suit in the case of Alexander Mackel against H. R. Bartlett in his court last evening. Mackel sued to recover $1,500, as trustee in bankruptcy of Fred Bartlett, a bankrupt. The money was alleged to have been paid to H. R. Bartlett by Fred Bartlett when the latter went into bankruptcy, contrary to the bankruptcy law.

AN AUSPICIOUS OPENING OF A FINE BUTTE STORE

Morris & Co.'s Palatial Ice Cream and Confectionery Parlors Thronged With Pleased Purchasers.

A constant changing throng of people crowded the handsome parlors of Butte's finest confectionery from 11 p. m. the hour at which Morris & Co., 62 West Park street, the old established confectioners opened their doors until closing time. Expressions of delight were heard on all sides, not alone for the magnificent decorations which are in green and red, but for the tasty forms of the pastry and the luscious candies.

As a work of art the soda fountain is unsurpassed in the West and there are few, if any, finer soda fountains in the country. The firm has secured every known flavor of soda that it is possible to have and to what extent they have gone to secure flavors can be seen when it is known that they can serve a choice of 125 different flavors.

The store is divided into four departments. The soda fountain being upon the left on entering, then the pastry and confectionery counters. The ice cream parlors occupy one half of the store, and are divided from the store by a mahogany grill interwoven with green flowers and tastefully decorated. The furnishings of the ice cream parlors are all in mahogany, —both tables and chairs being of this expensive wood.

The walls and ceilings are in green and red with handsome electrical fixtures on the walls and ceiling. For years Morris & Co. have been among the peers of confectioners and their candy and ice cream as served yesterday show that the high character of their goods will be upheld, if not surpassed, in the future as in the past. The souvenirs distributed were such as to win lasting friends. From the crowds in the store today a more than successful business career can be predicted for Morris & Co.

POLICEMEN ARE NOT GUILTY

It Was the Fault of James Cusick That He Got Hit With Clubs.

Policemen Lyden, Barshaw, Roach and Hamilton were not guilty of brutality when they arrested James Cusick on East Galena street on May 2. This was the substance of the decision of the police committee, which met last night to investigate the case.

There were present Aldermen Gleason, Duggan, O'Brien, J. F. Ryan and Bachelor of the police committee, and Mayor Davey, Chief of Police Reynolds and City Attorney Lamb. Attorneys Hinkle and Wallace represented Cusick at the investigation.

Many witnesses to the affair testified, among them Cusick and the four policemen. The witnesses for the defense thought that the officers had overstepped their authority and had beaten Cusick with their clubs in a cruel manner.

Those who gave testimony in behalf of the policemen thought that the officers did only what they were forced to do in the matter. They said that Cusick resisted arrest.

Cusick, who is a large and powerful man, was arrested by Policeman Hamilton two weeks ago on East Galena street for vagrancy. He refused to be driven to the station in the patrol wagon, and the other officers were called to assist in the arrest.
Cusick insisted that he was roughly handled and asked for the investigation, which resulted in favor of the action of the officers.

woman's suffrage held in the rooms of the Business college in the Owsley block, permanent organization was effected as follows: President, Mrs. Green Majors; vice presidents, Mrs. Luke Kelley, Mrs.
Terrese and Mrs. J. S. Shropshire; recording secretary, Charles W. Dempster; assistant recording secretary, Miss Besie Hughes; corresponding secretary, Miss Gertrude Pearce; auditors, Mr. Haggerty and Mrs. Dunckle; treasurer, Rev. F.
Tonge; executive board, Mrs. Ella Knowles Haskell, Samuel L. Roberts, Mrs.
C. M. Reed, Carl J. Smith, Dr. Bertha Mackel, Mrs. J. G. Hamner, A. B. Keith, Peter Breen and Miss M. E. O'Neill. A committee on by-laws was elected and made up of Miss M. E. O'Neill, Mrs. K.
E. Grady and Luke Kelley.

The organization will be known as the Woman's Suffrage association.
After the election of officers, Miss Gail Laughlin, the national organizer, delivered an address.

"FROM SIRE TO SON" PLEASING

Manhattan Company Wins New Laurels in Presentation at the Grand.

Notwithstanding the fact that the fine weather attracted a considerable portion of the amusement-loving public to the gardens and the drives about the city last night it was a fair house that witnessed the presentation of Milton Noble's fine drama "From Sire to Son," at the Grand.
The Manhattan company, which is the strongest stock company that Butte has seen for years, added fresh laurels to its victory in "The Butterflies," in fact, it was generally conceded that the company was better in the play last night than in the pretty little comedy.

There was not a weak spot in the piece and at times the audience broke into applause at the excellent work of the company in some of the stirring situations with which it is replete.

Even to those whose preference is not for melodrama, "From Sire to Son" is entertaining. There is a world of humor running through the piece. The play will be repeated tonight.

The Northern Pacific attach an electric-lighted sleeper to their "North Coast

NO POLICE COURT TODAY

Miners' Union Celebration Requires Postponement of Business.

Judge Boyle did not hold police court today and all the officials at police headquarters took a day off except the jailer and the clerks.

The cases on the docket that were booked for today were continued over until tomorrow. The gambling cases have all been postponed and will not come up for hearing before Tuesday.

Mrs. McCrimmon's Dinner.

Mrs. F. W. McCrimmon entertained at an elaborate dinner last Saturday in honor of Mrs. W. L. Rennieck.
The table decorations were particularly pretty and novel, the centerpiece being of white lilies and sweet peas, massed in a soft summer girl's hat, trimmed in green ribbons and the sides caught up and tied with white liberty satin ribbon.

Covers were laid for twelve. The guests were: Mrs. W. L. Rennieck, Mrs. Will Clark, Jr., Mrs. B. Hamilton, Mrs. H.
Fred Holbrook, Mrs. C. W. Clark, Mrs. H.
W. Turner, Misses Viola and Elma Horgan,
