MERGER EXAMINATION ADJOURNED FOR THREE WEEKS.

BANKER KENNEDY EXAMINED

He Bought About Five Million Dollars Worth of Northern Pacific Stock at One Time—Stockholders Acted for Themselves.

(By Associated Press.)
New York, March 28.—John F. Kennedy, banker, was recalled yesterday for cross-examination in the hearing of the suit of Peter Power against the Northern Pacific Railroad company. He said he bought a block of Northern Pacific stock, about $5,000,000 worth, in 1896.

Mr. Kennedy held about $10,000,000 of Great Northern stock, which was voted by James J. Hill on a proxy. Mr. Kennedy said that he had never heard of any agreement in the Northern Securities company that any set of men was to control the company.

He also said that in the sale of Northern Pacific stock to the Northern Securities company each stockholder acted for himself.

The witness never heard that there was any question or discussion to the effect that the Northern Securities company was organized to acquire a majority of the stock of both roads to maintain rates and control competition.

W. P. Clough, vice president of the Northern Securities company, was then called.

Mr. Boutelle, counsel for Power, questioned him.

"You have testified that a large amount of Great Northern stock was never transferred to the Northern Securities company. Will you explain this?"

"The purchase of about 500,000 shares was completed, but negotiations for about 300,000 shares were not completed."

Mr. Clough declined to say whether the Northern Securities company had received dividends on the Great Northern stock held by it. He said that Charles Steele, of J. P. Morgan & Co., George F. Baker, Jr., and A. P. Hepburn held proxies for the Northern Pacific stock held by the Northern Securities company.

"As to the proxies for the Great Northern stock," said Mr. Clough, "my memory is not so good, but I think it is held by J. J. Hill and by Edward Sawyer in Mr. Hill's absence."

Witness said $50,000,000 worth of Northern Securities stock has been issued.

This concluded the examination of Mr. Clough.

Mr. Kellogg, counsel for the Northern Securities company, asked for an adjournment until Saturday. At that session, he said, he wished to examine Mr. Perkins of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. He also notified Mr. Boutelle that there were several slight corrections to be made in the testimony of Mr. Morgan, and it was agreed that these would be made in writing and entered upon the record.

Mr. Kellogg also asked that Peter Power, the plaintiff in this suit, be produced at the next session.

Reply was made that Mr. Power would be produced as soon as the direct testimony was in.

It was then agreed that the adjournment taken yesterday should be subject to the call of the examiner, and it was said it would probably be three weeks before the next session would be held.

WORLD'S TRIBUTE

CECIL RHODES ACKNOWLEDGED AS A GREAT MAN.

RANKS WITH WARREN HASTINGS

Looked Upon by the World as an Empire Builder and Should Be Buried in Westminster Abbey.

(By Associated Press.)
London, March 28.—Englishmen, accustomed to tirades from the continent on the subject of the Jameson raid, are amazed by the world-wide tribute to the unique greatness of Cecil Rhodes. Even the leading writers were constrained by memories of the parliamentary inquiry to admit his complicity in the raid against the Dutch republics and estimate his blunders as commensurate with his services to the empire.

The world's press ranks him with Clive and Hastings as an empire builder, they are suggesting the substitution of Westminster Abbey for his own place of burial instead of the Matoppo hills.

Those intimate with Mr. Hawkesley, who drew Mr. Rhodes' will, are confident that the mining and other investments have been pooled and left en bloc as a trust for the benefit of South Africa.

Those closely associated with Mr. Rhodes do not expect special bequests. They assert that it was one of Mr. Rhodes' cardinal principles that public service should be well recompensed during his life and that the bulk of his fortune should be reserved for public purposes in South Africa.

NOT SETTLED YET

MAY NOT APPROPRIATE MONEY FOR DANISH ISLANDS.

NIELS GRON'S STATEMENT

State Department Is of the Belief That There Is No Backing Out Now and the Money Must Be Paid.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, March 28.—It is said that the answer of the state department to the Richardson resolution directing an investigation of the charges made in connection with the Danish West Indies treaty will disclose the fact that, according to the record, the United States government has refused to have anything to do with any persons as a party to the treaty who were not directly connected with the Danish government.

The department also placed on record its determination to pay no commission to any person on account of the sale of the islands. It is pointed out that our government had no right to dictate to the Danish government as to what it should do in the matter of paying commissions.

