

THE INTER MOUNTAIN'S ANACONDA DEPARTMENT

CUT DOWN EXPENSE

WILL NOT END WITH THE POLICE DEPARTMENT.

CITY ENGINEER IS SLATED

His Salary Is to Undergo at Least a Cutting-Down Process—Office May Be Abolished for a Time.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, March 11.—On next Monday night the outgoing council will meet at the city hall for the last time to transact business. They will then be ready to turn the "old ship" over to the new council. There is much to be done by the old council at the next meeting. Retrenchment seems to be the order of the day and an ordinance will be introduced by Alderman Haltenhoff for the reduction of the police force from ten to eight members. It is thought that the city can get along very well without so many police and at the same time the efficiency of the department will not be lessened.

Peaceful Place.

Anaconda is naturally a peaceful place at all times. The records of the police court show that. This fact has been especially demonstrated during the past few months, and aside from the capture of an occasional drunk or vag the police department has had little to do. Last month the court fines only aggregated the sum of $20. Crime of a serious nature has been practically unknown for a long time.

The cutting of the two members of the police force will reduce the expense of the police department $200 per month. But the cutting business will not end with the police department; other heads are slated to fall at the next meeting of the council, and it is not likely that the city engineer will not escape the retrenchment knife. For the past six months or more he has received the salary of $125 per month for his services and has put in his entire time at that. But it seems to be the opinion of a good many that he is getting too much money, so he is on the list to go through at least a cutting down process. The office may be abolished.

RECRUITS FOR NAVY

LIEUT. J. P. MORTON WILL BE HERE TO SECURE SOME.

ENLISTING MEN AND BOYS

Special Inducements to Ex-Non-Commissioned Officers of Army and Navy and to Carpenters Who Have Been at Sea Before.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, April 11.—Chief Master-at-Arms Fred Josephson, United States Army, traveling in advance of Lieut. J. P. Morton and Dr. J. E. Page, recruiting officers for the United States navy. These gentlemen will open an office at the city hall for the enlistment of men and boys in the navy. The office will be maintained but one day in Anaconda, closing at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. From here the recruiting staff will go to Pocatello, Idaho. It is the desire of the recruiting officers to enlist as apprentices boys between the ages of 15 and 17 years, and as seamen and various other branches of the service, men between the ages of 18 and 25 years. If the candidate be under age he must be accompanied by his parents or guardian or have their written consent. One special feature of the present rules of enlistment is that all ex-non-commissioned officers from the army and navy, having an honorable discharge, can enlist in the navy as master-at-arms, third-class, and carpenters who have been at sea may enlist as carpenters' mates, third-class, in each instance skipping two ratings. Examination Strict. Applicants for enlistment, both boys and men, are required to pass a strict physical examination, a very slight physical defect being sufficient to bar. As to education, all must be able to read and write the English language, and when enlisting for special branches of service are required to pass examination in allied branches of learning. Chief Master-at-Arms Josephson stated that the trip of the recruiting officers through Montana has been highly successful and a large number of very desirable men and boys enlisted for service in the navy. It certainly offers inducements to young men, the pay is good, companionship pleasant, and the work not at all arduous. Besides, there is always a chance of better things, depending entirely upon the man himself and his attention to business.

WARDE AS ANTONY.

Eminent Tragedian and Company at the Margaret Theater. (Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, April 11.—When three such actors as Frederick Warde, Charles D. Herman and Barry Johnstone appear upon the stage with important roles in the same play their work is truly great; and so it was last night in the production of "Julius Caesar" at the Margaret theater. The part of Marc Antony was taken by Mr. Warde, that of Brutus by Mr. Herman, and Mr. Johnstone assumed the role of the scheming but patriotic Caius Cassius. They were applauded vociferously and after the senate scene and death of Caesar in the third act Mr. Warde was called before the curtain. Parts of the play especially strong were the speech of Antony in the Roman Forum, and the quarrel between Cassius and Brutus at the latter's tent upon the field of Sardis. Mr. H. M. O'Connor as Julius Caesar, interpreted the part in an excellent manner, his stage presence fitting the role of Caesar exceptionally well. Miss Virginia Drew Trescott as Calpurnia, wife of Caesar, and Miss Antoine Ashton as Portia, wife of Brutus, had but few lines, but those few were indicative of the highest talent. Frederick Warde and his companies have always been prime favorites in Montana, and the feeling grows rather than decreases with years.

