

THE INTER MOUNTAIN'S ANACONDA DEPARTMENT

WILL MEET TONIGHT

REPUBLICANS TO MEET AND NOMINATE CANDIDATES.

STRONG MEN ARE PROPOSED

If Chosen They Will Make Victory Easy for the Party—Harmony Is Likely to Prevail at Gathering This Evening.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, March 25.—The republican city convention will meet at the city hall this evening for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the offices of city aldermen who will command the confidence and support of the electors of Anaconda.

The hour set for the convening is 8 o'clock at which hour Chairman Phil Daniels of the city committee will sound the gavel, read the official call and await the further wish of the delegates.

It is believed that there will be no hitch in the proceedings, for everything indicative of perfect harmony exists among the delegates of each ward.

So far as candidates are concerned there seems to be no opposition to Charles Carrier, in the First ward, and it is quite general conceded that he will be the nominee. In the Second ward it is believed that a majority of the delegation to the convention from that quarter of the city will favor the return of Charles H. Williams to the council, in which body he has made a good record as an alderman.

Some are of the opinion that Dr. D. J. MacDonald's friends may develop enough strength among the delegates to nominate him for the place, either of whom would make it interesting for their democratic opponent.

In the Third ward Max Hammer-slough appears to be the favorite and will, no doubt, be the unanimous choice as the nominee in that ward.

The contest in the Fourth ward delegation will be between N. Knudson and H. G. Coy. The race will be close between the two men on the first ballot as the delegation seems to be pretty evenly divided.

John Riley, a popular citizen of the Fifth ward, is prominently mentioned as the candidate of the party from that portion of the city. Angus G. McDonald has also been suggested as good aldermanic timber.

In the Sixth ward Otto G. Rinehardt is a possibility and will probably get the nomination.

The democrats have declared their intention of carrying on a campaign of personalities this spring. With a ticket made up with any of the above named gentlemen it is believed the republicans can easily carry the election on April 7.

"The Pride of Jennico."

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, March 25.—In selecting the members of their "Pride of Jennico" company, which is shortly to present that play in this city, the management have taken great care to obtain actors of known reputation, with a view to the special fitness of each to the part assigned.

The play was rehearsed under the eye of Daniel Frohman, whose stage manager directed the rehearsals, and the production will be an exact copy of the one given in New York last season. The date set for the play at the Margaret theater is tomorrow night.

Swedish Evangelist Lutheran church has been organized in Anaconda with Alfred Bergren, Joseph Munson, Gus Dahlberg, E. Nordquist, J. A. Englund and Gus E. Swanson as trustees.

O'LEARY'S ACTS INDORSED

Platform Heaps Abuse on Present Administration—"Brooky" Lynch Thinks Things Are a Little Dull at Meeting.

FOR ALDERMEN.

First Ward—Pat Dalton.
Second Ward—W. A. Collins.
Third Ward—H. F. Collins.
Fourth Ward—Joseph Lepke.
Fifth Ward—John Lawler.
Sixth Ward—John Nagle.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, March 25.—The democrats of Anaconda held a convention yesterday afternoon and placed in nomination six candidates for aldermen; adopted a platform and resolutions that contain nothing but a harangue of personal abuse heaped upon the officers of the present administration of the city government.

The platform indorses the acts of the belligerent members of the council of the past year for employing unprecedented dictatorial and revolutionary tactics for the purpose of preventing the passage of needed legislation. It applauds the acts of these men for resorting to the use of language in past sessions of the council unbecoming of gentlemen and entirely unfit for print.

The platform, as adopted, places the stamp of approval upon the record of Dennis O'Leary, the former democratic member from the Sixth ward, and others for refusing to obey the rules of the council; also for declining to recognize the mayor on a number of occasions as the chief executive of the city, at the same time treating him with discourtesies.

The platform denounces Mayor Stephens for ordering the removal of O'Leary from the council chamber on one occasion because he persisted in talking and indulging in personal attacks upon the mayor and other members of the council. In fact it indorses everything done by the revolutionary element of the council, under the leadership of O'Leary, and attempts to lay the blame for it all to the republican party.

The platform is a mere nothing in the opinion of many citizens of the Smelter City. It is distasteful to a large number of sober thinking democrats for the reason that it champions anything but good business sense.

The reading of the platform indicates that Mr. O'Leary had much to do with the composition of that document. Naturally, it comes that he would indorse his own acts.

