand. The only Prospectors. SNYDERS, WINGERT & CO., PIONEER TANNERY, Mill Creek, MONTANA TERRITORY. WE are now prepared to furnish a superior quality of the following kinds of leathers and tanned skins.

PIONEER TANNERY, AND WARRANTED. Equal in Tannage, Finish and Durability to the very best quality of Eastern tanned Leather. FIRST QUALITY SOLE LEATHER, per lb. 58 cts. FINISHED CALF SKINS, per dozen, $60 to $110. FAIR AND COLORED SHEEP SKINS, per dozen, $16 to $19. FINISHED UPPER, per Side, $5 to $9. Notice the reduction in price! BEING PRACTICAL TANNERS OURSELVES and determined that Montana shall supply her own leather, we are daily turning finished leather of all classes, which for quality and price we DEFY COMPETITION! We have appointed the following persons as Agents for the sale of stock, where manufacturers and consumers are respectfully solicited to call and examine. NICK MILLEN, [Gurney & Co.] - HELENA W. P. ARMSTRONG, Wallace St. - VIRGINIA SNYDERS, WINGERT & CO., Proprietors, PIONEER TANNERY, Mill Creek, M. T. Warning! WHEREAS, my Wife Christina Martin has left my bed and board without just cause and provocation on the 17th of December 1892. Therefore, I hereby warn the public not to harbor or trust her on my account, as I will not satisfy any debts contracted by her. CHRIST. MARTIN, Beartown, Dec. 13, 1892. MASONIC BLANKS every variety and style neatly executed at Office of the Montana Post.