CLEANING UP STREETS.

Sanitary Regulations to Be Rigidly Enforced This Year. (Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, April 11.—Street Commissioner George Brollin and the other members of his department of the municipal government, are doing their spring house cleaning. Some good work along these lines is being done on Main street between the B. A. & P. depot and the Margaret theater. The gutters which became filled up during the winter are being cleaned; the sewer connections are being thoroughly flushed and made ready for the freshets that may be expected almost any day from the melting snow in the mountains and from the copious spring rains. The street commissioner is also carrying out the instructions of the board of health in regards to citizens cleaning up their premises and keeping them in a safe and sanitary condition, thus preventing the spread of typhoid germs so often prevalent at the final breaking up of winter. The street and health departments did good work last year in maintaining proper sanitary regulations, and it is the intention to put forth the same vigor and zeal in that direction this year.

RECORD OF MARCH WEATHER.

The Maximum Temperature Was 47.7, the Minimum 18.7. (Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, April 11.—The weather report of Voluntary Observer Frank Harrison for the month of March, show the maximum temperature to have been 47.7 degrees, the minimum 18.7 degrees, with the mean temperature of the month 33.2 degrees. That is considered very decent weather for a Montana March, and lots of Montanans wintering in other climes no doubt found the weather but a slight improvement upon it.

Butte Presbytery Meet.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, April 11.—The Butte Presbytery will meet this evening in the Presbyterian church. Rev. Walter Hays will preach the opening sermon, commencing at 8 o'clock, at the conclusion of which the presbytery will be convened in due form. During the evening officers for the ensuing year will be chosen. Tomorrow will be devoted for the most part to a business session.

"Pinafore" Sale Opened.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, April 11.—The sale of seats for the opera, "Pinafore," to be rendered at the Margaret theater next Monday by a company of home talent singers, opened this morning. The sale commenced at 9 o'clock and for some time before that hour people stood in line waiting to get their tickets to the performance.

Spanish War Veterans.

Anaconda, April 11.—Tonight at Turner hall a large body of veterans of the late war will be mustered into the society of Spanish-American war veterans by Capt. Phillip Greenan, who has been appointed special mustering officer for the occasion.

DUNBAR IN TOILS

STARTED FOR BOISE WITH $23, NOT HIS OWN.

CAPTURED A SILVER BOW

Young Man Is Prominent in Anaconda Musical Circles and Has Part in the Opera "Pinafore" to Be Presented Monday.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, April 11.—Yesterday evening J. E. Dunbar, a young man employed in Short's music store, in this city, was arrested in Silver Bow while en route for Boise, Idaho, charged with having taken $23 from the till of the Short establishment without the consent or knowledge of the proprietors. The young man has been in Anaconda for some months, was prominent in musical circles and has been practicing for one of the leading parts in the Merrill production of "Pinafore" to be given next Monday evening at the Margaret theater. The employers of the young man stated this morning that he has been very anxious to get back to Boise, his home, and said that his mother had obtained a position for him in that city. However, he seemed unable to get ahead enough to leave the town. Missed the Money. Yesterday evening Mr. Blackborough, one of the proprietors in the music store, missed $23 from the cash drawer, but thought that probably Mr. Short had paid it out and neglected to put it on the book. Inquiry, however, elicited the information that such was not the case, and, furthermore, that Dunbar was missing. It was also learned that he had during the afternoon endeavored to borrow some money from a nearby business man, saying that Mr. Short had sent him for it. He failed to get it. Caught at Silver Bow. The sheriff's office was notified of the facts with the result that Dunbar was arrested at Silver Bow with a ticket to Boise and $7.50 in his possession. He was returned to Anaconda by one of the Silver Bow county deputy sheriffs. Dunbar said he intended to go to Boise, secure a position and return in time to take part in the opera Monday night. When arraigned in Justice of the Peace Quane's court this morning he pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for 1 o'clock this afternoon. Other Property. It is alleged that Dunbar confessed in the presence of witnesses to having taken the money, but insisted that he intended to return it. It was claimed this morning that Dunbar also decamped with some property belonging to Professor Merrill. Just what it was has not been ascertained. While Dunbar was not known very well in Anaconda those who were acquainted with him considered him an honorable and upright young man.

