

STOLE HIS BRIDE

CHINESE GIRL ABOUT TO BE WED IS SPIRITED AWAY.

WEALTHY NEW YORK CHINAMAN

Highbinders Do the Trick After Being Refused Some Money by the Prospective Bridegroom—To Run Down Kidnapers.

(By Associated Press.)
New York, May 5.—Woo Lung Fong, a beautiful Chinese girl who was brought to New York three weeks ago to become the wife of Ling Foy, a wealthy Ninth street tea merchant, has been kidnaped by highbinders and intense excitement prevails in Chinatown.

The ceremony was to have been performed at the Joss house in Mott street at midnight and extensive preparations had been made for the event.

Ling has not been told of the disappearance of his fiancée and will be kept in ignorance until the last moment in hopes that the girl may be found. Ling Foy is the wealthiest Chinaman in New York. Having made a fortune he has been living in luxury for years.

Near Hong Kong Ling Foy saw a beautiful girl whom he determined to purchase for his wife.

An agent was sent to China where the girl was purchased from her father for $500.

She reached New York three weeks ago in the care of an emissary. Shortly after the news of the approaching marriage was spread through Chinatown, Ling Foy was approached by a committee of highbinders and asked to contribute $1,000 for a general merrymaking among the Chinese.

The merchant flatly refused.

His prospective wife had already cost him about $2,000 and he did not see the necessity of paying anything to the highbinders. The next night the girl was carried away in a carriage and the woman in whose care she was also disappeared.

The leader of the highbinders' society is also said to be missing and Ling Foy's friends are exerting their utmost to endeavor to run down the kidnapers.

STOLE SOME STOCK

YOUNG MAN ARRESTED FOR THE ALLEGED CRIME.

GENERAL CARRIAGE SHARES

Detectives After Him For Several Days, and Finally Arrested at the Home of His Sweetheart.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, May 5.—Frederick White, a clerk for C. H. Dewitt & Co., brokers, of No. 80 Broadway, was arrested today as he left the home of his sweetheart.

He was locked up at police headquarters charged with stealing 300 shares of General Carriage stock.

White was employed in the branch office of the firm in the Hoffman house. Detectives have been looking for him for several days.

General Carriage stock recently suffered a sensational decline and closed on Saturday 3/4 bid and 4 asked.

At the price bid, the stock which White is charged with taking, would be worth $1,750.

SILVER SERVICES

METAL TAKEN FROM COINS SECURED FROM CRUISER.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY'S PRESENT

Cristobal Colon Plunder Goes Into a Tea Set For Him—Value Is About Six Hundred Dollars.

(By Associated Press.)

Baltimore, Md., May 3.—The magnificent silver service, made from silver coins taken from the Spanish cruiser Cristobal Colon, to be presented to Admiral Winfield Scott Schley by his friends in this state and in Washington, has been completed and is on exhibition in the show windows of the manufacturers in this city.

The service consists of one center piece, one soup tureen and ladle, four vegetable dishes, with covers, one gravy bowl and ladle, one roaster platter, one fish platter, 19 desert plates. Upon each piece is engraved Admiral Schley's initials in monogram and each bears this inscription:

"Made of silver taken from the Spanish cruiser Cristobal Colon, destroyed in the naval battle off Santiago de Cuba July 3, 1898."

The fitness of the silver used was not interfered with and the metal therefore has almost the hardness of steel. The weight of the coins used was about 3,500 ounces, and at the present price of silver, represents a value of $600, but nearly 2500 times that amount was required to purchase the coin from the government.

The presentation of the service will be made next Wednesday at the home of Theodore Marburg, in this city, who, with former Postmaster General James G. Gary and Ives Cobb of Washington, comprise the commission in charge of its manufacture.

Test Sunday Law.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, May 5.—For the purpose of being arrested and making a test of the Sunday law, the baseball team of the Catholic Protectors started a game on the grounds of the institution. Two of the players were locked up.

BOERS IN COMMAND

GARRISON OF BRITISH BESIEGED AT O'OKIEP.

