MR. MEYER IS JUST HOLDING HIS HAT

In street parlance, M. Meyer would like to know where he "gets off." Apparently he is simply holding his hat and nothing is dropping into it.
Mr. Meyer's troubles all began with Brinig going into bankruptcy last March. He owns the building at No. 43 East Park street, in which Brinig did business.
Trustee in Bankruptcy Howell sold the Brinig stock to B. Hank and Morris Near, and it is claimed that Meyer himself was after the stock, but they were ahead of him.
Mr. Meyer brought suit in Justice Arnold's court against Hank and Near for $150 alleged to be due him for rent of the building. They declared they had the stock from Mr. Howell, and that they were not responsible for the rent, but that the trustee in bankruptcy was. Their attorney, Mr. Forestell, convinced the judge of the correctness of this stand, and the judge entered a non-suit.

Now then Mr. Meyer wants his money. He has employed Michael Donlan as his lawyer and filed suit in Justice Nelson's court asking this time for $200, for he is figuring that Hank and Near owe him rent, and the rent is growing like a green bay tree.
It is said that Mr. Meyer is just bound to get his rent money, and some people are drawing charts to see how he is going to get it.
The battle between Hank and Near on one side and Meyer on the other is becoming interesting and threatens to become as extensive and costly as the Iowa calf case.
It is believed that no matter what decision Justice Nelson will render in the case, it will be taken to another court.

WHERE SNOW FELL

KIND OF APRIL SHOWERS THEY HAVE IN MADISON COUNTY.

STAGE IS LOST ON THE TRAIL

Deputy United States Marshal Meiklejohn Tells of His Trip and of Suspension of Work in Pony, Mont.

David Meiklejohn, deputy United States marshal, returned yesterday from Ennis, Madison county, where he went a few days ago to serve local papers in the suit of Eugene T. Wilson as receiver vs. M. G. Scoville.
"Talk about April showers," said he, in speaking of his trip, "I encountered one in that section Monday and Tuesday that took the cake, and while it was not good for those who had to be out in it, ranchers and placer miners will derive much benefit from it. I went by way of Pony. Between that town and Ennis the snow was from 16 inches to two and a half feet deep and still falling. The ground in the vicinity of Washington Bar at the head of Meadow creek was buried beneath two and a half feet of the white stuff. It was heavy snow, too, just the brand needed for spring and summer business in that section. When I left Pony yesterday morning the ground was still covered with a foot of snow.

Stage Is Lost.
"The storm was one of the most severe experienced there in many years," continued Mr. Meiklejohn, "and was a hard one to face. The stage running between Virginia City and Norris did not reach Norris Tuesday night and the supposition is that it was lost en route, as it was impossible for either human beings or animals to follow the road.
"While in Madison I learned something about the mines of that district. The owners of the Revenue are working between 35 and 40 men, and the Monitor owners quite a number. The citizens of Ennis are very much encouraged over the prospects for their district and predict better returns for this season than they have ever had in any one year.

Suspended at Pony.
"As to Pony, a report was current a few days ago to the effect that all work there had been suspended. It is true that work on the big stamp mill has been stopped, but the suspension is only temporary—the company is simply awaiting the arrival of machinery. Development work in the Boss Tweed and Clipper mines, which the company owns, is being carried along, the force of men having been increased to the extent of eight since work on the mill was stopped. The people of Pony are not discouraged—they are of the opinion that they are going to have a very prosperous year. It is my opinion that Pony will eventually be one of the best mining camps in the state outside of Butte."

ROGERS WEARY OF HIS CELL WANTS TO ESCAPE

CHARGED WITH BURGLARY HE ASKS FOR HABEAS CORPUS.

Lariat of the Law Has Jerked in the Men Accused of Robbing McHatton's House.

William Rogers is weary of confinement in the county jail, and so he brought habeas corpus proceedings today to get out. He was arrested by a policeman on April 17 and charged with being concerned about the burglary of Judge McHatton's house.

Today he filed a petition in Judge McClernan's court, in which he alleged that the sheriff is detaining him in confinement without warrant or authority and without process of any kind. The petition was filed by Rogers' attorneys, Messrs. Kirk and Clinton.
Judge McClernan made an order directing the clerk of the court to issue the writ, and Clerk Roberts did as ordered and served the writ on Sheriff Furey. The writ commands Furey to bring the body of Rogers before the court on April 26 at 10 o'clock, so that the court may order the disposition of the man after hearing the case.
The county attorney will contest the defendant's application to be discharged, and will file complaint against him, if the evidence which the police have seems to him sufficient with which to secure a conviction.

