

THE INTER MOUNTAIN'S ANACONDA DEPARTMENT

BEAT WITH ROCKS

HARRY ANDREWS IN THE HOSPITAL WITH SORE HEAD.

ASSAILED BY FATHER AND SON

The Scrap Took Place in the Railroad Switch Shanty About Midnight—The Grants Are Out on Bail.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Anaconda, March 27.—N. S. and Charles Grant, father and son, employed as brakemen on the Butte, Anaconda & Pacific, were arrested at their home on Park avenue this morning by Officers Marchion and Porter, charged with assaulting Harry Andrews, switchman, near the railroad switch shanty about midnight last night.

Andrews, the victim, is in St. Ann's hospital with numerous cuts and bruises on his head, said to have been caused by rocks in the hands of his assailants.

There has for some reason been bad blood between the parties for some time. Last night it culminated in the fight near the switch shanty. Andrews did not want to fight and ran into the shanty and began eating his lunch.

He was followed in by the other two and the fight continued in the presence of six or seven employees of the railroad. Andrews says the father held him while the son beat him with a rock.

Another version of the affair is that Andrews and the son fought while the father hovered over them getting in a kick on Andrews now and then until restrained by the others present.

Be that as it may Andrews has several cuts on his head which it was necessary to stitch up. He is not seriously injured and will be out in a few days.

The Grants were released from custody under bail of $100 each, to appear in the police court for trial next Saturday.

TRIAL OF THE GAMBLERS.

Evidence Against Them Seems to Be Rather Light.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Anaconda, March 27.—The trial of Newton Shannon and William Augustine, charged with conducting a gambling game, came up this morning in the court of Justice of the Peace Quane. County Attorney Duffy prosecuted the case and W. H. Trippett appeared for the defense.

After several witnesses had been heard Attorney Trippett asked for an adjournment until this afternoon. It was granted. Under Sheriff Morgan and Deputy Joe Daly, as witnesses for the state, gave the circumstances as they found them in the rooms over the M. & M. saloon on the night of the raid. They had to break down the door to get in.

Inside they found Newton Shannon, William Augustine and men named Ray, Morrison, Smith and Mines.

Augustine was lying down on a bed in an adjoining room, and in this room was found some money, a faro board, playing cards, etc. Also in the large room was a table and lookout chair.

Smith was called to the stand and said that he went up with Ray for a few minutes. He knew nothing of gambling going on.

William Gairnor alias Pete Burns, testified that two nights before the raid, while drunk, he had won two bits on faro at that place. He did not remember who was present with the exception of Shannon, who paid his bet.

George Morrison was called but he knew nothing of gambling going on. Went up stairs to wait for a friend.

Charles Dulong, said to have occupied the lookout chair in the place, failed to appear, and is thought to have left town.

Newton Shannon and William Q. Augustine, charged with conducting a gambling game over the M. & M. saloon on or about the 15th of the present month, were dismissed by Justice Quane this afternoon and their bail released, there not being sufficient evidence to warrant binding them over to the district court.

Wall Paper Company.

(By Associated Press.) Chicago, March 27.—For the second time within 60 days fire attacked the plant of the Potter Wall Paper company at 408-410 Illinois street, and entailed a loss of $100,000. In the previous fire the stock was damaged to the extent of $60,000. Manager Stuart Warrang said he believed both fires were of incendiary origin.

VOTERS REGISTER

BOOKS WILL BE CLOSED TOMORROW NIGHT.

OPEN FOR CORRECTION AGAIN

Those Who Were Absent From City Will Then Be Given an Opportunity to Get Their Names on the List.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Anaconda, March 27.—Only one more day remains in which the citizens of Anaconda may register in order to be entitled to vote at the coming spring election.

Tomorrow evening at 10 o'clock the books will close and after that time no one will be registered except those who have been absent from the city the 10 days prior to March 28.

To accommodate the ones who have been absent the board of registration will keep the registration open on Saturday, April 5, for that purpose, also for correction.

The time in which to register is getting short and every republican who has not attended to this important duty, should attend to it now, or it will be too late.

The democrats have been on the alert since the registration books opened. They have lost no time in getting out their men and will poll their full strength.

In order to succeed the republicans of the Smelter City must also see to it that everyone is registered.

Register tomorrow or it will be too late.

"PRIDE OF JENNICO."

