FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 19th. Alex. H. Beattie, Local Editor

THE CITY.

From Tuesday's Daily.

ORATION.—The most interesting feature of the great Fenian celebration, Wednesday the 17th day of March, will be the oration delivered at the Helena Theatre by Major Martin Maginnis, Editor of the Rocky Mountain Gazette. The Major has most appropriately selected as his subject on that occasion "The Life and Services of General Thomas Francis Meagher." Into no better hands could be entrusted an able review of the life and services of this distinguished son of Erin's Isle. No mind could better conceive, no heart more vividly inspire, the words of eulogy that will fall from the lips of the orator in grateful tribute to the memory of one beloved and honored while among his fellow men, and deeply mourned when he is left of that eventful life but the recollection of his brave deeds, his genius and his brilliant though brief career, for Major Maginnis was not only intimately acquainted with the illustrious deceased in the private walks of life, but stood with him upon the field of carnage when the battle shock unbarred the portals of the grave. He is an eloquent speaker, clear yet comprehensive in argument, forcible in manner and elegant in diction. We know it will be well worth the attendance of our citizens and we expect to record an overflowing house.

VIRGINIA CITY ITEMS.—From the Democrat we learn that big pay has been struck at Ramshorn Gulch. The new diggings pay from $4 to $5 to the pan. This, evidently, is rather a heavy extraction on the facts, but we were advised that this gulch promised well last fall, when much prospecting was done and good paying ground taken up. Several teams have started for Salt Lake to load with return freight for Virginia City. They are loaded with oats and barley for Salt Lake. This enterprise, if it is successful, inaugurates a new era in the agricultural pursuits of Montana. The Fenians of Virginia are determined to have a grand time on the 17th. The Council Chamber is being tastefully arranged for the Terpsichorean peculiarities, and Conway of the "Crescent" ministers to the "Feast of reason and the flow of soul." We are confident from past observation, that it will be a grand and successful affair.

GRAND JURY REPORT.—The Territorial Grand Jury, after transacting the business which was placed before them, inspected the County Jail and County Hospital, and in their report, which we give below, complimented in very flattering terms one of our most worthy citizens, which we are assured is well merited.

To the Hon. the Judge 3d Judicial District Court, Lewis and Clarke county, Montana Territory: The Jurors of the Grand Jury of the County of Lewis and Clarke, aforesaid, respectfully report that they have examined the County Hospital in Helena, in said county, and found the same in an excellent condition, neat and clean, and that Dr. Reins is deserving great credit for his careful management of the same and his attentive care of the patients therein.

The Jurors would further state that they have examined the County Jail and find the same in good condition. All of which is respectfully submitted. A. G. CLARKE, Foreman of the Grand Jury.

ALMOST A FIGHT.—We were sadly disappointed last evening at losing a local item. Two or three, stout, healthy men, were, by loud words and energetic gesticulations endeavoring to terrify each other on Main street, and we stood for an hour waiting patiently for them to come down to business and furnish us with an item and justice with some costs, but "Alas for the rarity of Christian Charity."

They would not fight and we were compelled to depart for other scenes.

THE FENIAN BALL SUPPER.—We had the privilege of inspecting the preparations which are being made by mine host Sullivan of the St. Louis Hotel, for the supper to be furnished on next Wednesday night on the occasion of the Grand Fenian Ball. We are assured from what we saw that our friend Sullivan will not tarnish his reputation as an organizer of splendid suppers and a lavish purveyor, by this one more in process of preparation. It will be equal to the occasion, and will be served in the spacious dining room of the St. Louis about the hour of midnight.

THE LADIES who desire to secure the innumerable articles of dress, comfort and style so necessary to the happiness of the female portion of Montana's treasures, at a figure far below cost, will receive the polite attention of Hirschman Bros., during to-day and to-morrow. Their full stock of ladies dress and millinery goods will be arranged in complete order, and every facility extended to visitors in this department. On Thursday they open up with an additional stock of damaged goods similar to those which have been so eagerly sought after during the past three days.