Attention, Members.
All members of Butte Stationary Engineers' union are requested to be at their hall, No. 21 East Quartz street, Friday, 25th, at 1:30 p. m., to attend the funeral of Brother Richard Hancock.

P. A. STEVENS.

Attention, I. O. O. F.
All members of Ridgely lodge, No. 12, and Canton, and visiting brothers, are requested to meet at Ridgely hall, No. 32 North Main street, at 1 p. m. sharp, Saturday, April 26th, to take part in parade.
A. G. CORBETT, Sec'y.

HURDLE JUMPING

East yesterday. There is a constant demand made on the West and I do not see how higher prices can be prevented.
"Cattle that a year ago we could buy for $45 and 50 a head are now paying $55 and $70 for. Cattlemen can ship their cattle to Omaha or any other Eastern market and get from $70 to $80 a head. If you'll stop to think a moment you will realize what a price that is to pay for cattle.
"I have never seen so few cattle in this section as at present. Where formerly one saw vast herds, one sees only small bunches. That alone proves how rapidly they have been shipped out of the country. Most of the cattle now around are being held in anticipation of further advance in prices, which will probably come.
Not only is the East demanding cattle, but the West and the Pacific coast have buyers scouring the country in an effort to pick up a train load, if possible, and if not to pick up car loads here and there.

BIG GUN OF THE ELKS CAN SPRING NEW GAGS

FIELD TO SCINTILLATE BEFORE ANTLERED BROTHERS.

This will be Elks' night at Al Field's minstrel's, and it is hinted that Brother Field has been coddling his brain for some new gags that he will spring on his brethren. There are dark hints that some of these gags will come out as if shot from a mouth larger than that of Brer Field.
It is expected that every good Elk will be at Sutton's Broadway theater to hear the minstrel's and to laugh and applaud, for Mr. Field is grand esteemed leading knight of the order, and one of the most prominent and popular members of the herd in the country.
Butte Elks propose that the minstrel man shall remember his visit to Butte this time. He has been the recipient of much attention from Elks all round the country, and the local antlered aggregation propose that he shall dimly remember all the others while the visit to Butte will stand out like a sun.

Many, in fact, the majority of Field's minstrel's are Elks, so that the occasion of their visit to Butte is much more important than when Mr. Shakespeare comes to town.

BUTTE TO CAPTURE THE FEDERATION OF MINERS

DELEGATES WILL ASK THAT BIG MEETING COME HERE.

Ten Men Sent to Denver and All Will Root Hard for Butte's Home Run.

Ten delegates from the Butte Miners' Union will go to the annual convention of the Western Federation of Miners, which will be held in Denver, May 26.

Among other matters to come before the meeting will be the selection of a meeting place for next year.
It is understood that the Butte delegation will put the name of Butte before the meeting as a suitable place for next year's gathering.
The names of the delegates to attend the meeting next month have not yet been given out by the secretary of the union.

Which Comes Second?

There is more business in force in Montana and more written by the New York Life, than by any other company. C. J. Cutler, general agent, Butte.

ATTACHMENTS ON ROSE MINE

Returns were filed in the district court today by the sheriff in the attachment suits against the owners of the Rose mine, J. W. Fairfield and James A. Graham. The suits were filed in the district court on April 1. In one the State Savings bank sued Graham and Fairfield for $920 and interest and costs. In the other E. L. Mayo, doing business as the Butte Coal company, sued them for $2,807.25 and costs.
Mayo alleges that he sold Graham and Fairfield coal between October, 1900, and April, 1902, and that there is a balance due him.
The bank alleges that it loaned $770 to the defendants, and took their notes for security, four in number.

GRADY AND BOGAN PAY UP

Late this afternoon Grady & Bogan, who were arrested yesterday evening for conducting a poolroom without a city license, paid the treasurer $150 for the privilege of conducting the place under the Red Boot shoe store for one month.

It is likely that the case against them in the police court will now be dismissed.
It is expected that Louis Andraux, who runs the poolroom at 3 1/2 East Park street, will pay his license tomorrow.

