

Doings of Society.

THIS week has been one of pleasant flutter among the younger set. The all absorbing graduation or commencement gown has been the topic of conversation and the despair of the busy modiste.

A clutter of shimmering organdies and dainty laces has characterized the home of the "sweet-girl-graduate" and there has been as much of cutting and fitting as though there were to be as many brides.

The portentous day when the girl student says her valedictory to her Alma Mater has come and henceforth her Euclid and Caesar's bridges will give way to more varied, but not less arduous social duties. On these rare June days anything other than daintiness of gown would be a sacrilege and ill-timed for the maiden.

"Standing with reluctant feet"
"Where the brook and river meet," and for whom

"Womanhood and childhood fleet."
The occasion is attended to the tune of year and the beautiful weather commensurate with the occasion. It is meant that in days like these the graduate should find herself in all the bounding vigor and glory of her youth, released from her students books and laboring problems and free to give full rein to her wholesome energy in the splendid recreation of out-of-door sports with the enlivening accompaniment of social life.

All joy to the sweet girl graduate. May the fresh rosiness of the future as it appears to her now change, if it must change, only gradually to the tint of withered roses.

COMPLIMENTARY SIPPING.

Mrs. Fayette Harrington Entertains at Tea for Mrs. Geoffrey Lauzier.

Quite the event of the week was Mrs. Fayette Harrington's tea, complimentary to Mrs. Geoffrey Lauzier, who leaves Wednesday for Missoula.

Mrs. Harrington's tea was given Friday afternoon. The house was decorated throughout with roses, lilacs and asparagus and presented a lovely appearance. The tables were made beautiful with a profusion of dainty floral decorations and handsome appointments.

Pleasant Surprise Party.

Johnnie Rowe, a well-known electrician of Salt Lake City, who is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Hodje, was pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening.

An excellent entertainment was rendered by a quartet consisting of Messrs. Argall, Killo, Martin and Opie, accompanied by Miss Annie C. Martin at the piano.

Singing and games were indulged in till midnight when refreshments were served.

Where the Lillies Bloom.

Enconced in Reed's swell new drag a merry party of young folks on pleasure bent drove out of the city this morning bound for the Nine Mile house.

Horns, megaphones and all the noisy accompaniments of such an outing were in evidence and the musical ones of the crowd held in reserve the less hilarious musical instruments for the properly appreciative environment of the picnic

Musicals and Spread.

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the musical soiree and spread given by Miss Sadie Finnegan to the members of the W. O. W. Mandolin club and a few other friends, Wednesday evening. The rooms were veritable bowers of exquisite carnations and American beauties intermingled with greens.

The collation served was most delicious and the prettily decorated tables gave the dainty delicacies a tempting appearance.

The guests were Dr. J. Rinkel, Mr. E. Manning, Mr. Lew Thompson, Mr. Ed Thompson, all of the Mandolin club, and Miss Edith Foreman, Miss Mae Keto, Mrs. M. Wallace, Miss Hazel Wallace, Miss Stella Wiggins, Dr. J. E. Cowperthwaite, Mr. I. Gansberger and Mr. Ben Cosby.

Selections were given by the musical coterie and Miss Foreman contributed several cleverly executed piano numbers.

Miss Mae Keto's sweet soprano was also heard in acceptable solo.

which was to follow. Lunch hampers generously filled were also there and the party was fully equipped for a merry day of it. The tally-ho will return with the picnicers this evening.

The merry-makers are Miss Ellis Rickards, Misses Mamie and Ella Driscoll, Miss Isobel Jones, Miss Alice Busbee, Miss Julia Sanders, Misses Lila, Elza and Theo Russell, Mr. Henry Neumann, Mrs. John Corlette, Mr. Jack Wortman, Mr. Harry Tallant, Mr. Wilfred Johnston, Mr. Frank Johnson, Mr. Wey Pillsbury, Mr. Marvin Jenkins and Mr. Guy Davidson. Mrs. J. K. McDonald acts as chaperone for the party.

TALLY-HO PARTY AND PICNIC.

Grade Graduates Celebrate Merrily the Loosening of School Bonds.

It was the biggest tallyho in town that left from in front of the Lennox this morning, laden with as merry a party as one might find in many a day's journey. Miss Hazel Wallace was the happy hostess.

Miss Wallace and a number of others in the party graduated this week from the eighth grade and the tallyho party and picnic is given to her friends in celebration of release from books and problems.

The tallyho took the 23 merry ones to the Nine Mile house, where the pleasures of picnicking were immediately entered upon. They will return late this afternoon.

Mrs. M. Wallace, mother of the hostess, chaperoned the party and is a particularly acceptable chaperone at luncheon time, for

Smith, Mr. Jim Baldwin, Mr. Mansel Boyle, Mr. Phil Carr, Mr. Beebe, Attorney General Donovan of Great Falls, Mr. W. Krum and Mr. Henry Neumann.

