LAWYERS TO HURRY

CLANCY PUTS DOWN HIS FOOT ON TARDY TACTICS.

M. W. McCONNELL IS WELCOME

"You Don't Often Fall in With Sociable People Like Us," Says Clancy—
Judge's Dictum Is That Judicial Mill Must Not Delay.

Judge Clancy delivered himself this morning of some extra judicial dicta concerning the rules under which his court will operate for the benefit of the members of the bar practicing before him.

The case of Emanuel Gallick against Thomas J. Bordeaux was called for trial, and Attorney George H. Shelton asked the court to postpone the case till tomorrow because Attorney John W. Cotter, representing the defendant, was not prepared to take it up. In reply to the request, Judge Clancy answered:

"No; we can't have that in this court. We can't have Mr. Cotter running all over the state while we keep a jury here at $100 a day and all these other lawyers are looking for business. We won't do that sort of thing in this court. All the lawyers must find that out. The case will go on."

Mr. Shelton was required to proceed with the trial without Mr. Cotter.

Judge Is Sociable.

Judge M. W. McConnell of Helena was present representing parties in a case about fourth on the day's calendar for trial.

"The two or three cases ahead of the case I am employed in will probably occupy the court all of today and more. I should like to get my case set down for tomorrow," said he.

"No," said the court. "I've got this calendar set now and I won't disturb it."

"Well, I suppose I'll have to stay here then," said Judge McConnell.

"Yes; you don't often fall in with sociable people like us," the court said, with a smile. "You'd better stay awhile."

And then the Gallick-Bordeaux trial was begun.

WOMEN SUFFRAGISTS TO INVADE MONTANA TO GET FEMINE VOTE

When Mrs. Carrie Chapman-Catt was made chairman of the organization committee of the National Woman Suffrage association in 1890, there were but 11 state organizations, and the majority of these had an existence only in name.

All the states and territories, with the exception of Alaska, are now organized. It has been the plan of the national association to lend assistance to the various states in sending national speakers and organizers, and this assistance is to be given to Montana.

The most powerful state associations in the West are in Iowa and Nebraska, the latter having trebled its membership in two years.

In a campaign of education two distinct lines of work are maintained. One is the field work, consisting of lectures and the organization of suffrage clubs, and the other is press work, through which suffrage news items and brief arguments are furnished to the papers of the state.

The field work in this state will be done by Miss Gail Laughlin of New York, who is now in Butte and will remain in Montana several months. Miss Laughlin is a graduate of Wellesley and of Cornell Law school, and is one of the ablest speakers in the national association. She will visit every county and all the large towns in the state.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman-Catt, the national president, is in Helena and will come to Butte Saturday to address the clubs in the city next week.

Mrs. Catt has been the chief factor in the recent victories for woman suffrage. She was the principal speaker in the campaigns in Colorado, Idaho and Utah, which won full suffrage for the states, and her appeal before the conservative legislature of Louisiana is said to have won tax-payers' suffrage for the women of that state.

Women now have full suffrage in Wyoming, Colorado, Utah and Idaho—municipal suffrage in Kansas, bond suffrage in Iowa and Louisiana and school suffrage in 24 other states.

NEW MINING COMPANY IS INCORPORATED TODAY

A new mining company, to be known as the Yale Mining company, has recently been organized, of which the prime movers are A. J. Campbell of this city, John R. Toole of Anaconda, John G. Morony of Great Falls, J. C. Lalor of New York and M. K. Rogers of Seattle.

The company is incorporated for a period of 40 years with a capital stock of $250,000.

Articles of incorporation of the new company were filed in the office of the secretary of state in Helena today.

COMANCHE CASE UP IN SUPREME COURT TODAY

Adolph Wetstein is still battling in the courts for a quarter interest he alleges he owns in the Comanche mine in Meaderville; or, rather, P. A. Heinze is battling for him. Wetstein claims he owns the interest through a deed executed in favor of H. L. Frank by David N. Upton, and afterwards transferred to him by Frank.

The title of the suit is Adolph Wetstein vs. P. A. Lutz, but the real defendant is the Boston & Montana Mining company, which bought the property from Lutz several years ago and worked it up to the time Wetstein began the suit.

The suit was tried in the district court of this city about two years ago, and was won by the defendant on every point. Wetstein asked for a new trial, which the court refused, and he appealed to the supreme court. The matter was called up in the supreme body today, but at a late hour it had not been finished.