UNCLE SAM ROUSED

VENDORS OF SCURRILOUS CIRCULARS USE THE MAILS.

HEAVY PENALTIES FOR GUILTY

Vicious Thrusts at City Officials and Citizens Bring Down Wrath of Law—License Cases in the City Court.

The practical joker who spread broadcast a scurrilous circular concerning Butte poolrooms may land behind prison bars. It is believed he used the United States mails and Chief of Police Reynolds has taken steps to direct the postal authorities in the search for the guilty. The event and probable sequel makes an interesting story.

The man with the loud voice and the nasal impediment, who has been disturbing the peace and quiet in the alley near the police station by his yells of "They're off at Aqueduct," has been suppressed. The poolroom under the Red Boot shoe store, conducted by Bogan & Grady, is closed pending a settlement of the city license question. The poolroom at 3 1/2 Park street, of which Louis Andraux is proprietor, closed for the same reason.

The proprietors of these places were arrested late yesterday afternoon by order of Mayor Davey. They were taken to police headquarters where the proprietors gave bonds in the sum of $75 each.

Plea Not Guilty.
A representative of the law firm of Kirk & Clinton appeared this morning in behalf of Grady & Bogan and entered a plea of not guilty. Andraux appeared in person and also entered a plea of not guilty. Their cases were set for trial at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

City Attorney Lamb figures strongly in the prosecution, but he says that he received his orders to make the places pay a city license from the mayor, William Winn, as clerk of the police court, swore to the complaint.

The license for conducting a poolroom under the city ordinance is $150 a month. Four of the houses have paid the licenses promptly. The places closed have been operating for several weeks without the city license, but the proprietors say that they were under the impression that so long as they did not have telegraphic connection with the race tracks, they were not amenable to the city ordinance requiring the payment of a license.

Merely a Side Issue.
Grady & Bogan's place is uniquely situated in the basement under the Red Boot shoe store with an entrance through the alley opposite the police station. Runners employed for the purpose of taking the reports of the betting and the results of the races have been scurrying from the big rooms.

The man with the loud voice and nasal obstruction as soon as a report came over the wire from the big poolrooms across the alley, would run to the hallway leading to Grady & Bogan's place and cry out: "They're off at Memphis," or "they're off at Lakeside, Aqueduct or Oakland," as the case may be.

Despite the fact that the proprietors of the places have entered a plea of not guilty, it is believed that they will pay their license tomorrow, and the charge against them dismissed, when they will reopen.

Scurrilous Circular.

The two houses might not have been interfered with but for the issuance of a circular purporting to be an advertisement of the poolroom at 3 1/2 Park street, which was obnoxious to the city officials. The circular is as follows:

"Ladies who gamble are welcome, 3 1/2 East Park street.
"Society ladies, white ladies, colored ladies, ladies of ease, working women. All play the ponies with us, nobody barred.
"Gentlemanly attendants.
"You are sure to be entertained. Come and you will come again.
"All ladies like to make easy money, and our customers think us a good thing.
"First class drinks served from Driscoll's bar down stairs.
"We have assisted many a poor woman on the road to prosperity. Special attention given to widows.
"Snap at Officials.
"We are indorsed by the mayor, chief of police, city council, county attorney, sheriff, Butte Business Men's association, ministerial association and all good citizens.
"Married ladies will be protected.
"Come while your husband is asleep or at work, and should he object, we will furnish legal advice and money to procure a divorce.
"We furnish dream books and good dope. You can drop into our place without being seen.
"The M. & M. do not give the odds that we do. Keep away from the cellar under the Red Boot. They will skin you. Remember the place, 3 1/2 East Park street."
Mr. Andraux disclaims any knowledge of the circular, and says that it was issued by some enemy who was disposed to give him trouble.

EVAN EVANS BEHAVES BADLY

Evans Evans last night not only threatened to burn down his house on the flat below South Butte, but also offered to kill his wife and family. Terrified at the threats, and fearful that he would execute them, his wife summoned Constable Chapman and her husband was arrested.

Evans was placed in the county jail, and today before Justice Taylor he was placed under bonds of $500 to keep the peace. Until he can secure this bond he will remain in the jail.

Evans is a teamster. It is said that frequently he has threatened to burn the house and massacre his family and, it is alleged, these threats becoming more and more frequent, his wife was fearful of her life.