It Is One of the Best of Munroe & Sage's Productions.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Anaconda, March 27.—Those who witnessed the production of "The Pride of Jennico," at the Margaret theater last night, made the walls resound with their applause, which went beyond enthusiasm and at times reached the point of frenzy.

Time and again the company was compelled to answer curtain calls. Those who have followed the adventures of Basil Jennico and his friends through the book of "Agnes and Egerton Castle" are not in the slightest disappointed at the dramatization of the piece, and least of all at the excellent manner in which Munroe and Sage have staged it. Compared to "the Prisoner of Zenda" and "Rupert of Hentzau," the "Pride of Jennico" equals either of them as a story, and in many ways surpasses them when placed on the stage.

The company presenting the piece is strong throughout. Wallace Worsley in the role of the heir of Tollendhal, plays the part with all the fire, vim and pathos to be expected in an English gentleman of the eighteenth century. Miss Frances Neilson is ideal in the part of Marie Ottilie, the Princess of Dornheim. The Prince Eugene of David Landan could not well be improved upon, and William J. Roman as Sir John Beddeels won the sympathy of the audience at sight. Miss Suzanne Halpin as Michael, the gypsy girl, is an innovation in the part, and won much applause.

Theodore Kehwald in the character of Baron von Krappitz makes much out of little.

Of the entire cast similar remarks may be made.

JEFFERSON CLUB MEET.

Democrats Will Hold a Rally in Margaret Theater.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Anaconda, March 27.—The democrats held a meeting of the Jefferson club last night and indulged in a little speech making. It was also decided to hold a rally at the theater on the night of April 5, which is to be preceded by a parade through the streets, headed by a brass band.

A committee on arrangements was selected, consisting of William Kelliher, Percy Napton, W. J. Walsh, Hugh Daly and M. Martin.

The executive committee reported that there was on hand in the treasury a balance of $275, which could be drawn on to defray the expense of the affair.

During the evening a meeting of the city central committee was held, in which an organization was effected by the selection of W. B. Webb as chairman and F. W. Peckover secretary. Hugh Daly was named to fill a place on the committee and as it now stands the committee consists of W. B. Webb, Phil Greenan, F. W. Peckover, Hugh Daly, W. J. Walsh, William Kelliher and T. B. Fitzpatrick.

LIQUOR TO MINORS

JOHN HOVARTH FINED FOR THE SELLING OF IT.

SCHOOLBOYS WERE DRUNK

Matter Was Brought to Official Notice by Prof. A. G. Sears of Lincoln School Who Investigated the Affair.

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Anaconda, March 27.—In the court of Justice of the Peace Frank Kennedy yesterday afternoon John Hovarth pleaded guilty to the charge of selling liquor to minors and was fined $40, which he paid.

The complaint against Hovarth alleged that he sold whisky to a boy named Lyle Park, 8 years of age. The matter was first brought to the attention of the authorities by Prof. O. G. Sears of the Lincoln.

He learned that two boys, Frank McCabe and Willie Butler, had earned some money by collecting and selling flasks and beer bottles. They then induced the young Park to take the money to the Hovarth & Balla saloon, at the corner of Fourth and Birch streets and get some whisky. He did and got a half pint.

The Butler and McCabe lads, according to their story, then retired to a nearby alley and drank the booze. As a result young McCabe got sick in school. His teacher told him he might go home. As he tried to walk he staggered and reeled around and the teacher suspecting all was not right sent him to Prof. Sears. From him that gentleman learned the facts and caused the arrest of Hovarth.

He also discovered it was no unusual thing for the boys to purchase beer and whisky there during the noon hour.

Attention, Republicans.

Important meeting of the Lincoln club Friday evening, March 28. Every republican in Anaconda is invited to attend.

"The Eleventh Hour."

(Special to Inter Mountain.)

Anaconda, March 27.—All true lovers of melodrama, wit and humor should see "The Eleventh Hour," which comes to the Margaret theater on next Saturday. It has met with the most pronounced success everywhere that it has appeared this season, and it is credited by both press and public to be Lincoln J. Carter's greatest success, and if box office receipts are any criterion for success, "The Eleventh Hour" is certainly a winner. The scenery is especially fine, and properties and effects are said to be superb. The last act, the millionaire's home, is said to be the handsomest and most expensive stage setting that has ever been presented. The cast, which is an excellent one, includes Charles A. (Karl) Gardner, the German dialect comedian.

These offices will come under Mr. Cridler's direction, and systematic work among the several governments will be carried on until the exhibits are collected and on their way to St. Louis.