WEST CORNER OF CAPE COLONY

Burned Sleepers, Dynamited Block-houses and Destroyed Mills of Railroad in That Section Without Opposition.

(By Associated Press.)

London, May 5.—Mall advices have been received here describing the besieging of the British garrison at O'Okiep, in Western Cape Colony. These advices show that early in April the Boers under Mutz had pretty nearly their own way in the northwest corner of Cape Colony.

They destroyed miles of railroad, burned the sleepers and dynamited the block houses in the district, compelling the evacuation of many small garrisons and block houses and the concentration camps at O'Okiep, while the small garrisons at Springbokfontein and Concordia surrendered.

The former garrison gave up after a stiff fight, in which the British had four men killed and six wounded.

The refugees from outlying places poured into Port Nolloth, to which point two British gunboats were sent to protect the place.

Mutz demanded the surrender of O'Okiep, April 4, but although he had 6,000 persons to feed and provisions for only three weeks, Colonel Shelton firmly declined to give up.

To Investigate the New Spotted Fever Epidemic

(By Associated Press.)

Helena, May 5.—Doctor A. F. Longway of Great Falls, secretary of the state board of health, and a party of scientists, composed of Dr. Frank W. Traubagen, chemist and professor of natural sciences at the agriculture college at Bozeman; Prof. Storz of Helena, an eminent bacteriologist, and Emil Strain of Great Falls have left here for the Bitter Root valley, to inquire into the causes of the mysterious malady known as spotted fever, which is causing a panic in that region.

Every case of the disease has been fatal, and up to the present time has baffled all the physicians who have tried to investigate it.

Several eminent New York scientists have been invited to assist in the investigation now commenced by the state.

UNDER NEW RULES

BRITISH PARLIAMENT MAKES SOME RADICAL CHANGES.

SOME DOUBT IS EXPRESSED

House Formerly Met at 4 O'clock, but Will Now Meet at 2—Procedure Changed Beyond Recognition.

(By Associated Press.)

London, May 5.—When the house of commons meets today, the sitting will be held for the first time under the new rules of procedure.

It is impossible to foresee how the arrangement will work, but some of the oldest parliamentary hands doubt whether the new order of things will come up to Mr. Balfour's expectations.

The government has been obliged to make considerable concessions in mitigation of the original scheme, notably in respect to questions which should occupy the first hour of each day, but for the rest the procedure of the house will be changed beyond recognition.

Less than 20 years ago, the house still met at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and sat as late as 11 o'clock. Since 1886, it has met at 3 and now it will meet at 2.

The first experiment under the new order of things will be made with the educational bill. This is admittedly the most important measure of the session and there is every prospect that the discussion on second reading will not be finished until Thursday night.

It is said, however, that the government in committee will have the chief difficulties to face, and some very large, perhaps extravagant, calculations are current as to the amount of time that that stage will occupy.

ORGANIZE AGAINST AMERICAN TOBACCO IN THIS COUNTRY

(By Associated Press.)

London, May 5.—The Cunard steamer Saxonia, which has left Queenstown for New York, has among her passengers three prominent members of the Imperial Tobacco company, W. R. Clark of Liverpool, J. D. Player of Nottingham, and E. H. M. Gunn of the firm of W. D. and H. O. Willis of Bristol.

It is said these gentlemen are going to the United States in connection with a plan to manufacture tobacco there and to fight J. B. Duke, president of the American Tobacco company, on his own ground, by taking advantage of the feeling against trade combinations and by endeavoring to organize the interests in the United States and Canada, which are opposed to the American Tobacco company.

What Would Happen if Work Stopped for One Day

Denver, May 5.—Commenting on the stand of the men who were shot down by deputies in the Lattimer district of the coal fields of Pennsylvania in 1895, and imbued with a desire to assert their strength to the whole country, nearly 200,000 coal miners in America will refuse to work for one day, May 17. The Colorado districts have received the order and on that day not a pick or a shovel will be turned in any of the mines.

"Mother" Jones, who is employed by the United Mine Workers of America, originated the idea and succeeded this year in getting the country to stop work.

