Associated Charities Would Not Take Care of the Lost Child

As the result of the clash several days ago between the police and the Associated Charities over alleged treatment of one of the Johnson children, a little 6-year old girl was compelled to spend last night and part of this morning in the police station. The child's mother, Mrs. Reese of Meaderville, called at the station at noon today and took the little one away with her.

The police arrested a Mrs. Johnson some days ago on a charge of disturbing the peace. She brought with her to the police station, a daughter about five years of age, and the Associated Charities hearing that the child was locked up with the mother, concluded to care for it until the mother was released from custody. The child was taken to the Paul Clark home but ran away and returned to the police station. Master King called at the police headquarters during the evening for the girl and there something of a row occurred between the woman and the night jailer.

Mrs. King now says that under no conditions will the home accept children from the police without positive instructions from the officers of the Charities association.

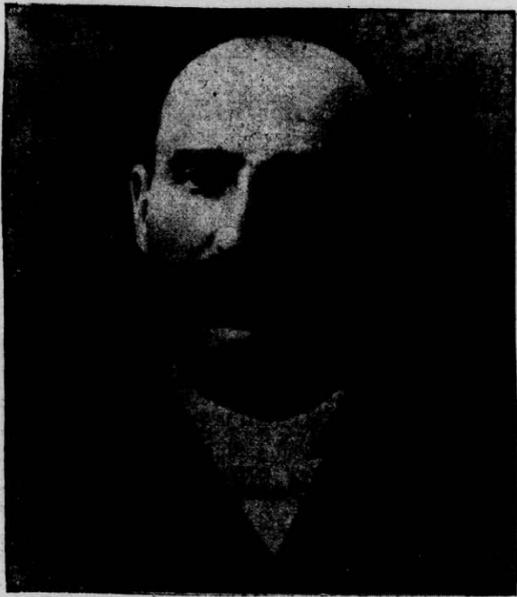

The Reese child was found roaming about the streets of Butte last night about 9 o'clock and was picked up by a policeman who took her to the station. A bed, as good as could be provided at the station, was fixed for the little wanderer and she slept in the jailer's office during the night.

This morning Jailer Levy held the child breakfast at the Southern hotel. He washed her hands and face and brushed her hair and she seemed quite contented. Chief Reynolds instructed the jailer to telephone to the Associated Charities concerning the child. The matron of the Paul Clark home answered Jailer Levy. She said she had no authority to accept the child at the home without the instructions of the officers of the Charities Association. She stated that because of the recent trouble the Association decided not to accept any more children from the police so she could do nothing for the child.

The mother of the girl said she lived at No. 9 Lincoln avenue. She came into Butte last night bringing the child with her. While shopping in one of the stores the mother states the girl strayed away and could not be found. Mrs. Reese searched for the child some time, but without success. She concluded to return home and hope that some one would return her child.

Early this morning the mother came into Butte and renewed the search. Never thinking to inquire at the police station the mother visited the store, from whence the girl had strayed and was there informed that the police had taken care of her daughter during the night. The meeting between the little tot and her parent was very affecting. Mrs. Reese thanked the police for caring for her girl and apparently, a heavy burden was lifted from her heart when she again had the child in her arms.

THE MINERS OF BUTTE REVERE THE MEMORY OF THEIR ORGANIZATION'S FIRST PRESIDENT

A. C. Witter Was the First President of the Miners' Union.

In view of the nearness of Miners' Union day there are many residents of Butte who will recall the first president of the organization, Aaron C. Witter, whose picture is printed to-day. He died February 1, 1891, in this city, following his wife out of the world two days after he had laid her remains to rest in the grave. He was at the time of his death a member of the state legislature and was called from the capital to his wife's bedside.

Two children survived Mr. and Mrs. Witter and the members of the legislature started a fund for their support. Five thousand dollars was raised and the little ones were cared for by this means. A portion of the money is still in one of the banks of Butte, and one of the children, a daughter, has just arrived at her majority and arrangements are being made to transfer the account to her name.

Mr. Witter was county clerk of Silver Bow county in 1881, member of the territorial council in 1883 and member of the constitutional convention in 1889. The house of representatives passed appropriate resolutions at his death.

Money was raised from various sources in the state and a monument erected to the memory of Mr. Witter and was dedicated by the Miners' union. The monument stands in Mount Moriah cemetery above the grave of the man who wielded the gavel at the first meeting of the great organization which celebrates its 23rd anniversary to-morrow.

H. Burgin, wife of the pastor of St. Paul's is manager, Mrs. Margaret Knowlton being her assistant.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

(By Associated Press.)

