STREET SPRINKLER HAD A HARD TIME

HOSE GOT AWAY FROM DRIVER AND SPOILED ANOTHER MAN'S SUNDAY-GO-TO-MEETING CLOTHES.

HE FOUND A GOOD WAY TO GET EVEN, HOWEVER

Antics of Two Men Amuse an Early Morning Crowd at the Corner of Main and Park Streets—Turn About is Fair Play and Brings Good Humor—New Suit of Clothes Spoiled.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]

Anacoda, May 28.—The trials of a street sprinkler are many and varied and after following the business for a short time he usually begins to think that the best he can do is to get some one mad at him.

Quite early in the morning several days ago, a sprinkler stopped at the corner of Park and Main streets and proceeded to fill up. The huge hose was attached to the hydrant and stuck into the hole in the top of the wagon.

Then the driver clambered down from his perch and turned the water on. He did it too strong and to his surprise the hose rose in the air and waving like a python spouted a four-inch stream of water in almost every direction.

Before the hydrant could be closed, the hose pointed itself towards a man dressed in his Sunday best, and he was deluged with dirt, dust, and water.

Mad? No, he wasn't mad. It tickled him. It is strange the command some men have of the English language. Adjectives especially were his long suit. But it did no good. He was already wet.

The driver climbed on the wagon to put the hose in the hole again and while he was doing so, his erstwhile victim saw a chance to get even and he turned on the water, good and strong.

Then there were doings. The way that hose carried on was something scandalous, and before the driver of the wagon could get it under control he had no fear whatever of getting wet.

This sort of satisfied the other man and the result was that the crowd broke up in tumultuous glee.

WELL KNOWN ANACONDA WOMAN IS NOW DEAD

Mrs. Nettie Rae, Prominent in Secret Orders Throughout State, Died at Her Home in This City Yesterday.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]

Anacoda, May 28.—Mrs. Nettie Rae of this city died yesterday at her home, 717 West Commercial avenue. MANY SHOOTERS TO PRACTICE AT TRAP

IT IS EXPECTED THAT SPORTSMEN WILL ARRIVE IN THE CITY TONIGHT FOR THAT PURPOSE.

TOURNAMENT TO BEGIN NEXT FRIDAY MORNING

There Will Be an Attendance of at Least Seventy-five Outside Shooters—Great Falls Will Send Twelve, Helena Will Be Represented and a Large Number Will Come From Butte.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]

Anacoda, May 28.—It is expected that trap shooters from different parts of the state will begin to arrive in the city this evening so as to be in the city for practice on the grounds of the Anaconda Gun club tomorrow, in preparation for the annual meeting of the Montana State Sportsman's association, which commences here at 9:30 o'clock Friday morning.

It is a usual thing with most shooters to go a day ahead of time and thus become used to the grounds before the main events are pulled off, as there is a distinct advantage in doing so.

The local club expect at least 75 outside shooters will be here to take part in the tournament. Great Falls alone will send 18, and Helena probably as many. Butte will no doubt be represented by a much larger number.

Hold Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the association will be held in the ordinary of the Montana hotel Friday evening, after the first day's shoot. At this meeting the present game laws of the state will be discussed and as is usual, if it is thought they can in any way be bettered, committees will be appointed to look after the matter.

The state association has done a great deal in the past in assisting in the enforcement of the game laws, and that is one of the principal ideas of the organization.

The medals that will be shot for during the tournament have been on exhibition for several days past in a Main street window. They are very attractive specimens of the jewelers' art, but those winning them will place a much higher value on them than from a monetary point of view.

Description of Medals.

The medals are: Individual Blue Rock championship, 50 targets; Butte Rod and Gun club medal, 40 targets; the Brownlee challenge medal, 25 targets, and the Kelpetko challenge medal, 40 targets. There will also be a two-man team shoot and a three-man team shoot and a consolation shoot, with 75, added money.

The number of events scheduled to take place during the three days' shooting is 26, and the added money in these events aggregate $695. There will doubtless be many more events sandwiched in at various times.

In the matter of live birds it has been exceedingly difficult to secure pigeons, but it is expected that 1,000 will be had. The live bird shooting will commence on the second day of the meet, Saturday.

