GIFTS FOR COURT OFFICERS AND BOUQUETS FOR THE JURORS

Judge McClernan and the officers of his court. Clerk Vogler and Bailiff Quinn were honored this morning by the jurymen who have been serving in the judge's court for some time. The jury was discharged by the court, and they presented Judge McClernan and the clerk and bailiff with some handsome testimonials of their regard.

Judge McClernan was presented with a magnificent gold elk badge set with a diamond. Clerk Vogler was the recipient of a handsome fur chain and gold charm, and Bailiff Quinn was honored with a beautiful silver match case.

The presentation speech was made by Juror Cunningham, and Judge McClernan responded to it with appropriate remarks.

In discharging the jurors Judge McClernan said that it was his pleasant duty to say that he had less trouble with the jury than with any other he had ever had to do with. He had received material aid from the jurors and he wished to express his thanks.

Juror Cunningham then presented him with the elk head, and made his speech. Mr. Cunningham said the jurors wished to show their appreciation of the courtesy and consideration with which they had been treated, and said that they all entertained the kindest feeling for the court and its officers.

Judge McClernan responded that it was an unexpected honor and expressed his thanks for the handsome gift. Clerk Vogler also made a brief speech:

ON BIG JUDGMENT SET EQUITY CASES

SHERIFF SELLS 1,600 SHARES OF CAPLICE COMPANY STOCK.

IS KNOCKED DOWN FOR $2,500

Sold to Satisfy Judgment by W. A. Clark & Bro. for $221,000 Credit Entered for $150,000.

The sheriff's office today sold 1,600 shares of the stock of the John Caplice company for $2,500 to satisfy a judgment for $21,000 held by W. A. Clark & Bro. The grocery house on North Main street owned by the Caplice company was knocked down with the stock. The judgment was against John Caplice, John Branagan and the estate of Fred W. Caplice.

A paper filed in the district court after the sale showed that although the sale was for $2,500, the Caplices and Branagan received a credit of $150,000 on the Clark judgment by agreement.

It is said that the assets of the Caplice company are worth $200,000, and consist of two business blocks in Butte, various lots and houses within the city, the well-known Trout group of mines near Phillipsburg, an interest in the Parnell lode claim on Anaconda hill, and interests in numerous mining claims near Columbia Gardens. The stock sold today represents four-fifths of this property. Attorney W. E. Carroll was the legal representative of the Caplice company.

SAID TO BE WRONG MENTALLY.

Two more alleged insane men are in custody of the county jail and the sheriff's office. The men are Daniel O'Brien and Hans Furdilato. O'Brien is sick in bed and is still at the Three Corners lodging house. Furdilato was brought into the jail today from the poor farm. O'Brien is said to have had nothing to eat for three days, which is enough to drive a man crazy. He will be examined as soon as he grows stronger. Furdilato is a German and has some sort of a dementia, it is said.

BUTTE IN BRIEF.

Mrs. Dell P. Glazier, supreme chief of the Rathbone Sisters of the World, has arrived in Butte and is the guest of Mrs. G. P. Mennie of 639 South Jackson street.

John F. Ashbury of Big Timber, who is identified with the proposition to establish a woolen mill in his town, is in the city on business connected with the proposed enterprise.

Deputy County Attorney Lynch today issued a complaint charging George Northrup with the crime of petty larceny in stealing an overcoat. The complaining witness and the man who lost the overcoat is John Riddell.

Leopold F. Schmidt, formerly of this city, but now of Olympia, Wash., left last night for his home after having spent a week here. Mr. Schmidt was at one time connected with the California brewery and is now operating a brewery in Olympia.

HUNTER CASE HAS BEEN GIVEN TO THE JURY.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Phillipsburg, March 22.—The whole day was devoted to arguments of attorneys in the Hunter murder case.

Late in the afternoon Judge Durfee, for the prosecution, made the closing plea on the part of the state and when he closed the jury solemnly passed to their room, where they will decide the fate of Hunter.

Judge Durfee's closing address was an exceptionally strong one and was listened to with breathless interest by both jury and spectators.

BUILDING A NEW RAILROAD FROM DENVER TO SALT LAKE

(By Associated Press.) Denver, March 22.—The Times today says: It is stated that David H. Moffat, at a conference with New York capitalists who met to consider plans for the new Salt Lake road, announced positively his intention to see that the road is constructed.

Capital for the road is available and the awarding of contracts April 2 for the first 10 miles of the Denver & Northwestern road beyond Baruda to Coal creek will be the beginning of construction work on the line that will establish Denver's permanency as a railroad center.

The Denver & Northwestern will be an independent line that will make the link between the Rock Island & Burlington roads reaching from Denver to the East and the new San Pedro, Salt Lake & Los Angeles road from Salt Lake City to the Pacific coast.

JUDGE CLANCY PREPARING FOR EQUITY TRIALS.

LAW CASES SET EXHAUSTED

All the Big Mining Cases Passed This Morning to Await Pennsylvania Case Decision Fixing Their Class.

Judge Clancy spent the morning setting equity cases for trial in his court. The court has been busy trying law cases with a jury for the past six weeks, but the law cases set have been exhausted.

On Monday the judge will dismiss his jury from further service, and he will take up the equity cases a week later.

All the big mining cases on his trial calendar were passed this morning, to await the decision of the supreme court in the Pennsylvania case.

The lawyers on both sides are waiting to learn whether the supreme court holds the Pennsylvania case to be an equity case or a law case. The other big cases are just like it, the decision will fix their class and decide whether they are to be tried with juries or not.

The court set the following cases: James A. Murray against Lee Frensdorff and others, partition, March 31. G. W. Karlman against Michael Jennings, to set aside decree of dissolution, April 1.