New York, June 12.—Rumors of peace in South Africa again caused higher prices in London today, and was an influence here at the opening. Missouri Pacific and Pennsylvania were features, 5,000 shares of the former selling at 122 1/2 to 123, compared with 121 last night; and 3,000 shares of the latter selling at 151 1/2 to 151 3/4, compared with 151 last night. Amalgamated Copper, St. Paul, Sugar, St. Joe, Southwestern preferred and Denver & Rio Grande preferred were up about a point.

Spasmodic advances in various parts of the list did not enliven the general trading, business contracting greatly. Sugar broke 7/8 under yesterday's close, got above parity and took the down grade again. American Car common rose 1/4 and the preferred to 1 1/4. Rock Island, 2 1/4; Pacific Coast, second preferred, 2. Pennsylvania continued upward, touching a level 1 1/2 above last night's closing, on the reported acquisition of the Pennsylvania Steel company,

Erie common and Reading first preferred made good gains.

Lead advanced 1/4 and the preferred 4, while Amalgamated Copper lost about 2 points. At 11 o'clock speculation was feverish and prices were moving irregularly. Pennsylvania assumed the leadership of the market and on the absorption of thousands of shares, the stock worked up to 153 1/4. The buoyancy of this property was without beneficial effect on other active stocks.

Moderate offerings causing sharp relapses in Atchinson, Louisville, Missouri Pacific, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and United States Steel. There were some substantial gains in minor railroads and specialties and the general market felt more acutely than of late the absence of inside support. The traction moved up a point or more before noon and American Cotton Oil suddenly jumped 2 1/4. Denver & Rio Grande preferred gained 3/4 and Colorado Fuel 3/4 altogether.

Bonds were dull and irregular. Colorado Fuel touched 115 at the last hour and fell back to 106 1/2. The drop of prices elsewhere was seemingly from inattention, as there was no urgent pressure to sell and business was in a semi-stagnant condition. American Snuff was three below the last sale and there were sharp gains in some obscure industrial stocks. The closing was intensely dull and heavy.

JUDGE BOYLE HANDLES THE USUAL MOTLEY THROG.

With variegated complexions and separate and distinct little stories to unravel before "his honor," a quartette of eccentrics made their bows in police court this morning. The four were led into the presence of the city's magistrate by Jailer Levy. Following the turnkey came Jane Bosh, a white woman, who, it is said, punishes as much booze as "Double Up Pete." Just immediately behind Jane came Josh Henry, a disreputable, and Sandy Roberts, charged with taking on too much of the liquor. To polish off the rough edges of the quartette came John Williams, a negro with skin as black as coal.

Jane sauntered up before Judge Boyle when her name was called, and quickly cut Clerk Winn's little tale short by answering "Guilty." A fine of $5 was imposed with all the solemnity of the court, and Jane politely expressed "Many thanks, judge."

Similar amounts were asked from the disturber and Sandy Frank, the toper.

Williams, the dark spot, was charged with carrying concealed weapons. He said that he was walking along the railroad track near the depot, when he saw a six-shooter lying on the ground. Picking it up, he said, he proceeded on his way, but had gone only a short distance when a policeman nabbed him. He concluded that he did only what any one would who found a gun lying on the track. Pleading not guilty, his trial was set for the 14th.

DENIES ALLEGED ASSAULT

Thomas Wiley on the Stand Refutes the Accusation of Annie Killanae.

The trial of Thomas Wiley on a charge of criminal assault on Annie Killanae while the latter was suffering from the effects of an attack of pneumonia and typhoid fever, in a room in the Thornton block last winter was commenced in Department No. 3 of the district court yesterday, and at a late hour this afternoon was still in progress.

The prosecution was not long submitting its part of the case, and when it had concluded the defendant was put on the stand. He told his side of the affair, admitting his intimacy with the girl, but denying that such intimacy was at the time alleged in the information.

SNYDER'S TROUBLES NOT OVER

United States Deputy Marshal Melklejohn returned today from the Deer Lodge penitentiary with W. D. Snyder, alias Schrickengost, who has just completed a term of two years in prison for counterfeiting in this city.

Snyder is wanted in Idaho for a crime committed before his advent in Montana and is to be taken there for trial. It is claimed that Snyder is also wanted in Utah for jail breaking, he having escaped from the Salt Lake jail twice. He is to be tried in Idaho on a charge of having robbed the postoffice at Montpelier.

The charge against him in Utah was train robbery, it being alleged that he held up a train near Ogden. When he went to Idaho he represented himself as a Mormon bishop, it is said, and soon had all sorts of rich people worshipping at his shrine.

Snyder prefers to take his chances in Idaho.

With High Nuptial Mass.

Joseph Frances Kennedy and Emma Hesse were married at St. Patrick's church at 10 o'clock this morning with High Nuptial Mass. Father DeSiere officiated. The groom is a machinist on the hill, and the bride, who was a graduate of the High School class of '94, has been teaching at Meaderville. The attendants were Miss Katie Moran, a class graduate with the bride, and Jas. J. Egan.
