

M'DONOUGH'S HIT LANDED VICTORY

BUTTE BOY FROM DUBLIN GULCH IMMORTALIZES HIMSELF IN YESTERDAY'S GAME.

A hit was needed badly For Butte was in the ruck. When up came Miley gladly And hit the Portland Duck.

Now they sing his praises - From Gardens to the gulch, For 'twas Miley's hit bejassus Sure he hails from Dublin-gulch.

It was eminently fitting that Miley McDonough, a resident Butte boy, should make the hit in the ninth inning which pulled victory out of what seemed certain defeat, and immortalized himself with the thousands of spectators who saw the close finish and the triumph of the home team over the Portlanders yesterday.

When McDonough drove the sharp liner safely between short and second in the ninth inning and two men came in, tying the score, 3,500 well-seasoned rooters went wild. The glory of the victory must, however, be shared with "Lefty" Houtz, for it was while he was at bat that the winning run was scored.

It was a gratifying and hard-earned victory, the credit for which is due every member of the team, for they played ball like trojans, never quitting until they snatched victory out of apparent defeat. Roach, Butte's new pitcher, delivered the goods, out-classing Salisbury. He worked hard and was steady.

Enthusiasm Was Rampant.

The scene at the close of yesterday's game has probably never had an equal in Butte. There was close to 4,000 persons on the grounds. Of course they were all loyal to the home team and even one whose sympathy might have been with Portland could not but feel constrained to applaud so well-earned victory on the part of the Butte team.

The pent-up expectancy and enthusiasm broke loose when the winning run came in. The yelling of the crowd could be heard at the race track and the people there knew that Butte had pulled out of a tight hole and had won the game.

When Roach crossed the plate and the game was won, the crowd rushed into the field and congratulated the Butte players, carrying some of them to the dressing rooms on their shoulders.

How It Was Done.

Here is the way it happened in the ninth inning when the Buttes won:

Treadway was the first man up for Butte. He batted a fly, which Hupp caught, and one man was out. But McIntyre, who had been hitting impotently into the air, batted safely this time. Zearfoss then smashed a hot grounder to Anderson at third. Anderson, by phenomenal work, gathered in the ball, but threw it over the first baseman's head. McIntyre got around to third. There were now two men on bases with one out, and both runs needed to tie the score. The Portlanders were playing well up, and that gave McDonough the chance that he took advantage of. He rapped a sharp liner through short and second. Two runs came in, and the cheerleaders went crazy. Roach tried to sacrifice himself to advance McDonough a base, but forced McDonough at second, himself reaching first safely. Then Kane batted safely to right field. Roach reached second and Kane first. Hupp fumbled the ball in his over-anxiety to get it quickly into action and Roach went to third. It now devolved upon Houtz to bat in the winning run, and there is no better man for the job. But it came before he got action. Van Buren let a ball pass him, and Roach came galloping home. Kane went to third on the same pass, but was left there, as Houtz flew out to Muller.

Butte, as usual, started off well, scoring one run in the first inning. There was nothing doing for the home team again until the ninth when the three runs which won the game were made.

Portland Held Lead.

Portland tightened up in the fourth by scoring two runs. In the sixth another Portland man crossed the plate.

It looked like a forlorn hope for Butte to get three runs in the ninth considering the steady game the visitors were playing. The uncertainty of a ball game and the reward of a team that never quits until the last dog is hung, was exemplified in the following score:

Helena, Mont., June 14.—Helena made it three straight from Seattle yesterday afternoon by winning a close and exciting game. Seattle outbatted Helena and at two different innings had a man on third and another on second with but one out, but each time the fast fielding of the Helenas was effective and no additional runs were scored. Third baseman Saxe, fresh from Chicago showed up in great form while pitcher Slagle, who arrived yesterday from Los Angeles was effective and steady. Right fielder Hannivan was another new man in the game and was eminently satisfactory.

GOLD HEELS WINS TEN THOUSAND SUBURBAN

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] New York, June 14.—Gold Heels, the favorite at 7 to 5, won the $10,000 Suburban at Sheepshead Bay this afternoon. This splendid horse won handily from Pentecost, the only real contender in the race. Advance Guard was never heard of in the race.

