

ELABORATE LUNCH

J. PIERPONT MORGAN ARRANGING A GREAT SPREAD.

SERVANTS' EXPENSIVE SUITS

Liveries to Be Worn Are of Ancient Cut But Made of Modern and Costly Materials - New Unique Uniforms.

(By Associated Press.) New York, Feb. 21.-Of all the entertainments organized in honor of Prince Henry there will be none more elaborate than the luncheon to be given for him at Sherry's on Wednesday next by the representatives of American finance, trade and industry.

The moving spirit in the affair is J. Pierpont Morgan in the way of giving the royal visitor an idea of the possibility of the American gastronomy. It is proposed to surpass anything of the kind that has ever taken place here before.

The cost of the luncheon will be great and among the items of expense will be the highly ornate liveries now being made for the entire staff of waiters employed in connection with the entertainment.

The prince and his entertainers will be surrounded by servants who will look as if they stepped out of a canvass in the days of the Georges of England.

New Unique Uniforms. Each of these servants, smooth shaven and impressive countenance will wear, instead of the conventional swallow tail, a black cloth coat with seven black cloth covered buttons extending to the waist.

A fine piece of black braid runs from the button to the edge of the coat which is without lapels and has a clerical collar, and at the front of the throat is a white satin bow.

Under the coat is a white buttonless waist coat, the bottom coming well down over the waistband of the black plush breeches, of full cut, covered in at the knee with a band which tops a pair of white stockings.

Patent leather pumps, with buckles complete the costumes. The whole outfit is a complete reproduction of the livery used in England a century ago, but of much finer texture.

WOULD-BE ROBBER.

He Killed the Cashier and Then Shot Himself.

(By Associated Press.) San Antonio, Texas, Feb. 21.-A special to the Express from Mexico City says a daring and foolhardy attempt was made to rob the London and Mexico bank, one of the strongest financial concerns in the City of Mexico, by an unknown robber, who, after killing the cashier and seeing that he would be captured, blew out his own brains.

At the noon hour when business was slack and when no one but employees were in the bank, the robber entered the building and, unobserved, made his way to the vault near which was the cashier, whom he covered with a pistol and demanded that he give up the money in his custody. On the cashier's refusal, the robber fired, the bullet striking the cashier in the head and killing him instantly.

The other employees made a rush for the door, but were fired upon by the robber, who fired three shots at them but without effect. The men continued to advance, and, seeing that his capture was inevitable, the robber turned his pistol on himself and sent a bullet through his brain, dying instantly in the bank.

The dead robber had no papers or articles on his body that would serve to identify him, and other than that he was an American, nothing is known of him.

He was well dressed, wore a full beard well trimmed, and was about 45 years old. His general appearance was that of a well-to-do business man.

FURTHER LITIGATION STOPPED.

Estate of A. T. Stewart Has Been Saved Again.

(By Associated Press.) New York, Feb. 21.-Another attempt to throw the estate of A. T. Stewart into litigation has been stopped by Justice Scott of the supreme court. It was in the form of an action brought against the estate, which virtually was an action in ejectment, affecting all of the property left by Mr. Stewart.

Counsel for John Stewart, the plaintiff, made a motion for the appointment of a commission to take the testimony of a great many persons at present living in Ireland as to the alleged relations of plaintiff to the dead millionaire merchant. The court said that ordinarily such a motion would be granted, but that in the present case he was satisfied that the case appeared to be a speculative action, and had not been shown to differ from similar actions which had been dismissed.

"There should come a time," said the court, "when merely vexatious and harassing litigation will not be ordered by the court. It would seem, therefore, that as to the estate of A. T. Stewart that the time has come.

Mrs. Blackburn was one of the organizers and a member of the first board of directors of the Woman's Baptist Mission Home society, and was for years its vice president in Indiana. She was well known in church circles throughout the United States.

Athletic Meet Canceled. (By Associated Press.) Berkeley, Cal., Feb. 21.-The proposed athletic meet between the track team of the University of California and the track team of Harvard has been canceled. Graduate Manager Ezra Deloto has received a letter from the manager of the Harvard team, who says that other engagements will prevent his men from participating in the event which had been scheduled.

INDIAN SCHOOLS

CARLISLE INSTITUTION ATTACKED BY MR. SMITH.

SOME SENSATIONAL CHARGES

It Was Declared to Be Cruel to Educate Indians and Then Return Them to Savage Life on the Reservations.