MEADERVILLE

Dominick Salki on the south and the one-story frame dwelling of M. P. Smith on the north, both of which were totally destroyed. The Smith dwelling was occupied by Victoria Pava and his family, who saved nearly all of their household goods. The building was not insured.

Mr. Salki was asleep in the back room of his saloon when the fire broke out, but John McEvoy and Joseph Primevari disturbed his slumbers by a series of hard knocks on the door. His building was then on fire and the smoke was filling the main room and his lodging apartment.

Salki could not find his trousers at first and he needed them, too, because the key to the front door was in one of the pockets. By the time he was in shape to mix with the crowd outside his building was burning fiercely on the north side.

Saved His Cash.

He grabbed the cash register and carried it out, saved his trunk, and with assistance pulled his safe out of the building, but all of his clothing not in the trunk was burned, as was also his stock of liquors and cigars, valued at about $600. In the rear of the building were 15 nickel-in-the-slot machines that had been stored there by the agent for the machines shortly after the anti-slot ma-

IS ORPHAN ORDINANCE TO CURB THE RED LIGHT DISTRICT IN BUTTE

There is a resolution at the city clerk's office to be introduced at the meeting of the city council tonight which is without a signature.

As yet no alderman has been found who will father the resolution, which was drawn up by the city attorney.

The orphan ordinance restricts the limits of the redlight district, and further provides that the inmates be hidden from the sight of passersby.

Similar resolutions have been introduced before, but have been sidetracked, or buried in the archives of the office of the city clerk.

If the resolution is adopted it is likely that the same system will be adopted in Butte as is now in vogue in Denver. Heavy shutters are placed on the windows and the shutters are locked with padlocks, the keys of which are kept by the chief of police.

WEATHER OFFICE HAS LUCK

Clouds are having their innings today. For some days there has been fine weather, as J. R. Wharton's weather bureau predicted, and today the office at the corner of Main and Park streets said the day would be cloudy. So far it has been cloudy.

When J. R. Wharton's office said it would be fair weather it was, and when the office said that it would be raining, it rained.

The forecast for tomorrow is as follows: "Generally cloudy tonight and tomorrow."

J. H. DURSTON TO WOMAN'S CLUB

Rarely does the Woman's club have an opportunity of listening to a lecture such as that delivered before it by J. H. Durston, editor of the Anaconda Standard, at the Elks' hall this afternoon.

Mr. Durston spoke of the "isms of the Day," and in the course of his lecture took occasion to point to many of the ridiculous fads of the age.

He was listened to with interest and pleasure by an audience that consisted of almost every member of the club.

At the conclusion of his remarks the speaker received the applause of the women, which continued for several minutes and showed how heartily they appreciated the treat.

The lecture was under the auspices of the Current Topics department, of which Mrs. W. O. Spicer is chairman.

chine law became effective. They were destroyed.

Justice Libby did not escape the conflagration and is now short one office and sleeping apartment. His office adjoined Salki's saloon building—it was a part of the building. The judge was asleep in the rear room when the fire started, but he escaped all right, and took with him his court docket, private papers, and court papers. Someone also saved his judicial desk and coffee pot.

Some Insurance.
The total loss by the fire is about $7,000, but Mr. Bowden and Mr. Salki carried insurance, the former having $4,000 and the latter $1,000. Of the $4,000 held by Mr. Bowden, $3,000 was on the building and $1,000 on the contents. The insurance carried by Mr. Salki was on the building alone.

Not all of the loss will fall upon one company. The policies were issued by companies represented by the Thompson

Investment company. One was issued by the Northern of London, England; one by the New Zealand of Auckland, New Zealand; one by the Prussian National of Berlin, Germany; one by the Philadelphia Underwriters of Philadelphia, and the other by the American Fire Insurance company of Philadelphia. The policy of Mr. Salki is held in the latter.

Had it not been for the Leonard fire fighters the flames would have licked up the United States meat market at the south of the Salki building and then taken in the Occidental hotel, a two-story frame adjoining.

They would have also extended to the rear of the buildings destroyed and licked up several wooden structures and then spread in all directions.

Fortunately the air was calm and the flames did not spread as swiftly as they might had the wind been blowing.

PELLETIER, HIS AFFIDAVIT
Deputy Sheriff Pelletier today came into the controversy in the Plymouth-Silver King mining suit, with an affidavit. Pelletier swears that when the jury brought in its verdict Attorney F. T. McBride asked the court to send the jury back to answer the special findings which they failed to cover.

He says also that the court refused to send the jury back and that McBride took an exception to the ruling of the court. Pelletier swore to his affidavit before Clerk Roberts.

