G.N. RAILWAY WRECK

PASSENGER TRAIN NO. 1 LEAVES TRACK NEAR MID CANYON.

LOCOMOTIVE CREW INJURED

Engineer Wilson, Fireman Hahn and Baggage man Lee of Great Falls Sustain Slight Injuries—No Passengers Hurt.

(Special to the Inter Mountain.) Helena, Oct. 5.—A serious wreck occurred on the Great Northern railway last night. The engine of train No. 1 left the track near Mid Canyon, and going over slightly injured Charles Wilson, engineer, his fireman Nick Hahn and baggage man Lee.

The injured men all live in Great Falls where they were taken for treatment.

The smoking and baggage cars both left the track, but no great damage was done in or to them.

The rear coaches remained on the rails and none of the passengers was hurt.

The cause of the wreck is said to be a spreading of the rails.

PRESIDENT MONTANA PIONEERS

August F. Graeter of Dillon Will Preside Over the Society For the Coming Year.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Missoula, Mont., Oct. 5.—The pioneers held an interesting session yesterday. Election of officers was disposed of by the choice of Augustus F. Graeter of Dillon for president, J. U. Sanders of Helena for secretary, A. M. Holter of Helena treasurer. Dillon will be the next place of meeting, and the time to be set later by the executive committee.

At the session a very interesting and historically valuable paper, prepared by Mr. A. H. Wilcox now of Virginia, Minn., was read by Secretary Sanders. Mr. Wilcox treated of the Prickly Pear valley in the early '60's.

The society voted thanks to Senator W. A. Clark for his contribution of $250, to aid in defraying the expenses of publishing the society's register. The financial report of the treasurer showed the indebtedness of the society reduced 50 per cent.

The pioneers were the guests of the University of Montana during the afternoon.

The annual banquet was held at the Knights of Pythias hall in the evening. The question of a vice president for each county was then taken up. A member from the county suggested a name for the place and each was elected without opposition. The following are the vice presidents: Beaverhead county, F. J. Bishop; Broadwater county, P. J. Keen; Deer Lodge county, Peter Levensood; Granite county, George W. Morse; Jefferson county, George Cowan; Lewis and Clarke county, John Shober; Madison county, H. Watson; Missoula county, T. J. McNamara; Park county, George Brophy; Ravalli county, John S. Robertson; Silver Bow county, John Gallick; Sweetgrass and Teton counties, none; Yellowstone county, R. W. Clark; Rosebud county, none; Powell county, John R. Quigley; Gallatin county, W. W. Aderson.

The Sons and Daughters of Montana pioneers met in session today in the handsome parlors of the Missoula hotel. There was a large number of members present and they got down to business at once. Eighteen new members were admitted to the society, which now numbers 170 members. "Best Methods of the Society" without opposition. Miss Bessie Marshall was chosen vice president and Frank B. Norris secretary and treasurer. Frank Woody was elected vice president for Missoula county. The society adopted for its emblem a small gold frying pan with a pick and shovel lying across it. It is a very pretty emblem.

STATE FIREMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Chief Sanger's Paper on Handling Hotel Fires Makes a Notable Hit.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Missoula, Mont., Oct. 5.—The convention of firemen was engaged yesterday with the regular programme, a notable hit being scored by Chief Sanger of Butte, in his paper on "Best Methods of Handling Hotel Fires."

The Butte hotel fire last summer gave him his text and his success in handling that blaze gave him the right to speak as one who had already "made good."

Billings was chosen as the next meeting place.

Chief J. C. Bond of Billings was chosen president. Orrin Nicky of Billings secretary. Geo. L. Lapp of A. C. M. company, Butte, treasurer.

The convention stood twice to be photographed. Chief Merritt of Anaconda being the photographer.

INCENDIARISM IN POWELL CO.

Series of Vicious Attacks on the Property of Powell County Ranch Owners.

(Special to the Inter Mountain.) Deer Lodge, Oct. 5.—A series of depredations have been committed upon property of ranchmen in Powell county during the past few weeks.