NO EASTERN MAIL.—The impression seems to have gained considerable strength, that there would be an Eastern mail on tonight's coach. This is a mistake, there will be a through mail, but it is from California. Thursday's coach will bring Eastern mail.

ANOTHER BLOCKADE.—The Union Pacific Railroad suffered another snow blockade on Saturday afternoon, in the vicinity of Laramie, which is supposed will continue some time.

THE funeral of Mr. Jessie B. Evans took place yesterday, and the corpse was followed to the grave by a concourse of sorrowing friends.

From Wednesday's Daily. FENIAN CELEBRATION.—All arrangements have been perfected for the complete success of this grand celebration. The members of the Fenian Brotherhood will meet at Union Hall at 10 o'clock promptly. The procession will form at 10 a. m., and proceed to the Church, according to the official announcement in another column. The oration will be delivered by Major Maginnis at one o'clock, at the Helena Theatre. This building will be thoroughly warmed and in every respect comfortable. In the evening carriages will be in readiness from after 8 o'clock, and all persons desiring them will leave their orders or names with any of the committee of invitation, or A. O'Connell, Esq. At 12 o'clock a sufficient number of carriages will be in attendance to convey the entire party to the St. Louis Hotel, where the supper will be served, which, we are assured, will be not only bountiful but gotten up in the highest style of culinary art. The music will be by Boulton's orchestra, which is a sufficient guarantee that it will be superb. There is nothing to be feared in this regard, as the committee are well equipped with the necessary and unlimited pleasure to the occasion.

REDUCTION OF TELEGRAPHIC TARIFF.—Through the courtesy of John L. Sabin, the able and accomplished Manager of the Helena office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, we are advised that from and after to-day, the 17th day of March, 1890, a reduction of 25 per cent. will be made on all messages sent from Helena to all points east of Omaha. This reduction will make the rates on messages to Washington, New York, Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia at $7.75 for the first ten words, and fifty-two cents for each additional word; and all messages to Chicago $6.00 for first ten words and forty cents for each additional word. On all messages to St. Louis $5.00 for first ten words and forty-one cents for each additional word. This reduction will not only work to the financial advantage of the Company, but will prove a great benefit to our citizens who are called upon to transmit considerable many messages during the season.

ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that an accident occurred to the Benton coach on Monday morning, near the toll gate, some miles from town. One of the horses was taken with a fit while going around a point on the bank of the Missouri river, and in its rude contortions upset the coach and hurled it over the precipitous bank on the main side. The driver was badly bruised—had his arm broken and his shoulder dislocated and sustained other injuries. Messrs. C. A. Broadwater and L. E. Trask, who were passengers, each were severely injured, and Mr. Broadwater narrowly escaped his death. The driver was left at a house nearby, and Mr. Broadwater, in spite of his injuries, drove to the next station. Drs. Glick and Washburne were sent for and dressed the wounds, bruises, etc. of the driver, and left him in a comfortable condition. We are glad it was no worse, and we congratulate Mr. Trask for coming off so well, and Broad. for being spared another season of freighting delights in the Benton "Rat" outfit.

FIRE ITEMS.—We are informed that Mr. S. L. Watson, treasurer of the funds of the Fire Department, of his own free will and accord gave bonds sufficient to cover the amount of all money placed in his hands for the benefit of the Fire Department. The collectors of the late assessment for fire purposes, Messrs. Paynter and Corben have paid over to the treasurer, Mr. Watson, the sum of thirteen hundred and thirty-eight dollars in currency, which is the amount they have so far collected. These gentlemen are certainly entitled to the thanks of our citizens for the prompt, cheerful and efficient discharging of a laborious and somewhat troublesome duty, and we are confident that these labors will be thoroughly appreciated and held in grateful recollection by all who are interested in the safety, security and prosperity of our thriving city.