GOES TO THE FEDERAL COURT

Judge Clancy today made an order removing from the state district court to the United States circuit court; the suit of Walter W. Wislon against Miles Finlen to recover the sum of $7,132.89.

Finlen filed an affidavit in which he alleged that he is a citizen of the state of New York with his business place as the city of New York, and that the sum in controversy is over $2,000, which was sufficient ground for the removal.

Wislon sued on a claim assigned to him by his brother, Frank L. Wislon. The latter alleged that Finlen owned him the money named as the commission he should have in a mining deal.

Finlen had the same order made in the suit in which he is sued by Patrick O'Neill for $3,871.40.

MEN WHO HAD MUCH CREDIT

Two more men in Butte have acknowledged their inability to pay their obligations and have filed petitions in bankruptcy. They are Mahan Fiddi, a merchant, and John M. Erhart, a laborer.

The former says in his petition that he owes $1,887.62 and has $870 worth of stock with which to pay it. Only two of his creditors live in Butte, Mrs. Flora Cusing, to whom he owes $40 for board, and the Thompson Investment company, which has $40 coming to it for rent.

Erhart says he owes $562.25 as has assets aggregating $130. There are 43 creditors.

No Truth in Report.

(By Associated Press.)
Vienna, May 7.—There is no truth in the report (published by a news agency in the United States yesterday) that demonstrations in favor of the re-establishment of the kingdom of Poland occurred at Warsaw Tuesday; that the demonstrators were charged by Cossacks, who rode over the people, flogging them with knouts; that six persons were killed and 225 injured, and that over 800 people were arrested, including children under 10 years old.

MRS. BERLIN VIEWS THE FACE OF DEAD HUSBAND

Evidently affected, but not moved to tears, Mrs. David Berlin stood at the coffin of the man who, upon his suicidal death-bed, cursed her with his dying breath.

The funeral service of David Berlin was held in Duggan's undertaking parlors at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Rev. J. W. Tait preached the sermon. The preacher was acquainted with Mr. Berlin during his lifetime.

Mrs. Berlin and her step-son, George Berlin, attended the funeral.

A number of friends of Berlin were present. Interment was made in Mt. Moriah cemetery.

RHODES' PRIVATE REQUESTS.

All Sorts of Organizations Trying to Get Some of the Money.
(By Associated Press.)
London, May 7.—The Daily Chronicle says that the private bequests left by Cecil Rhodes were small and were mostly to old servants.

Under verbatim instructions to the trustees, says the paper, the residue amount of the scholarship plan will be devoted to the betterment of South Africa, to such things as irrigation, and the settlement of a good class of colonists there including British women.

The trustees, continued the Chronicle, are being inundated for appeals for assistance from all sorts of outside organizations, but these are doomed to absolute disappointment.

TROUBLE IN NETHERLANDS.

British Manufacturers Have Several Difficulties to Contend With.
(By Associated Press.)
London, May 7.—Gradual exclusion from the Netherlands of the British iron and steel manufactures is reported by the British consul at Amsterdam.

He expresses the opinion that there are two difficulties to be overcome if British manufacture is to regain its lost footing.

The first is the adoption of a standard system, which has made great progress in Germany and Belgium in nearly all iron and steel manufactures.

The other difficulty is the existence of trusts and syndicates in almost every principal branch of the iron trade in both these continental countries.

CHINESE MANDARIN KILLS HIS FAMILY BEFORE THE REVOLT

(By Associated Press.)
Peking, May 7.—Bishop Fayler, the French vicar apostolic in China, has received information to the effect that 10,000 armed rebels with several cannon are participating in the revolt at Cheng Ting Fu, Chi-Li province.

It is considered doubtful if Yuen Shih, the governor of Chi-Li, has sent a sufficient force to cope with the rebellion.

The bulk of the government forces are to arrive at the scene of the disturbance today.

The leader of the uprising is a military mandarin, who killed his family before raising the flag of revolt, so as to prevent their punishment in event of his failure.

International Detective Agency.

The continued services and support given to the International Detective Agency in the Owsley block, rooms 21-22, is the ruling theme in the offices of their business departments. Personal visits to the office and increasing correspondence keeps the management's time well occupied, indeed, more than busy. The work from railroad corporations and official solicitation from the outside cities of Montana, is a small part of the listed undertakings of this new enterprise. Should the business increase for the next 30 days as it has in the past few days, it will assume a large roll of correspondence and responsibility.