John A. Cannon against Felix O'Neill, quiet title, April 1. James W. Forbis against Calvin M. Gales and others, injunction, April 2.

Mary Bottego against John J. Ferrell and others, foreclosure, April 3. Celia Davison against W. E. Carroll, quiet title, April 4.

Elizabeth A. Morrison against John O. Jones and others, quiet title, April 4. Pat Mullins against Butte Hardware company and others, April 4.

Celestia Nixon against J. W. Andrews, April 4.

ACCUSED WOMEN ENTER PLEAS

This was the time for the women "Frisco Nell and Jessie Woods to plead to the charges of grand larceny against them, and they were brought into Judge McClernan's court this morning and pleaded not guilty.

The hall of the women was set at $500 apiece several days ago, but they are still in jail. They are accused of picking the pockets of two men in the red light district.

BUILDING OGDEN CUTOFF.

Contracts Have Just Been Let for the New Road. (By Associated Press.) San Francisco, March 22.—Contracts have just been let for the work on the Central Pacific railroad between Wadsworth and Ogden, making a total of 12 contracts up to date. The latest contracts call for the building of 200 miles of new road at a total cost of $5,180,000.

"Contracts for the reconstruction of a hundred more miles of road will be let later on, the object being to eliminate curves and cut down grades. By the middle of May 7,000 graders will be at work along the route of the Central Pacific. The Southern Pacific people want to get the heaviest part of the work in Nevada and Utah finished by the end of the year. The cut-off across the north end of the Great Salt Lake will require a longer time.

Work on the first 18 miles of the cut-off west from Ogden has been commenced.

REPUBLICANS NAME ALDERMANIC CANDIDATES

"For permanent secretary, "Assistant secretary, Joseph Vogler. "We recommend that the order of business be as follows:

"Report of committee on permanent organization and order of business. "Report of committee on credentials. "Report of committee on platform and resolutions.

"One candidate for alderman from each ward to be selected by the delegates of the ward by ballot, and submitted to the convention for ratification.

"Selection of a committeeman from each ward by the delegation to act as a member of the city central committee.

"The adoption of a resolution to empower the city central committee to elect its own officers and fill vacancies that may occur in the committee or in the nominations for candidates for aldermen and to act for the republican party in the city of Butte."

The report was adopted. Chairman Leonard on being escorted to the platform expressed his thanks for the honor conferred and predicted victory for the republican party.

The report of the committee on credentials was read and the delegates seated with the roll call by the secretary. Resolutions Provoke Enthusiasm.

The report of the committee on resolutions was adopted by a unanimous vote.

The reading of the tribute to William McKinley was received with bowed heads.

When the section advocating changes in the police administration so as to abolish the farcical investigations was read there was great applause.

The next order of business was the nomination of candidates for aldermen, one from each ward, and on motion of Alderman Manchester a recess of 15 minutes was taken to allow the ward delegations time to select their nominees.

These nominations were ratified by the convention:

Second ward—W. C. Young. Fifth ward—Albert C. Congdon. Fourth ward—W. C. Bachelor. Third ward—William H. Davitt. Sixth ward—George Porter. Seventh ward—Hiram Henderson. Eighth ward—A. McCauley.

Thomas Driscoll of the First ward announced that his delegation would not find a man who would accept the nomination.

"It is a case where the office seeks the man, and we have decided to leave it to the central committee to name a candidate," he said.

Chairman Leonard said the ward delegation should make the nomination, and not leave the matter to the committee.

The ward was passed for the time being.

J. R. Grice's nominating speech naming W. C. Bachelor was one of the features of the convention and laudly cheered.

The First ward announced that it was unanimous for Thomas Driscoll.

Mr. Driscoll declined to accept the nomination and it was decided to leave the matter to the central committee.

Mr. Bray of the Second ward moved that the candidates be escorted to the platform, so that the voters could judge of their merits and good looks.

Mr. Grice of the Fourth ward opposed the motion.

Chairman Leonard said all of the nominees could be seen in the council chamber after election day.

The nominations were then ratified by acclamation.

The Central Committee.

The different wards named these as members of the old and new central committee—Jacob Oliver.

Second—C. S. Jackman. Third—J. E. Cowperthwaite. Fourth—Charles J. Stephenson. Fifth—R. M. Campbell. Sixth—E. N. Bell. Seventh—N. A. McDonald. Eighth—Joseph Vogler.

The chairman announced that the members of the city central committee and the nominees would meet in Room 19, Bee Hive building, at 7 o'clock, to receive the papers and business of the old committee.

A resolution was offered authorizing the city central committee to fill all vacancies and to represent the republican party in Butte.

The convention adjourned at 3:15 o'clock.

Don't forget to attend the Grand Easter Monday ball given by the Ladies' Auxiliary, Division No. 1, A. O. H., at Hibernia hall, Centerville, March 31st. Dancing from 9 until 1. Tickets, $1.00.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

LYNES—Etta Lynes, aged 16 years, died today after a long illness at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Lynch. The remains were removed to the family residence, No. 321 East Summit street. Funeral notice later.

Interesting Lady Lyndhurst.

(Chicago News.) The widow of Lord Chancellor Lyndhurst recently died in England at the age of 94. Her husband was chancellor of five different cabinets—those of Canning, Goodrich, Wellington, and two of Sir Robert Peel's. Lady Lyndhurst, who survived him for more than 38 years, was married in the year of Queen Victoria's accession to the throne. Her death severs an interesting link with the past, for her famous husband, who was born in America four years before the Declaration of Independence and went to England in 1773.
