BUTTE'S BASEBALL CHANGES ARE UNDOUBTEDLY THE BEST

Pacific Northwest League Situation Summarized for the Inter Mountain Readers.

BY BILLY GUION.

Spokane, May 3.—With the work of three days to judge from there isn't any question of Butte leading the league in batting.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT APPROVES INTERNATIONAL OLYMPIAN GAMES

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, May 3.—Mr. Henry J. Furber and Benjamin J. Rosenthal of the Olympian games commission have returned to Chicago, after a visit to Washington, made for the purpose of discussing the games with President Roosevelt.

and naval features of our program may be rendered most important. It is hoped that we may secure the attendance of contingents of national guards from different states and from the regular army.

Plans for Pageant. To Congressman Foss, chairman of the house committee on naval affairs, we are indebted for an important suggestion.

Will Command Recognition.

"We are advised by certain members that the Olympian games may readily be rendered so important as to make it incumbent upon congress to make a liberal appropriation. It is, however, the opinion that it is too late to accomplish anything this session, but if the merits of the general enterprise are properly brought to the attention of the public within the next few months, congress, supported by the popular interest which the games should arouse may at its next meeting be readily induced to make the necessary appropriation."

Navy and Military to Participate.

Continuing, Mr. Furber said: "We return with the feeling that the military exit in a manner more befitting. Better for him to have dodged the issue when the proposition was made to him to fight Jeffries again.

Treaty May Be Waived.

"The presence of warships on the lakes is of course, governed by treaties with Great Britain and Canada, but for a purpose such as this, especially, it may not be impossible to secure the presence of ships of foreign countries. It is thought that England and Canada would be glad to lend their approval to the plan."

pitcher; Corey, first base; Rickards, second base; Hume, shortstop; Duthie, third base; Farham, left field; Archibald, center field; Brinton, right field; Mackel, Tallent, substitutes. Skelly, umpire.

Fight a Draw.

Bakersfield, Cal., May 2.—Charles Thurston of San Francisco and Mike Donovan of New York fought 15 rounds to a draw here tonight before the National Athletic club.

Young Corbett Training.

Denver, May 3.—The new seats that "Reddy" Gallagher is saving built for the accommodation of the crowd he expects at the Young Corbett-Dave Sullivan fight, are now well under way and will be finished long before the fight takes place.

Fitz Relegated to Oblivion.

We have seen the last of Bob Fitzsimmons as a fighter. The manner in which he has flunked out of the match with Jeffries urges the belief that his pugilistic powers have waned and that he is justified no longer in occupying a place in the fighting ranks.

assembled the team for the daily signal practice, when Billy Guion, sporting editor of the Butte Inter Mountain, presented him with a package given by the Butte newspaper men, to drive away the hoodoo of the first game.

Decisive Baseball Battle.

There is a decisive baseball battle on at Athletic park this afternoon between teams representing the State School of Mines of Butte and the State Agricultural college of Bozeman.

It is the opening of the state amateur baseball season, and a large crowd is out witnessing the game.

The former boys from Bozeman arrived in Butte last night with a following. They were received at the depot by a delegation of young men from the School of Mines.

The game was not called until 3 o'clock this afternoon. Both teams warmed up in good shape and the contest promises to be a spirited one.

Spokane, May 3.—It was a great difference Thursday. So great that the Spokane fans are really heart-broken over the unexpected—to them.

The fluke in the game Wednesday, due to bad fielding and poor support to Burns, was made up for Thursday, as the score shows.

It was a great game, and the errors were few on either side. It simply demonstrated that the Spokane team is not in it with the hard hitters from Butte.

McCluskey had his men in for another curtain lecture just before the game, and the talk rested chiefly on the fact that team work had to come, and new signals were made up for that purpose.

Butte justified the claim that McCluskey has a great aggregation of players. Although Stelz for the Spokane's pitched a good game, there could be no winning against the hard hitting which sent the ball into the river and then time and again against the fences.

Little Gay, who has been counted as useless on account of his "bum whip," rose to the occasion and pitched the best game yet seen.

The little curly head was all over the infield, and his balls whirled over the home plate with a swish that fooled even the few good batters of the Sparrows.