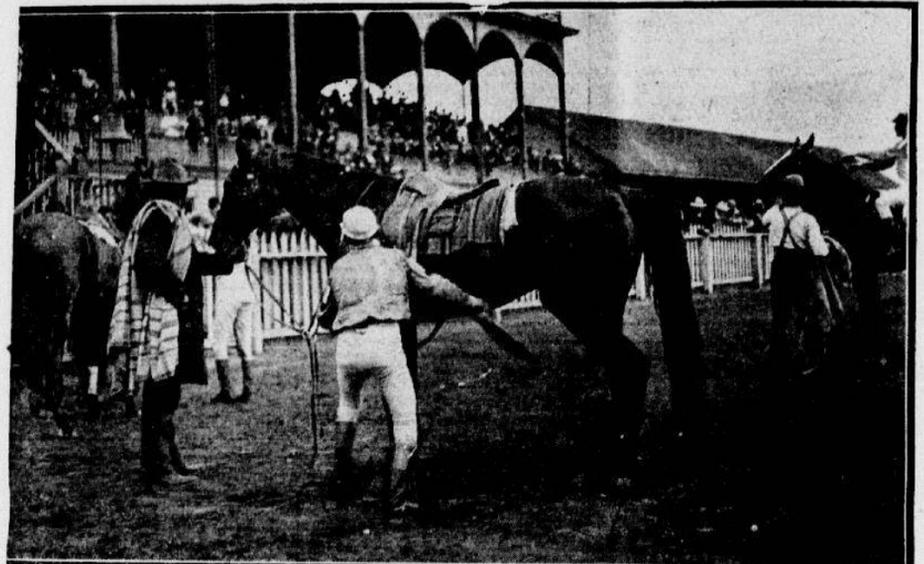

Pentecost finished second, Blues third and Sadie S. third, 18 lengths away. Contend got off in the lead, Blues second and Pentecost third. Before the quarter was reached Gold Heels came up with a rush. At the half Gold Heels led, with Pentecost and Monograph sticking a close second and third. Blues forged to the lead at the mile, but Gold Heels was second by a neck and Pentecost third, half a length away. Gold Heels led into the stretch by a length, Blues second and Pentecost third. Gold Heels won driving, Pentecost second, Blues third and Sadie S. fourth.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] New York, June 14.—The Suburban handicap will be run today, the opening day of the Coney Island Jockey club at Sheepshead Bay. The heavy rain of last night did not do any substantial harm to the track and the sunshine of the early morning aided in solidifying the surface. The weather early in the day was partly cloudy, and there was a possibility of showers. If rain does not fall before the race the track will be almost perfect. It is expected the race will be run about 4 o'clock, and that all of the 12 announced candidates for the $8,000 prize will start.

Handicappers' list: Starters. Weight. Jockey. cap. Odds. Advance Guard, 119 Bullman 100 4. Contend, 99 Cochran 98 15. Pentecost, 97 Redfern 97 10. Monograph, 100 Shea 97 15. The Suburban this year is regarded as so open that any of a half dozen candidates has a chance of winning. Advance Guard, Pentecost, Gold Heels and Contend each have a large following, with Advance Guard a leading favorite. If it rains Herbert is expected to be a favorite.

NO COURSING SUNDAY

There will be no coursing at the West Side park tomorrow afternoon as all the rabbits escaped from the yard at the park this morning.

Someone removed a board from the enclosure in which the hares were penned and they all escaped. The act was committed sometime during last night.

It is believed to be the work of some person who looks upon coursing as a cruel sport.

The escape of the rabbits will necessitate the postponement of the finals in the stakes until a week from tomorrow.

Coursing claimed its share of the patronage of the crowd yesterday.

The grand stand was packed and the betting ring was a jostling mass of humanity throughout the afternoon.

Weather conditions up to 5 o'clock were all that could be desired. The last events, however, were run in a drizzling rain.

Chilco reclaimed himself yesterday by defeating Dartmoor Dan easily.

Grafton, owned by Pascal Poe, a fine pug recently brought here from Colorado, proved one of the surprises of the day, beating Dartmoor Dan easily.

The Scout, a recent importation, was something of a disappointment.

Carrie G, Frisco, Lady Newark and Lady Crawford all ran well.

IDEAL WEATHER FOR ST. LOUIS DERBY TODAY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] St. Louis, June 14.—The second most valuable racing in the West—the St. Louis derby, worth $15,000—will be run off this afternoon under most favorable auspices, judging from present conditions. All the prospects are now that the day will be an ideal one from a racing standpoint.