KRUGER TACITURN

HE RECEIVES BUT FEW VISITORS AND SHOWS HIS AGE.

LOST HIS FORMER GRIM HUMOR

Dr. Leyds Is the Recognized Boer Representative at The Hague—Oom Paul Surrounded by Relatives.

(By Associated Press.) London, April 11.—Cabling from Utrecht, a London correspondent says there is no decline in the popularity of former President Kruger, although he lives in seclusion and is seldom seen outside his villa in this small factory town. He is surrounded by a swarm of relatives and Boer exiles, sees few visitors and is more phlegmatic and taciturn than ever. He is unmanageable in money matters and so deliberate and cautious in expressing his opinion respecting South African affairs that he is seldom consulted by the other Boer leaders. Doctor Leyds is received as the diplomatic representative of the South African republic and allowed to display his full uniform on state occasions at the Hague. Mr. Kruger is a private citizen living in exile and is not encouraged to visit the capital or appear in public; yet he is revered throughout the Netherlands as a hero. Mr. Kruger is unmistakably aging, the dispatch concludes, as his followers admit. His heart action is better than it was and his general health has improved during his residence here, but his mind has grown dull and his grim humor has disappeared. He remains the central figure of the group of Boer refugees, because his personality is still unrivaled.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin."

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Anaconda, April 11.—One of the stage stories that will remain strong and true to audiences is "Uncle Tom's Cabin," a sumptuous production of which, under the able management of Leon Washburn, will be given at the Margaret theater on next Saturday afternoon and evening, when everyone who has the opportunity of witnessing the same will acclaim it as one of the best yet given by any company. Time, effort and expense have not been spared in its staging or selection of cast and the minutest detail has been carefully prepared. There is no story of book or stage that so delights the juvenile mind, and it is to be hoped that every boy and girl may have their wish to see it gratified.

Chicago, April 11.—One of the rewards of President James' successful direction of the affairs of the Northwestern university will be $1,000,000 for endowment, says an authoritative informant.

The donor of this gift is William Deering, president of the board of trustees and one of the oldest and wealthiest friends of the university. Since the search for a president to succeed Henry Wade Rogers began about two years ago, there have been rumors that the man who accepted the position and filled it according to standards set by the trustees, soon would find another $1,000,000 in the endowment fund, the gift of Mr. Deering. So strong was this impression that the members of the nominating committee sought to ascertain Mr. Deering's wishes in the matter before they finally selected a president. According to information coming from one very close to Mr. Deering in such matters, the president of the board recently has expressed his intention of giving the university $1,000,000 in the event President James' management, after reasonable trial, is found to meet his approval from the view point of the institution's welfare. The period of probation, according to the same authority, will not be long, as the manner in which President James grasped the situation as he found it, has gone far to convince friends of the university that its future is safe with him.

MRS. TABOR SUES

WIDOW OF LATE COLORADO SENATOR DEMANDS SOME MONEY. Recovering Mining Stock She Alleges That David H. Moffatt Holds Stock Which Belongs to Tabor Estate—Also Sues Leadville Parties.

(By Associated Press.) Denver, April 11.—Elizabeth B. Tabor, widow of Senator H. A. W. Tabor, has filed two suits in the district court for damages aggregating $250,000 to recover possession of a large amount of mining stock which she alleges has been misappropriated by defendants. One suit is against David H. Moffatt. In this suit Mrs. Tabor asks for $150,000 damage and for an accounting from Mr. Moffatt of the disposition of 71,250 shares of stock in the Maid of Erin Silver Mines company, valued at $498,750, and 9,168 shares in the Gold & Silver Extraction company of America, limited, valued at $45,840. Mrs. Tabor avers that her husband placed these stocks in Mr. Moffatt's hands as trustee, pending negotiations for the sale of them. She alleges that the sale was never made and that the stocks were never returned to her husband. The second suit was brought by Mrs. Tabor and Mrs. "Tin" Foley against George W. Trimble and A. V. Hunter of Leadville, and John F. Champion, to recover 50,870 shares of stock in the Iroquois Mining company. The plaintiffs ask for $100,000 damages. The claims are alleged to be similar to those of the Moffatt suit. Presidio Hospital Crowded. (By Associated Press.) San Francisco, April 11.—The general hospital at the Presidio is so crowded with patients that 47 convalescents have been ordered to Fort Logan, Colorado.