The democrats of the city of Anaconda, in convention assembled, affirm their allegiance to the principles of the national democratic party.

We advocate honesty and efficiency in the administration of our municipal affairs, and for sincerity in the carrying out of this we present the record of our party during our municipal control of the affairs of Anaconda during the first 12 years of our existence as a city.

We denounce the present city administration of Mayor Stephens as the most inefficient, corrupt and disgraceful that any city of Montana was ever afflicted with.

The acts of Mayor Stephens in usurping the functions of the city council in having an alderman ejected from the city council while discharging his duties as alderman in advocating the rights of the city council in a respectful manner; in packing the city hall, while the council was in session, with his police janissaries, for the purpose of intimidating and over-awing the city council to more successfully carry out his usurpation; his pocketing charges against an officer for inefficiency, corruption and immorality, presented by a republican alderman, and preventing the same from being read and the merit of the charges inquired into by the city council, as provided by law, deserve the unqualified condemnation of every fair-minded citizen of Anaconda.

The present administration has been the most extravagant in the history of our city. While our citizens have been compelled to practice economy in their private affairs, the city administration has created useless offices, viz., city engineer and assistant chief of the fire department at a cost of $2,700 a year to the taxpayers and avow their intention to increase the pay of several officers in defiance of the express mandates of the law to the amount of more than $1,000 per year, notwithstanding the present indebtedness of the city exceeds the sum of $50,000.

The police force of Anaconda as at present constituted, with few exceptions, is the most inefficient, contemptible and corrupt that any city of the world was ever cursed with.

We pledge in behalf of the democratic candidates for a rigid economy in the administration of municipal affairs, the taking off of useless officers, the holding to strict accountability all executive officers in the discharge of their duties, the fair and impartial investigation of all charges properly preferred against any officer, the proper restriction within proper limits of the social evil, and in carrying out the pledges to which this convention binds its candidates. We ask the support of every law-abiding and patriotic citizen without regard to party affiliations.

Yesterday's convention was marked by little enthusiasm. Not a ripple of applause was heard until after the nominating speeches were begun.

The way things went along was not to the liking of "Brooky" Lynch, a member of the democratic county central committee, who broke the monotony by inquiring if every one was asleep.

"What's the matter of you fellows?" he continued, "are you all at a funeral or what is the matter?" This don't look to me like a genuine democratic convention.

BACK FROM IDAHO

PAT GARDNER RETURNS FROM ARDUOUS JOURNEY.

WAS NEAR THUNDER MOUNTAIN.

Reports That Many People Are Already En Route to the Rich Mineral District—Good Road in From Hamilton, Mont.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, March 25.—Pat Gardner, formerly a member of the Anaconda police force but now prospecting and developing mines in various parts of the country near here, has just returned from a long and arduous trip through parts of Idaho and Montana.

He was within a comparatively short distance of the famous Thunder Mountain district, but the depth of the snow and condition of the weather, together with the fact that his snowshoes would have failed him before reaching there, induced him to postpone the Thunder Mountain trip until later in the season.

As he did not start with the expectation of reaching that place and hence was not prepared for the journey, he was not disappointed.

Mr. Gardner made his start from Hamilton and thinks that Thunder Mountain can be reached from that place much easier and sooner than from any other Montana or any Idaho point. There is already a wagon road a great part of the way, he says, and there is now a party of men out looking over the balance of the ground for the purpose of making a trail clear through.

Mr. Gardner is vastly impressed with that portion of Idaho through which he passed. On his journey he saw many parties heading for the Thunder Mountain district taking their time, but expecting to arrive before the rush from the southern inlet began.

Also Mr. Gardner says that many of the other parts of Idaho are coming in for some attention and a great many are eminently satisfied to remain away from the crowded richer mineral districts to make a reasonable stake at their leisure.

ABOUT MARBLES.

Its All the Rage With Anaconda Lads Just Now.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, March 25.—Somewhat earlier this season than during the previous years the youngsters of Anaconda have begun the game of marbles. That accounts for the many red, chapped and grimy little hands that the great majority of the lads are afflicted with at present. Cold hands are not feared by them and when there is an exceptionally fine flint that can be won by good accurate work, as long as their fingers will wiggle, they strive to win that marble.

In every street in every part of the city may be seen little groups of boys playing, and if the weather is too bad for them to pursue their favorite game, which is seldom, the passerby will notice in the street circles here and there about which the ground has been tramped hard and solid. That's where they play.