TO THE EAST.—Mr. H. B. Tatem, Superintendent of the Philadelphia Enterprise Company, left for the States this morning on business connected with the Company. Mr. Tatem has been, for the past two months, in charge of this Company's mail at Unionville and has proved in his successful operation, that he is a thorough business man. During his short sojourn among us he has gained an enviable reputation, highly respected by all his employees by reason of his considerate and honorable administration, and by his courtesy, and gentlemanly manners, he has won the regard and friendship of our citizens. We hope that the attractions of these mountains with their golden hearts will woo him early back.

ARRIVAL OF MAILS.—We clip the following from the Salt Lake Reporter of the 9th: "Our city experienced a lively sensation yesterday by the arrival of the first mail from the East for three weeks. Five coaches came in loaded down with mail and express matter, and passengers, who appeared well rested and refreshed, some having been on the road for three weeks. The mail (fifty sacks) was distributed with commendable celerity—giving good evidence of the efficiency of the clerks. It was a gratifying sight to observe the pleasant delight pictured on the countenances of those who were abundantly favored with a share of the three weeks' accumulation."

MAILS.—Wells, Fargo & Co.'s coaches came in last evening and brought a little touch of Eastern mail that had come to hand at the office at Salt Lake. It was very cheerfully received. We are able to assure our citizens that the coach which is due on Thursday evening will bring in little if any State mail. None of the mail that was in the blockade will reach us before Saturday. The coach due here that day is heavily loaded with State information in the shape of letters and papers.

FROM BOULDER VALLEY.

EDITOR POST: In spite of cold snaps, severe snow storms, interspersed with intervals of pleasant sunshine, still the work of prospecting, digging ditches, building cabins, constructing fences seems to regard the sudden changes of the temperature but little. It is useful to our people this winter, for the useful industry consumes all hours of the day, both in the mountains and valley, with minor exceptions. In fact, the entire community of Boulder Valley is as busy as a bee, with no exceptions.

The Ditch Company presents their extensive undertaking with rapid stride. Nothing seems to retard their progress, while bright hopes, caused by cheering reports from the field of labor strengthen their efforts and mould for them the golden reward, which is only true enterprise and self-relying energy can rightly expect. Men employed by the company do not complain, though wages are not very high, but "sure," which is everything for the boys. I am informed that quite a number of men, versed in the work among rocks, could find immediate employment, with good pay. Rumor had it that the company were paying their men with scrip, etc., which might have a tendency to throw dark reflections upon the credit of this company; I therefore made personal inquiries which led me to remark, that whenever the company did issue scrip, it was always promptly redeemed to the entire satisfaction of the holder, and consequently there is no cause to credit reports which no doubt were manufactured by some discharged layabouts, more fond of scrip than work.

Spring Bar, for the last few days, stands in high repute. Claim-holders stick to their ground like wax, and the finding water to rock with, move the machine with an air of contentment, as though to say: "Beneath my feet there rests my fortune." Hitherto, the gold taken out of this bar was uniformly fine, but recently, coarse prospects have been realized out of Duncan McDermott's and Peter Slater's ground, the farther they advance into the hill. A beautiful nugget of the purest gold was found at their last cleaning up, which gave rise to considerable excitement. All the other gulches are coming up thickly capped and the ravines well leveled up with drifting snow, and fears of scarcity of water for mining purposes next summer, are apparently ill-founded. The Ratan furnace on Mineral Hill near Jefferson City, passed into the hands of Charles Woodson, for the sum of $1,025. The furnace constructed by a New York company on the Gregory lode, was recently sold for taxes at Radersburg. Six dollars and seventy-five cents made H. Ake the temporary owner. A written agreement was circulated among the farmers and ranchmen, whereby the signers pledged themselves to deed and re-deed land, so as not to alter the lines established now between them in the event of the Government survey, if made through here, should not correspond with them. The Order of Good Templars are about raising funds for the erection of a Hall and meet in their noble mission in the event of the Government survey, if made through here, should not correspond with them. The Order of Good Templars are about raising funds for the erection of a Hall and meet in their noble mission in the event of the Government survey, if made through here, should not correspond with them.

