THINKS BIG HOLE IS FINE BUSINESS

VETERAN HUNTER AND REAL ESTATE MAN TAKE FLYING TRIP TO THAT SECTION.

RANGES MUCH BETTER THAN FOR YEARS PAST

R. de B. and "Vic" Smith Ride Through the Famous Cattle Country—The Former is Enthusiastic in His Praises of the Prosperous Conditions of the Ranches on Head Waters of Missouri.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, June 11.—"Vic" Smith, the well-known hunter, and R. de B. Smith of this city have recently returned from a horseback trip through the Big Hole.

They left Anaconda last Saturday night and before their return covered a distance of more than 100 miles through the Big Hole ranch country.

R. de B. Smith is enthusiastic in his praises of that famous ranch country. "It is without a doubt, one of the finest in the world," said he in speaking of the matter last night. "The ranges this year are in better condition than they have been for years, notwithstanding the fact that they are unusually good there when poor in other places."

"The stock is in fine condition and it is worth a good deal simply to make the trip through and see for one's self. The ranchers there are in a most prosperous condition and many of them have things fixed up out of sight. In fact, the inside of their dwellings resemble a city residence more than they do ranch houses, and when one is miles from the railroad riding through a cattle country it is hardly expected to find the elegant places which they have."

"It has long been said that the Big Hole is the best cattle country in this portion of Montana. I don't think that it can be beat anywhere."

"There is water in plenty. A scarcity of that has never been known. The winters are comparatively mild and the hay crop out there is something enormous."

"Although in a great hurry during my recent trip, I saw much that opened my eyes."

JOHN B. WILLIAMS AND THE NEW SPRINKLER

He Started to Cross the Street Behind One and Walked Right Into the Water.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]

Anaconda, June 11.—Much has been written about the two new street sprinklers of Anaconda, but there is still something good that has not been mentioned. It will be noticed that the spray of water thrown by the new water wagon is in marked contrast to what Anacondans have been used to from the old ones.

The sprinklers of the past let the water fall almost perpendicularly to the ground and at that there was not more than enough to wet the neck of a thirsty man on a warm day.

The new machines have a force which causes the water to spurt out behind them a distance of about eight feet, and it's a good wet stream, too.

With the former machines on the street pedestrians had no fear of crossing close behind them; they never got wet. Yesterday afternoon John B. Williams was walking down Main street and as he came to Park avenue, he stopped a moment to allow one of the new sprinklers to pass. The instant the hind wheel had cleared him he started across the street and walked plump into the stream of water that was shooting from the rear of the sprinkler. Mr. Williams had forgotten that the new wagons were on duty.

It is a safe bet that in the future he will give them a wide berth. Similar instances have happened several times during the past week.

ATTY-GEN. DONOVAN'S TRIP PROVES USELESS

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, June 11.—W. James Johnson and Hugh Daly were arrested yesterday on a charge of gambling. They were set at liberty by Justice of the Peace Quane and their hearing was set for today. Under Sheriff Morgan sworn to the warrants against Johnson and Daly. The arrests were made at the request of Alderman Devine, who asked County Attorney Duffy to stop gambling in Anaconda.

Devine afterwards refused to swear to the warrants and said he knew nothing about any gambling in Anaconda. Daly and Johnson said that his complaint was made on account of a grievance which he had against them.

Attorney General of the State Donovan was called up by telephone and asked what should be done, and he ordered the arrest of Daly and Johnson and said he would come to Anaconda to help the prosecution. He arrived at Anaconda last night and said that he would aid in suppressing gambling here.

W. J. Johnson and Hugh Daly appeared in Justice Kennedy's court this morning to answer to the charge of violating the state law as regards the prohibition of gambling. Ed Devine was the only witness for the state.

The prosecution was conducted by County Attorney Duffy.

"Mr. Devine, I understand that you wired Attorney General Donovan that gambling was going on in Anaconda," said Mr. Duffy. "Have you any knowledge of gambling going on in this town?"

"No, sir," replied Devine. "I have not."

"You also wired the Butte Miner that gambling was wide open in Anaconda."

"I have no knowledge of gambling going on here," replied Devine.

He was asked if he knew of any one who could testify that gambling was going on. He replied that he did not.

As none of the officers or the county attorney knew of any witnesses, Justice Kennedy released Messrs. Johnson and Daly from arrest.

It is thought that Mr. Donovan will have a quiet talk with Devine as to the intentions of the latter in sending telegrams to the effect that gambling was going on, being unable to testify that way when put on the stand, thus making Mr. Donovan's trip here of no avail.

MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL MAKE UP

NO MORE WRANGLING IS TO BE TOLERATED IN THE SMELTER CITY.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]

Anaconda, June 11.—Mayor Stephens and the city council have made it all up and the white-winged bird of peace is perched on the flagstaff at the city hall. There was no demonstration at last night's meeting—no falling on one another's neck and weeping. The mayor made appointments and the council confirmed them. The mayor appointed Officer Foxworth, whom he had previously removed, and the council reciprocated by rescinding the ordinance which they had previously passed taking the appointive power away from the mayor, and all went merry as a marriage bell.

Mayor Stephens also appointed Theodore Hartz on the police force, and his appointment was immediately confirmed. The mayor announced that he would appoint Frank Dolan on the police force also, but when he found that the appointment did not meet with the favor of the council he gracefully withdrew. The mayor can withdraw gracefully when he wishes. He will name another officer at a later date.

The council adjourned sine die.

TODAY'S WALL STREET STOCKS

Western stocks also made good gains and the market showed marked firmness. Business was larger than for some time and there was a large distribution of dealings.

Bonds were irregular at noon. Trading was slightly sluggish, but the movement was not important. St. Paul and the Southwestern maintained a strong front, but the Pacific and some of the special ties lost ground. Colorado Fuel reached 2 1/2 after gaining 2.
