OIL BOOM STARTED

OREGON DISCOVERIES ENTHUSE MANY ANACONDANS.

STOCKS ARE ABOVE PAR TODAY

As a Result of the Malheur County Finds—County Officials Have Dreams of Great Wealth—Will Become Oil Magnates.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)
Anaconda, Jan. 20.—Oil stock went up in Anaconda yesterday on the strength of the Associated Press dispatch containing the information that oil in large quantities had been struck in the Malheur basin in Eastern Oregon.

Report Is Believed.

Mr. Napton has kept careful watch of developments for several months and has been instrumental in forming several local companies which have recently acquired territory in the Oregon oil belt.

The formations of the section are peculiarly favorable for oil, Mr. Napton declares, and his opinions have been confirmed by experts acquainted with the other oil districts of the country.

Among the Anacondans who have staked their faith in Oregon oil are Judge Napton, Percy Napton, H. P. Napton, Sheriff Conley, Clerk of the District Court William E. Thomas, Martin Martin, W. R. Allen, H. W. Rodgers, J. H. Duffy, Henry Redmond and a number of others.

Looking at Specimens.
There was quite a flurry of excitement around the office of Attorney Napton yesterday and today, and a great many examined the specimens of oil rock sent to Mr. Napton not long ago.

Around the courthouse business is slack and the county officials find comfort in dreams of becoming wealthy out of their oil investments.

What the Man Thought Who Talked to the Dumb Waiter.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)
Anaconda, Jan. 20.—Dumb waiters are numerous in this city. Sometimes they run from basement to the first floor, sometimes from first floor to the second, but the location cuts no figure in this story.

Several days ago an old prospector from back in the hills was making his annual visit to Anaconda.

As he had been in town three days, of course his eyesight was somewhat impaired, as would be naturally expected. He wandered into a place where the dumb waiter was doing its share of the work.

He saw bottles, cigars, lemonades, etc. going apparently into the wall, and his curiosity was aroused.

Upon inquiry he was told that it was the "dumb waiter."

He misconstrued the meaning somehow, and got it into his head that behind that door was a man. Always sociable, he endeavored to open up a conversation.

After repeated knockings and getting no response he confided to a grinning messenger boy that the "dumb" (with emphasis on the dumb) waiter would not talk.

That precocious youth saw a chance opening and replied:

"They are not allowed to talk."
It was entirely lost on the old man, who shambled out muttering that he did not wish to break the rules of any house.

BANDIT'S CAPTOR

PROVES TO BE BROTHER TO DR. OWEN OF THIS CITY.

WILSON OWEN A HUSKY MAN

Only Twenty-seven Years of Age But Plenty Able to Take Care of Himself in Dealing With Desperate Characters.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Anaconda, Jan. 20.—Advised received yesterday from Billings, stated that a desperate character by the name of Charles Woodward had been delivered to the sheriff at that point as the supposed murderer of Sheriff Ricker of Natrona county, Wyoming.

Woodward, it is claimed, escaped from a Wyoming jail recently and, after drifting about for several days, sought employment at the ranch of Wilson Owen, near Billings.

Woodward confided in Owen's that he had killed Sheriff Ricker and wanted protection from the officers.

Owen concluded that his place was no harbor for criminals, so with the assistance of two ranchmen, Woodward was rounded up and arrested after a desperate struggle.

Dr. Owen of this city is a brother of the one who effected the capture of Woodward. The doctor stated today that his brother is a strong, robust young fellow 27 years of age, and plenty able to take care of himself in an encounter such as he had with the alleged murderer of Sheriff Ricker.

No meetings have been held since last May and the object of tomorrow's meeting is for the purpose of discussing plans for reorganization of the club and the opening up of permanent headquarters in some suitable locality.

The Lincoln club was an important factor in the last municipal campaign and the harmonious result is credited to the unceasing labors of the members of that organization.

Coming Attractions.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Anaconda, Jan. 20.—The attraction at the Margaret theater for next Sunday will be the celebrated rural comedy, "Alvin Joslin."

This play is so familiar to the theater-going public that extended notice seems unnecessary. This season the play has been rewritten and brought up-to-date and a complete new equipment of special scenery has been provided.