But for his first bit of work in the opening inning it would have been a shut-out for the Sparrows. Gay was a trifle unsteady at the beginning and let the first man to the bat, McLaughlin, to first on balls. He made good for it by striking out Kelly, but Reltz lined one to right which Treadway couldn't handle quickly and McLaughlin scored. It was the only run, and from that time on Gay held them down to a few hits which were gobbed easily by the splendid fielders of the Buttes.

Butte Has the Hitters. The heavy hitting of the sluggers told, and the Sparrows were dazed by the speed with which some of the liners came across the diamond. Several times Kelly and Reltz of the hoisted Spokane infield, side-stepped the hot ones and let in more runs.

Zearfoss put one clear over the center-field fence and into the river, and from that time on it was just a question of batting. Jimmy McElate, the crack centerfielder of the Butte team, surprised the fans with his speed in base running, and twice actually beat a well-handled ball to first.

Hero of Dublin Gulch. Kane was taken off first Thursday and given a rest, and Miley McDonough played the first bag in a style which would have sent his Dublin gulch constituents off the bleachers and down over the policemen in the diamond to hug him. Miley showed up too as a heavy hitter and kept his hits strung out in the center garden where they couldn't be handled.

The batting list was changed by McCluskey Thursday, and it made a great difference. Both Marshall and Zearfoss were moved up, and it kept the hits bunched at a time when bunches were needed. Marshall did better and held down the third bag in his best form, at the same time hitting as hard as ever.

"Lefty" Houtz Is Foxy. "Lefty" Houtz covered himself with glory at the plate, and again demonstrated that he was entitled to the reputation of being a heady, foxy batter and base runner.

There's another new pitcher up for a try-out. His name is Roberts, and he comes from Burlington, N. J. He asked McCluskey today to give him a trial, and his talk impressed the manager so that he is going to give him a chance.

There hasn't been a chance given yet to work out young Clark, who came up to the other day, but there are hopes of his proving as game as Gay, who now holds the record among the Butte pitchers.

(Special to Inter Mountain.) Spokane, May 3.—Wall, the box-car club artist, who came here with the team, has been released by McCluskey without a trial and will be sent to Le Grand, Wash.

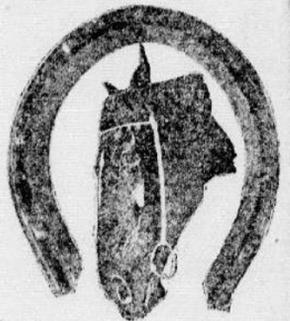

Manager McCluskey of the Butte team was given a surprise Thursday morning, says the Spokesman-Review. He had

THREE BIG RACING EVENTS TODAY

Butte Lovers of Thoroughbred Horse Flesh Are Thrilled By Wire Descriptions.

EASTERN RACES OPEN

ABE FRANK IS THE FAVORITE IN KENTUCKY DERBY.

Fictitious as it is, the lovers of horse racing in Butte flocked into the pool-rooms this afternoon until the standing ways were choked.

Whether or not the patrons of the houses had a cent in their pocket, they had a longing desire to see the board and betting on the entries in the Metropolitan handicap at Morris Park, the Kentucky derby at Churchill Downs and the inaugural at St. Louis.

It was hard for one inclined toward the "ponies" to keep out of the pool-rooms in Butte today. Even though they kept their money in their pockets, they could not resist the temptation of taking a casual glance at the board.

In addition to the three great stake races the Eastern tracks all opened today and good races were presented.

The greatest local interest centered in the Kentucky derby. Abe Frank is a favorite, although up to 2 o'clock this afternoon the "bookies" had refrained from posting prices until definite reports from the track could be obtained.

Alana-Dale will doubtless be played strong. His Eminence will likely be the local favorite in the betting in the Metropolitan handicap. He will be ridden by Bullman, the Montana boy, who has won fame and fortune on the track.

South Breeze is quoted at 3 to 1 in the inaugural at St. Louis. Maximum is also the same price. Schwable is third choice at 6 to 1.

Entries for Kentucky Derby. Four, and possibly five colts, among the best 3-year-olds of the Western turf, will battle for supremacy at Churchill Downs this afternoon, when the Kentucky derby will be decided for the twenty-eighth time over the historic old course.