LUNCHEON AND MUSICALS.

Splendid Baritone from New York Delights the Music Lovers.

Mrs. Sam T. Johnstone was hostess at a charming luncheon, supplemented by a most delightful musicale, Monday, the affair being in compliment to Richard Ridgely of New York, who was her guest during the early part of the week.

Mrs. Johnstone's rooms were bowers of floral beauty, the mingling of the sweet scents of roses, lilacs and carnations, which were profusely used in drawing-room and dining-room, delighting the senses both in appearance and fragrance.

The luncheon table was prettily decorated with vases of pink and white roses, flanking a splendid centerpiece of massed pink and white sweet peas and smilax. The table, with its elegant appointments, charming decorations and dainty viands, presented a most inviting appearance.

American Beauty roses in fragrant and beautiful profusion were used in the drawing-room. The guests at luncheon were: Richard Ridgely, Mrs. J. H. Dunston of Anaconda, Mrs. C. W. Clark and Mrs. Fred Holbrook.

The supplementary musicale was enjoyed by a circle of the music lovers of Butte. Mr. Ridgely, who was formerly with the Metropolitan English Grand Opera company of New York, delighted those present with several selections from German and Italian opera, also with music from the classics. His splendid baritone voice was indeed a treat, and each favor was met with repeated calls for an encore. Mrs. W. Barrie Hamilton's splendid contralto was heard in solo and Mrs. Jack Willoughby Thomas favored the callers with her clear soprano. Mrs. Charles Clark and Mrs. J. H. Dunston were accompanists. In addition to the luncheon party the guests were: Mrs. W. Barrie Hamilton, Mrs. F. W. McCrimmon, Mrs. Charles Morris of Pony, Mrs. M. L. Cunningham, Mrs. W. L. Rennieck, Mrs. Charles Coppenharve, Mrs. Will Clark, Mrs. Geoffrey Lauzier, Mrs. W. W. Dixon and Mrs. Frank Boucier.

Dinner and Dancing.

W. W. Wishon added more fame to his already famous reputation as a host Thursday evening by his dinner given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Buckley. The drawing room decorations were of carnations, and those of the table were exquisite roses and ferns. The place cards were hand-painted and the favors were dainty corsage bouquets of roses.

The Italian orchestra was in attendance, and after dinner the guests spent the evening in dancing. Those entertained were: Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Noon, Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Buckley, Misses Mae and Margaret Reinhardt, Miss Agnes Holland, Miss Mamie Dillon, Miss Pearl Hanson, Sellers Largey and Carroll Harrison.

Concert and Social.

At the Presbyterian church, which had been decorated for the occasion, the Christian Endeavorers gave an entertaining concert, followed by an enjoyable social.

The Butte High School orchestra contributed music and Miss Drea Johnstone charmed the gathering with her sweet soprano voice in "Just Because I Love You" responding also to an encore.

Several other musical numbers of merit were given, the affair being a thorough success.

Gives "Elephant" Party.

Mrs. Alexander Anderson entertained at an "elephant" party Tuesday afternoon at her home on East Mercury street.

The principal feature of the program was a contest entered into by the score of guests with much laughter and gusto. A large of black cloth was given each guest, together with white braid, which was to be sewn to the cloth in the design of an elephant.

Mrs. Charles Farrell turned out a very

Children at Clark Home.

Bright illuminations and the general atmosphere of festivity characterized the Will A. Clark, Jr., home last night, and a wealth of beautiful flowers and greenery betokened the merriment within. It was a children's party, given by Mrs. Clark in honor of little Rita Bellinger of Spokane, who is visiting Miss Julia Horgan.

About 45 little boys and girls enjoyed the Clark hospitality. The large ballroom had been prettily trimmed with flowers and ferns and the little folks danced from 7 to 11 o'clock to the strains of a hidden orchestra. They were then summoned to the spacious dining room, which was aglow with bright lights twinkling through massed greenery and flowers, and a most delightful repast was set before them. At midnight they were promptly whirled away in carriages, the memory of a most delightful party to linger with them in their dreams.

Class Dance for the '02's.

Renshaw hall was beautifully decorated and brightly illuminated last night for the High School hope, at which the class of '02 entertained the class of '02.

The hosts attended to the arrangements in a manner strongly appreciated and the hop was an occasion of fun and jollity.

The decorations were furnished with a lavish hand and artistically distributed, and an abundant supply of ices and refreshments a la buffet regaled the dancers throughout the evening. Bergstrom's orchestra was in attendance and filled the hall with the merry strains of measure waltz and deus temp.

The affair was most enjoyable and a thorough artistic success.

The class banquet will be the next social affair in High School circles.

