NEVER HIT A LADY

FRED GRAY THROWS VERBAL BOQUETS AT HIMSELF.

SAYS HE IS A GENTLEMAN

Reformer Farley Would Make an Honest Woman of Annie Curney—Woman Claims He Assaulted Her.

"I never hit a lady in my life, Judge Boyle!" exclaimed Fred Gray this morning when arraigned on charges of disturbance and of assault and battery on the person of Alice Bowling in the Copper King block. "I'm too much of a gentleman to hit a lady. I'm sick now, and I've got a note from the doctor to put me in the hospital."

"You're a mighty healthy-looking sick man, Fred," remarked the court. "You've had one of those written excuses every time you're up here."

"That's so? Well, I am sick. I've got a brother around on earth yet, who will sue the city if you put me in jail while I'm sick and anything happens to me."

Gray became so offensive in his remarks that Officer Young was ordered by the court to run the prisoner downstairs into the dungeon.

He will be tried tomorrow afternoon, when it is likely that his brother will be given the opportunity of testing the city's legal strength.

Farley Is a Reformer.

Charles Farley, arrested on a charge of disturbance and abusing Annie Curney on the streets, said he guessed he was guilty of disturbance, but that he had a good excuse.

"I've supported that woman, Judge," said he, "and I'm trying to make an honest woman out of her, while her sister is leading her to the bad. That's why I talked to her when I found her in the Copper King saloon."

Farley was given until this afternoon to guess what his fine would be.

The woman in the case appeared at the police station to tell the chief that she wasn't married to Farley, and to exhibit a silk waist which she said he had slashed into ribbons after assaulting her.

Some Minor Offenders.

Tom Noland pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy and was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail.

Tim Lyons pleaded not guilty to the same charge and his case was set for trial Thursday afternoon.

Thomas Rafferty, Nellie Lee, "Jim Slim" and John Clark pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness and were each fined $5.

John Roach was arraigned on a charge of living off the money supplied by fallen women and will be tried January 3.

"French Pele" Prohammer, the hackman accused of over-charging, was given 24 hours in which to enter his plea.

AN OFT-TOLD TALE

A GAY FARMER BOY WHO SAW THE CITY.

HE WAS ROBBED BY A WOMAN

Incident the Result of a Trip Through the Tenderloin—Waited Until Morning Came and Then Told the Police—Thieves to Be Arrested.

Another highway robbery by colored women was reported at police headquarters this morning.

The victim is Walter Mummy, who lives in the Jefferson valley, and who rode into Butte Saturday on a sightseeing trip.

Mummy reported to the chief this morning that he had started for the stables on Wyoming street, where he left his horse, and was passing the alley on Arizona street between Mercury and Galena streets about 1 o'clock this morning, when he was approached by two colored women.

One of them threw her arms around him and insisted on his accompanying her.

Mummy says he pushed the woman away forcibly, and kept on down the street.

He walked away a few feet and suddenly remembered that he had placed his pocketbook containing $23 in his hip pocket.

A search showed that the purse and money was missing, but the women made good their escape before he returned to the alley.

As a stranger in the city Mummy did not know the ropes, and could only wait until morning to report his loss.

The victim is positive he can identify the pair, and Chief Reynolds today gave orders to round up the women thieves in the district and have them inspected by the Jefferson county traveler.

SPORTING ST. LOUIS CHINAMAN.

Says He Was Robbed by a Pleasant Alley Woman Last Night.

A Chinaman, who gave an unpronounceable name and claimed to hail from St. Louis, told the police yesterday that he had been robbed of $35 by a woman in Pleasant alley.

The woman, he claimed, threatened him with a knife and thus compelled him to stand still while she searched his clothes.

After an investigation the police decided there wasn't anything in the story and no arrests were made.

McGillic Gets a Burglar.

After Officer McGillie arrested Nellie Lee yesterday for being drunk, he returned to the woman's cabin in Pleasant alley.

In the cabin he found a colored man, Stark Moore, who was going through the woman's effects.

Moore was arrested on a charge of burglary and this morning arraigned before Judge Boyle.

The negro pleaded not guilty and will be tried next Thursday.

TOM LEMACK HELD

CANADIAN AUTHORITIES WILL COME TO BUTTE FOR HIM.

HE IS A VERY BAD INDIAN

Provincial Officer Will Arrive From Regina Tonight or Tomorrow—Detective Murphy, Who Captured Le Mack, Will Receive Reward.

Tom LeMack, the Indian accused of murder by the Canadian authorities, is being held in the county jail until officers can be sent for him.

