

IN THE FAMILY CIRCLE

There's nothing so conducive to real enjoyment as good music. Certainly no well-regulated home should be without a piano. That is to say, a high-grade instrument—a Vose for instance. None better made. The Vose piano is not only perfection of construction, tone and action, but also of handsome design and beautiful finish. Not so expensive, either. Cash or installments.

Mrs. Thomas Carmin and Mrs. E. M. Reese of Pony are spending the day in the city.

Rev. Charles F. Richardson of Great Falls arrived in Butte last evening from the north.

Mrs. A. G. Siebenaler went to Anaconda yesterday for a few days' visit with friends.

Pat Dalton, one of the foremen at the Anaconda smelters, was over yesterday for a few hours.

Peter Valiton, one of the old-timers of Deer Lodge, was among the visitors in Butte yesterday.

Charles Williams and wife of Warm Springs are spending a few days with friends in the city.

W. H. Trippett, one of the leading attorneys of Anaconda, was in the city yesterday between trains.

Miss Margaret McHenry left for Dillon yesterday, to be the guest of T. H. Poindexter for a week.

Mrs. Robert Haydn and daughter left yesterday for a visit of several months with friends in Chicago.

David G. Browne, for many years collector of customs for the port of Benton, is staying at the Thornton.

Dr. Hammond has moved his offices from the Beaver block to the Clark building, corner Park and Academy.

Albert Hawkins, city editor of the Helena Record, was making the round of the Butte newspaper offices last evening.

Dr. Peter Mussigbrood, who has a number of valuable mining properties at Garnet, arrived in Butte today from the West.

Miss Agnes Bernier, who has been teaching school at Chester, returned to Butte yesterday at the conclusion of her term.

A. J. Shoemaker, who has been spending a few days as the guest of Mrs. George W. French at Dillon, returned last night.

A daughter arrived at the home of Deputy Clerk and Recorder Jessup yesterday and there are fire cigars at the court house.

T. R. Carson of Great Falls, known to the racing fraternity as "Kit" Carson, is in the city making arrangements for the coming meeting.

Samuel M. Roberts, clerk of the district court, left yesterday for Helena where he was called to appear as a witness in a criminal case.

Duncan MacDonald, proprietor of the Alhambra Hot Springs, accompanied by Mrs. MacDonald, are in the city and are staying at the Thornton.

The mines on the hill which were closed for a day to give the Anaconda smelters an opportunity to catch up, have resumed hoisting ore.

Berry Hickman, who has been negotiating for mining property in and around Butte for several months, left yesterday for a business trip to Salt Lake.

Mrs. Dave Owen left yesterday for a visit with old friends in Wisconsin. She will stop off at Livingston for a few days' stay with Mrs. S. C. Pierce.

James Canney was yesterday employed by the county commissioners at a salary of $100 a month to make up a delinquent tax roll for the years 1899 to 1901 inclusive.

W. J. Ennis, the prominent merchant of the town which bears his name and who is famous throughout the state for his team of domestic elks, is a visitor in the city today.

Englewood Lots.—Perfect title, electric line already graded, fine soil, soft water, new school house one block away. Lots sold on $10 monthly payments. Mrs. Jessie C. Knox, Box 1034.

David Berlin was insane when he committed suicide in the Paumie block two days ago, was the verdict of the coroner's jury. The body is at Duggan's awaiting the wishes of relatives in other states.

An itinerant organization known as Cosgrove's orchestra gave a concert at the Auditorium last night under the auspices of the Modern Woodmen of America, Camp 5505 and Royal Neighbors of America, Camp 1462. The orchestra is superior to the usual band of traveling musicians and includes in its repertoire many specialties with Swiss chimes and strange and novel instruments.

George S. Miller, who has been county assessor of Deer Lodge county since before the memory of man, was in the city a few hours yesterday. Mr. Miller was in Butte many years ago, long before he was old enough to know where he was.

John McQueeney has resigned as a policeman and will probably go into business for himself in some other town in the state. He turned his star, club and other paraphernalia over to the chief last night. He had been on the force three years.

City Treasurer Calkins has filed his report of the financial condition of the city at the end of April. It shows a balance of $53,238.80 on hand. At the end of March there was $91,794.07 on hand. During April the collections amounted to $18,622.49, but $61,946.69 was paid out.

There was something doing at the crematory west of the city last month. The report of the custodian of the works shows that 1,626 loads of garbage were burned, and the carcasses of 26 horses, 4 cows, 9 hogs and 18 dogs were reduced to ashes. The expense of maintaining the works was $238.65.

James Gerologos, a native of Greece, was given a preliminary hearing in the police court yesterday on a charge of grand larceny, the theft of $101 from John Theophane, another Greek, but the testimony was not considered strong enough to warrant the court in holding the defendant and he was discharged.

Theophane owns a lunch stand at Park and Wyoming streets and Gerologos was in his employ. So says Theophane; but the other fellow says he was a partner in the business and the money he took belonged to him.

Deputy Clerk Jessup, the manipulator of the book typewriter in County Clerk Weston's office, is the happy father of a baby daughter. He was engaged today in receiving the congratulations of the officials and deputies in the court house and explaining with the broadest kind of a smile what a fine baby she was.

In accordance with the action of the board of health taken at its meeting yesterday, the streets and alleys of Centerville, Meaderville and other suburban points will be subjected to a thorough cleaning. Dr. Donnelly and Sanitary Officer Kelly were authorized to take up the matter and to expend not to exceed $1,000 on the work.

James Hoban of this city is wanted by his daughter, Sadie, who lives in Tacoma. Last night the chief of police received a telegram from Miss Hoban asking him to locate her father and give her his address as soon as possible. The directory says Hoban is a miner and boards at Pat Reilly's house back of the Mountain Consolidated mine.

Ten delegates have been named from the Butte Miners' union to attend the meeting of the Western Federation of Miners which will be held in Denver, May 26. They are: James Gleason, W. Haggerty, Joseph Shannon, Ed. Hughes, Thomas Brennan, T. J. Gilmore, Michael Mooney, F. L. Reber, Joseph Calloway and James J. Murphy.

Gustave Nissen, secretary of the Montana Liquor Dealers' association, yesterday issued a call for the second annual meeting of the association to be held in Helena, May 27. An amendment to the constitution and the election of officers, beside the regular business to come up before the organization, will occupy the attention of the association.

Complaints charging Michael Gordon and Morris Perelson with receiving stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen, were issued by the county attorney last night and filed in Justice Shepherd's court in Meaderville. The defendants are dealers in junk. On Thursday some person stole a wagon load of old iron and castings from the Nipper mine and sold it to the junk dealers.
