BIG NEWS QUICKLY GIVEN

Residents of Anaconda Turn to Their Favorite Paper to Read of Hanging and Shooting.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, Sept. 7.—Yesterday's extra edition of the Inter Mountain, 1,000 copies of which reached Anaconda at 1:45 o'clock, was heartily appreciated by the residents of the city, and in a short time the entire number had been disposed of and the public was clamoring for more.

When the Inter Mountain received the news of the attempt to take the life of the nation's executive, the greatest consternation spread throughout the city and the office was visited by hundreds who could scarcely believe their ears when informed of the details.

Last night's regular edition containing the news of the president's assassination went like wildfire, and 3,000 copies of the paper barely sufficed to supply the demand.

The Inter Mountain office was besieged with callers up to a late hour last night, to hear the news as to the president's condition, which was supplied by hourly bulletins.

The shooting of President McKinley is the most severe blow to the residents of Anaconda in years, and expressions of sympathy and indignation are to be heard on every hand.

SORRY TO SEE HIM LEAVE

Farewellers of Rev. E. G. Cattermole of Anaconda Express Regret at Departure.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, Sept. 7.—Rev. E. G. Cattermole, retiring pastor of the First Methodist church, was tendered a farewell reception by the members of his congregation in this city last evening. The church was filled and there were many expressions of regret that the pastor was about to take his departure to Iowa, where his children can enjoy the advantage of procuring a college education which cannot be had here. This is the only reason that prompted the pastor and his family to ask for a transfer to new fields.

A number of addresses were made by prominent members of the church, who voiced the sentiment of the congregation in expressions of regret.

Charles Repath was one of the principal speakers of the evening. He spoke of the work performed here by Rev. Cattermole, of the splendid growth of membership in the church since he came to Anaconda, which, he said, was due largely to the untiring energy of the pastor.

The speaker conveyed to Mr. Cattermole the thanks of the entire congregation and the deep sense of gratitude for his services in the past, at the same time explaining that all disliked to have him leave.

Mrs. White spoke on behalf of the ladies' societies of the church, after which Mr. Cattermole responded feelingly.

He said in part: "Everything that in my judgment would tend to the uplifting and advancing of the church I have in my humble way endeavored to do, and if I have at least succeeded in part I am satisfied. Though when I arrive at my new home I shall put forth all my efforts in advancing the church, I shall ever have a place in my thoughts and a warm spot in my heart for the people I left in Anaconda. Not only am I thankful to the members of the church in this city, but I wish to express my thanks to all the citizens in general for the kind, generous manner in which they have always treated me."

"My leaving is not the result of any controversy with either the officials or members of the church," said Mr. Cattermole, "but it is my desire to reside in a university town, where I can give my children the advantage of higher education."

An interesting musical programme was rendered. Refreshments were also served.

GIVEN A BEAUTIFUL BADGE

W. C. Austin Honored by His Friends of Anaconda Camp No. 6039, M. W. A.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, Sept. 7.—William C. Austin, who is known personally to almost every member of the Modern Woodmen of America in Montana, was given a magnificent reception at Standard hall this week by his neighbors of Anaconda Camp No. 6039, and he was the recipient of a magnificent gold badge set with diamonds, which has a value of about $100.

Clerk W. G. Allen of the local camp had a notice inserted in the daily papers that an important meeting would be held, and over one hundred persons turned out. Every one present knew what was to take place except Mr. Austin himself, who was completely taken by surprise.

To John W. James was delegated the honor of making the presentation speech, who feelingly expressed the sentiments of the members of the Anaconda camp and every Woodman in the state towards Deputy Austin. Mr. James paid him a high tribute in beautifully woven words and spoke of the high character and manhood he possessed.

When Mr. James handed the jewel to the recipient the latter was so overcome with emotion that it was some moments before he could utter a word in response.

Several weeks ago word came from the headquarters of the order that Mr. Austin was not to succeed himself as state deputy.

Without Mr. Austin's knowledge a mighty protest was sent to the head consul of the order, Mr. Northcott, from nearby every camp in the state. The Butte lodges were up in arms about the matter and threatened to withdraw their charters unless he was retained.

The Anaconda lodges spoke with equal force. A few days ago he received telegraphic advices that he had received the appointment.

William C. Austin has been prominently identified with the Modern Woodmen in this state since 1898, when he accepted the position of assistant district deputy to J. W. Meredith, which place he held for one year.

On September 1, 1899, he was promoted to the position of state deputy consul for Montana for a period of two years, succeeding J. F. Harris, who was transferred to California.

Mr. Austin came to Montana in 1897 from Lincoln, Neb., locating in Butte. About 18 months ago he moved to Anaconda and has since made this city his home. Since his connection with the order the Anaconda lodge has grown from a camp of 37 members to over 300, one of the strongest lodges in the state.

HE SWIPED THE WATERMELONS
Bad Boy Took a Grapevine Twist on Garden Products—Youths Are Old Offenders.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, Sept. 7.—William Brown, Charles Smith and Homer Cole, the three boys arrested by Constable Rents several days ago for stealing watermelons from a car on the Butte, Anaconda & Pacific tracks were arraigned in Justice Quane's court this morning on a charge of petty larceny.