Saturday the Indian was arrested by Detective Murphy and immediately Chief Reynolds wired the Canadian officials the news of the arrest.

Yesterday the chief received the following telegram: "Regina, N. W. T.—J. M. Reynolds, Chief of Police, Butte: Hold him. I will leave for Butte at once."

"CROWN PROSECUTOR."

The Canadian officer is expected here tonight or tomorrow, it being necessary to secure extradition papers in the territory for presentation to the United States authorities.

According to the reports a reward of $200 was offered for the Indian, and this amount will be paid to Detective Murphy, LeMack's captor.

RATE FOR ENGINEERS.

Northern Pacific and Interested Lines Makes It One and a Third.

Charles S. Fee, general passenger agent for the Northern Pacific road, wired the company's general agent in this city today to the effect that the Northern Pacific and interested lines had decided to make a round trip rate of one and a third fare to Butte on the occasion of the meeting of the Society of Montana Engineers in this city on the 9th, 10th and 11th of next month.

The rate is to have no conditions with reference to the number of those who propose to attend the sessions. Ordinarily when a rate of this nature is made it is based upon a guarantee that a stipulated number of persons will take advantage of it, but in this case the condition has been cut out.

Junk Dealers Arraigned.

Another of the cases against junk dealers whom the police are trying to force out of business on the ground that they have violated the city ordinances and bought stolen property, came up before Judge Boyle this morning.

The two members of the firm of Gordon & Perelson were represented and entered a plea of not guilty. The trial of the cases will be held January 7.

There is a Store on West Broadway

That ushered in a clearance sale this morning of the greatest importance to housekeepers, and the high standing of the store gives this sale great weight. The sale includes every piece of furniture in their immense establishment from a 65c chair to a $150.00 Davenport. This is the fourth of a series of yearly discount sales inaugurated by this famous store, and people familiar with their former sales will readily avail themselves of this opportunity to buy high-class furniture at the clearance sale prices. The reason these sales have proven so successful is the simple fact that they handle nothing but the best goods, and mark every piece in plain figures at all times, while during these sales different colored tags are used in addition to the regular selling tags, with the price marked on them, giving assurance of a square deal. The discounts range from 10 to 50 per cent, and the stock is all new, being purchased after their big fire in August. The object of these sales is to realize on as much furniture as possible before February 1st—stock-taking time—thereby making a better showing for the year's business. There are china closets, sideboards, elegant tables, cheffoniers, dressers, ladies' desks, dressing tables, chairs, rockers, Davenport—in fact, everything in their entire store, with the exception of the Great Majestic Steel and Malleable Range and the Globe-Wernicke Sectional Bookcases and Dining Cabinets. The profit is too small and the value too great on these goods to discount them in the least. Write for big 48-page catalogue, mailed free.

Jenkins' Financial Trouble.

William B. Jenkins, who gives his occupation as that of agent and collector, petitioned the federal court today to be declared a bankrupt. The petition was granted. Thompson Campbell as referee in bankruptcy will hear the matter January 15.

Jenkins places his liabilities at $2017.33 and his assets at $105. The schedule of liabilities shows the total amount of the indebtedness to be unsecured. The property under the head of assets consists of a watch, valued at $10, and wearing apparel valued at $95, which are claimed as exempt by the state law.

The creditors and amounts due them are as follows:

Mary Gresley, a judgment for $1518.20, obtained in Judge Clancy's court October 3, 1901; J. R. Russell, as receiver for the Yellow Jack lode mining claim, which is involved in an action commenced in the district court December 17, 1901, said action being in the nature of a claim in trust for unlawful enter and detainer and the amount involved, with interest, being $499.63.

DAMAGE CASES NON-SUITED.

An Ogdon Judge Holds That Aliens Cannot Recover.

A. J. Shores and D'Gay Stivers, attorneys for the Amalgamated company, returned yesterday from Ogdon, where they appeared in court as counsel for the Diamondville Coal & Coke company in several damage suits brought against the company by relatives of the men who were killed in the explosion at the Diamondville mines several months ago. The suits numbered 28, one for each man killed, and were for $15,000 each. The men who lost their lives being citizens of foreign countries, counsel for the defense asked for a non-suit in each case on the ground that aliens had no right of action or recovery. Judge Roloph sustained the motion and the plaintiffs gave notice of their intention to appeal to the supreme court.

Attorney J. T. Richards of Salt Lake appeared in court with Messrs. Shores and Stivers.
