LIGHTNING STRIKES A FRAME HOUSE AT MEADERVILLE.

BOY NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH

Bolt Demolished a Chimney, Tears Up Shingles and Does Other Damage—A Picture Glass Shattered and a Clock Under It Is Untouched—Basement of the House Flooded.

During the heavy thunder storm between seven and eight o'clock last night a bolt of lightning struck a one-story frame structure two blocks south of the Braum house at Meaderville and completely wrecked it. Bricks and timbers were hurled far and wide and a small boy who happened to be in the vicinity narrowly escaped serious injury and perhaps death.

The brick chimney was the objective point of the bolt and was totally destroyed. Bricks were hurled fifty or sixty feet, some of them knocking several shingles loose on another house directly across the street. A small boy who was walking along the street missed being struck by one of the missiles by a narrow margin.

After striking the chimney the electric fluid ran down the tiled corners of the building and reduced the four six-inch-square posts to splinters. The weather boards attached to the corner posts, scantlings several feet long and six or eight inches broad, were stripped from the building and hurled in all directions. One of them was thrown fully 40 feet.

A peculiar incident attending the lightning stroke was that the fluid entered the dwelling and shattered the glass in a large picture frame over the mantel in the dining room, but did not stop a clock from running that stood directly under the picture.

ROBBED A MINISTER'S HOUSE

Burglars Ransack the Home of the Rev. E. J. Groeneveld—Secure Little of Value.

Business in the burglary line is getting brisk in Butte. Robbers entered the home of the Rev. E. J. Groeneveld at 631 West Granite street last night, and ransacked the various rooms from end to end. Nothing of great value was taken.

The presumption that preachers, being the main stay in the church, are as poor as the mice which make such edifices their romping grounds, was thrown to the winds by these bold bad men, and their efforts were to some extent rewarded. A large number of rare coins, belonging to the son of Mr. Groeneveld, and some wearing apparel of small value were taken.

Entrance to the house was effected through a kitchen window. The catch was turned by the use of a chisel which the robbers left on the table in a back room.

The Rev. E. J. Groeneveld and family and Miss Kelley who resides with them were at church at the time the burglars entered the house. Miss Kelley returned home before the minister's family and noticed a light in a rear room. It was extinguished in a moment and the young lady remarked to her escort that there was something wrong within the house. She rang the door bell several times but no one appeared in answer to her summons. Miss Kelley awaited the arrival of the Groeneveld family. An examination was then made of the house and evidence of the presence of some one, who was exceedingly disorderly, was found on every hand.

The officials have not succeeded in locating the burglars.

These Were Burglars Too.

Burglars entered the residence of J. K. Macdonald at 701 West Broadway last night between 10 and 11 o'clock, but secured little of value. It is thought entrance was effected to the house by means of a window facing on Columbia street, the glass being broken, when the burglary was discovered. The burglars made a thorough search of the house and emptied the contents of every drawer on the floor.

FOR PATRIOTISM

EXERCISES IN ST. PATRICK'S PAROCHIAL SCHOOL.

ESSAYS AND RECITATIONS.

Although Unaware the G. A. R. and W. R. C. Would Visit Them That Day the Program Could Not Have Been Improved Upon—Flag Salute for the Old Soldiers by Pupils.

Once a year a delegation from the G. A. R. and the Woman's Relief corps visit the public schools and the parochial schools to see how patriotism has been taught during the year. On next Wednesday the pupils of the high school will give a programme for the committee from corps and post. It will consist of essays of a patriotic nature, recitations and songs.

Last Friday afternoon the pupils of St. Patrick's parochial school gave an exceptionally fine drill. Although they had no intimation as to what day the visit was to be paid, they were all prepared. The moment the visitors entered they were greeted with the flag salute. The recitations and songs were well rendered, and from youngest child there to those who will graduate next, it was evident that patriotism and love of country had been carefully inculcated.

The committee arrived at 2 o'clock and was entertained by the children until 4:30. Father De Siere escorted the committee from one room to the other until twelve class rooms had been visited. The committee one and all agreed that never had they seen more love and respect for "old Glory" manifested.

In one of the essays of the students was described the reasons for observing Memorial day, in another the reasons for honoring old soldiers, namely, that they had saved for us the union. While there was no specially prepared programme for the occasion, the Sisters not being aware any more than the pupils that the visit was to be paid, it could not have been improved upon. The patriotic exercises are taught daily in the school. As one of the soldiers said in his address to the pupils, the school teaches the children that their first duty is to God; their second to their country, their third gratitude to those who govern and defend and thus it is that patriotism is never at low ebb in St. Patrick's Parochial School.

SETTLEMENT NOW IN SIGHT

Machinists of the Butte and Boston and Colorado Works Ready to Resume Work.

"There is nothing new in the situation," was the reply of General Manager Gillette of the Butte & Boston when asked this afternoon if an agreement between his company and the Smeltermen's union had been reached.

The fact that matters in connection with the trouble, if trouble it can be called are the same as they were several days ago would indicate that there is a hitch somewhere in the negotiations that have been pending for a settlement. The machinists employed at the Butte & Boston and Colorado works who struck for a nine-hour day last week held a meeting last night and for three hours discussed the situation in its various phases. The discussion resulted in a decision to return to work on the old basis and take no further action in the agitation of the shorter day. A resolution to that effect was adopted.

The action of the machinists makes the sailing clear for the smeltermen, and it is thought that a settlement of the whole trouble is not a great way off.