Brown's mother appeared in the court to plead for him. It was found that he has for sometime past been beyond the control of his mother and was rapidly becoming a bad boy, until he ended up in the county jail on the above charge.

He was very penitent and promised to obey his mother in the future and after a good lecture Judge Quane continued the case indefinitely, subject to Brown's good behavior.

Charles Smith, one of the other boys, has had a bad reputation for some time past, and has caused his parents a great deal of trouble by his mischief. Upon request of the county attorney the charge of petty larceny against him was changed to that of incorrigibility and an effort will be made to send him to the reform school.

Homer Cole, the smallest of the boys, is by no means the least to blame. He served for a time in the reform school in the state of Washington, being sent there from Tacoma, at the request of his parents, who were unable to manage the youth. While there he partially learned the trade of a shoemaker, but has made no effort to continue it since being discharged. The charge of petty larceny is still held against him.

BRILLIANT HELENA WEDDING

Cards Are Out for the Starr-Des Jardines Nuptials at the Capital—Groom Is of Butte.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, Sept. 7.—Cards have been received in this city announcing the marriage of Richard Starr of Butte and Miss Alphonsine Des Jardine of Helena, the ceremony to take place Wednesday evening, Sept. 11, at the cathedral of the Sacred Heart in Helena.

Mr. Starr was formerly agent for the Great Northern Express company in this city and has a wide acquaintance here. He left here to accept the agency for the same company in Butte. He is a member of the local lodge of Elks and one of the most popular of young men wherever he is known.

Miss Des Jardine of Helena is one of the most beautiful and accomplished young ladies of the capital city and is well known in Anaconda and Butte as a society leader.

The couple will spend the honeymoon in the east, being at home in Butte after November 1st.

DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT

H. G. Ward Passes Away at a Ripe Old Age—He Was a Pioneer.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, Sept. 7.—Word was received in the city this morning of the death of H. G. Ward of Deer Lodge at 10:30 o'clock last night.

Mr. Ward was an uncle of J. M. Smur of this city. He came to Montana more than thirty years ago with P. E. Larable from Lexington, Ky., the two bringing a string of blooded horses across the plains. Up to six years ago he was engaged in the livery business in Deer Lodge. Since that time he has been an invalid. He leaves a daughter, Mrs. Rita McPherson, and one son, Edward, now in New Whatcomb, Washington.

The deceased was seventy-eight years of age. The time of the funeral has not been arranged.

HE'S JUST OFF OF SICK BED

High School Principal Able to Be Out and Looks Well Pleased—Needs Rest and Quiet.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, Sept. 7.—Prof. J. B. Walker, principal of the high school, has returned to the city after having spent several weeks in the hospital in Missoula. It may be necessary for him to refrain from hard work incident to opening of the schools next Monday morning, but he is rapidly regaining his strength.

Mrs. Hardenbrook, one of the teachers in the public schools, came up from Deer Lodge last night to assume her duties next Monday morning.

Comedian Is Popular.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, Sept. 7.—Mr. Arthur Dunn, the clever little comedian, now being featured with the "A Runaway Girl" company, is probably better known throughout the country than any comedian now before the public. In the larger cities he is always heartily welcomed, and in the cities and towns, scattered over the United States, he is equally popular. Mr. Dunn had never confined his travels to any one section of the country, but for many years past has managed to play in every city and town of importance on the continent. In Canada and Mexico Mr. Dunn is universally known and always welcome. At the Margaret theater Wednesday evening, Sept. 11.

IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

OPENING DATE SET FOR MONDAY MORNING.

ASSIGNMENT OF THE TEACHERS

Preparations Are All Complete for the First Day's Work—Larger Attendance Than Before—Thirty-Eight Teachers.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Anaconda, Sept. 7.—The public schools of Anaconda will open next Monday morning. Everything is in readiness for the event and this morning Superintendent J. A. Koontz completed the assignment of teachers, which, however, may undergo some slight alterations before the pupils assemble at the respective buildings day after tomorrow.

There is every reason to believe that the attendance this year will be much larger than at any previous time in the history of the Smelter City, and in all probability it will be found necessary to increase the staff of teachers when the work of organization is completed next week.

On account of the building of the new smelters in this city and the general prosperity of the town, the population of the city has materially increased during the past year. Many of the men employed in the new works are married and have settled down here to make this their future home. A great number have purchased residences here with the intention of becoming permanent fixtures in the community.

The greatest enrollment in the schools at any one time last year was something like 1,600, so with the noted influx of people the number must certainly be much larger.

The corps of teachers already engaged, including the principals in each building, number 38, all told. In the Central school building there are 8; Lincoln school, 8; Prescott, 6; Bryan, 6; Carroll, 1; West End, 1 and Mill Creek, 1. There is also one instructor of music.

