FIGHTERS FAVOR IT

REAL CUBAN WARRIORS SUPPORT PLATT AMENDMENT.

BITTER RADICALS RIDICULED

Commercial Interests of the Islands hail the Coming of Peace and a Freedom of Trade—Agitators at a Discount—Americans Want the Natives to Get Ready for Independence.

(By Associated Press.) New York, May 30.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Havana says: Acquiescence in the will of the majority is dominant but the convention's acceptance of the Platt amendment has been quickly followed by pleas for harmony. The minority of the rabid radicals were bitter against the supporters of the amendment, but their bitterness finds little popular support, especially since it has been shown that the majority of those who voted in the affirmative were of the class of revolutionists who did some fighting.

Gen. Laeet's bellicose telegram about "death and independence" is ridiculed and he is advised that it is better to live and to make the most possible out of life.

As an offset to the violent messages, Gen. Manuley, one of the Santiago delegates, who voted against the amendment, telegraphed to his constituents that the country should respect the action of the convention and should strive for peace and good order. He condemned agitation and said he should co-operate with the majority in making an effective acceptance of the American conditions.

Others of the majority made similar statements and protested against the ultra radicals criticizing the majority when the controversy had been a mere difference of opinion.

Spanish Press Silent. The Spanish press voices its relief at the end of the uncertainty, but makes little further comment.

Mendez Capote, the presiding officer, conferred with Gen. Wood on the future work of the convention and was told that the American officers would like to have the making of an electoral law expedited as rapidly as possible, since the policy of the administration is to encourage the early formation of a Cuban government.

The committee on phraseology which performed a similar work on the constitution proper, will review the language of the appendix and its report will then be formally ratified by the convention and transmitted to Gen. Wood.

Commercial circles express great satisfaction at the outcome. The Merchants Union, which includes the leaders in the commerce of the entire island, has held a meeting and has taken steps to urge upon the delegates the importance of immediate commercial relations with the United States following the termination of the political uncertainty.

WELL KNOWN MINER IS DEAD. Joseph Sargent Succumbs to Hemorrhage of the Lungs—Leaves a Family to Mourn His Loss.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Livingston, May 30.—Joseph Sargent, a miner employed by the Montana Coal & Coke company at his mines at Aldridge died suddenly at his home in the camp Tuesday. Sargent had been ill for the past few days, but on Tuesday morning took his lunch bucket and announced his intention of going to the mines to work. His wife objected to this, remonstrating with him that he was not fit to work. He was finally prevailed upon to remain at home. He set his bucket down and went into an adjoining room, laid down upon a couch, and had no sooner stretched out than a hemorrhage of the lungs set up, death ensuing before medical aid could be summoned.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning at Hoar, and was conducted by the Aldridge Miners' Union, which turned out in a body to pay their respects to the memory of their departed brother. He ceased work 48 years of age. He had worked at Aldridge for the past seven years and was respected by all the miners of the camp. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss.

MARVELED AT PARK WONDERS. Ohio Congressmen Surprised at the Grand Canyon and Other Beauties of Wonderland.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Livingston, May 30.—The party of Ohio congressmen who had been touring the Park came out Tuesday and proceeded on their way east, the two special cars being attached to passenger train No. 49. At this station the party first received the news of the supreme court decision in the insular cases, and there were many expressions of commendation of the decision to be heard about the train. Every one of the party believed in the exact justice of the decision, and all were greatly relieved that the vexatious point of law had been settled.

The members of the party were loud in their praise of the beauties of Wonderland, all of them combining in the statement that the grand canyon and falls of the Yellowstone were the greatest sights upon the face of the wondrous globe.

Dangerous Cloudburst. (Special to Inter Mountain.) Livingston, May 30.—A cloudburst near the cemetery Tuesday afternoon washed out a number of feet of the fence about the grounds and did other damage to the cemetery. Mrs. M. J. Jenner, who was driving to her home north of the city, narrowly escaped being caught in the rush of water. She was forced to return to Livingston, being unable to cross the raging flood.

Senator Carter as a Newspaper Man. (Special to Inter Mountain.) Livingston, May 30.—Ex-Senator Thomas H. Carter was in the city Monday evening, on his way to Helena from Mammoth Hot Springs, to which point he had accompanied the congressional party from Ohio. The senator spent the night here. It is said that change in the management and ownership of the Livingston Enterprise is soon to be made, which will involve the suspension of the Park County Republican, and that this deal was the object of the senator's visit to Livingston.
