NEWSY TIPS ON THE MARKET PROSPECTS

HIRED A GOOD MAN

THOMAS MOFFETT, FORMERLY OF BUTTE, IS IN OREGON.

SUPERINTENDENT OF MONARCH

Was at One Time the Representative of H. L. Frank and Patsy Clark—He Has Had Thirty Years' Experience.

The superintendent of the development of a mine should be a competent, experienced man in mining, says the Sumpter American. To secure such a man is of the greatest importance to the owners of mining properties.

May Develop Into a Great Thing. In speaking to the representative of the Sumpter American Mr. Moffett said: "The properties of the company give every assurance of making a big producing mine."

KING SOLOMON A PRODUCER

The recent development of the King Solomon mine located three miles from Clancy, has opened up a large body of high grade ore, says the Helena Herald.

As further development work proceeds it is more than probable that regular shipments will be maintained hereafter.

NEW MINING CORPORATION

The January Dell Mining company, recently organized in this city with a capital stock of 200,000 shares, having a par value of $1 each, owns a group of six claims in Madison county and two claims in this district.

London, April 10.—The budget statement, which was to have been presented today, has been postponed until Monday owing to the indisposition of the chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach.

Refuse to Arbitrate.

Providence, R. I., April 10.—The strikers in the American Woolen company's mills at Onyxville have refused to deal with a representative of the National Civic Federation's arbitration committee.

WILL WORK ELGIN

BUTTE MEN OWN THE PROPERTY AND CONSIDER IT GOOD.

LOCATED NEAR THE WATSEKA

Large Quantity of Good Gold Bearing Ore Has Been Taken From It—Developed to a Depth of 1 1/2 Feet.

Hugh I. Wilson and Thomas M. Hodgins, the former of the Butte hotel and the latter of the State Savings bank, are preparing to begin work on the Elgin mine, located near the Watseka, in the Rochester district of Madison county.

GREAT PIGEON RANCH.

Pictureque Industry That Brought in $12,000 Last Year.

(Country Life in America.) The breeding of pigeons is a picturesque and remunerative industry of the far West. The bird ranch owned by T. Y. Johnson of Los Angeles, Cal., is said to be the largest in the world.

Three years ago, notwithstanding the uncertainty of the outcome, Mr. Johnson selected a pretty spot in the Los Angeles river bed, where, among sycamores, willows and alders that outlined the small stream, he erected a number of immense bird tenements, one being 60 feet long, 24 feet wide and 18 feet high.

Cattle Sales.

Chicago, April 10.—At the Union Stock yards today "Mit" Zimmerman, the well known cattle salesman, says: "Cattle prices are back where they were a week ago or in other words steers are selling at the highest prices of the year."

Rock Island Influences.

New York, April 10.—The sudden rise in prices of Keokuk & Western railway was traced to the Rock Island interests. The latter operates the road under lease which has 10 years to run, but it is understood the contract can be broken by giving short notice.

Decline in Money Demand.

New York, April 10.—Considerable uncertainty has been aroused by the appearance of the Missouri Pacific statement for February. According to it the publication of unfavorable statement showing $21,000 decrease in net statement for February should not have been given out last week.

L. & N. Dividend Rumors.

New York, April 10.—The increase of five million in the capital stock of Louisville & Nashville is doubtless the explanation of a good deal of the recent speculation in the stock.

A Silk Summer.

The woman who has a love for silken gowns will fairly revel in her summer wardrobe, for the indications are that this is to be a silk season and Fortune's favorites may have every article of wearing apparel, from hosiery to hats, made of this favorite material if it pleases their fancy.

The Russian traveling coat of taffetas, which is a full length garment, has so many qualities to recommend it, besides its durability, that everyone who can possibly afford it will be sure to possess one. The air of elegance that it imparts to the wearer makes it most irresistible to women who delight in being well dressed.

Some of the handsomest models in street gowns that are being shown by exclusive houses are made of silk in which small checks and narrow stripes predominate.
