DEMOCRATIC ELECTION FRAUDS EXPOSED

POSITIVE EVIDENCE

gaged in the nefarious business and others who are responsible for it are behind the bars for a stipulated term of years.

The committee has detected crooked work in this line in nearly every ward in the city, especially the wards in which voters in the two parties, democratic and republican, are about equally divided.

It will see to it that no guilty man escapes the punishment which the law provides shall be meted out to offenders of this class.

Lodging houses seem to be the principal places of alleged residence of those who have registered illegally, but the central committee is not overlooking them nor any other house likely to be used by the "Bogus Bills" who, it is claimed, are getting the princely sum of $1 each for their work.

In an interview today Chairman Morley, of the Republican City Central committee, said:

Paid a Dollar Each.

"Ten days ago I became aware of the fact that persons were being illegally registered, and employed men to investigate it. I learned from those I had employed that quite a number of men had been paid $1 each to register illegally. Some of these men have registered two or three times under different names.

"As soon as I learned what was transpiring I laid the matter before County Attorney Breen and was assured by Mr. Breen that all offenders irrespective of party affiliations would be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

"Mr. Breen further stated that he was desirous of obtaining information as to the identity of the persons engaged in procuring the illegal registration; that the republican city central committee and himself were alone responsible for the prosecution of the offenders and were willing to assume such responsibility.

"The central committee is in possession of some information implicating the persons who procured the illegal registration," said Mr. Morley, "and if the chain of evidence is completed by this evening, complaints will be drawn and filed against them no matter whether they are candidates for office or members of the central committee.

"I have in my possession information to the effect that one particular candidate has boasted of the number of illegal registrations which he knows have been made in his ward."

Alex Mackel, labor party candidate for alderman in the Second ward, was interviewed this afternoon and expressed what he is certain is the sentiment of the labor party with regard to the arrests made at the instigation of the republican committee.

"I speak for our chairman, Mike McCormick," said he, "and also for the rest of the men prominent in the labor party, who look upon illegal registration as an outrage.

"If the men accused are guilty we want them punished. If politicians are guilty with them we want them punished, too.

"The republican party is entitled to the credit of running the men down and causing their arrest, but party or no party, this is not the time to stand by and see the law violated. The men who are authorized to speak for the labor party say by all means punish the guilty.

"This is the way we look at the matter, and politics do not enter into the question. The citizens of Butte have an interest in seeing the laws enforced and pure elections carried on."

Democrats Opposed.

There was an oppressive silence in and about democratic headquarters in the Goldberg block today. The place, with the exception of one hired man, William Naughten, was deserted.

Mr. Naughten is secretary of the democratic city central committee, and when asked for an expression as to the charges made by the republican committee that the democrats were attempting to steal the election, said:

"So far as this committee knows, the charges are absolutely unfounded. If individual democrats are doing anything of that kind, the committee in charge of the campaign is not responsible."

Registers Are Frightened.

The positive declaration made by the republican city central committee that any one attempting to register illegally at the supplemental registration today would be arrested and prosecuted seems to have had the effect of forestalling any such attempt. The registration judges in both the east and west side registration places said that no fraudulent attempt to register under false representations or fictitious names up to 3 o'clock this afternoon had been made.

But three voters had taken advantage of the last opportunity to register up to 3 o'clock at the east side registration place. A number of voters who had previously registered came in, however, to request the judges to make changes in the spelling of their names or addresses.

Twelve voters had registered at the west side headquarters in the Hamilton block up to 3 p. m. today.

As the places of registration will be kept open until 9 o'clock tonight, it

ALDERMAN MAYO COUNTY ATTY BREEN

Mayo by the city during each of the six months:

September	$ 222.50
October	258.05
November	245.30
December	218.70
January	241.35
February	361.40
Total	$1,547.30

Mayo Fighting Hard.

"Alderman Mayo is fighting hard for re-election," said Chairman Morley today. "It is no wonder that he wants the office so badly. It is a source of profit to him and his coal office and it is this idea instead of the idea of serving the people that spurs him on in the campaign."

"Mayo," continued the chairman, "is so anxious to retain his seat where the profits are that he has mailed circulars to all of the voters in the Fourth ward."

"In these circulars he asks for support at the polls and points to the record in the council as a cause for re-election. He has even asked W. C. Bacheier, his republican opponent, to cast a ballot for him."

The contrast between the present incumbent and his coal yard and W. C. Bacheier, the republican candidate in that ward, should certainly appeal to the voters next Monday.

SCHOOL BONDS ARE WINNING

Voting in the school election has been light, but there can be no doubt that the two questions to be settled by the voters will be decided affirmatively, as opposition did not develop.

In speaking of the school election, Secretary Richards of the school board said this afternoon:

"I have been to all the polling places this morning with the exception of two and believe I can state with certainty that the vote on the question of bonding the district an additional $100,000 for improvements, will be almost unanimous."

"The second question as to whether the trustees will be authorized to sell the old Jefferson school site, will be carried also.

"There is no opposition to the re-election of W. McC. White, Charles H. Lane, R. L. Clinton and E. B. Weirick, our four trustees."

"Out of nine precincts, 999 voters registered but out of this number there will not be over 550 votes cast. The voting is heaviest in the Fourth and Fifth precincts, but as regards the school election is very quiet all over town."

STRIKING PAINTERS SAW WOOD

The painters and paper hangers who did not like the wages they were getting and struck for an increase of 50 cents per day more are not saying very much, but according to reports they are sawing wood. One of the members of the Master Painters' association says that yesterday he saw two or three of the gentlemen buying wood saws and he thinks they had serious intentions.

