

ENGLAND RETURNS THANKS FOR PEACE

KING AND QUEEN AND OTHER MEMBERS OF THE ROYAL FAMILY ATTEND CHURCH SERVICES.

ARE GREETED BY THE CHEERS OF MULTITUDE

Noisy Jubilation of the Past Week Was Somewhat Subdued Yesterday—Formality of Presenting a Sword to the King at Temple Bar Is Observed—Program Carried Through.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] London, June 9.—The noisy jubilation with which London has responded for the past week was followed Sunday by more subdued, although not less impressive public demonstrations of thankfulness for the return of peace in South Africa. The thanksgiving services held in London yesterday were typical of the services held throughout the empire, but the presence of King Edward and other members of the royal family at the principal devotional exercises in London and the progress of the royal processions to and from St. Paul's cathedral through cheering thousands of British subjects and visitors in London, gave thanksgiving day in the metropolis the added feature of a notable historic occasion.

The program of the morning was not intended to be accompanied by special ostentation. King Edward and Queen Alexandra did not pass through the streets even in semi-state, but rode to St. Paul's in an ordinary landau, drawn by four horses, accompanied by postillions and outriders clad in scarlet tunics. Only those members of the royal family who reside in Buckingham palace accompanied their majesties. The Prince and Princess of Wales and others proceeded to St. Paul's separately, but by the same route as did their majesties. The king and queen were joined at the cathedral by the Prince and Princess of Wales and many other distinguished personages.

With Bared Heads. Although the weather was chilly, the streets for the entire distance from the palace to the cathedral were lined thickly with people with bared heads.

King Edward, who wore the uniform of a field marshal, was greeted with enthusiasm, and his majesty, the Prince of Wales, and the other princes were busily engaged in acknowledging salutations from the crowd. Lord Roberts, who drove with his wife and daughters, was one of the figures most conspicuously greeted with cheers.

The royal personages were driven down the Mall to Trafalgar square and through the Strand and Fleet street. At Temple Bar officials of the city of London, for the first time since the jubilee of the late Queen Victoria, awaited the sovereign in state. The king's carriage was stopped when it reached the city officials and the lord mayor of London, Sir Joseph C. Dimsdale, presented the sword of the city to his majesty and uttered a formal welcome. The king returned the sword, smiled, bowed and simply remarked: "Thank you very much."

The streets leading to St. Paul's cathedral were densely crowded with people and a number of persons fainted in the crush outside the barriers which had been erected within the cathedral.

King Edward and Queen Alexandra alighted at the west entrance of St. Paul's. There they were received by the bishops of Stepney and London and conducted by them to their seats, which were under the dome of the building and directly in front of the pulpit.

The seats in the choir stalls were occupied by the members of the present cabinets and by members of former cabinets. These gentlemen in their dark clothes formed a somber group in the great gathering in which the uniforms of officials, the costumes of ladies and white surplices were conspicuous features.

Short Sermon. Members of the house of lords and members of the house of commons were seated on opposite sides under the dome. In addition to the presence of many army and navy officials, the military prowess of the empire was represented by detachments of the royal fusiliers, the horse and foot guards and other regiments.

Their majesties entered the cathedral to the accompaniment of the hymn "Onward Christian Soldiers," by the organ and choir, and the throng of worshippers rose and heartily joined in the singing. The cathedral organ was reinforced with horns and other instruments. A notable feature of the musical service was the rendition of a Te Deum composed by the late Sir Arthur Sullivan for a thanksgiving peace service. Following the thanksgiving collects, and at the request of King Edward, the hymn "O, God, Our Help in Ages Past" was sung to the tune of "Old Hundred." The sermon by the Bishop of Stepney was short and simple, and was preached on the effective text "The Blessings of Peace." The service was concluded with the singing of the national anthem.

The members of the royal family returned from the cathedral to Buckingham palace by way of the Victoria embankment. King Edward and the other royal personages received ovations all along the route from the crowds, which had by this time become greatly augmented.

COULD NOT TAKE A DARE

Negro Became Excited in an Argument and Kills a Man.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] New York, June 9.—For telling Noah Parker, 22 years old, that he lacked the courage to shoot a fly, James Crane, aged 45, was shot and killed in a Brooklyn street. The bullet entered the man's chest, killing him instantly.