News was yesterday brought to town of the burning of 125 tons of hay on Christofferson brothers' ranch, north of this place.

Much excitement and indignation prevail in the city and surrounding country over these repeated instances of vicious destruction of property, and the ranchmen and citizens generally are in a frame of mind to deal severely with the miscreants if they can be discovered.

Among the several victims of the firebugs are Sam Beck, John Blakeman, John Gorts, Davis and Williams, George Dana and the Christofferson brothers.

Blakeman's house, on Little Blackfoot, was burned, and also his hay racks, and

Beck lost a large quantity of hay. The desperadoes added horse thieving and bravado to their burning proclivities, and after stealing an animal from George Dana, subsequently turned it loose with a message to their several victims as follows: "Messrs. Beck, Blakeman and Davis: We are through bothering you now, and we are going east." There were no signatures to the message, and as yet there are no clues to the guilty parties.

RUSTLER SAM LARSEN CAUGHT

Notorious Desperado of the Cattle Ranges Arrested in British Columbia by Mounted Police.

(Special to the Inter Mountain.) Port Benton, Oct. 5.—Some three months ago Stock Inspector Lund posted a reward for the apprehension of one Sam Larsen, who was suspected of horse and cattle thieving, as well as general cussedness.

Lund received word yesterday that Larsen had been arrested by Canadian mounted police near Lethbridge, and he will start for that point with necessary papers for Larsen's extradition as soon as the formalities can be complied with.

Larsen has a very unenviable record among the ranchmen and stock growers of the northwest, and is credited with a long list of depredations that are particularly irritating to that class of men.

Horse and cattle thieving, altering brands and general rustling are among Larsen's specialties. He is a man of much nerve and full of resource.

As an instance of the rustler's resourcefulness, is cited an incident at the Putnam ranch a year ago. He had been arrested for stealing a valuable horse from the Conrad-Harris cattle. He led the officers to believe that he was sick and when the handcuffs had been removed and he was allowed to separate a few yards from his captors, he sprang on the back of the fleet animal and made a successful run for the bad lands.

If Larsen can be convicted on any of the charges that will be made against him, the cattlemen will feel easier and more secure in their property, knowing that for some years, at least, they have disposed of one of the most dangerous rustlers on the ranges.

Death of a Ranchman.

Deer Lodge, Mont., Oct. 5.—George Casper, a well known rancher of Race Track, died in Deer Lodge Thursday of typhoid fever. He was 45 years old and unmarried, but leaves a mother in Illinois and several brothers and sisters. The funeral will take place today at 2 o'clock in the Presbyterian church in Deer Lodge, Rev. A. B. Martin officiating.

Clever Way to Put It.

In speaking of the terrors of the Slav tongue, Opie Read remarked that a druggist in Chicago recently had a telephone instrument installed in his place for the accommodation of his patrons. The minute the first user of the phone began to talk Russian into the receiver, the wire knicked into small knots, like a tensely twisted string. They couldn't do a thing to meet the emergency until one of the telephone linemen, who had once attempted to do missionary work in a Russian settlement in Minnesota, replaced the smooth, insulated copper strand with the ordinary barb wire. That jagged medium proved a perfect means of transmission for Russian speech.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Quick Work on a Bridge.

The bridge builder with Stonewall Jackson's army was a rare character, if the following story be true:

The Union soldiers, retreating from the valley of Virginia, burned a bridge over the Shenandoah.

Jackson, who wanted to pursue, sent for his old bridge builder. "Sir," he said, "you must keep men at work all day and all night, and finish that bridge by tomorrow morning. My engineer shall give you a plan."

Old Miles saluted and withdrew.

Early the next morning the general sent for Miles again. "Well, sir," said Jackson, "did the engineer give you the plan for the bridge?" "General," said the old man, slowly, "the bridge is done; I don't know whether the picture is or not."—Herald and Presbyter.

Shaken Faith.

A religious old dandy had his faith badly shaken not long ago. He is sexton for a white church in a Fayette county town, and one afternoon as he was in front sweeping the pavement a strong wind arose, tearing a piece of the cornice off and taking a few bricks out of the wall. Realizing that a good run was better than a bad stand, the old man sought shelter in the station house on the opposite side of the street.

