

BITS OF HORSE NEWS UP TO DATE

PREPARATIONS FOR BUTTE MEETING CONTINUE—THOROUGH-BREDS IN FORM.

Fine weather, a good track and other advantages are tending to put the horses now at the track in good condition for the Montana Jockey club meeting which opens in Butte June 21.

Shell Mount Will Be Here. Shell Mount will be here for the meeting after all. Duncan Cameron, the owner of the valuable horse, was obliged to take Shell Mount off the train shortly after leaving San Francisco, the horse having been taken with a car fit.

There will be several world record horses here, among them being Handpress, a son of Hanover, owned by Billy Magrane.

W. D. Randall now has his string at Anaconda training. Among his horses are Salvation, Axminster, Millove, Montanas and Hildoum.

M. Goldblatt with Josie Jarboe, The 400 and other horses is now en route from St. Louis.

Dan McCarthy, known on the track as "White Hat," will arrive in Butte this week with a string of good horses.

Working 'Em Out. Hagerdon, one of Duncan Cameron's horses, worked 3 1/2 this morning in a shade better than 17.

Silver Dick, owned by Charles W. Clark, breezed 4 in 12 1/2.

George Howson's Josie Gibson, the speedy 3-year-old, is working out nicely. Judge Thomas, the short-liner, worked three-eighths in 13 1/2.

The wonderful improvement in John Campbell's Mrs. C. is the marvel of the horsemen and trainers at the track.

Saul of Tarsus, the big bay horse, an 1 stable mate, Royalty, did a nice three-fourths this morning.

Jockey Ross arrived from San Francisco this morning.

Racing Secretary Ralph Tozer is busy handicapping. Entries for the Miners' Union day races, June 13, will close at 11 o'clock Thursday.

British Win Again Sunday. London, June 10.—In the exhibition game of polo at Ranelagh today between the British and American teams, the British team won by a score of six to five.

America was represented by the same team as yesterday at Hurlingham with the exception of M. Waterbury, who played instead of Agassis.

Organize Amateur League. Junior Baseball Magnates Will Meet Tomorrow Evening.

Tomorrow evening a meeting will be held at No. 120 Oklahoma street, where the managers and captains of the junior amateur baseball teams of Butte will assemble and organize a league.

The teams that will be represented at the meeting are the Parochials, Inter Mountains, Little Buttes, Centervilles, Monarchs and the State Juniors.

Story on Patrick Tebeau. I Buckenberger tells a good story on "Pat" Tebeau.

When "Buck" managed the Pittsburgs, Frank Killen was one of his pitchers. The "Pirates" were in Cleveland and Killen was down to pitch, but he was not at all anxious to begin his task.

"I can't pitch in this town," was his complaint. "Because 'Pat' Tebeau calls me names until I get mad and all worked up."

"Why don't you put cotton in your ears?" suggested "Jack" Glasscock as a "kid."

CHARACTER STUDY OF "YOUNG" CORBETT

BY E. A. CHARLTON.

No argument need be advanced to convince one who can study a countenance that in William Rothwell, known in the pugilistic world as "Young Corbett," there is all the attributes of character and personality.

WILLIAM ROTHWELL (Young Corbett).

advice: "Never let anybody know that you are broke, and always take care of your credit." "These axioms, so applicable in everyday life, I have endeavored to follow."

NOTES AND COMMENTS

It appears that Kid Oglesby got the worst of 20-rounds with George Baker of California, at Salt Lake last night.

while he has been out of form for some time he is getting in shape and will shortly leave for Salt Lake where he expects to get on with some man of reputation in his class.

Napoleon Lajoie has seen fit to disregard the decisions of the Pennsylvania supreme court, and is now playing with the Cleveland team in the American league.

Jack Wade denies the persistent rumor that he is in declining health and that his fighting days are over.

ENGLAND WINS FROM AMERICANS

FOXHALL KEENE'S POLO TEAM DEFEATED BY BRITISHERS IN YESTERDAY'S GAME.

Hurlingham, England, June 9.—In the polo tournament the English team scored their first goal in the first 10 minutes.

The disappointment caused by the postponement of Saturday last had some effect in keeping down the side of the fashionable crowd which assembled at Hurlingham yesterday afternoon to witness the second match in the series being played for the American polo cup.

The game opened in a lively manner. The play started with a fierce rush by the Americans toward the English goal.