When he saw his victim fall Parker became excited and fired four shots at the other people in the room. None of the shots took effect, however.

Parker then hurried to his home, and later surrendered to the police. Parker, who is a negro, came from Kentucky.

An argument over horseracing brought about the butner to shoot which caused Crane's death.

CELEBRATION AT WEST POINT

Synopsis of the Address of Colonel E. J. McClernand as a Veteran of the Spanish-American War—History Will Record Glory of the Army.

West Point, June 9.—The address of Colonel E. J. McClernand, as a veteran of the Spanish-American war made at West Point today follows in part: Mr. President and fellow graduates: "Since the close of the civil war the country had enjoyed thirty years of peace. The end of that great struggle found the people tired of war and in the mad race for wealth that followed, the military profession and preparation no longer interested them, but the years immediately preceding the Spanish-American war were replete with study, and as far as circumstances would permit with practice, assimilated to the conditions of war.

Many Obstacles. It was because of these preparations, persistently pursued in the face of obstacles well nigh insurmountable and oftentimes disheartening that the little army was sent to Santiago de Cuba, was able to render such a good account of itself and just claim and to receive from the country an acknowledgment of the constancy of purpose and gallantry under hardships that merit and achieve success. To permit a country to drift into war in such a way is a crime." Colonel McClernand then described at length the lack of preparation of this country at the outbreak of the Spanish war and the eager response of volunteers to the call to arms. He gave a glimpse of the battle of San Juan and then took up the war in the Philippines, telling of the difficult conditions to be met there. In closing he said: "The Spanish-American war belongs to the past. The pledge we gave ourselves and the world as to Cuba has been faithfully kept and already made good. "You may pick flaws, gentlemen, here and there. An army of sixty-five thousand men would not be human if that were not possible; but those of us who have served in the Philippines know well the grand and good work accomplished by our army. "We know it has not only conducted successfully one of the most trying guerrilla wars known to the annals of history, but that while doing this, it laid the foundations for civil government in that country and the time will come when the people of the Philippines living under the flag planted by our regulars and volunteers will bless the day when the first American soldier set his foot on Luzon.

History Will Record. "The work of the army in the Philippines will stand the test, and as we recede from the work, its grand deeds will stand out and its few errors sink into insignificance. The gallantry it has shown, the hardships it has suffered, and the wise and humane acts it has performed, its labors in re-establishing order, and blazing the way for a more perfect civil government than the orient has ever known, will all show clearly under the searchlight of history to the honor of the army and the glory of our country."

ARBITRATION MAY PREVENT STRIKES

EMPLOYERS AND EMPLOYEES WILL ENDEAVOR TO AGREE UPON SOME EQUITABLE PLAN.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Chicago, June 9.—Alarmed by the disturbances that marked the strike of the packing house teamsters last week, employers have started a movement for the prevention of strikes in the shape of an arbitration board.

It is proposed that all difficulties that cannot be settled by the men directly with their employers shall be submitted to a joint advisory board composed of representatives from the employers' associations and the unions affiliated with the National Teamsters' union for arbitration.

The movement has the support of eight associations of employers and the tacit approval of President Albert Young of the Teamsters union.

The initiatory action will be taken this afternoon at the Great Northern hotel, when three delegates from each of the eight employers' organizations will meet. These delegates are expected to select a committee of seven to meet a like committee from the teamsters to select a method of procedure by which all future differences may be adjusted.

It's Mount Tacoma Now.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Tacoma, Wash., June 9.—People in Tacoma today saw two columns of steam rising from the apex of Mount Tacoma. The question of the melting of the snow by the heat of the sun, the lifting and drying of the snow from the summit by the wind and several other possible explanations of the phenomenon were discussed, but none of them answered or explained what they saw.

FORT DE FRANCE, Martinique.—The damage from the eruption of Mount Pelee which occurred Friday is less than was supposed. The plains of Morne Rouge are covered with hot mud, however, and several fishing boats with their crews are reported to have disappeared.