Luncheon at the Gardens.

Mrs. H. I. Williams entertained a number of her friends in a delightful manner Wednesday. Covers were laid for eight at an elaborate luncheon at the Columbia Gardens cafe, the luncheon apartment being beautifully decorated in fragrant pink and white carnations, with graceful clusters of the blossoms nodding over massed bases of smilax and fern leaves. The favors were dainty little bouquets of pansies tied with purple ribbon.

The guests were: Mrs. Henry Root, Mrs. W. Barrie Hamilton, Mrs. Bruce Kremer, Mrs. J. V. Long, Mrs. James W. Forbes, Mrs. Lawrence Harris, and Mrs. Geoffrey Lauzier.

Mrs. McCrimmon's Dinner.

Mrs. F. W. McCrimmon entertained at an elaborate dinner last Saturday in honor of Mrs. W. L. Rennieck.

The table decorations were particularly pretty and novel, the centerpiece being of white lilacs and sweet peas, massed in a soft summer girl's hat, trimmed in green ribbons and the sides caught up and tied with white liberty satin ribbon.

Covers were laid for twelve. The guests were: Mrs. W. L. Rennieck, Mrs. Will Clark, Jr., Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, Mrs. Fred Holbrook, Mrs. C. W. Clark, Mrs. H.

Her Ninth Birthday.

Little Ruth Martin celebrated her ninth birthday right merrily at the apartments of her parents in the Bee Hive block, a goodly number of little friends assisting in the merry-making. The rooms were prettily decorated with honeysuckle, wild

OF THE COMING EVENTS.

Shadows of the Social Whirl That Are Cast Before.

Those "golfiacs" are awakening. The consequential event of the golf season will be the elaborate golf luncheon to be given at the club house Monday.

Florist Ochler has the decorations in charge and it is understood the luncheon room will be converted into a floral bower. The affair will be one of the most elaborate and fashionable of the season.

The younger set too, now that the pleasant flutter of graduation is over, will render upon its vacation gaieties and the round of hops and tallyho parties has already begun.

Baseball is becoming tremendously popular and there is scarcely a game but has its enthusiastic grand stand audience. This wholesome sport deserves the popularity it is winning in Butte, and stationed, as the grounds are, at the greenest and prettiest spot in all Silver Bow county, the sport should be additionally attractive because of the pleasant appurtenances.

And Mansfield at last! Tuesday evening will find Sutton's Broadway filled with Butte's elite to pay tribute to the artist and witness the acting of the artist. Beauty will probably have one of the most fashionable audiences of the season. And there will be fashion beyond the footlights also, or, at least, much stage fashion and elaborateness of costume. Mansfield is said to be a lavish and most particular dresser and the rich costumes displayed by himself and his entire company will dazzle and bewilder.

Who Is Back From Deer Lodge Where She Has Been Attending School.

she had provided an abundant supply of good things to eat. Miss Sadie Finnegan assisted in serving the lunch and Miss Winnie Squires, teacher of the Eighth grade, was the only other "grown-up" in the party.

Personal Notes.

Dr. Bertha Mackel and Miss Lottie left Thursday evening for St. Paul, where they will spend several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davis left on Friday of last week for Spokane. Their trip will be a brief one as they are expected home early in the coming week.

Miss Mary G. Kellet returned to her Butte home Sunday evening. Miss Kellet, since her graduation from the Emerson school of oratory in Boston some weeks ago, has been visiting in Pennsylvania.

Miss Madge Sheehan, the popular trained nurse, has returned to Butte, having spent several months in the east with Mrs. A. J. Davis.

Mr. Paul Pratt, who has been attending the School of Mines during the past year and who made a brilliant record in his work there, left on Friday of last week for Libby, Montana, where he will enjoy the various summer recreations of that place.

Miss Maude Carlisle, niece of Mrs. H. S. Clark of Butte, was married a short time ago at Pueblo, Colorado, to Mr. Charles Milton Mock of Chicago. The bride's sister, Miss May Carlisle, is well known in Butte society circles. The wedding was a very brilliant one socially.

Mrs. Arthur B. Clark and two children have gone to Minneapolis to spend the summer.

Mrs. Charles Morris of Pony is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Wantler, this week.

The Kismet Entertained.

Mrs. Ignatius Donnelly entertained the Kismet club Monday afternoon at the Donnelly residence on North Washington street. The rooms were tastefully decorated with cut flowers in pretty effect. Mrs. Donnelly is noted in society circles of friends for her dainty luncheons and the collation served after the contest was up to her usual standard.

Mrs. Fred Squires was the fortunate winner of the first prize this week, her reward being a pretty watercolor tastefully framed. Mrs. David Dickson won the second prize, a silver cream ladle. Mrs. C. V. Fulton was awarded the consolation, a linen handkerchief.