Monument for English.

New York, May 28.—A committee has been appointed by the board of managers of the Society of American Authors to solicit subscriptions for the erection of a monument over the grave of Dr. Thomas Dunn English, the author of "Ben Bolt."

MT. PELEE AGAIN IN ERUPTION

Correspondents Saved From Death By Accepting Kind Hospitality of a Priest-Whereabouts of Professor Hill and George Kennon Not Now Known.

Fort de France, May 28.—Mount Pelee, from which there was another violent eruption on Monday was quiet again last night, but the inhabitants of the island are in a terrified state.

The volcano is puzzling all the scientists, some of whom say the mountain has thus far made a beginning.

Morne Rouge was saved from destruction last night only by a miracle, says a priest who was there.

Two correspondents believing the volcano had, for a time at least, subsided, planned an expedition to the mountain, for the purpose of securing photos. Several natives were employed as guides.

After a wearing march which took most of Monday, Morne Rouge was reached about 7:30 o'clock in the evening. The correspondents were welcomed by a kindly priest, who gave such information as was in his possession. He insisted on a pause being made for refreshments and in his humble home food was prepared. It was this generous courtesy of the priest that saved the expedition from destruction.

The original plan was that the visit should be made to the crater as soon as possible and a quick return be made to Fort de France, to avoid all danger. While the evening meal was being prepared, the priest pointed out the work of ruin that had been accomplished.

Another Explosion Came.

He said he had refused to leave his post, though he was not at all certain Morne Rouge would not be swept from existence as was St. Pierre. It was while he was talking that the explosion came. From their homes the inhabitants of the village rushed in a panic. Some did not wait to see what was happening, but hurried over the mountains

MONSTER PARADE DECORATION DAY

ARRANGED BY YOUNGER VETERANS AND WILL START FROM MAT-TIE BLOCK.

WILL DECORATE GRAVES IN THE EARLY MORNING

This Will Be of Much Benefit During Services at Cemetery—There Will Be No Breaking of Ranks and No Confusion—Firing Squad of Spanish-American War Veterans Will Do the Honors.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]

Anacoda, May 28.—On Decoration day the parade will start from the Mattie block hall on East Commercial avenue and proceed directly up Main street to the cemetery behind the court house. The arrangements of the parade were left to the veterans of the Spanish-American war. Joseph Jette will act as marshal of the day and Miles Kelly as assistant marshal.

The parade will be formed by the G. A. R., ex-confederates, Mexican war veterans, veterans of the Spanish-American war, Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias, boys brigade, platoon of police and as many school children as can be assembled for the parade.

The services at the cemetery will consist of the reading of the general orders for Decoration day, the ritual services of the G. A. R., an address by the past commander, H. F. Ehret, and also by the chaplain; reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg address and a talk by G. S. E. Wisner.

A firing squad composed of Spanish-American war veterans will be present and will fire salutes. The singing of America and the benediction will conclude the ceremonies.

In order that there shall be no confusion, breaking of ranks etc., Comrades Wisner, Edwards and Shade of the G. A. R. were appointed as a committee to see to the decorating of the graves, before the arrival of the procession. In the afternoon committees appointed for that purpose will visit the upper and lower cemeteries and decorate the graves of comrades there.

The only Mexican war veteran in Anacoda is R. P. McDonald, who although getting well along in years is hale and hearty and he usually turns out on Decoration day with his comrades from the later wars.

The business houses will be closed on that day and the holiday will be observed in a fitting manner.

RACING FOR INDIAN LANDS

Expect a Great Rush When Fort Hall Reservation Opens.

Blackfoot, Idaho, May 28.—If the sale of the Indian improvements on the Fort Hall reservation can be accepted as an index, there will be a great rush when the reservation opens June 17.

Arrangements have already been made by locators for relays of horses for the race onto the reservation and back to the land office.

The hills around Pocatello are dotted with strangers, and Indian Agent Caldwell is having a hard time keeping the trespassers off the reservation.

Several arrests have been made of parties who claim to have found claims of pay ore within the "five-mile limit."