So far the difficulty between the journeymen and the bosses stands just as it did at the outset of the trouble several days ago and there is no prospect of an amicable adjustment. The bosses do not seem to care whether the men return to work under the terms of the old schedule or any other schedule, and the other side appears to possess a similar feeling.

ENGINEERS' PLACES FILLED

There were no new developments today in the walkout of the holsting engineers at the properties of the Anaconda, Washoe and Parrot companies.

Seventeen of the 27 vacancies have been filled and the other places are being filled as fast as possible.

is expected at least twenty-five voters will register in either place.

The republicans have watchers about the registration headquarters and every precaution is being taken to frustrate any attempt at illegal registration.

ROAD TRUSTEES' ELECTION IS A ROARING FARCE

Several men rushed in to part the combatants and some one thinking that it was a general fight turned in the riot call.

Sheriff Furey and several deputies answered but when they arrived the trouble was over.

There is a tough element among the illegal voters and there is likely to be serious trouble before the polls are closed at 6 o'clock.

Plenty of Candidates.

There are 21 candidates in the field for the three positions of road trustees. The salary is only $25 per year but the perquisites that go with the position are considerable. A road trustee is at liberty to use his own team and for this the county allows $6 per day. The trustee also draws $3 per day from the county treasury when in the active performance of his duties.

The candidates have been active in soliciting support and many of them have resorted to questionable methods of procuring votes. A bus-load of voters pledged to one candidate arrived at the polls just before noon. They had no sooner voted than another candidate herded them in, paid them fifty cents a head and voted the entire bunch again, the only difference being they changed their names and voted another ticket.

Car Tickets for Votes.

One man at the polls, who boasts of East Galena street as his home, was heard to remark that he had voted "12 times already and intended to vote as many more."

Many men who have voted in the Road trustee election were furnished only with transportation by the candidates, while others received higher compensation.

Manager Wharton of the street railway is authority for the statement that one of the candidates for road trustee yesterday purchased $150 worth of tickets to Meaderville. These, of course, were distributed among his friends and acquaintances.

live information that 28 men registered from one house in the Fourth ward, and none of them live there. Fourteen other men registered from a vacant lot where there used to be a house on West Galena street in the Sixth ward. The registration colonists forgot that the house had been torn down.

"One man who we are after now with a warrant registered in the Fourth and Sixth wards under ten names, and I have that information on the authority of a prominent populist and a prominent democrat. They are two of the most prominent men in the town.

"There is one of the men arrested yesterday in the jail now, who registered from No. 701 West Park street, who does not know where the house he registered from is. His name is Smith, but he gave his name as Jerry Black at the jail yesterday."

Mr. Breen proceeded to say that while all the men who have illegally registered have not been caught as yet, the others would be jailed Monday if they attempted to vote.

Sheriff in Pursuit.

There have been a number of illegal registrations in the Eighth ward and others in the Fourth and Sixth. These are known of, and still others are suspected. The sheriff's officers are on the track of a man who canvassed the town looking for dwelling rooms for temporary use as places of colonization for illegal voters. The officers have a good description of the man and they think they will get him.

The four men who remain in the county jail out of the batch arrested yesterday are: W. A. Gritten, Richard Arnhill, John Cassidy and Joseph Smith, alias Jerry Black.

Smith confessed last night to County Attorney Breen. This is the man who registered as living at a place he never saw.

He told Mr. Breen that he drifted into town from the Wycliffe tunnel, in Jefferson county, about 10 days ago, and that he was induced to register by a smooth-faced man, who wore a derby hat and whom he met in a saloon. The smooth-faced man paid him $1 for his services in registering.

From McLaughlin's Saloon.

He said he was taken out of the side door of McLaughlin's saloon and registered on Hamilton street. He met the man who steered him against the game in the California brewery and had a drink with him. They went to McLaughlin's saloon then and had another, the stranger bringing up the matter of registering and offering him the money.

Smith said he had two companions, and that the smooth-shaven individual made the same proposal to the others, but that they rejected it.

Smith has no right to register in Butte, and possibly no right to register in the state anywhere. He came to Butte the first time in October last for three weeks. The next time he came was in January, and the last time about 10 days ago.

He said he was told by the man who paid him the dollar to say that he was in the state a year and six months in this county.

His case and those of the others arrested will be attended to by the county attorney when they can be reached.

Ran Into a Rock.

Denver, April 5.—The Atlantic coast limited east bound on the Denver & Rio Grande railroad ran into a rock on the tracks near Glenwood Springs at 3:30 this morning. The engine was derailed and trains in both directions were delayed. No one was injured.

Inspects Deaf and Dumb School.

Boulder, April 5.—Governor Toole arrived unexpectedly in the city today to visit the deaf and dumb school. He found it in good condition and expressed himself as highly pleased with the management.

ON WALL STREET.

Prices Generally Fell Below Former Prices—Minor Stocks Advance.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, April 5.—Opening deals were large in the Grangers and Pacific and the price changes were mixed. Louisville & Nashville took the leadership of the market and was worked up above 109. St. Paul meantime was going down, but met support under 170.

The contrary movements of these leaders perplexed the professionals and they did not do much in other stocks. Fluctuations in the Grangers, Pacifics and Southwesterns were very narrow, although considerable stock changed hands.

Before 11 o'clock the market became generally steady in sympathy with advances in the coalers and buying of obscure stocks. St. Paul recovered to 171. Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern Pacific jumped 20 points to 180, with a spread of five points on each side. The advances of the second hour were in minor stocks. Sugar rallied a point and Colorado Fuel ½.

The whole market sold off on the decrease of the surplus reserve by the banks, and prices generally fell below last night.

Louisville recovered to the top, but the closing was irregular.