ROBBERS SECURE VALUABLE JEWELS

WEALTHY FRENCHMEN LOSE SOME VALUABLE JEWELRY AND THEY OFFER BIG REWARD.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] New York, June 9.—Robbers entered the apartments of two wealthy Frenchmen, Baron Jacques Meyronnet de Saintre Marc, and Baron Andre de Neufville, at No. 15 West Fifty-Sixth street and secured jewelry valued at more than $3,000. "My things," said Baron Saintre Marc, "were quite valuable intrinsically, but much more than mere money for their historic and family associations. "A chain alone, that was stolen, has been in my family, since 1450 and is the heritage of the oldest son. If necessary I will pay $20,000 for its return."

Both French noblemen have been in New York through the winter. Baron Neufville is here studying the methods of New York banking preparatory to entering his father's banking house in Paris. Baron Saintre Marc is on his way around the world.

A week ago he left Chicago on a flying trip to Detroit to attend the wedding of a friend. When they returned they found the apartments had been rifled.

CUBAN MINISTER COMING.

Instructed to Make an Effort to Secure Tariff Reduction.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Havana, June 9.—Gonzalo Quesada, Cuban minister to Washington, and his family, has sailed for New York. Mr. Quesada will go at once to Washington and open the legation at the Hotel Raleigh until he secures a house.

He is the bearer of the good wishes of President Palma, to the president of the United States. He has also been instructed to use every effort to secure favorable and prompt action on the question of tariff reduction on Cuban products.

A large number of friends went aboard to say good-bye and wish Senor Quesada success. Colonel Garcia, son of the late General Calixto Garcia, probably will be sent to Hamburg as consul general.

ONE KILLED, ONE FATALLY INJURED

SARATOGA HAS A FIRE WHICH DOES CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE TO BOTH LIFE AND PROPERTY.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Saratoga, N. Y., June 9.—One person was killed, one fatally injured and three persons are reported missing in a fire which destroyed $200,000 worth of property early today.

The fire broke out in the Arcade on Broadway and destroyed that building, also the Shackelford and the Theater Saratoga. A portion of the Citizens' National bank building was destroyed. The quarters of the bank were only damaged by water, however, and all the contents of the safes and safety deposit vaults remain intact.

Fortunately, there was no wind, otherwise the fire, which was in the center of the city and not far remote from several large hotels, might have grown into a general conflagration.

By hard work the fire was brought under control at 5:25 o'clock.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR DOCTOR JOHN BARROWS

Preacher, Lecturer and Educator Remembered by Friends and Admirers in Chicago.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Chicago, June 9.—The life and work of Rev. John Henry Barrows, preacher, lecturer and educator, whose death is so greatly mourned, has been lauded in many of the Chicago churches, a special memorial service being held in the First Presbyterian church, of which Dr. Barrows was pastor for many years. Rev. Dr. Chichester, the successor of Dr. Barrows in the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church, preached the memorial sermon. Bishop Samuel Fallows of St. Paul's Reformed Episcopal, eulogized Dr. Barrows in a prelude before his sermon at the morning service, and Rev. Dr. William K. Thorp, at the South Congregational church last night, spoke of the late preacher as embodying in himself certain ideas of modern Christianity.

LAREDO, Texas.—A bull fight was given in the Plaza Toros of Neuv, Mexico, yesterday, the unique feature of which was the successful performance of Romulus, the famous Mexican wrestler, who succeeded in throwing a wild bull from the San Luis Potosi ranch. Romulus, grappled the bull and threw him at the first attempt.

CANNON CAUSES ACCIDENT

Whipped a Frightened Horse With the Usual Result.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] New York, June 9.—One of the large black cannon sent to the Brooklyn navy yard from Morro Castle after the Spanish war and later taken to the park at Hempstead, L. I., has been the cause of a serious runaway accident to Mr. and Mrs. William Dykman, who are well known in Brooklyn society.

Soon after the cannon was installed at Hempstead, it was covered with aluminum paint that made it glisten and shine. Mrs. Dykman and family were driving through the park when their horse took fright at the object of the glittering cannon and refused to pass the spot.

Notwithstanding the whip the animal bolted to the sidewalk, where the cart was overturned and Mr. and Mrs. Dykman were dragged a long distance. Both were severely injured.

VENICE.—The statement published in the United States that J. Pierpont Morgan had broken down and was in the hands of a physician is without foundation. Mr. Morgan and his family left Venice on the yacht Corsair, June 1, and was then in good health.