The movement will be given an impetus by degrees during the ensuing year so that next May will find labor in solid phalanx, supporting the scheme to "stop everything" for one day.

The conjunctural results are so widespread that even the labor leaders fail to grasp them. The day proposed by "Mother" Jones falls on Saturday.

VETERAN OF C. VIL WAR PASSES AWAY

(By Associated Press.)

New York, May 5.—Major William Wagner is dead at his home at Short Hills, N. J. He was a member of the military order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, having served with a distinction, a major of cavalry in the civil war. Until four years, when failing health forced him to retire from business, Major Wagner was secretary of the Denver & Rio Grande Railway company.

Major Wagner was born in Philadelphia and in 1870 went to Colorado where he became interested in the pioneer railroads of that state. He was one of the founders of Colorado Springs, and remained for years one of its foremost citizens, being for years the mayor of the city and first president of the El Paso club.

LORD ROBERTS MAY RETIRE FROM ARMY

(By Associated Press.)

London, May 5.—In military circles the question of Earl Roberts' retirement from the post of commander-in-chief immediately after the coronation is freely discussed.

It is looked upon as a certainty that the duke of Connaught will succeed him and will not return to Ireland.

The fact that Earl Roberts has recently purchased a big estate in the country is considered proof of this statement.

First Time in Years.

(By Associated Press.)

El Paso, Texas, May 5.—For the first time in years public gambling has been entirely suspended in this city and the front doors of all saloons were closed all day Sunday. The mayor's proclamation, calling for gambling restrictions and Sunday closing of saloons has become effective, and it may be said that El Paso has observed the day probably for the first time in her history.

ONE TOWN REFUSES

DOMINICAN REVOLUTION PROVES SUCCESSFUL.

JIMINEZ IS NOW OVERTHROWN

Lasted But Two Weeks, and Only One Small Town Remains in the Hands of Government Partisans.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, May 5.—Insurgents have obtained possession of the entire republic, with the exception of this town, says a Puerto Plata Santo Domingo dispatch. Governor Deschamps declares that he will not surrender Puerto Plata without an official notice from the government.

Governor Deschamps is said to have been an aspirant for the presidency and has been bitterly opposed to the present revolution. He caused the arrest of Charles H. Lomez, the Norwegian consul in Puerto Plata, on the charge of having conspired to overthrow the Jimenez government. The consular corps has objected to the arrest of Mr. Lomez.

Vice President Horatio Vasquez has overthrown the government of President Juan I. Jimenez, after field operations of less than two weeks. There has been until recently no apparent rupture of friendly relations between the president and vice president of the Dominican government. Vasquez, according to his friends, endeavored to support Jimenez, but owing to contracts which the president is said to have made to the financial injury of the republic the vice president turned against him.

Puerto Plata's governor, Deschamps, has a small force of troops, and also a warship in port, and may offer to Vasquez the most determined resistance that the revolutionary leader has met, but it is believed that the town will soon be captured.

Vasquez is prepared to assume the reins of government at once. He is of Dominican birth, and has spent nearly all of the 40 years of his life in that country.

His friends represent him as progressive, intelligent and honorable.

AN ITALIAN LEADER

HE IS MYSTERIOUSLY SHOT IN BROOKLYN, N. Y.

PRESUMABLY BY THE MAFIA

Motive for the Murder as Unknown as the Identity of the Assassins—Had Much Political Influence.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, May 5.—Frank Diconza, a political leader among the naturalized citizens in the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn, has been shot and immediately killed by two unknown men.

The police believe he was a victim of the mafia. The shooting occurred in Driggs avenue.

Two shots were fired and two men were seen running from the body of the fallen Italian.

The motive for the murder is as mysterious as the identity of the assassins. Diconza, who was 40 years old and lived with his wife and three children at 549 Driggs avenue, was a power in a political way.

His aid was sought by different leaders on account of his influence with his fellow-countrymen, who had votes.

He generally was a democrat, and able to swing for his side a considerable following. Diconza was never known to work.

He lived comfortably and spent most of his time at a political club.

He had been at the club before the shooting and later was seen with several men near the club room, but when he was killed he was alone.