The plot is much stronger than ever, and the comedy element has not been neglected for the "180 laughs in 180 minutes" are still to be had.

Among the principal scenes, showing familiar places in New York, are mentioned the Grand Central depot, Pier 29 East river with the famous Brooklyn bridge by moonlight, a thieves den in Baxter street, and a typical Bowery Concert hall.

The Chicago Symphony orchestra with its more than half a hundred instruments and its splendid soloists is said to eclipse anything of the kind that has ever been heard on the Pacific coast.

Adolph Rosenbecker, the director, is known to stand at the head of concert directors of the United States in the present day, and each of the supporting soloists is an attraction alone. At the theater next Monday.

BEFORE COMMITTEE

CAREY OF COLORADO SAYS THE FREE CUBAN SUGAR WOULD RUIN BEET INDUSTRY.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Jan. 20.—The Cuban reciprocity hearings were resumed today before the ways and means committee, with delegations representing the beet sugar industry of Colorado and a number of Cubans, representing the planters of the island in attendance.

W. F. Carey, of Colorado, spoke of the development of the beet sugar industry of Colorado and its bright prospects if not endangered by Cuban concessions, which he asserted would rebound to the great advantage of the American Sugar Refining company.

The present movement, he said, was only another chapter in the inevitable conflict between the domestic sugar producers of this country and the refining company, the latter seeking to crush the former.

Cuba Will Not Suffer.
A bubble which had been pricked, he said, was that Cuba was suffering from starvation. This idea had been industriously encouraged by the pamphletting of the sugar company and yet the claim had been torn to pieces during these hearings.

Representative Hopkins, of Illinois, questioned the witness as to whether a concession to Cuba would injure the beet sugar industry.

Mr. Carey declared that injury in such cases was inevitable.

Representative Hopkins said Mr. Carey's assertion of injury to the beet sugar industry was only an assumption, and he expressed the belief that a reduction could be made of a certain percentage without destroying the beet sugar industry.

Representative Dalsell and Representative Grosvenor took part in the discussion, stating that the injury to the domestic producers had been shown by this and other witnesses.

Mr. Grosvenor remarked that anyone could see this result who could put two and two together.

BOERS NOT SEEKING PEACE.

Yves Guyot in Paris Declares That Anglophobia Is a French Malady.

(By Associated Press.)
London, Jan. 20.—Telegraphing from Paris, the correspondent of The Times says that Yves Guyot in Le Siecle declares that French Anglophobia is a clerical malady and is applauded in the chamber only by the right.

The Leys and Kruger delegates, he intimates, will not attempt to secure peace, and he further says that the prolongation of the war will be due not to England, but to the Boers.

The Times' correspondent, telegraphing from Vienna, states that the Fremdenblatt, which sometimes has a semi-official character, opines from Chamberlain's speech that the English government is ready in theory to listen to peace overtures from the Boers, although it would be difficult to open negotiations.

The Boer hope for independence, says the Fremdenblatt, is mere infatuation, which will be succeeded by fanaticism and despair.

SENT BACK TO SING SING.

No. 52,623 Is the First Convict in Years Caught Breaking His Parole.

New York, Jan. 20.—William Thomas, who until recently, was No. 52,623 in Sing Sing prison, is said to be the first convict in several years to be found guilty of violating his parole.

He was sent back yesterday by Magistrate Brann in the Center Street police court.

Thomas once belonged to the "Dutch Thieves" house breakers on the Lower East Side.

He was sent to prison last March for a year on a charge of burglary, and was paroled in October.

According to Deputy Warden Keno, the man soon rejoined his old associates. He will not leave prison now until the latter part of May.

LAKE FISHERMEN LOST.

Three Men Caught Out in a Blizzard on Drifting Ice in Lake Erie.

(By Associated Press.)

Buffalo, Jan. 20.—All hope of rescuing Elijah Moody, John E. Neff and John O'Neill, who went out on the lake to fish, just before the storm developed into a blizzard last evening was given up at noon today.

It was then learned that large fields of ice had broken from the shore ice and drifted down the lake.

It is not thought possible now that the three men could survive and the rescuing parties that went after them have returned disheartened.

Moody was an engineer on the Lehigh Valley railroad, Neff is a saloonkeeper and O'Neill a fisherman.