THE CELEBRATION. In snow and storm, and rain; cities vast where desolating elements have caused havoc and deep distress to many a fire-side; in tempestuous waves engulfing beneath their yeasty waves food and cherished hopes; on homes of Old Ireland, where iron heels of despotism ring on the humble hearthstone the requiem of Liberty; where the devoted heart grows big with bitterness and grief; on many a scene of sorrow the 17th day of March was ushered in, but it dawned on all Irishmen, whether among the sweet-laden mountains of Montana or in the forest, green valleys beneath the kindly Irish sky in all the splendor and brightness of glorious remembrances; and upon those of Helena in all the splendor of a spring morning on the banks of the lordly Shannon. Under a sunshine beautiful as the melodies of Moore and warm as the natural impulses of the Irish heart, over two hundred stalwart sons of Erin gathered to celebrate the anniversary of that day, glorious in the history of the Isle of the Saints. At 10-12 o'clock a procession was formed of the Brian Boru Circle of Fenian Brotherhood, numbering about 250, finely dressed, wearing rosettes of Emerald green, with the twin glories of the harp and stary banner floating over them, which, under the directions of A. O'Connell, Esq., Marshal, and his aide, and headed by Boulton's brass band, which discoursed superb music, marched through the principal streets to the Catholic church, where High mass was performed and a very appropriate address delivered by the Reverend Father Van Gorp, which was a very effective and elegant discourse. After these services the procession moved to the Helena Theatre, which was filled to overflowing. The meeting being duly organized, Warren Toole, Esq., introduced the orator of the day, Major Martin Maginnis, who proceeded to deliver one of the finest orations we have ever heard delivered on a similar occasion, upon the "Life and Services of General Thomas Francis Meagher." It was beautifully and elegantly written, overflowing with pathos and thrilling passages, interspersed with enough humor to irradiate it with the pencilings of cheerfulness. It was an elegant and masterly effort, and reflected great credit upon the orator, and was listened to throughout with the greatest attention, and frequent bursts of applause evidenced the appreciation of the assembly. We regret that time will not permit even a synopsis. At the conclusion of the oration, the procession reformed and returned to the Hall, where an address, full of noble sentiments, was delivered by the Head Centre of the organization in this Territory, A. O'Connell, Esq., and likewise by P. Quinn, Esq., after which the boys in green disbanded. We are free to say that we never saw a finer appearing procession, or one better conducted. There was not the least disorder or drunkenness, to mar the festivities or pleasures of the day.

PERSONAL.—Col. Hanna, U. S. Paymaster of the District of Montana arrived yesterday from Fort Ellis, accompanied by Lieut. W. L. Wann of the 13th, Mr. Drew and an escort. The Maj. gave an interesting account of the late Indian fight below Bozeman, which in the main agrees with our special yesterday. The Col. pays a high compliment to Capt. Cliff, Lieut. Wann and the troops who were engaged in the conflict. Mr. Drew went out on the expedition and did good service. A second detachment of troops and citizens left the Fort in pursuit of the Indians, and intelligence may be daily expected of another battle.

