

FUTURE POLICY OF BRITISH EMPIRE

PAPER READ BEFORE THE COLONIAL INSTITUTE CAUSES CONSIDERABLE COMMENT.

PARLIAMENT CROWDED WITH ROUTINE WORK

England Not Well Equipped for Existence Now Going on Among the Nations of the Earth and the Colonies Must Now Help Bear the Burden of Imperialism. Agent Tozer Dissents.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] London, June 11.—Alfred Colquhoun's paper just read before the colonial institute, was an able and comprehensive survey of the future policy of the British empire as essentially a colonial policy. It was not an alarmist paper, but a cool and well reasoned argument pointing to the conclusion that the empire might be bound together by federal ties.

Mr. Colquhoun advocated with the approval of a large and intelligent audience, a closer commercial union between the mother country and the colonies, the representation of the colonies in the imperial councils and measures of defense.

No Definite Plan.

He discussed the question of the British zollverein and preferential duties within the empire, without committing himself to any definite scheme and contended that parliament was overwhelmed with routine business and that an imperial council was indispensable, since fresh impulses from the colonies were needed in order to invigorate the national policy. He described England as ill-equipped for the desperate struggle for existence now going on among the nations and asserted that the colonies must come forward to contribute to the expenses of the imperial household.

Mr. Colquhoun was closely followed and his warnings against one-sided free trade in a protection world and against annexation of British shipping lines by American capitalists, while Germany was in a position to command the maritime alliance were warmly applauded.

Against Bread Tax.

Colonel Demmon presented the argument for levying a war tax for all imports in British ports with force and lucidity and referred to James Bryce and John Morley's argument against the bread tax. Agent General Tozer, from Queensland, dissented from proposals for a British zollverein and emphatically declared that Australians will bind themselves to supply a permanent force of 100,000 soldiers for the imperial defense and contribute liberally to the naval armament, but will not ask England to introduce a zollverein which would be unfair to her own people.

The discussion was continued by several eminent colonial representatives and was a most interesting one.

NO COERCION EXCEPT TO STOP BRIGANDAGE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Boston, Mass., June 11.—President Roosevelt has written a letter to Rev. Charles E. St. John, secretary of the American Unitarian association, in reply to the secretary's letter transmitting to the president the resolutions adopted at the meeting of the American Unitarian association concerning the situation in the Philippines.

"My Dear Sir—I beg to thank you for your very kind letter of the 31st ultimo, enclosing the memorial of the American Unitarian association passed at their annual meeting May 22, 1902.

"I am happy to say that the bill which has just passed the senate will, if enacted into law, enable us to proceed even more rapidly and efficiently than hitherto along the lines of securing peace, prosperity and

FLORIDA FAVORS ST. LOUIS FAIR

CITIZENS OF THE STATE STRONGLY COMMITTED TO A COMPLETE EXHIBIT OF RESOURCES.

SPIRITED DISCUSSION ON THE SUBJECT

Report of Frederick M. Taylor, Chief of the Department of Agriculture—Federal Board Expect to Surpass All Their Previous Efforts—Cuban Cigar Companies Planning for a Large Exhibit.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

World's Fair Grounds, St. Louis, June 11.—Frederick W. Taylor, chief of the departments of agriculture and horticulture has returned from a trip to Tampa, Florida, where he addressed a meeting of the state horticultural society.

"A spirited discussion on the subject of Florida's representation at the World's fair," said Mr. Taylor to day, "brought out the sentiment of the people of the state, which is very strongly in favor of a complete exhibit of the state's resources. The officers of the society, with whom I had personal talks, are anxious to join in any concert of action to secure the desired results.

"It happened while I was in Tampa that Governor W. S. Jennings, W. J. Bryan, Senators Thurston, Mason and Jones visited the city, returning from the ceremonies attending the inauguration of President Palma at Havana, Cuba. This gave me a good opportunity to talk with Governor Jennings, who expressed an earnest desire to see the state handsomely represented at the exposition. Florida has no state debt and there is a probability that the state soon will receive about $420,000 from the federal government on account of Indian war claims.

"While steps have been taken to secure an appropriation of $50,000 it may be said to be probable that $100,000 will be appropriated if the war claims are paid as now expected. The people of Florida are well informed upon the World's fair and speak of the lack of Florida's representation at other expositions.

"News of the wonderful results at expositions has also had a visible effect in stirred up Florida enterprise. Florida is a great agricultural and horticultural state and the remarkable possibilities that exist there are little understood.

"At Tampa and in New York I met the representatives of large Cuban cigar concerns who are planning to make gne working exhibits, showing the manner of handling tobacco and the process of cigar manufacture.

"In Washington I met the members of the United States government board, who will have charge of the federal exhibits at the exposition. They all expect to surpass their previous efforts. In agriculture and horticulture particularly, a distinct step forward will be accomplished.

personal liberty to the inhabitants of the Philippine islands.

"There is now almost no policy of coercion in the islands, because the insurrection has been so entirely overcome that save in a few places there is peace, and with peace the policy of conciliation and good will obtain throughout the Philippines.

"There has never been any coercion save as was absolutely inevitable in putting a stop to an armed attack upon the sovereignty of the United States when its last phases became mere brigandage.

"With great regard and assuring you of my hearty sympathy with the purpose set forth in your letter and actuating the members of the American Unitarian association, as regards peace and justice in the Philippines, I am very truly yours,

STORY OF TRACY'S DESPERATE CRIMES

OREGON CONVICTS WHO ESCAPED FROM PRISON FORMERLY OF HOLE-IN-THE WALL GANG.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Denver, Colo., June 11.—Harry Tracy, who with Dave Merrill killed three guards and then escaped from the Oregon penitentiary Tuesday, is wanted in Colorado to answer charges of murder, robbery and horse stealing. He was about to be tried for the murder of Valentine Hoyer, a wealthy cattleman of Routt county, when he bound and gagged the sheriff at Aspen obtained his liberty and left for Oregon.

Tracy was a leader in the once notorious "Hole in the Wall" or Powder Springs gang of outlaws, that infested the northern corner of Routt county, near the Utah and Wyoming lines. The murder of William Strong, a boy, caused the citizens of Western Colorado to demand the extermination of the gang.

A posse of sheriffs was formed and war was declared on the desperadoes. When the posse encountered the outlaws a desperate battle was fought. Several were wounded on both sides; Hoyer, a member of the posse, was killed. Four outlaws were afterwards captured by a posse made up of Utah militia and Colorado cowboys led by Deputy Sheriff Farnham.

Jack Bennett, the first to be captured was believed to be the murderer of Strong and he was lynched near the Colorado line. Tracy, Land and P. L. Johnstone, were taken into custody near Powder Springs after a hot fight.

Johnstone was taken to Wyoming, where he was afterwards tried and sentenced for life.

Tracy and Land were convicted at Aspen, but subsequently escaped.
