WHEN REPUBLICAN CITY CONVENTION WILL CONVENE.

CANDIDATES FOR ALDERMEN

Nominees Must Be Men of Unquestioned Ability and Integrity—Only the Winners to Be Named.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Anaconda, March 24.—Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock the republican city convention will convene at the city hall for the purpose of placing in nomination six candidates for the position of city aldermen.

While it is too early to say to a certainty who the nominees will be, one fact is assured that the party is determined to put up candidates who are possessed of business and executive ability; men who will have the interests of the city at heart and who, if elected, will assist in conducting the sessions of the city council on business principles.

Get Rid of Democrats.

With the council rid of the democratic belligerents who are responsible for the obstruction of legislation in the past year and who did everything within their power to cast reproach upon the present administration, things will go along more smoothly than they have in the past.

Reports received from the various wards are to the effect that while there is no certainty as to who will be decided upon as the nominees of the republicans, one thing is sure and that is men of unquestioned integrity and ability will be named.

After tomorrow the line-up will be complete and from then on until election day it is expected that the contest will be gingerly, with the odds largely in favor of the republicans.

The republican convention to be held tomorrow will consist of 72 delegates.

NUMBER OF NAMES.

Registration Is Progressing Nicely at City Hall.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, March 24.—The number of names on the registration office at the city hall this morning was near the 1,200 mark.

It is probable that the books will be open one day longer than was supposed as in the beginning no allowance was made for Sunday and the law prescribes that the office shall remain open 10 days. This will set the time for closing at Thursday night.

Comparing the length of time the office has been open this year with last year the enrollment exceeds that at the same time a year ago, but 1,400 more must register before election to equal the aggregate of the previous year.

Republican City Convention.

A republican city convention is hereby called to meet at the city hall, in the city of Anaconda, Tuesday evening, March 25, 1902, at 8 o'clock. The purpose of said convention is to select one candidate from each of the six wards of Anaconda for the position of members of the city council (the same to be voted for at the municipal election to be held on Monday, April 7, 1902) and to transact such other business as may regularly come before said convention.

D. P. EVANS VS. THE WASHOE SMELTING COMPANY.

MEETING OF THE APPRAISERS

The Board Appointed Hears Evidence of Both Sides at Courthouse Today—Gather in Commissioners' Rooms.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Anaconda, March 24.—In the condemnation suit of David Evans vs. the Washoe Smelting company, the appraisers held a meeting in the rooms of the county commissioners at the courthouse this morning for the purpose of hearing the evidence of both sides before rendering their report to the court. The appraisers are Frank Strickfaden, Daniel James and J. P. Thomas.

The land specified in this suit is situated a short distance below the new works and in such a position as to be directly in the path of the tailings from the smelters. It seems that a purchasable price could not be agreed upon between the two parties and so Mr. Evans entered suit for damages in the district court and asked that three disinterested parties be appointed as appraisers to set a value upon the land.

The appraisers named have examined the land and circumstances carefully themselves and set the time this morning to listen to the stories of both parties concerned.

A great deal of interest is manifested in this matter and quite a number of ranchers and others not summoned to appear before the appraisers were present to watch developments in the case.

"The Pride of Jennico."

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Anaconda, March 24.—"The Pride of Jennico" from the opening night of its career has made good all its claims as one of the great romantic successes which the stage has to offer at this time. It is a strongly melo-dramatic play, and this is no drawback to its attractiveness, for a beautiful love story runs through the play and delights the auditors, young and old alike, while its rapidity of action and its swift recurrence of picturesque incident keep the interest of its spectators from first to last. Miss Francis Nielsen, who will play the heroine, has won great praise for her work as the Princess Otilie. The company is first-class, and a full and complete scenic outfit is carried, so that the same detail will be given pictorially as was in evidence during the New York run of the play. At the Margaret theater next Wednesday.

THE "PINAFORE" WILL NOT BE GIVEN APRIL 4.

ABSENCE OF MR. M'GUINNESS

One of the Principal Singers Is Not Here—Date Will Be Definitely Fixed at a Rehearsal During Present Week.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Anaconda, March 24.—On account of the inability of one of the principal singers to be present April 4, the time set for the presentation of "The Pinafore" by a home opera troupe, the date has been changed to some time during the following week. The night has not been definitely determined upon, but will be at one of the rehearsals to be held this week.

The absent singer is J. J. McGuinness, who is detained in Phillipsburg on court business. One of the members of the company said today that the troupe is fully prepared to go before a critical public. Wonderful progress has been made by the singers in the rehearsals held lately and they have reached a marked standard of efficiency. So far as their singing is concerned they are equal to the average traveling troupes. From now until the time of the presentation of the opera much time will be spent in wearing off the rough edges in the parts where expression is given to the piece by the acting.

IN ST. ANN'S HOSPITAL.

Bert Storey Puts Some Queer Ideas in Force.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, March 24.—Bert Storey, who had three ribs and a collar bone broken in an accident at the new works a week or two ago, is getting along nicely as his friends will readily believe when they hear that he induced a visiting friend to cut the plaster cast from his body some days ago, much to the consternation of the sisters and the anger of the attending physician.

Later he locked the door of his room and gave them all the razzle dazzle for awhile. Those who know him will be sure he is much better. Another thing Storey did was to change beds. As a reason for this he said he had friends come to see him yesterday. They asked, "Any change." He replied no. "Now when they ask any change," says Storey, "I'll tell 'em I've changed beds." Tom Whalen, who has reached the position of shift boss on the second floor of the hospital, is still improving and will soon be able to be out.