Superintendent Koontz gave notice to the teachers to meet him at his office this morning at 11 o'clock when he gave each one their assignment, as follows:

Central School—J. B. Walker, principal, science; Martha E. Livingston, history; Anna M. Sutherland, mathematics; Anna V. Barrett, English; Miss Redeker, languages; Mrs. Mary E. Gannon, eighth grade; May McHugh, seventh grade; Ella Adams, sixth grade; Lincoln School—Arthur Sears, principal; Mary E. Evans, seventh grade; Nanot Hardenbrook, sixth grade; Mary E. Cady, sixth grade; Clara Bryant, fifth grade; Ruth Lowry, fourth grade; Nellie Shea, fourth grade; Grace Wisner, third grade; Mary Howard, third grade; Edna Waterbury, second grade; Minnie E. Dyas, second grade; Mrs. Jane M. Parks, first grade; Mary E. Berry, first grade; Teresa O'Donnell, first grade.

Prescott School—Jessie Blackstone, principal, fifth grade; Ida Marchese, fourth grade; Anna H. Evans, third grade; Esther O'Keefe, second grade; Mary L. McDonald, first grade; Margaret T. Gleason, first grade. Bryan School—Helena M. Gleason, principal, first grade; Alice L. Mahoney, fourth grade; Margaret Maloney, third grade; Mary H. Brennan, third grade; Jennie McMillen, second grade; Harriet Wright, first grade. Carroll—Miss Bryan. West End—Miss Lynch. Mill Creek—Nellie Kelly. Special teacher of music, Miss Jean Macdougall.

The substitute teachers selected are: Margaret Bryant, Myrtle Templeton, Isra Templeton, Maud McKenzie, Irma McKenzie, Maud Heinbach, Margaret Macaulay, Millie Hallas.

M'MAHON IS A GOOD FELLOW

He and His Confreres Did the Right Thing by the Press Gang.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, Sept. 7.—One matter deserving of special mention in connection with the execution of James Fleming, alias McArthur in Deer Lodge yesterday was the courteous treatment of Sheriff McMahon to the members of the press. He did everything in his power, as did Undersheriff Dee and all others connected with the sheriff's office, to provide facilities for getting the news.

Expecting a large crowd the sheriff had built a commodious press stand where the reporters had full view of everything that took place and heard every word the condemned man uttered just before he was despatched.

Sheriff McMahon not only took good care of the press, but of everyone else.

MINISTER'S FAREWELL SERMON

Reverend Cattermole Will Speak Parting Words Tomorrow—Special Program Prepared.

Anaconda, Sept. 7.—At the First Methodist church tomorrow a full attend of all members and others is desired. Rev. E. G. Cattermole, who has been assigned for work in the Upper Iowa conference will preach his farewell service.

Special music has been arranged for this occasion. Sunday-school at the usual hour. Epworth League meeting and evening sermon, also at the usual time.

No More Married Teachers.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, Sept. 7.—At the meeting of the school board last night several applications for positions were read and all except Miss Marie Bryan were placed on the list of substitutes. The West End school will be continued as it was last year, the board supplying the teacher and the residents of that vicinity the house and fuel. The resignations of Miss Cora B. Morse and Mrs. Rose Flavin as teachers were read and accepted, and an application from Miss Owings of Deer Lodge for position as instructor in drawing was read, but was laid aside to be acted upon at the next meeting. It was decided by the board that they would not in the future engage married women as teachers, and that any teacher entering the marriage state would be asked to resign. After a vote of thanks to the Woman's Literary club for the collection of pictures recently tendered the schools by them, the meeting was adjourned.

May Postpone Game. (Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, Sept. 7.—Up to the present time there has been nothing definite said about postponing the Butte-Anaconda baseball game scheduled to take place in Butte tomorrow, but the probabilities are that if tomorrow does not turn out bright and clear the grounds will be in no condition for a game.

The Anaconda team have made preparations to put a good championship team in the field and it is hoped the weather will be favorable for the playing of the game.

MADAME GEYSER.

Will be in Anaconda for a short time only. All persons desiring to consult her should do so at once. Thousands of people have taken advantage of the opportunity offered by this talented woman who can accurately read the past and future, and convince you of the truth of her reading. Beyond the peradventure of a doubt she can tell your name and date of birth, success or failure, and can read the future as clearly as the past. Call at 215 East Park avenue.

A Fortunate Operation.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, Sept. 7.—Word was received from Butte last night that Miss Mary McLaughlin, county superintendent of schools, had undergone an operation for appendicitis at St. Mary's hospital. The last reports received from there state that the operation was successful and that the patient was getting along nicely.

THE TRAIN TO THE BALL GAME AT BUTTE, SUNDAY, SEPT. 8.

Owing to the uncertainty of the weather the baseball special which was advertised to leave at 1:15 p. m. has been abandoned. Tickets at $1.00 for the round trip will be good on train leaving Anaconda at 11:15 a. m.

Lost a Bill.

Assistant Chief of Police O'Brien was robbed of $5 in his room in a hotel at Deer Lodge night before last. He took a room in a lodging house with a couple of stangers and in the morning his money was missing.