to excel each other in the elegance and splendor of their toilettes. If we supposed it would afford any satisfaction to the lady portion of our community, we would mention some of the becoming and exquisite toilettes present, but we fear that once entangled in a description of Raphael and Pampadour waists, ruches, braids, entrains, en-pansies and Honiton, and lost in contemplation, of the ingenuity and skill displayed in gusseting, trimming, crimping, puffing and going the costly fabrics of eastern looms into robes of beauty, we would be too late for the next waltz with the lovely fairy, awaiting our arm and smile. About 12 o'clock the company proceeded to supper at the St. Louis Hotel in carriages, and sat down to a table loaded with all the staples and delicacies of the season, which was unsurpassable. The flowing of the generous wine added zest to the feast. Mr. Sullivan did himself infinite credit by the skill and labor displayed in the supper, and enhanced his reputation as a "good landlord." The company retired to the hall and danced till the first flush of advancing day was tinting in rosy hue the crests of the mountains, when, with many regrets, the "adois" were said, and the hundred or more happy but weary couple departed homeward, each bearing another beautiful picture to hang on the walls of memory. The gentlemen who had the celebration and ball in charge are entitled to great credit for their labors and experience which resulted in so great success on the occasion.

A CARD. EDITOR POST:—I notice by an article in the Gazette that Mr. Higley, deputy Post Master at Boulder, questions my veracity in charging him with tearing open packages addressed to me, and says "I never had an order for the package." I wrote a letter to the Herald stating, he, as deputy Post Master, had torn open packages addressed to me through the United States mails, and refused me three-fourths of the contents; that he had done this repeatedly, and I believed it a crime. I have made information to this effect to the Grand Jury, under oath, and whether or not a bill is found, will prove it by several gentlemen. I will show him who is the liar. I did not have an order for the packages, because they were addressed to me personally, and I presume it would be news to the citizens of Helena to learn that they had to present an order for their personal letters to the Post Master of the place. What the subscriber "requested" him to do I need not discuss. The fact of the package coming to my individual address, is all he, as an officer, had to consider.

I am respectfully, CHARLES BESSIERE.

HELENA, M. T., March 17.

FRANK'S BATHING EMPORIUM.—We venture to say there are few cities of the size of Helena in the States that have as convenient and extensive bathing facilities as our city boasts of to-day. It is a generally conceded fact that bathing is often necessary, and is considered a healthy practice. It is well known that bathing is a difficult and unpleasant affair unless the victim is supplied with all the conveniences, necessities and luxuries. All these are supplied by the management of the bathing house of Dr. Frank. He has thoroughly renovated, re-arranged, repapered, painted and furnished his bathing apartments until they are perfectly elegant. He can furnish the soldier of water with hot, cold, shower, vapor, medicinal and rheumatic baths at a moment's notice. His rooms and baths are supplied with everything needful, and the attendants are courteous and accommodating. This will supply a great want in our city where such an article is so much needed, and to all citizens or sojourners Mr. Frank extends an invitation to call and examine his institution at pleasure and without expense.

TOWN LOT ENTRY.—The entry of town lots in the town site of Helena still continues, and the time of Judge Traitt is constantly consumed by the business consequent upon the applications. We believe there has been an unusual degree of harmony and good feeling manifested throughout the proceeding so far, and to the satisfaction of all parties concerned. It may not be generally understood by our citizens, that this is a good thing for Lewis and Clark county, but such is the fact—that ten dollars of the amount paid to the Probate Judge at the time of the application for entry goes to the credit of the county, and is being paid over to the County Treasurer by the Probate Judge. This makes a handsome revenue to the county and lightens up to a great extent the burdens of the taxation necessary to carry on the county government.

HAIR RESTORATIVE. JOSEPH PHILAND, the French Barber at Diamond City, is prepared to restore hair to the bald, and will give security that the hair will grow in all its natural beauty and lustre or no charge will be made, providing customers will give security that the work will be paid for if the hair is restored. Mr. P. will give security from fifty to two thousand dollars, according to the case, that the hair will be restored in all its natural luxuriance, and in return would only ask security that he secure his pay if the job is satisfactory. All kinds of work belonging to the trade will be done in a manner to warrant the utmost satisfaction. N. B. I did not wish to establish my business in the public until I had satisfied myself that I could accomplish what I claimed. Having done so in some of the best cases I have recently treated, I am confident that I can do the same for you. I would be pleased to meet with a call, next door to the "What Chase Hotel."
