Local Notices.—One dollar per line for three lines or less...

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 29th.

THE CITY.

Alex. H. Beattie, Local Editor.

From the Daily of Friday.

REVENUE.—We believe that the commercial standing and character of a locality or city is still judged somewhat by the amount of revenue derived therefrom...

COAL.—Mr. O'Bannon yesterday received a load of bituminous coal from the mines on the Dearborn...

MISSOULA.—From Mr. Junius G. Sanders, who has just returned from an extended trip through this portion of our Territory...

CHIEF JUSTICE'S DEPARTURE.—Chief Justice H. I. Warren leaves this morning for Quincy, Ill., where his family are at present...

The above notice we find in the Democrat of Virginia City, which we endorse.

DR. MITCHELL.—We are glad to learn, is doing very well. The bleeding has been stopped, and no further fears are entertained of his recovery...

GOODS.—We noticed several loads of goods being shipped to different parts of the Territory yesterday...

From Saturday's Daily.

TRIPLETS.—The natural equilibrium of our city life was disturbed considerably by the announcement, yesterday morning...

dent that time alone is needed to make Montana peerless as a producing country...

COL. SANDERS.—This morning's coach took from us, among other citizens, Colonel Wilbur F. Sanders, one of Montana's most distinguished citizens...

JAMES W. WHITLATCH popularly known throughout the States as the "Quartz King of Montana," goes per same conveyance on a mission that is fraught with prosperity to our Territory...

COMMENTARY.—About the 7th day of January, Gov. Pollinger and C. A. Broadwater while on their way to Benton, overtook a man by the name of Nelson Brennan...

QUARTZ PURCHASE.—We learn from reliable authority that John Potter, Esq., yesterday concluded the purchase of 200 feet on the Park quartz lode...

FRANK TAYLOR, of the wholesale firm of Taylor, Thompson & Co., also left "the Eastern lands to see."

BOZEMAN.—Wilson & Rich's teams arrived yesterday from Bozeman, loaded with grain and country produce...

PERSONAL.—Hon. Wm. H. Claggett left this morning for his home in Deer Lodge City...

CABLE CITY.—Mr. William Nolan arrived last night from Cable City, bringing with him 329 ounces of gold retort...

the result of one week's run of the Nolan mill. This mill is at present engaged on another run.

POLICE COURT.—Justice was agitated yesterday over a complaint preferred by Mrs. Frank Takats against Deputy Sheriff Smith...

DEER LODGE ITEMS.—The Hon. Walter B. Dance upon his arrival at his home in Deer Lodge City, was honored with a grand reception. The citizens assembled at his residence and complimented the Judge with a serenade...

SKATING RINK.—Each succeeding day this fashionable place of resort gains new devotees who are more or less skilled in one of the most graceful amusements that Pleasure ever extended to beguile the waking hours of her most devoted votaries...

TOM B. WADE, Esq., the Local Editor of the Montana Democrat in the last issue of that paper says "Good Bye" to the public, and retires from the Local tripod as gracefully as he takes a joke...

VIRGINIA CITY LOCALS.—From the Democrat we gather that Geo. M. Pinney, Esq., arrived in Virginia City in due season...

PRESENTATION.—On Saturday night Cornelius Hedges, Esq. was the recipient of a magnificent testimonial from a large number of his friends...

Mr. Hedges replied in a feeling and elegant manner. We are well satisfied that this testimonial could not have been better bestowed or to one more worthy.

TEN MILE MINING COMPANY.—We call the attention of our citizens to the notice published in another column, calling for a miner's meeting of all those owning claims in Ten Mile district...

THANKS.—Mr. Samuel Hardesty, in behalf of himself and wife, desires us to tender their sincere and heartfelt thanks for the many kindnesses which they have received from the citizens of Helena...

FROM GRAVE TO GAY.—"Little they know, or even think, of the work there is in shoddy ink by the busy writers of pencil and pen—Generally known as newspaper men—Who must be ready night and day. With paragraph, article or essay, "Brief Jottings," "In General," "Spice of Life," "Variations," and rumors arise. "Saturday Notes, and Sunday news," "All sorts of Paragraphs" to amuse, Market Reports, and marine disasters, Puffs of pills and patent plasters, News at the theatre in white exalt, Clean hammer coat and opera hat; Then to the prize ring, where you write Sizzling details of a bloody fight—Back to town, just in time To report the sermon of some divine, Steamboat collisions, smash up of trains, Election returns to bother your brains, Ejecta dramatic, with long-winded story. To write up his star to theatrical glory. Deaths and marriages, murders, rows, Balls and parties, minstrel shows, Stock speculations, bubbles of air, Tossed about by bull and bear; Praising the limb in the dancer's pose, And next the calves in cattle shows; Fend it hand at the racing course, Taking the time of a trotting horse; Jotting down each stroke and catch Made in a famous base ball match; Now of a street row taking a note—And then of a row in a college boat. These are few of the many things, At which the tireless pencil swings."

ISABELLA has written an autobiography. Senator Pomeroy is styled "the father of eleven Pacific railroad bills."

A domestic bird—a duck of a wife. Chayenne has six papers. Fashionable name for stockings—foot gloves.

"Madame Moore," the pedestrian, is licensed in Buffalo to wear male attire. Dentists are favored with more open countenances than any other class.

The best "vest" for the season—the harness. Saw-dust calves are the easiest to winter.

The latest name for matrimony—committing twocide. The only ever-lasting people on earth are shoemakers.