(By Associated Press.) Washington, Feb. 21.-The house spent the day working on the Indian appropriation bill. Forty-two of the pages were disposed of. Several amendments were adopted. The appropriation for preliminary work on the reservoir for the Gila river valley went out on a point of order. Mr. Smith, Arizona, offered an amendment to strike out the appropriation for the Carlisle school, and it became the text for a general onslaught on the practice of educating Indians in Eastern schools. His amendment was defeated.

The general debate on the Indian appropriation bill having closed yesterday, the bill was read in the house today for amendment under the five-minute rule.

Mr. Sherman of New York, chairman of the Indian committee, who was in charge of the measure, explained that the bill carried $8,441,565, being $1,317,234 more than the estimates, but $1,297,195 less than the amount carried by the current law.

Mr. Little of Arkansas offered an amendment to direct the commissioner of Indian affairs "to examine and decide the feasibility and expediency of educating the Indians in schools upon the reservations and in communities where such Indians reside and to submit the best plan to accomplish this end to congress at the next session." It was adopted.

Amendments Adopted. Amendments were adopted to increase the number of acres to be held by members of the Creek nation until allotments are made from 100 to 160 and to reduce the number of acres to be held by each member of the Cherokee nation from 120 to 100.

Mr. Jones of Washington offered an amendment which was adopted to appropriate $12,000 to remove the Wenatchee Indians on the Columbia river to the Colville reservation. Another amendment was adopted, appropriating $109,000 to remove 200 Mission Indians from their present location in California to the Montezuma ranch, in San Diego county.

In the course of the debate upon a pro forma statement, Mr. Sherman made the statement that the interior department found difficulty in securing farmers to teach Indians. Although the farmers are paid from $65 to $75 per month, there were at one time this year 23 vacancies.

Point of Order Sustained. Mr. Cannon made a point of order against the provision to appropriate $50,000 to enable the secretary of the interior to begin work in the construction of a reservoir on the Gila river, Arizona, for storing water to be used for the benefit of the Gila Indians.

Mr. Smith, the delegate from Arizona, denied that this appropriation was designed as an entering wedge for the irrigating movement. The point of order was sustained by Mr. Mondell, Wyoming, who was in the chair.

Attack on Carlisle School. Mr. Smith, the delegate from Arizona, moved to strike out the appropriation for the Carlisle Indian school. He declared that experience showed these schools, distant from the Indian reservations, had done more harm than good. The policy was a mistaken one, in his opinion. The children were educated, made a show of by well-dressed people, after which they went back to the dirt and squalor in which they had been brought up. He insisted that the Indian should be educated in the environment in which he must live. These Indian schools in the East were, he said, the outgrowth of an ignorant sentimentalism. Philosophy, mathematics and geometry taught the Indians nothing. He said the best education possessed by one of the Indians on the San Carlos reservation had been obtained by serving four years in the penitentiary. He had been taught discipline.

Mr. Cannon Agreed. Mr. Cannon joined with Mr. Smith in opposing the Eastern schools. He declared that it was the height of cruelty to educate the Indians and then send them back to savagery. "It becomes a matter of pride with the tribe," said he, "to force the young man to again put on the blanket and drive the young woman into prostitution."

After some further discussion by Mr. Lacy, Iowa, against, and by Mr. Fitzgerald, New York, and Mr. Morrill, Pennsylvania, in support of the Smith amendment, it was lost.

Mr. Bell, Colorado, offered an amendment to appropriate $45,000 for the Indian school at Grand Junction, Colo. It was adopted.

Sensational Charges. Mr. Fitzgerald, New York, created something of a sensation by moving that no part of the appropriation for the Indian school at Mount Pleasant, Mich., should be used to pay the present superintendent, who, he said, had been charged with permitting the debauching of Indian girls.

Mr. Sherman declared that if the superintendent had been guilty of the practices charged, the civil service law would not protect him and that if evidence was produced to justify the charges, the commissioner of Indian affairs would dismiss him instantly. He proposed that Mr. Fitzgerald go with him to the Indian office tomorrow and investigate the whole matter. "If any one has been guilty of things charged," he said, "he will be out of the service before night."

Without action on the amendment, the house at 4:55 p. m. adjourned.

Success at Last. (Detroit Free Press.) The Father-"I'm so glad John got elected to congress. The Mother-"Yes. It's a great relief. He has tried so many ways of earning a living and failed."

THE WATER CURE

GENERAL FUNSTON EXPLAINS HOW IT IS APPLIED.

IS BRUTAL BEYOND A DOUBT

Use of This Mode of Torture Has Been Much Exaggerated by Soldiers With Too Lively Imagination.