Following are the starters announced for the derby, although there are to be an addition or two before post time today:

Thomas C. McDowell's ch. c., Alana-Dale (Turner), 117; Halma-Sussie McNairy.

Thomas C. McDowell's b. c., The Rival (J. Ramsch), 115; Halma-Bruce Gridle.

G. C. Bennett's ch. c., Abe Frank (Coburn), 122; Hanover Imp, Cheesestraw.

Thomas W. W. Moore's ch. c., Inventor (T. Williams), 117; Imp Goldsby Imp Duchess Caroline.

Abe Frank was made a prime favorite in the books by virtue of his superior 2-year-old form, but the figures have been changed by virtue of his recent performances. He will be backed liberally, nevertheless, for many believe that his form is not generally known.

Inventor, while not figuring as a first choice, will not be without friends.

Metropolitan Handicap. The racing season at Morris Park will begin this afternoon and the Metropolitan handicap, one of the richest prizes of the turf year, gives distinction to the opening day. Of the 43 nominations made for the handicap, 12 will start in the race. They represent a field remarkable for its balance, and in the play that will precede the start a wide distribution of the money is looked for.

The entries are: Water Color, 125; Alcedo, 122; Bonnhert, 121; McMeekia, 120; Herbert, 117; Ten Candles 117; Roe Hampton, 116; His Eminence, 115; Heno, 107; Fay Rockaway, 107; Colonel Padden, 104; Kamara, 103; Carbuncle 103; Reina, 102; Whisky King, 101; Old England, 107; Smoke, 107; Sombro, 99; Pentecost, 98; Saturday, 97; Smart Set, 98; Chilton, 98; Dixie Line, 98; Lux Casta, 97; Arsenal, 96.

BILLY GUION, Representing the Inter Mountain With the Butte League Team.

The accompanying picture is one of Billy Guion, sporting editor of the Inter Mountain, who is with the Butte ball team at Spokane. The Inter Mountain is the only Butte paper to send a representative West with McCluskey's team. The Pacific Northwest league situation, up-to-date, is summarized by Mr. Guion for this paper.

Scepter Will Win.

(By Associated Press.) London, May 3.—W. K. Vanderbilt will, in all probability, win the coronation derby, if he secures R. S. Sevier's Sceptre, the winner of the 2,000 guineas stakes and of the 1,000 guineas stakes, for which he is reported to have offered Mr. Sevier 20,000 guineas, after the filly won the 1,000 guineas stakes yesterday.

Mr. Sevier refused to sell at that figure, but intimated that he might be tempted by a bid of 50,000 guineas.

After Sceptre's two sensational victories, in both of which she broke the time records, it appears that, having accidents, there is nothing to prevent her from winning the derby, for which event she is a warm favorite.

"Bob" Sevier, owner of Sceptre, has had a checkered career. Well born and well educated, he has in turn been a bookmaker, a clerk and manager of a betting agency. He has been stranded financially, but it now a wealthy land owner and possessor of the best horses on the turf, all acquired with the results of sensational plunging. He has traveled in most of the colonies and is well-known as a dead shot, both in elephant and in lion hunting. He married Mabel, sister of the fourth Marquis of Ailesbury.

Al Weing Knocked Out. (By Associated Press.) Louisville, Ky., May 3.—Al Weing of Buffalo was knocked out last night by Joe Choynski of Chicago before the Empire Athletic club in the sixth round of one of the fiercest bouts ever fought in this city.

Both men were forced to take a severe drubbing, and Weing's defeat came after a display of gameness rarely equaled in the prize ring. Twice in the sixth round he was knocked by the knees by Choynski's hard rights and left to the jaw, but each time he came up ready for more punishment. He was too dazed, however, to defend himself, and Choynski finally beat him down, landing him against the ropes unable to move.

It was several minutes before he was able to rise, and even then he was badly dazed, for when Choynski attempted to shake hands with him Weing squared off ready to continue fighting, unconscious that he had been counted out. Prior to the sixth round Weing seemed to have the better of the bout, and in the third round Weing landed again and again on Choynski's face and jaw, and just before the end of the round he sent Choynski to his knees with a hard right to the jaw. Choynski seemed unable to rise, but the gong sounded just in time to save him.