TELLS ON HER PAL.

Kate Sullivan Accused of Robbing—Says Fisher Was Accomplice.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, March 24.—Upon information obtained from Kate Sullivan, a negro confined in the county jail, Sheriff Conley yesterday caused the arrest of M. L. Fisher of Dillon, formerly proprietor of a colored club in Anaconda. Fisher will be brought to this city today.

The Sullivan woman was tried and convicted on a charge of having robbed Maxine Leggett of $750 one night last August. She made application for a new trial and the request was granted. She was then brought back from the penitentiary and confined in the county jail. A few days ago a letter she had written and was trying to smuggle out to the postoffice came into the hands of the sheriff's officers.

When opened the letter was found to contain details of the robbery of Leggett, and when questioned by Sheriff Conley the woman confessed that she robbed Leggett, and had given the money to Fisher to keep, he promising to do everything in his power to keep her out of jail.

Instead she claims that Fisher has done nothing for her and sometime ago changed his residence to Dillon.

The Success Restaurant at 117 East Park avenue has opened its doors to the public. It is furnished new throughout and is under experienced management. It will no doubt become a favorite in Anaconda.

FORGERY CHARGED

JOHN STARYER ARRESTED FOR ISSUING BOGUS CHECKS.

WAS A LIFE INSURANCE AGENT

He Is Believed to Be the Head of a Gang of Swindlers—Known as Good and Honorable Citizens at Home.

(By Associated Press.)

Pittsburg, March 24.—As he was walking out of a church yesterday at Wilkingsburg, John Staryer, an insurance agent, employed by the Prudential Life Insurance company of this city, was arrested by a city detective and Postoffice Agent O'Brien on a charge of forgery and using the mails for fraudulent purposes.

He confessed to having forged at least one check and the detectives think he is one of the leaders of a gang who have literally flooded this city and New York with bogus checks for small amounts, ranging from $15 to $25.

Hitherto Staryer had been a respected citizen of Wilkingsburg.

When arrested he confessed to giving a forged check for $18.50 to a Wilkingsburg merchant Saturday to pay a $1 bill, getting $12.50 in change.

The officers say the writing on many forged checks now in their hands bears a striking resemblance to the one Staryer has confessed to signing, and a thorough investigation is being made.

BOYS PLAYED JESSE JAMES.

One Youngster Killed Another During Exciting Act.

(By Associated Press.)

Sedalia, Mo., March 24.—Will Martin, aged 13, was fatally shot yesterday in East Sedalia by Edgar Allen, a playmate of his own age. A Jesse James company was in Sedalia last week and a number of young boys were reproducing the play in a barn, having an audience of about 50 boys.

Allen was playing the part of Jesse James and Martin that of a Pinkerton detective.

When the latter attempted to capture the bandit Allen took a shot at Martin with a .38-caliber revolver, the ball entering Martin's head above the right ear and passing out on the opposite side.

James Clendepning.

Salt Lake, March 24.—A special to the Tribune from Spokane, Wash., says that James Clendepning, former mayor of Salt Lake, and recently federal forest ranger in the Northwestern states, died suddenly of heart disease in that city last night.

LINGO OF THE CIRCUS.

Expressive Terms That Are Meaningless to Outsiders.

(Detroit Free Press.)

Circus people talk a jargon that would be unintelligible to the uninitiated. To those in circus life the manager or the head of any enterprise is always "the main guy," while those in subordinate positions are simple "guys." The tents are called "tops" by circus men, and they are subdivided into the "big top," the "animal top," the "kid top," the "candy top," and so on. The side show, where the Circassian girls, fat women and other curiosities known as "freaks" are shown is termed the "kid show," and the man with the persuasive voice who seeks to entice people to enter is known as a "barber" or a "splicer."

The men who sell peanuts, red lemonade, palm-leaf fans and concert tickets are known as "butchers," while that class of circus followers whose methods are outside of the pale of the law are "guns" or "graffers." To get a person's money without giving an equivalent is to "turn them." A countryman is either a "Rube" or a "yap." The musicians with a circus are known as "wind jammers," the train men canvas men and other laborers are "razorbacks." The distance from one town to another is always known as a "jump." The show ground is called the "lot," and the dining tent, where the circus people get their meals, is the "camp."

An acrobat is known as a "kicker," and all things that are used in the ring, such as banners, hoops and the like, are called "objects." Those who lie on their backs and juggle children on their feet are "Risleys," and if other objects are balanced on the feet they are "barrel kickers." Money is referred to as "coin" or "cash," and the one who pays the salaries is either the "ghost" or the "man in white." A trunk is called "keester," and a valise is a "turkey." To get away quick is to do a "vamp," and of those who are forced to leave they say "got the hurry." Those who have been long in the business are "old landmarks," and a new addition to the profession is either a "butt in" or a "Johnny New-comer." Food is called "chuck," and they say an intoxicated person is "soused." A fight is a "scrap," but any trouble that cannot be handled by the regular officers is a "mixup," and a whistle is blown, at the sound of which each employe grabs a stake or other handy weapon and yells "Hey, Rube," which is the call to arms.

A proposed victim is known as a "sucker" to the confidence men who follow the circus, and "fanning a guy" is to make sure he has no weapons on him before they proceed to get his money. To "frisk" a train is to arm a lot of husky employes with stakes and search the cars for "crook" and "sure thing" men.
