

THE PIANOLA

Does it bring enough pleasure in return to warrant the investment? The pianola will enable every owner of a piano to play upon his piano whenever he desires. Not only this, but every member of the family can also play upon it, not one or two pieces, but practically every composition ever written for the piano. Did you ever stop to consider how much pleasure there is stored up in your piano, then count the number of times in a month it is used? It is worth thinking about. The pianola supplies the deficiency. It makes no difference if you do not know one note from another.

against him by Mrs. Celia Davidson. Mrs. Davidson sued Firschoff for $900, alleging that she gave him $1,500 to pay debts, and that he paid out $900 and owed her the balance. ### JUDGE ARNOLD FACES WRIT

Judge Harney today issued a writ of certiorari in the suit of R. Morrison against T. F. Hopkins, against Justice of the Peace Arnold. The writ commands Judge Arnold to certify all the papers in the case up to the district court for a hearing on the actions of the justice in the case.

Morrison sued Hopkins in Judge Arnold's court for $150, alleging that he had loaned that sum to Hopkins and the latter had attempted to jump the country and defraud him as a creditor. Arnold ordered Hopkins' arrest.

The order was indorsed on the summons, and it was made returnable a week after the arrest instead of forthwith. On account of this defect, Hopkins' lawyer moved the justice to quash the order of arrest and the summons, and dismiss the proceeding.

Arnold overruled the motion and refused to quash, and the defendant, Hopkins, petitioned the district court for the writ of certiorari, which Harney signed. A copy of a contract attached to the petition for the writ shows that Morrison paid Hopkins $150 on a contract for an eighth interest in the latter's equitable title to the Mountain Meadow claim in Madison county, upon which Hopkins had an option to buy.

PROF. M'DONALD SUCCEEDED

Prof. E. H. MacDonald, city engineer of Butte, will succeed Professor Knight of the State School of Mines in the summer work. He will also be a candidate to succeed Professor Knight at the school.

This summer work consists in taking the class out for a six-weeks' surveying trip. Professor MacDonald was decided upon for this week, and he accepted the offer to take complete charge of the work usually assigned to Professor Knight for the summer.

Professor Knight resigned because of ill health, and his work now is being taken care of at the school, Professor MacDonald having no connection with that branch of the work.

ROBS HIS MOTHER.

John Molloy is arrested on a charge of Stealing Deeds. Margaret Molloy, an old lady, had a bitter task before her when she visited the county attorney's office this morning to make a complaint against her son, John Molloy, arrested on a charge of grand larceny.

Mrs. Molloy told a sad story of brutality and violence about her son, and wound up with charging him with stealing $1,000 worth of deeds. Molloy, according to his mother's story, took from her house a box containing three deeds to property in Nebraska, also other papers. Before he took the instruments Molloy threatened his mother violence, and therefore, she told the deputy county attorney, he had treated her brutally.

It is understood that the land and the deeds are the property of Mrs. Molloy, and that she is entitled to the custody of the papers.

She told Mr. Lynch that she had demanded the deeds from her son since he took them, but that he refused to return them to her. Molloy lives on North Main street, near the Gagnon mine, and his mother lives on East Broadway. He is charged in the complaint with taking, stealing and carrying away the instruments April 13. The value of the property is $1,000, and the law of Montana gives the same value to the deeds, hence the grand larceny charge.

The complaint was filed in the court of Justice of the Peace Taylor.

JUDGE DE WITT'S NATIVITY

It now transpires that the late Judge William H. DeWitt, who died in this city a few months ago, was born in Jersey City, N. J., instead of New York.

At the time of the Judge's death the impression prevailed that he was a native of New York, and all of the newspapers gave that state as his place of birth. Even the resolutions adopted by the bar of Silver Bow county stated that the judge had been born in New York. As there existed a doubt about the accuracy of that portion of the resolutions, Judge Henry M. Blake wrote a letter to Charles E. DeWitt, a brother of the deceased, and today received the following reply:

"Hon. Henry M. Blake, Butte, Mont.: Dear Sir—Replying to your inquiry of the 11th instant, I beg to inform you that my brother, William H. DeWitt, was born in Jersey City, N. J., March 16, 1853."

JERRY CAPTURES A HOLD-UP

Albert Stack is in the county jail, charged with holding up the Pine Tree saloon Tuesday night. He was arrested yesterday by Detective Murphy and Policeman Barney McGillie.

Stack was arrested at a rooming house on East Park street. He was locked in this room when the officers came. Detective Murphy secured a pass-key from the landlady, and Stack was found under the bed.

Stack disclaimed any knowledge of the hold-up. While at the city jail last night Stack was identified by John Archambault, bartender at the Pine Tree saloon, as one of the men who entered the place and forced him to give up $5.

The police are looking for Joseph Precise, who is supposed to be connected with the affair. Before being taught how to shoot it might be well for the young idea to learn to know when it is loaded.

TWO THOMPSONS DO BATTLE

Charles Thompson and Chris Thompson are not related. The former is a barber and the latter a deaf and dumb hod carrier.

The two Thompsons met on East Park street about noon today and the barber began joking with the mute. The latter did not take the joking kindly and struck the barber in the stomach. The barber pulled a knife and slashed the hod carrier in the thigh.

A complaint charging Charles Thompson with assault in the third degree was sworn out, and he was arrested by Policeman McMillan. Later he gave bonds for his appearance in court tomorrow morning and was released.

(From the New York Times.) When Marshal P. Wilder, the American humorist, was on his last visit to London, he stood in one of the lobbies of the parliament buildings talking to an English earl. While so engaged an Irish member rushed out in a great rage about something going on at the time. Wilder turned to the earl and asked: "What is the difference between that member of parliament and me?" "I give it up," said the earl. "Isn't it because he is a wild M. P. and I am an M. P. Wilder?"
