What the Inter Mountain Sporting Writer Says of His Trip With Butte's Ball Team.

Need of Clothespins. En Route, Sunday, April 27.—With the exception of "Homerun" McIntyre and myself McCloskey's able-bodied ball players retired early. A good ball player always snores a bit, and the curtains in the Pullman fairly vibrated with the solos of olfactory organs. It would not have been disagreeable had McCloskey's men all snored in unison, but it was discordant. "Homerun" McIntyre and myself played ping-pong until an early hour Monday morning.

They Know Now. Spokane, Monday, April 28.—You may think that is McCloskey's diary, but it is not; it's on the square. We arrived in the town of bunch grass and possibilities early this morning, and the Buttes are the cynosure of all eyes. Everybody knows McCloskey here, and they have considerable respect for his baseball judgment and the personnel of the team which represents Butte. Speculation is rampant as to what will be the result of the opening game.

Absence Makes, Etc. Spokane, Tuesday, April 29.—The coveted opening game was landed high and dry by the stalwart young men of the cream-colored uniforms and green trimmings, across whose breasts is inscribed the word "Butte." They played baseball from start to finish. There are a number of Butte people in Spokane who have lost none of the loyalty which belongs to every one who ever lived in the best town on earth.

One Presentation Day. Spokane, Wednesday, April 30.—Smarting under the defeat of yesterday the Spokanes girted up the loins and temporarily intercepted the onward pennant march of the Buttes today. Aside from McIntyre's home run, there was little in the playing of "our boys" to relieve the ennui inspired by defeat. There was some joy about town tonight, and there are many people ready to shake hands and say "I told you so."

Among the Marks. Spokane, Thursday, May 1.—It was like holding four aces in a poker game against a blind man for the Buttes to win today's game. What a wallowing McCloskey's men did give the ball! There was no time in the game that Spokane had a look-in. Zearfoss is a contender for homerun honors against McIntyre. The Buttes have Spokane going, and after a rest Friday there is little doubt but what Saturday's game is almost as good as won.

Not Here, Mary! Spokane, Friday, May 2.—McCloskey's men worked five days and rested on the sixth, and what they did to the bunch grass individuals who are pleased to call Spokane their home was good and plenty. Wreathed with the laurels of victory and comfortably seated in the easy rockers of the Grand hotel, the Buttes relaxed Friday and talked over the eventual four days since leaving the metropolis of Montana. McCloskey has an aggregation of modest young men. None of them drink anything more devilish than a cherry phosphate.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

SEVEN SESSIONS OF THE CONVENTION AT LOS ANGELES HELD IN ONE DAY.

IT IS A RECORD BREAKER

Many Speeches Made and Papers Read—Chief Speaker Miss Jane Adams of Hull House, Chicago.

(By Associated Press.)

Los Angeles, Cal., May 2.—Today is a record-breaker at the Woman's convention as to sessions, there being seven at Simpson Auditorium. Mrs. Margaret Evans presided over the education section, the speakers being Benjamin A. Wheeler, Mrs. Lina Larned of Syracuse N. Y., president of the National Household Economics association, and Miss Mabel Crawford, Sunday editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, who spoke on "Advantages of Co-Education."

TEAMSTERS' WANTS

PRESIDENT MAC HENDRICKS EXPLAINS DEMANDS OF MEN.

AN UNEXPECTED SITUATION

Owners of Teams Visit Dealers and Volunteer to Haul Coal—Trades Assembly Will Probably Tomorrow Take Up Subject.

"There is a misunderstanding among the people of the city with regard to our demands," said President Mac Hendricks of the Teamsters' union this afternoon. "We do not ask that we shall have only eight hours' work in all. We ask for eight hours' work actual driving, but we are willing to take care of our stock after the eight hours have expired. That sometimes takes a couple of hours to do."

IS PECULIAR AND MYSTERIOUS

NEW DISEASE UNKNOWN TO MEDICAL SCIENCE DISCOVERED IN BITTER ROOT.

NO IMMEDIATE DANGER HERE

First Symptoms Much as in Other Fevers But Later Patient Covered With Remarkable Discolorations.

(By Associated Press.)

Look out for spotted fever, one of the most terrible and fatal maladies known to modern science. It has been discovered that there are several cases of it in the Bitter Root valley and it is not improbable that it may spread in Butte.

MISS MACLAURE'S LITERARY PROFITS.

Mary MacLure will receive 15 cents on every volume of her book that is sold. Stone, the publisher, gives as a conservative estimate that 75,000 copies will be sold.

METROPOLITAN HANDICAP WON BY ARSENAL, A RANK OUTSIDER

NOT ONE OF THE PROMINENT CANDIDATES SECURED A PLACE IN THE GREAT RACE.

TWENTY-FIVE HORSES START

The Winner Carried the Lowest Weight, Ninety Pounds—Field One of the Highest Class and Horsemen Unable to Select the Winner—Weather Cloudy and Threatening.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, May 3.—The weather was cloudy and threatened rain for the opening of the racing season at Morris park. The first great stake of the East is to be run this afternoon—the Metropolitan handicap, for 3-year-olds and upwards—over the Wither's mile. The juvenile stake for 2-year-olds also is to be run. Twenty-five horses were named to start in the Metropolitan, but it was regarded as unlikely that more than 15 would start.

GENERAL SMITH'S TRIAL.

(By Associated Press.) Manila, May 3.—The trial by court-martial of General Jacob H. Smith ended today. The findings of the court will be forwarded to Washington. The general impression here is that he will be acquitted.

The closing address of Colonel Charles A. Woodruff, for the defense, was a remarkable oratorical effort that drew tears from his hearers.