Several minutes later a member of the church of which Uncle Isham is sexton came by, and noticing him in his retreat, remarked that he thought the station house a strange place for a man of faith to seek shelter in a storm when a house of worship was near.

"Dat's so, but what's a man gwine ter do when de Lord begins to frow bricks at 'im."—Memphis Scimitar.

CHARACTER OF MRS. THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Tragedies have confronted Theodore Roosevelt before now, and no one who saw will ever forget his quiet, almost superhuman, self-control the day when his mother and his wife, who was Miss Alice Lee of Boston, were both laid to rest. The dearly beloved mother and wife of Theodore Roosevelt died in the same house within a few hours, and his self-control was marvelous, inspiring all with the deepest respect and admiration.

The Present Mrs. Roosevelt.

The present Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, who before her marriage was Edith Carow of New York, is a remarkable woman, and one of rare personality. She is a woman of the highest principle and of far more than ordinary mental caliber. From her earliest childhood she has been an omnivorous reader and a constant student. She has always shrunk from anything like notoriety, and the necessary publicity that her husband's position has forced upon her has been, so far as lay in her power, made less conspicuous.

She is a New York by birth, was educated at one of the fashionable schools and has spent several years traveling abroad. She is an accomplished linguist and her musical knowledge is far above the ordinary.

Ever since her marriage she has devoted herself, heart and soul, to her husband's career, and at the same time has been a devoted mother. She has not, in one sense of the word, gone in for society at all, although by her birth as well as her marriage she has always had a position which involves certain social duties. Her circle of acquaintance has been from childhood the same as her husband's, and they have among their friends the leading people of the country.

Mrs. Roosevelt is rather petite, has brown hair and brown eyes, a clear skin with some color when she is excited, but her chief beauty is her mouth, which is marvelously expressive.

Simple in Her Dress.

She dresses simply, especially in the street; wear no jewels, excepting with an evening dress, which is always extremely handsome. She has not varied for years the style of her hair dressing. The hair is parted, smoothed simply back from the forehead and coiled at the back of the head with some few natural ringlets around the temple; but there is no attempt made to follow each move of fashion. Mrs. Roosevelt has understood her own style, and dresses accordingly.

Not everybody knows that she and her husband were child sweethearts. As they grew older their lives were rather separated. After the death of his first wife Mr. Roosevelt traveled abroad. There he again met Miss Edith Carow, and very soon the news came to his friends of his marriage, which has been an ideally happy one.

From the time they were little children Mrs. Roosevelt's belief in Mr. Roosevelt's ability has never wavered.

Mrs. Roosevelt does not go in for any of the athletic sports of the day, but she is a good horsewoman and has taken up riding again within the last two or three years. She is an expert needlewoman, writes cleverly, and there is somewhere extant a book of verse which she has published for private circulation. She is a member of several luncheon clubs, but she has never taken part in fashionable entertainments, and her name appears very rarely on the list of patronesses for large festivities.

She possesses that rare talent, which made Mrs. Cleveland so popular, of remembering the faces of people she meets once or twice and also being able to remember all about them. She is the boon companion, as well as the very wise and tender mother of her stepdaughter and her own children, who are much younger than Miss Alice Roosevelt.

She has a wide knowledge of politics, both foreign and American. She is a frail looking woman, but has much more strength than she apparently possesses. She is deeply religious.

Mr. Roosevelt's two sisters are women noted for their rare charm, intelligence and their most gracious manners. Mrs. Cowles, formerly Miss Anna Roosevelt, has been married only a few years, although she is older than her brother Theodore. Her charitable work is known the world over, and her business ability is striking. When her cousin, J. Roosevelt Roosevelt, was in charge of the British embassy in London, she went over as his guest and stayed with him for a time, taking charge of his household. Her success as a hostess was marvelous in London, in fact, in England, where she made countless warm friends, and where she met Commander Cowles, whom she married.
