King Edward's Leves.

(By Associated Press.) London, March 6.—The second levee held by King Edward since his accession to the throne occurred at St. James palace today. It was not so largely attended as the first of the king's levees, but it was surrounded by the same elaborate ceremonial. Dense fogs marred the function from a spectacular point of view, both within and without the palace.

POLICE COMMITTEE WILL MEET

SATURDAY FOR THE PURPOSE OF INVESTIGATING

PAUL LEGAR ROBBERY RUMORS

Members of the city council and the police committee of that body will probe the stories flying in regard to the alleged division of stolen money belonging to the Frenchman, Paul Legar. This was decided upon at the council meeting last night when Alderman Duggan brought up the matter and a reference was made to the police committee.

Chairman Mayo of the police committee stated this afternoon that he would call a meeting for the purpose of carrying out the wishes of the council for 3 o'clock next Saturday afternoon.

Just at present everyone except Aldermen Duggan and Dempsey profess to be at sea over the investigating proposition. The most that can be gleaned from the city officials is that a meeting will be held and that Judge Hoyle and some others will be asked to tell what they know.

As some of those to be questioned have decided that they were mistaken and that it's a case of which they know nothing the indications now are that unless some one talks more than has been planned the investigation won't amount to much.

"I don't know what there is to be investigated," said the mayor this afternoon. "It is likely that the doings of a certain house may be looked into, but so far as the two policemen are concerned I don't think there is anything in the stories."

Reporters May Be Investigated.

"I don't know what we're going to investigate," said Chairman Mayo, "I believe we're going to investigate the reporters and then Dempsey and Duggan are said to have something up their sleeves which may be interesting, but I don't know what it is."

"As a matter of fact I'm inclined to believe that the investigation will prove a farce."

The indifference manifested in the matter is taken as an indication of what the result will be.

Alderman Duggan is said to be in earnest in the matter and is chiefly concerned in showing that an aspersion has been cast on the police force.

About the only thing that is definitely stated now is that none of the officers traveling that beat were implicated in the suspicions aroused.

Though it has been repeatedly stated in these columns that the names of the policemen were known only to one or two persons at the city hall who kept them quiet for fear of doing an injustice, the rumors printed have been distorted and changed to cast reflections on one or two officers. The two policemen who were traveling that beat with Officer Sheehan were Patrolmen Steinborn and Buckley. Neither of these officers was included in the stories that were circulated. Nothing was said at the time that would reflect on either Steinborn or Buckley.

According to those who claim to be on the inside the matter has been sifted to the point of exonerating any policeman in the division of the money alleged to have been stolen. At least this is the turn taken in the talk of those responsible for the reports and the belief is shared in by the mayor.

WILL GO TO REFORM SCHOOL

Judge McClernan this afternoon committed Joseph Johnson, one of the boys who broke into the Puck cigar store several days ago, to the reform school on a charge of incorrigibility and vagrancy. The boy pleaded guilty and expressed a willingness to go to the school, and the proceeding at which he was committed was short and sweet.

Johnson had three companions in breaking into the store, Max Levy, Al Bath and George Hahn. Levy and Bath were captured at the same time he was, and Levy was liberated from jail two or three days ago on a bond of $300. Hahn was not captured until today.

Statistics show that one out of every 22 Danish immigrants to the United States becomes a Mormon. The clergy, in connection with the government, are continuing their plans to put an end to the proselyting.

WOODARD GETS A STAY OF SENTENCE.

(By Associated Press.) Casper, Wyoming, March 6.—Charles Woodard, convicted of the murder of Sheriff Ricker, and sentenced to be hanged on March 28, will be granted a longer time in which to prepare for the gallows. Judge Bramel denied the motion of Woodard for a new trial and the case will be taken to the supreme court, a stay of sentence being granted for that purpose. As considerable time will be required by the supreme court to review the case, Woodard cannot be executed before May or June.

SOME ACTIVE TRADING.

Wall Street Market Was Livelier Than Usual Today. (By Associated Press.) New York, March 6.—Stocks opened higher all around. Trading was active in many of the railroads, and specialties were between the twenties and fifties, and there was buying all of the high-priced inactive stocks.

Advances were reached from 1 to 2 1/2 points in quite a number of stocks, and 5 1/2 points in several, including Northwestern.

Toward 11 o'clock the prominent stocks were taken up, and St. Paul, Sugar and New York Central advanced 1 to 1 1/2 points.

The market became quieter and eased off in spots before noon, but strengthened again when St. Paul rose to 165 1/2.

Many other inactive stocks were brought into prominence by large gains. The market was easier again at noon.

Bonds were steady.

The market became spotty, the general list remaining quietest while special stocks advanced.

Amalgamated rose 1 1/2 on large dealings, while light buying served to lift the others. Pullman rose 8 1/2, jumping 5 points on a single transaction, and Illinois Central rose 2.