He carefully sketched General Smith's career and declared that he had conducted a remarkable and successful campaign, in a manner which reflected honor and glory on him.

WAR IN MINDANAO ISLAND

(By Associated Press.) Manila, May 3.—General Davis, in command of the American forces in the island of Mindanao, cables that his ultimatum has not been answered, that his messenger has not returned and that the American outpost was fired upon this morning.

The troops advanced and shelled Morrofort, but did not capture it until the infantry reached the ditch. This fort was strong and well defended by 300 men. Fort Panda Padto was then surrounded and heavily shelled.

YERKES HAS THE BEST OF IT

CHICAGO FINANCIER CREATES AMUSEMENT ON AN ENGLISH WITNESS STAND. NOT TEACHING KINDERGARTEN

British Lawyers Beaten at Their Own Game by the Representative of the Americans Who Seek to Control London Railways.

(By Associated Press.) London, May 3.—There have been some interesting developments in the battle between the American millionaires for the control of London's rapid transit system.

One feature that stands out more than any other is Charles T. Yerkes' ability to beat English lawyers at their own game. Counsel for the Morgan's projected "tube" line had Mr. Yerkes on the stand before the house of lords committee for an hour or so one day this week.

Mr. Yerkes sat passive, ingeniously answering or dodging questions relating to the financial plans of his own syndicate. Finally he calmly remarked to counsel: "I have been listening to your explanations of this matter," at which counsel hurried to correct the witness by declaring he had only been asking questions.

But, Mr. Yerkes imperturbable and hugely amusing, continued: "Admits His Interest. "And it seems to me that you have certain information which I myself do not at this moment possess."

With a smile Mr. Yerkes admitted that he was largely interested in the financial and operating department of the new road, and without a trace of apparent malice, he added: "I do not care to teach kindergarten schools here."

The Morgans had questioned the correctness of the figures upon which Mr. Yerkes based the returns of his system, but Mr. Yerkes blandly waved aside such details, saying that he had not his notes. He would, however, be delighted to solve the sums in arithmetic submitted to him by opposing counsel if they would allow him to bring notes referring to such abstruse matters from his office.

Finally, the Chicagoan was dismissed somewhat disgustedly with the remark: "As you don't want to be sent back to school, we won't ask you any more questions," and Mr. Yerkes went out smiling grimly.

HUGH McQUAID DEAD. (Special to Inter Mountain.) Helena, May 3.—Hugh McQuaid, pioneer of Montana, one of the founders of the Helena Independent, an old-time newspaper man and one of the best known mining promoters of the Northwest, died suddenly here today of apoplexy.

His biggest deal was the sale of the Drum Lummon mine to an English syndicate, in which he was associated with Henry Bartrober. Six years ago Mr. McQuaid removed to Spokane, but returned here a year ago.

He was 60 years of age and was born in Wisconsin.

Abstain From Meat. (By Associated Press.) Amsterdam, N. Y., May 3.—The Amsterdam Central Labor union, composed of 25 subordinate unions with a total membership of 5,000, has adopted a resolution to abstain from meat handled by the so-called beef trust for the next 30 days.

LOS ANGELES YET HOPEFUL

WOULD LIKE TO SECURE THE INTERNATIONAL MINING CONGRESS MEETING.

IT IS NOW FULLY SETTLED

Reports Spread Broadcast That Butte Had Not Contributed Sufficient Money—Matter Is Now All Arranged.

(By Associated Press.)

Los Angeles continues to nurse the forlorn hope of securing the miners' congress. Prayers and supplications of its citizens availing nothing it has appealed to former Governor L. B. Prince of New Mexico.

In a letter received by Secretary Mahon of the congress from Governor Prince this morning, the latter says, in part: "I hope that Butte has contributed sufficient money for the congress. If not, Los Angeles wants the meeting and guarantees in advance all necessary money."

Mr. Mahon at once indicated a letter to the former governor, stating that the congress would be held in Butte and that all necessary funds had been secured.

"Cheerful knockers have spread the report that Butte had fallen down on the proposition of the congress, and I'm now busily engaged in counteracting that impression," said Mr. Mahon. "I wrote to Governor Prince, who is an ex-president of the congress, that Butte had subscribed all of the money necessary; that the Business Men's association was active in the movement, and that the congress would surely be held in Butte in September."

NO DOUBTS NOW.

"President Shaffner is aiding me in the work, and I don't believe there are any who now have any doubts as to where and when the congress will be held."

In Mr. Mahon's mail this morning was a letter from President Shaffner. The president says that there is a movement in Illinois, Michigan and Ohio for special trains to convey the delegates from those states to Butte for the congress. Detroit will be the rallying point for Michigan, Cleveland for Ohio and Chicago for Illinois.

In Chicago the three delegations will meet and start in their special trains for Butte from that city.

It is also believed that Denver will be the rallying point for Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona, and it is possible that the delegations from this state and these territories will come by special train; in fact, indications point to many special trains conveying the delegates to the convention.

One of the interesting letters was from J. H. Richards of Boise. Mr. Richards is a former judge of the district court of Boise and former mayor of the town. He speaks of the boom in his town, and says that "the miners' congress gave us the impetus."

"What the congress did for Boise it will do for Butte," was the remark of Secretary Mahon.

CUTS HIS JUGULAR AFTER FAILING TO DIE ON THE TRACK

(By Associated Press.) Chicago, May 3.—Thomas Gregor, a real estate dealer, committed suicide today in a sensational manner.

He was one of a crowd at the Wrightwood avenue station of the Northwest-ern elevated road. When the train approached, he jumped from the platform and fell across the rails. By a desperate effort, the motorman succeeded in stopping the train.

Gregor was hoisted back to the platform, but no sooner were his arms released than he stabbed himself several times in the neck.
