VACCINATION LAW

DR. KELLY APPEARS BEFORE CITY SCHOOL BOARD.

EXAMINES SCHOOL CHILDREN

Red Lodge School Board Enforces the Compulsory Statute on Small-pox in the City Schools.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Red Lodge, Oct. 26.—The city school board sat in regular session in this city recently, at which time Dr. B. B. Kelly appeared before the board and explained the interpretation of the compulsory vaccination law, and inasmuch as a case of smallpox had been taken from the schools to the pest house, he demanded that all children who had not previously been vaccinated should be compelled to have the operation performed.

Upon receiving legal advice the board decided to have all the school children examined, and set apart Thursday forenoon as the time.

Board Adopts Resolution.

Following is the resolution adopted: "Whereas, The board of health of Carbon county, through its medical adviser and representation has directed and urged the trustees of this district to enforce the suggestions of the state board of health regarding the vaccination of teachers and pupils, and whereas the medical representative of the county board of health has reported that he has met well defined cases of smallpox amongst the children of this district, and that there is serious danger of an epidemic of that disease; be it hereby:

Resolved, That in accordance with the advice of the state board of health and the directions of the county board of health, all teachers employed in this district and all pupils attending the schools of this district shall be required to show evidence of having been successfully vaccinated within the past five years; and that the principal of the schools be, and he hereby is, directed and empowered to enforce the provisions of this resolution to take effect at once, with the aid and advice of the county physician.

Examines School Children.

In the forenoon of the 17th Drs. Kelly and Doty made an examination of all school children who did not possess certificates of vaccination, and discovered 49 pupils who had not been vaccinated.

Dr. Kelly and Butler vaccinated all those pupils Thursday afternoon whose parents were willing and so notified the parents by rote.

During the examination of the pupils three children, all members of one family, whose parents had strenuously objected to their being vaccinated, were found suffering from the disease known as seven years' itch, and were promptly sent home with instructions not to return to school until they were cured and brought with them a physician's certificate to that effect.

SALOON HELD UP.

Unmasked Man Bobs Little Dewey Casan Register.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 26.—An unmasked man entered the Little Dewey saloon, on Main street, shortly after 6 o'clock last night, bought a drink, held up the bartender and rifled the till of $31.

There were six men in the place drinking at the time. The robber gave the "hands-up" order to all of them, and he then coolly opened the cash register and took all except the small change. He then stepped out into the darkness and disappeared. Several of the bystanders were arrested, as the police believed they might have stood in with the play.

There is absolutely no clew to the identity of the robbers, and the police have made no arrests in the safe-cracking case.

BURLINGTON MEN ARRIVE.

Engineer Ensign Will Push Great Falls Line Extension.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Billings, Oct. 26.—M. W. Ensign, a civil engineer of the Burlington, arrived this morning from Lincoln, Neb., with a force of men and teams and a complete camping outfit. Mr. Ensign has been with the Burlington for many years and laid out nearly every one of its western extensions and branches.

The fact that Mr. Ensign came prepared for field work is evidence that he will join the party already in the field a few miles from this city and push the survey of the Great Falls line through to a rapid finish.

As usual with engineers engaged in new work, Mr. Ensign would say nothing for publication. It is very certain, however, that the Burlington is making a more decisive move than ever before towards extending the line to Great Falls, the consummation of a hope long desired by the business interests of Billings.

"Dummy" Is Discharged. (Special to Inter Mountain.) Billings, Oct. 26.—The case against C. Dunning for burglary in the first degree was dismissed yesterday afternoon in Justice Frazer's court. Dunning is the man who recently fleeced several citizens with the deaf and dumb racket. While acting as such he is alleged to have stolen an overcoat belonging to the cook of the Grand hotel. The evidence was insufficient to warrant continuing the case.

Feminine Gambling.

It is generally known in society, says The Woman at Home, that more than one man of note has had to sell part of his estate to pay his wife's debts at bridge! Everything connected with the acquirement of money has become of absorbing interest to a large section of society, and whereas some 20 or 30 years ago it was considered distinctly ill-bred to discuss financial matters in public, it is now done by all and sundry. For the first time in the history of England young women have been touched with the gambling fever.

Men's Suits and Overcoats at $9.85 That are worth $15.00 and $16.00

The Suits

A dozen distinct lines--each possessing its own particular points of goodness.

The "Melton" garments, we think, deserve first place; they're really the most substantial of all, besides being neat and dressy.

Next come the fancy chevots, always warranted, always desirable, always sure to give good service; quite a few styles of these are shown.

Then there are fancy worsteds and Clay worsteds and serges and cassimeres. Mostly any man can find the suit he desires in this lot, and instead of taxing his finances to the extent of $15 or $16, he buys his choice, Saturday at.....$9.85

The Overcoats

A line varied, extensive and particularly worthy. They're the boulevard box and yoke box styles, graceful, perfect fitting; long and medium long; materials are handsome pure wool chevots, in dark and Oxford shadings, blue kerseys, gray friezes and smooth, fancy-black covert cloths in numerous fashionable hues, the last-named being made with silk sleeves, yokes and pipings; linings and serges are Italian cloths; tailoring is skillful, careful and finished. Plenty of splendid coats for Butte men here, and the price, Saturday, is not $15 or $16, but $9.85

Men's Suits and Overcoats at $16.40 That are worth $22.50

The Suits

They're made mostly from imported fancy chevots, though some blue serges and a great many dashing fancy worsteds find representation. Patterns particularly refined and pretty, just enough coloring to give them snap; not a trace of loudness anywhere. Proper clothing this in every detail. Coats are cut in both military and regulation sacks, in shapes that fit men of all sizes. Linings and tailoring, of course, the best. Also, at the same cost, a line of black frock suits in Clay worsteds and Thibet cloths, fine serge and satin lined. Price, Saturday 16.40

The Overcoats

An enormous showing. Here are imported kersey coats in blue, brown and Oxford shades, with satin yoke and and sleeve linings and fine body linings; also Oxford cheviot and tan covert coats in box and regular styles; some lined throughout with silk, others with fine worsteds and serges. The tailoring is of unalloyed goodness, the styles the most advanced, the fit and finish unusually fine; altogether a superior quality of garments and sold regularly at $22.50. Price, Saturday.....16.40

Men's Pants, worth $4.00 a pair, at $2.90

There will be marvelously profitable choosing in the trouser section of this Saturday. Numbers of lines of fine worsted pants are to be sold for the smallest sum such goods have cost, and two hundred men may share. They are choice, stylish garments in the prettiest of patterns; they are cut from the newest models and are finely finished. They are worth $4.00 a pair all the way through. The price.....$2.90

Boys' Knee Pants Suits, worth $5.00 and $5.50 Saturday $2.95

The freshest, handsomest boy's apparel of the season shown in abundance and variety. Magnificent garments these, each having a certain style tone usually lacking in the commonplace boy's clothes. Materials are most excellent--fine serges, imported worsteds and novelty cloths of several types are the chief fabrics, while the patterns and colorings are distinctively exclusive; three piece vestee suits for the little fellows and two piece double breasted suits for the larger boys; all at.....$2.95

Boys' Reefers and Top Coats, worth $4.00 and $4.50, Saturday $2.35

The reefers are in sizes from 3 to 9 years and are shown in the fine blue and brown astrachan, in tan covert cloth and in heavy melton. All these garments have velvet collars, are lined with Italian cloth and stitched with silk.

The top coats are in sizes 8 to 16; are shown in gray chevots and tan covert cloth and are cut in the same styles as the men's garments. Both lines are certainly wonderful; value representing $4.00 and $4.50 worth and being sold at.....$2.35