One of the essential things to have during cold weather playing is what the boys call a "knuckler." It may be a piece of fur or a thick piece of woolen cloth, or in fact anything to keep the knuckles off the ground while the player shoots. Any player who has not supplied himself with one of these will soon "gult," for his knuckles get so sore and raw that it is positively painful for him to keep it up.

There are found in the play ring four kinds of marbles, all with a different set value. The "flints" are the most sought. A large and flawless one of these is worth two-bits. Next in value comes the "glassie," third, the "potteries" and fourth and last the "chinkies." In a "big game," for the lads have them, all same poker players, may be seen a varied and valuable assortment of "flints" and the skill with which the boys can pick one out of a ring is something remarkable.

The early commencement of the game of marbles is a great exasperation to dealers in that sort of goods. In the fall they pack their marbles away for the winter, vowing at the same time that they will get them out earlier next spring and have them all ready when the game starts. But just the same they are called for by juvenile customers before unearched for the season. Then comes a nerve-trying search, scratched hands, wounded feelings, and all for a 5, 10 or 15 cent sale.

But the boy doesn't care. He wants his marbles. And he gets them.

SNOWSTORM ON FLAT.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, March 25.—Judge Welling Napton and Court Stenographer J. J. McGuinness drove over from Phillipsburg yesterday evening for a brief stay with their families. On the way over the flat between here and Phillipsburg they encountered the fiercest snow storm of the season and traveled a distance of ten miles in it.

In the Johnson murder trial now on in the court of Granite county, a special venire of 40 names for jurors was issued yesterday and made returnable Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. It is expected that the balance of the jury will be obtained from this number. Judge Napton and Clerk McGuinness will return to Phillipsburg tomorrow morning.

"Brooky" out of order and he sat down and remained good. Then then not a murmur of applause was in evidence. Numerous speeches were made by the faithful and after the selection of a city central committee an adjournment was taken. The committee is made up as follows: Phil Greenan, Fred Peckover, W. R. Webb, W. J. Walsh, William Kelliher and T. B. Fitzpatrick and the seven members to be selected later.

FISHER ASKS FOR TIME.

Man Alleged to be Implicated With Nigger Gets Continuance.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, March 25.—M. L. Fisher, the colored man from Dillon, who was arrested and brought to this city on charge of being an accomplice of the Sullivan woman in robbing Maim Legeault last summer, was arraigned in court of Justice Kennedy this morning and took 24 hours in which to plead his case. Attorney J. R. Boardman was employed by him for purpose of defense.

Fisher is implicated in the matter as a result of the confession of the woman who says she gave him the $780 to keep with the understanding that he should make every attempt to keep her out of prison. This Fisher failed to do, says the negress. At the time of robbery Fisher was proprietor of a colored club on Commercial avenue.

LOCAL BRIEFS

A. D. T. messengers—prompt, reliable.

J. F. Kelly of New York is at the Montana.

H. F. Ruger of Helena is registered at the Montana.

Dr. English is expected back from Missoula this evening.

Misses Viola Powell and Pearl Carrier spent the day in Butte.

Miss Annie Devine has returned from a pleasant trip to New York.

R. F. Moon of the Hennessy Mercantile company, Butte, is in the city today.

Mrs. H. F. Collins, who is in Butte under a physician's care, is reported as being critically ill. Her condition was said to be somewhat improved this afternoon.

The friends of Ed Devine received a distinct snub at the hands of the democratic convention yesterday. Mr. Devine announced himself as a candidate for alderman recently, but Dennis O'Leary came in from the country, captured the caucus and had everything decidedly his own way.

VOTERS REGISTER.

Many Prepare to Vote in Anaconda on Election Day.

(By Associated Press.) Anaconda, March 25.—At 1 o'clock this afternoon 1,517 voters had registered at the city hall for the election of April 7. Only two days yet remain in which qualified voters may register, so it is important that those who desire to vote should register at once.

BITTEN BY DOG.

Three People on South Oak Street the Victims.

(By Associated Press.) Anaconda, March 25.—A man, a young girl and a small boy were bitten by a dog yesterday afternoon on South Oak street.

The dog had been wandering around the neighborhood all day, but it is not thought that he was mad.

Patrolman Dolan learned of the matter and took a good shot at the animal.

SMEAD IS COMING.

Indian Agent to Look Into Rocky Boy's Case.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, March 25.—W. H. Smead, Indian agent, stationed at Jocko, Mont., is giving his attention to the petition of Rocky Boy, the Chippewa chief who seeks to have the government allot the members of his tribe parcels of land whereby they may cease the life of itinerants and settle down and live more as the "pale face" does; to raise stock and to perform the duties of agriculturists.

