

THE BUTTE INTER MOUNTAIN.

VOL. XXI. NO. 234

BUTTE, MONTANA, TUESDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 24, 1901.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

NODIZ IS RAZED
(Associated Press.)
Calcutta, Dec. 24.—A British punitive expedition has razed Nodiz fort, in South Baluchistan, which had long been the stronghold of a fierce band of outlaws. The latter held out until the fort was demolished by guns. About a dozen men were buried in the ruins, five others were killed, 14 wounded and 63 captured. The British casualties were three men killed and eight wounded.

SENT TO JAIL.
(Associated Press.)
Dublin, Dec. 24.—At Ballinacorney, county Sligo, today, Jasper Tully, member of parliament for South Leitrim, was sentenced to one month's imprisonment; John O'Donnell, member of parliament for South Mayo, two months' imprisonment, and other members of the United Irish league to terms of imprisonment ranging from a month to three months.

KEENE'S HORSES
WILL SHIP STABLE OF GOOD ONES TO ENGLAND.
ENGAGED AN ENGLISH TRAINER
Some of the Best Horses in the World Will Race Under His Famous Race Colors on English Courses.

(By Associated Press.)
New York, Dec. 24.—James R. Keene will have one of the best stables of race horses in England next season. It is announced he has just secured the noted English trainer, Felix Leach, to take charge of his string. Sam Darling, who trained for him last year, is in bad health and has been compelled to take a trip to South Africa.

At the head of the string will be Conroy, the only 3-year-old colt that ever won the Brooklyn handicap. He has fully recovered from his stone bruises which caused a quarter crack and is in fine physical condition.

Among the other noted horses are: Cap and Bells, winner of the English stakes this year; Disguise II., who finished third for the derby; Chacornac, a winner of the futurity; Olympian, who was second to Ballyhoo Bey in the futurity of 1900, and Noonday, a fast stake filly.

The horses have been shipped from Beckhampton, Mr. Keene's regular training grounds, to Newmarket.

Bodies Recovered From Wreck.
(By Associated Press.)
Liverpool, Dec. 24.—Six bodies have been recovered from the Dingle station tunnel. These apparently represent the total number of deaths resulting from the burning of the electric train yesterday on the overhead railroad.

ANOTHER CONTINUANCE TAKEN.
Barnaman Case Goes Over Until January 2.

In order to give the attorneys an opportunity to get out a transcript of the testimony, Justice Nelson has continued the finishing touches in the Barnaman perjury cases until January 2. The transcripts were to have been ready today, but there was more work connected with them than was at first anticipated.

A decision in the case will not be rendered until after the testimony has been read to the witnesses and signed by them.

BLOWN TO ATOMS
In Too Much Haste Throwing Giant Powder.

(By Associated Press.)
Tacoma, Wash., Dec. 24.—As the result of his haste to thaw a stick of dynamite, Andrew Pavik, a Fairfax miner, was blown to atoms Saturday evening.

Pavik's right leg was shattered, both his arms were blown off; the flesh was ripped off his feet and the force of the explosion blew every stitch of his clothes off his body.

In this frightful condition Pavik lingered for nearly six hours.

Vessels Long Overdue.
(By Associated Press.)
San Francisco, Dec. 24.—Two vessels have been added to the overdue list at the Merchants' exchange. They are the British ship Black Bals, 111 days out from Table bay for Portland, quoted at 10 per cent reinsurance, and the British bark Earl Cadogan, 176 days out from Antwerp for Los Angeles, quoted at 16 per cent.

Crime Increasing in Macedonia.
(By Associated Press.)
Constantinople, Dec. 24.—Assassination and pillaging of villages and outraging of inhabitants have so increased recently in Macedonia that the consuls have appealed to the embassies to put a stop to such crimes. The foreign ministers have made urgent representations to the port of the danger of permitting the continuance of such acts.

EDGAR S. MACLAY.

NAVAL LITERARY LIGHT TURNED OUT.

(By Associated Press.)
New York, Dec. 24.—Edgar Stanton MacLay, author of a history of the United States navy, may resign his position as storekeeper at the navy yard as a result of the Sampson-Schley controversy. Mr. MacLay is quoted as saying: "If the president's order is paramount to civil service rules, it knocks out the proposition under which I have been resting. I intended to make a test case, but now there is nothing left for me but to get out as gracefully as I can."

"When will you resign?" was asked.
"Maybe today. I shall look up the law and if I find that the president has power to remove me, I shall resign forthwith."

IS UP TO THE JURY

LEE AND GARVIN CASE REACHED JURY TODAY.

DAY GIVEN UP TO ARGUMENT

Warren Toole Took Up All the Forenoon for the Defense—Rodgers Closed for the Prosecution.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)
Helena, Dec. 24.—The case of Robert E. Lee and Samuel Garvin, charged with running 1000 head of Indian and government cattle off the Crow Indian reservation, went to the jury late this afternoon. The opening statement was made to the jury by the prosecution yesterday afternoon, after the prosecution had completed its evidence in rebuttal. County Attorney F. H. Hathorne of Yellowstone county, spoke first and was followed by E. E. Longabaugh. United States District Attorney Rodgers reserved his statement until the last.

W. M. Johnston and O. F. Goddard made arguments for the defendants. The entire morning session was occupied by the argument of E. Warren Toole for the defense.

When United States District Attorney Rodgers completed his statement this afternoon, the case went to the jury.

Queen Alexander Much Improved.
(By Associated Press.)
London, Dec. 24.—Queen Alexandria is progressing satisfactorily toward recovery.

JUDGE MCCLERNAN ADJOURNS.
Closes Court Till Monday, January 6, 1902.

Judge McClernan after a session of court this morning, closed his department of the district court till January 6, 1902.

Judge McClernan kept his court open for several days after the other two judges of the district court shut up shop for Christmas.

The term of his court following his summer vacation has been exceedingly busy, and he has disposed of a great amount of criminal and probate business, as well as some civil business.

One criminal trial has followed another, and every Monday a big probate calendar has been cleaned up. He and the court hands will enjoy the Christmas rest.

NEARLY A TORNADO
Storm Now Sweeping Across Colorado Foot Hills.

(By Associated Press.)
Denver, Colo., Dec. 24.—A terrible gale, approaching in places the severity of a tornado, visited the foothills along the Rocky mountains from Cheyenne to Pike's peak, at Golden, where the storm was most severe.

The old city hall building was blown down and a residence next door crushed beneath it.

The occupants barely escaped with their lives. In the Boulder district four oil derricks were destroyed and many buildings blown down, and scores of chimneys toppled over.