Two Players Hurt. In the fourth period the Americans played a resolute game. Miller and Nickalls were hurt, but immediately resumed play.

The score stood: England, 3; America, 1; at the close of the period.

The fifth period was fine; the continued playing on both sides and after a grand struggle the Englishmen gradually forced the ball down and scored their fourth goal.

In the sixth period the Americans ran away with the ball and hit the goal, but unluckily they had a man off side and the goal was cancelled.

In spite of this the American team held on with great pluck and there was a grand struggle in front of the goal.

Neither King Edward nor Queen Alexandra was present at the game today.

fore in contempt of court in Pennsylvania and must remain out of the state to avoid arrest.

Colonel Rodgers of the Philadelphia club tried to secure Lajoie's services, but was not willing to pay him the salary he asked, so he joined the Cleveland team.

Mose LaFontaine of this city and Jack Kelly are listed to clash in a 20-round contest atocatello, Idaho, on the 14th.

"Kid" McCoy has agreed to box any man, barring Jeffries, at Salt Lake in August, and says he will bet $5,000 on the side that he defeats the boxer the club picks out for him.

This year's derby, which is to be run in St. Louis Saturday, June 14, will be the most valuable 3-year-old stake decided on the American turf this season.

the exception of the Lawrence realization and the American derby. The Lawrence realization, which is run at Coney Island, is worth about $30,000, while the American derby, which is run at Washington Park, has $20,000 added.

It was established in 1882, the year the present Fair Ground track was thrown open to the public.

"This making of new champions that do not fit the old and legitimate notches demands a general revision of weights," writes George Siler.

KID OGLESBY AND GEO. BAKER DRAW

OGLESBY WAS PRETTY BADLY JOLTED BUT WAS ON HIS FEET AT END OF BATTLE.

Salt Lake City, Utah, June 10.—Kid Oglesby of Helena and George Baker of California fought 20 slow rounds to a draw at the Salt Lake Athletic club last night.

Of mastodontic proportions one Mourahala, who styles himself the "Terrible Turk No. 2" is in Butte. He weighs 300 pounds and claims to be a wrestler and comes here for the purpose of giving an exhibition of his prowess.

Mr. Dunlap says that "Bill Bill" wants ten days to train for the contest, but that the Turk wants to pull it off at once.

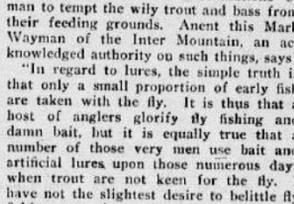

It would appear that if the Turk is anxious to make the match for $500 he would be justified in waiting ten days for "Bill Bill."

Louis Cannon of Butte says that upon several occasions he has been advertised to meet the "Terrible Turk No. 2" in Great Falls and other places throughout the state, when, as a matter of fact, he never heard of either the wrestler or his manager until they reached Great Falls.

Fishing With Bait. There are many fishermen in Butte who despise "bait," preferring the gaudy fly, the bucktail and other machinations of man to tempt the wily trout and bass from their feeding grounds.

"In regard to lures, the simple truth is that only a small proportion of early fish are taken with the fly. It is thus that a host of anglers glorify fly fishing and damn bait, but it is equally true that a number of those very men use bait and artificial lures upon those numerous days when trout are not keen for the fly.

"It is all very fine to sneer at bait, but with all due respect to the stickler for flies, the bait fisher frequently is the real expert. To use bait on the fine tackle requires the fly fisher's knowledge and something more. The expert fly fisher must know what the trout are taking and why, and also where the thing is to be obtained and how. He has more to do than to reach for his hat or his book, and if he cannot procure the exact thing he must know of one, two, or half a dozen possible substitutes, and just where and how they are to be obtained at short notice, which are apt to mean that he must procure them for himself. After the fish is once hooked, the same skill is required to play and land it, no matter if it rose to a hackle, a worm, a grub, a young mouse, a natural insect, or even to that oft-used, old reliable—a small section of some soulful sow. Hence, the reading tyro will do well to remember that it is not all of fishing to catch fish, with or without the fly, nor is it all of good sense to go without fish when you want 'em, simply because the poetic method of taking trout is by means of a bunco bug fashioned out of barbed wire and millinery, and bearing only a questionable resemblance to any honest insect."