As it has been assumed in some quarters that the failure of the congress to appropriate the $5,000,000, which was to be the purchase price paid for the islands would, in itself, cause the failure of the transfer, it may be said that the construction of the treaty by the state department is that directly upon the exchange of ratifications the islands become the property of the United States without waiting for the payment of the money and the failure of congress to make the appropriation would simply leave outstanding a debt of honor against us.

Following is the statement made by Niels Gron regarding the Christmas statement:

"When early in February last, the contents of Walter Christmas' secret report to the Danish government relative to the transfer of the Danish West Indies became public, a party comprising a large portion of Denmark's best and most influential men and highest interests, realizing that Christmas, in the furtherance of the pending treaty had served, by direct authority, first the secretary of state of the United States and afterward the Danish prime minister, Mr. Hørring, it would be impossible to disassociate his efforts from the report or the methods set forth in the report from the official negotiations and, realizing further, that if the present treaty was consummated and permitted to go into effect, Denmark would be obliged to stand before the world as having made use of, and the United States as having accepted, such negotiations as said Christmas sets forth and describes in the above-mentioned report, and since it was thought that that would place the people of the two nations in an unfavorable and regrettable light, it was resolved by the party referred to to journey with all speed from Copenhagen to Washington and lay before the representatives of the people of the United States facts touching parts of the negotiations, so that any further steps taken by the United States causing the taking effect of the treaty in question must be done with a full knowledge of the situation.

(Signed) "NIELS GRON,"
Washington, D. C., March 27, 1902.
Representative Dalzell, chairman of the committee appointed yesterday by Speaker Henderson to investigate the charges in the Danish West Indies treaty, says he will go over the allegations today when they appear in the Congressional Record, and arrangements will then be made for an early meeting of the committee, probably on Saturday.

Until then, Mr. Dalzell said there would be no plans as to the conduct of the investigations.

SAILORS IN JAIL

FRENCH SEAMEN WHO REFUSE TO OBEY ORDERS.

MUTINY AT SAN FRANCISCO

Seven Men Went Ashore and Refused to Return or to In Any Way Keep Their Contracts With Vessel.

(By Associated Press.)
Seattle, March 28.—Acting upon the request of the French consul-general at San Francisco, Mayor Humes yesterday instructed Chief of Police Sullivan to arrest the crew of the French bark Les Adelphes and confine them in the city jail for a period not exceeding eight days or until such a time as the men signify their intention to obey the orders of the officers of the vessel.

The warrant for the arrest was obtained from article 2 of the consular service convention between France and the United States, proclaimed August 12, 1853, and is the first instance on record in this port where the terms of the treaty have been invoked against a rebellious crew.

Les Adelphes arrived in port eight days ago and went on the way for repairs, having been injured in a storm on the voyage here. Almost immediately afterward the crew began to show signs of rebellion against Captain Coffin and finally refused to obey his orders at all.

Seven of the number went ashore without permission and refused to perform any work laid out by the captain. The master appealed to Consul General Dalmangue at San Francisco, who addressed a letter to Mayor Humes, citing the authority for the request preferred and the mayor promptly ordered the police to take the mutinous seamen in custody.

The consul-general in his letter guarantees all expense incident to the detention of the seamen. The names of the ringleaders as furnished the police by Captain Coffin are: Painsley, Lucas, Toulan, Marice, Augereault, Heilo and Morvan.

FUNSTON ROASTED

SENATOR PATTERSON OBJECTS TO TALK OF AGUINALDO'S CAPTOR.

DEBATE ON THE OLEO BILL

Senator Harris Says That the Colored Grease Is Not Bad When Properly Made and Not Made to Deceive.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, March 28.—Soon after the senate convened today Mr. Hawley, chairman of the committee on military affairs, favorably reported a bill to correct the military record of Charles H. Hawley.

A similar bill was vetoed a short time ago by the president. In reporting the measure Mr. Hawley said it had been changed and informal assurances had been given that, as reported, it would be satisfactory to the president. The bill reported authorized the president to review the case and revoke the order of dismissal.

Mr. Gallinger of New Hampshire said he had received letters from soldiers impugning him to introduce similar bills, and he had replied that apparently there was no use to do so as they were likely to be vetoed if passed. He hoped his impression was incorrect. The bill was then placed on the calendar.