The weather is hot and the track fast, and it is expected that 75,000 people will be out to see the great race.

The entries—A. Cahn's Terra Firma, 115 (Dominick); John W. Shorr & Co.'s Flora Pomona, 117 (J. Woods); Burns & Waterhouse's Corrigan, 119 (J. Kansch); B. Schreiber's Otis, 119 (Singleton); G. C. Bennett & Co.'s Little Scout, 119 (Helgeson); S. B. Street's Samba, 102 (W. Dale); E. & L. Bohmann's Lefaire, 102 (Bell); Turney Bros.' Glenwater, 107 (J. Matthews).

Golf Championship. New York, June 14.—Official announcement of the National Amateur Golf championship conditions has been made by Maurin Ballou, secretary of the United States Golf association. The tournament will be played at the links of the Glenview club near Chicago from July 15 to 19 and entries must be received by the secretary not later than 6 p. m., July 8. The championship cup valued at $1,000 and four medals are the prizes offered.

WITHDRAW FROM THE DERBY

New York, June 14.—Green B. Morris has declared his horses, Homestead and Old England out of the American Derby to be run at Washington park, Chicago, a week from today.

This announcement came as a surprise to turfmen generally as it had been expected that at least one of the horses named would carry the Morris colors in the Western classic.

"I decided not to send my colts to Chicago," said Mr. Morris, "because I am afraid the track will be muddy and they would take the trip for nothing, as neither likes the mud. Then they have valuable stake engagements at Sheepshead Bay next week and I thought it better to run them here than to take a chance by going west."

Homestead and Old England are in the $20,000 Tidal stakes to be run at Sheepshead the same day the American derby will be decided.

Jockey Donegan Will Die. St. Louis, June 14.—Jockey Donegan, injured at the track here, will die as the result of injuries received yesterday.

Balzac, upon whom Donegan had the mount, stumbled and fell as the field was round the stable turn. Pettijohn, the favorite, fell over Balzac and upon Donegan, who sustained a horrible fracture of the skull. His death is momentarily expected. E. Matthews, who had the mount on Pettijohn, was unhurt.

SEVEN SPLENDID RACES YESTERDAY

DESPITE OTHER ATTRACTIONS RACES CLAIMED THEIR SHARE OF THE CROWD.

While those who attended the races yesterday would have rather picked a few more winners, for it is the jingle of the coin in the pocket that makes an afternoon at the track enjoyable, the opening matinee given by the Montana Jockey club was a success, and despite numerous counter attractions about 2,500 persons witnessed seven good races.

There is a good deal of superstition in the makeup of those who wager on races, and perhaps it did not occur to them that yesterday was Friday, the 13th.

Sir Dougall was really about the only "good thing" that the talent got onto, and the books were pretty hard hit on Peter Sheridan's horse winning by a scant head from Saul of Tarsus in the second race. Matt Hogan led into the stretch, but when within 75 yards from the finish he quit like a steer in the road.

The card was a good one, and the association no doubt lost money, as liberal purses were hung up and won.

There was but one bad feature. It was the delay at the post in every race except one. While no intentional advantage was given any of the horses several of the owners complained bitterly that their horses were all out before they got away from the barrier.

W. P. Maxwell acted as starter. He says that it is not in his line. When Mr. Chinn will do the starting when the meeting opens next Saturday, it will be different.

It was not the best kind of weather for racing. It was rather raw and at 5 o'clock rain set in and the two last races were run in the mud.

The fog won the first race in a gallop outclassing the field. Even at the short price of 1 to 3 considerable money went upon this colt owned by W. B. Sink, Jr.

Amzi at 30 to 1 won in the last race, but there was but a few who thought the animal had a chance.

Wolhurst was the class and favorite in the fifth race. There was a field of 16 horses. Clio won by a head, but Wolhurst tried hard and gave his backers a run for their money.

The strongest finish in any of the races was made by Sea Queen in the fourth race, pulling away from Hagerdon and the bunch.

There was an accident at the barrier in the first race when Winslett was thrown from the saddle and Rowan from Phyz. The latter boy was disabled for the day.

The owners of Abba L. and Strangler claim that their horses were cut down in rounding the stretch. Abba L. gave Judge Thomas a hard race. Judge Thomas rewarded his backers and proved all that was claimed for him. He was tipped strong.

Ralph Tozer was the presiding judge and his decisions gave entire satisfaction.