(By Associated Press.) Kansas City, Feb. 21.-Gen. Frederick Funston, in discussing the "water cure," a form of torture, charged against the soldiers in the Philippines, said he had never seen the "water cure" applied, but he had heard it described.

"The victim is bound and a canieen forced into his mouth," said the general. "His head is thrown upward and back and his nose grasped by the fingers of the torturer."

"Strangulation follows as a matter of course. When the victim is about suffocated the application is released and he is given a chance to talk on recovery or take another dose of it."

"The operation is brutal beyond a doubt, but hardly fatal. The charges which I have just refuted at the request of the war department were most vague. It was made by 'a soldier,' and to the effect that he had 'helped administer the water cure to 16 natives.' That is the kind of rot a soldier is liable to write home when business is dull and he has three or four beers under his jacket to help his imagination."

"Nothing of the kind ever occurred with the knowledge of the officers or ever occurred at all, for that matter."

SERIES OF TESTS

MARCONI SYSTEM NOW INSTALLED ON 70 SHIPS.

CAN BE USED COMMERCIALY

Inventor Claims That 22 Words a Minute Can Be Transmitted by the Wireless Plan-Will Compete With Cable Lines.

(By Associated Press.) London, Feb. 21.-At a general meeting of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph company today, Mr. Marconi, referring to the trans-Atlantic experiments, announced that the next series of tests would include the transmission of words and messages.

He added that there was nothing to prevent the company from undertaking commercial communication with ships at sea. The system at present was in permanent use on board 70 ships and there were 25 land stations.

His transmission of 22 words in a minute did not compare badly with the work of the cables.

The defects with reference to secrecy had been removed. After perfecting arrangements in Canada, he would challenge Sir William Pries and Prof. Lodge to intercept messages.

The monopoly claimed by the British Postal telegraph had hitherto impeded the establishment of a wireless telegraph service in England and Ireland.

Mr. Marconi complained that obstructions were thrown in his way on this side of the Atlantic, in marked contrast with the generous encouragement which he had received from the government and press of the United States and Canada.

In regard to the commercial side of the system, Mr. Marconi said that on the recent arrival of an American liner, upward of 8,000 words were received within 16 hours.

The transmission of this number of words across the Atlantic would represent an annual income of £73,000 for each pair of stations. The company in the first instance was proceeding to install two pairs of stations.

Mr. Marconi will sail for Canada next Saturday.

HAY-PAUL CEFOTE TREATY.

Flag Will Go Up on Danish Islands at Once.

(By Associated Press.) Washington, Feb. 21.-Lord Pauncefote was at the state department yesterday, and it was arranged between himself and Secretary Hay that the final ratifications of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty shall be exchanged here as soon as the mechanical work of pressing the exchange copies can be completed. The British government has conveyed to its ambassador full authority to conclude this arrangement.

Mr. Brun, the Danish minister, also saw Secretary Hay in relation to the ratification of the treaty for the cession to the United States of the Danish West Indian islands. It seems improbable now that the mooted plebiscite of the inhabitants of the islands will be had by the Danish government.

However, should it be decided otherwise, the taking of the vote will be a very small matter, inasmuch as the franchise is enjoyed in the Danish West Indies by only a few hundred of the total population, and their votes could be recorded in a day or two.

It will not be necessary to wait upon congress for the appropriation of $5,000,000 as a preliminary to the acquisition of the islands by the United States. Under the treaty, as soon as the ratifications are exchanged, the United States flag will be hoisted, and the $5,000,000, if not already appropriated, will be charged up against the United States as a debt.

WOMAN WAS STABBED.

Assisted in Capture of Robber Who Assaulted Her Husband.

(By Associated Press.) San Diego, Cal., Feb. 21.-Los Banos, the bathhouse near the Santa Fe station, was yesterday afternoon the scene of a daylight robbery, unprecedented for its boldness.

Mrs. Nevius, the wife of the proprietor, lies in a serious condition as the result of a knife stab, and the robber is in jail with a pistol ball in one of his legs.

The robber was discovered by Mr. Nevius holding a knife at the throat of a stranger and taking his valuables. Mr. Nevius grappled with him, but the robber turned his knife on the proprietor and took from him his watch and money.

At this juncture Mrs. Nevius discovered what was going on, and hurried to her husband with a revolver. The robber plunged the knife into her left side and rushed out of the house, followed by Mr. Nevius, who fired and brought down the man.

Officers arrived on the scene in time to prevent the escape of the robber.

His Father Cussed. (Louisville Post.) "Do you know the nature of an oath?" asked the judge.

"Yes, sir," answered the youthful witness, "and if you had my old man around your house you would, too."