A joint resolution was adopted appointing Henry E. Palmer, Nebraska, George W. Steele, Indiana, Walter P. Brownlow, Tennessee, T. J. Henderson, Illinois, and J. M. Brown, Maine, members of the board of managers of the national home for disabled volunteer soldiers of the United States.

On motion of Mr. Proctor the senate directed that when it adjourn today it stand adjourned until Monday next.

Debate on Oleo Bill.

Consideration was resumed of the oleomargarine bill.

Mr. Harris of Kansas offered an amendment placing a tax of 10 cents a pound upon adulterated butter, providing that it should be stamped or branded, and levying a heavy fine for violation of the provisions of the amendment.

Mr. Harris, while he was a supporter of the pending bill, declared that oleomargarine was an excellent product when not sophisticated and colored in a way to deceive the consumer. It was an article of food of such value that he was surprised the manufacturers of oleomargarine did not advertise it as such frankly and boldly. The deception, he said, was not, however, all on one side. The committee had encountered disgusting duplicity upon the part of the buttermakers, and it was partly to meet this point that he offered his amendment.

Steers Compete With Cows.
Mr. Quarles of Wisconsin in support of the pending measure, said that steers had come to a strange pass when steers compete with cows as butter producers. It was high time, he thought, for self-respecting men to take up the cudgels for the cow and to defend her time-honored prerogatives.

He said that Wisconsin had $117,000,000 invested in dairy interests. He said that 110,000,000 pounds of oleo were manufactured in the United States, and he had no hesitancy in pronouncing it "the greatest fraud of the century."

At the conclusion of Mr. Quarles' speech a message from President Roosevelt, recommending that provision be made for diplomatic and consular representatives in Cuba, and announcing formally that the island would be turned over to the Cuban government on the 20th of May next, was read and referred to the committee on foreign relations.

Mr. Patterson of Colorado called attention to an Associated press dispatch from Topeka, Kan., published today, in which Gen. Frederick Funston was represented as criticizing some eastern papers because of their comment on his recent speech before the Lotus club of New York.

He said that he would not notice the statement but for the fact that General Funston called to his aid the president and the chairman of the senate committee on the Philippines, representing them as indorsing his speech.

Rules of Warfare.
Mr. Patterson said it was evident that General Funston's speech was to be used for campaign purposes, and he thought therefore that two things ought to be brought calmly and dispassionately to the attention of the country. First, General Funston's own statement of the character of Aguinaldo, made in a magazine article, his point being that General Funston had violated the articles of warfare in deceiving the Filipinos at the time he captured Aguinaldo, despite his statement now that he had not done so.

In conclusion, Mr. Patterson said that all authorities upon international law and the articles of civilized warfare declared that the use of the enemy's uniform was not warranted, and a man in an enemy's uniform who killed another man was guilty of assassination and outside the pale of protection.

When Mr. Patterson had concluded, the senate, at 4 o'clock, went into executive session and soon afterward adjourned until Monday.

NAVY RAPIDLY GROWING.
Necessity for an Increase of Officers for Both Branches.
(By Associated Press.)

PLACE OF BURIAL

CECIL RHODES SELECTED HIS OWN LAST RESTING PLACE.

IT IS IN A HISTORICAL SPOT

When He Visited Matoppo the Last Time He Picked Out the Place and Gave Explicit Directions About It.

(By Associated Press.)
London, March 28.—In a dispatch from Capetown, the correspondent there of the Daily News says that Cecil Rhodes, when he last visited Matoppo, selected the spot where he decided to be interred and gave instructions to an architect concerning the memorial to be erected. The place of interment is beneath a natural monument of giant boulders on a kopje adjoining that on which Major Wilson's little force made its last stand. The memorial to be erected will be a feature of striking landscape. The date of interest is doubtful, says the correspondent, owing to the necessity of construction of a special carriage road from Buluwayo. At present there is nothing more than a bridle path. Work on this road has already commenced, but its completion will require one month.

Continuing, the correspondent says that a death mask of the face has been successfully taken. The features, which were distorted as a result of his malady, resumed their reposeful dignity in death. After the autopsy, which revealed an extensive aneurism of the heart, the remains were placed in a coffin and conveyed at 4 o'clock yesterday morning to Grootesdur. The body has since been placed in a shell. It was found impossible to embalm it, owing to the operations necessitated by the attacks of dropsy.

The body will lie in the hall at Grootesdur until next Monday in order to enable the public to visit it. It will be brought to Capetown next Tuesday.