Attorney John W. James of this city, who has pleaded the cause of the redskins and other tribes placed them in the proper light before the government officials, has received the following communication from Mr. Smead:

"Again referring to the matter of Rocky Boy and his petitioners to be placed on some reservation, I beg to say that I now expect to visit Anaconda within a few days and shall meet

This Indian and his followers, I would be glad if you will notify him to expect me within ten days. I am unable at this time to say just what day, at this writing, but will notify you by letter or wire later.

"I will want Rocky Eoy to have a good interpreter and as my time will be limited I will want him to have his people where I can meet them without delay."

Attorney James conveyed the information to Rocky Boy a few days ago that Mr. Smead was coming to look into the facts of his case. Since then the redskins have donned their fine blankets and spend each day in town patiently waiting for the arrival of their distinguished guest.

It is said that the government officials are favorable to the finding of a reservation for these Indians. The only matter standing in the way heretofore is whether or not the tribe is of Canadian birth. Assurances have gone forth that they are not—that Rocky Boy and several of his followers are natives of Wisconsin.

Rocky Boy's words will be interpreted to Mr. Smead by W. A. Cameron, a half-breed, who possesses a fairly good education.

FIXED AT $40 PER ACRE.

In Condemnation Suit Appraisers Name That Value.

(By Associated Press.) Anaconda, March 25.—Yesterday evening the board of appraisers for the case of the Washoe company against David Evans, fixed the value of the land in question at $40 per acre after hearing all the evidence on both sides of the case.

This value was unsatisfactory to Mr. Evans, and Attorney C. M. Sawyer, representing him, announced that an appeal would be taken from the decision of the board. The appraisers were Frank Strickfadden, Dan James and J. P. Thomas.

Mr. Strickfadden was selected by Mr. Evans, Thomas by the company, and James was appointed by Judge Napton. The condemnation proceedings were brought shortly after Mr. Evans established suit for damages on the ground of trespass.

DORSEN GETS A YEAR.

Pleads Guilty to Grand Larceny at Anaconda.

(By Associated Press.) Anaconda, March 25.—I. P. Dorsen pleaded guilty to the charge of grand larceny today in the district court and was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary at Deer Lodge.

Dorsen stole a horse and buggy from a man named Charles Stanton several months ago. He drove the outfit to Butte and disposed of it in Walkerville.

He was later arrested in Great Falls and brought here to face the charge against him.

A decree of divorce was granted Christina Aiken from Reno Aiken in the district court today.

club yesterday, at which were present Bishop Potter, E. R. L. Gould, Robert Graham, Dr. Henry Lelpizer, Mrs. Henry M. Sanders, Miss Margaret Astor Chandler, Miss Grace Dodge and several other well-known philanthropists and reformers.

"In the first place," he said, "it must be understood that this is distinctly a temperance movement. It is not prohibition; and if it is to be a success it must steer clear of prohibition.

"In England, of course, we don't have so many difficulties as you encounter here. Obtaining a license is much more difficult than it is here. It is only when the population of the district warrants it that a license is issued there, and then it is issued to the person who at a public hearing shows that he is the best fitted to manage a public house. This is our strongest point. In this way we are able to get all of the new licenses that are issued, and in time we shall get the old ones, either through purchase or securing renewals when the licenses lapse.

"In England we have the work divided by counties, each county being controlled by its own corporation, capitalized at $100,000, divided into 50 shares. When a license has been secured we appoint an executive committee of four or five business men, who have absolute control of that one public house.

"The object of the Public House trust is to prove exactly what a saloon should be—a poor man's club. Liquor drinking cannot be prohibited; it can be controlled, and we think we are doing this. We provide a healthful, clean place, with the best surroundings possible and sell the very best of liquor at a medium price.

"We allow the man in charge a commission on all non-alcoholic liquors and food sold, but no commission on intoxicants. That does away with pressing men to drink.

"I should think that some such plan might work very well in New York. Of course, first it would be necessary to amend your laws so as to limit the number of licenses. But that should not be impossible."

It Depends.

"What is a 'captain of industry'?" asked the boy who is going to be very wise some day.

"It is a term that is applied to the head of a great monopoly when he is at a banquet."

"And what is a 'robber baron'?"

"It's the same man when he is in politics."
