Bozeman.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Bozeman, June 21.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gottschalk was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday afternoon, at which time Mr. E. B. Hoffman and Miss Ellen Gottschalk were united in the bonds of matrimony. Rev. Douglas Sutton of Livingston read the impressive service in the presence of the relatives and a few friends of the bride and groom. The interior of the house was very tastefully decorated in honor of the occasion. The bride wore an elegant and becoming white wedding gown, and the groom the conventional black. From 8 until 10 o'clock in the evening a reception was held at the home of Senator and Mrs. Hoffman, on the corner of Babcock street and Tenth avenue. Mrs. Hoffman and Mrs. Gottschalk and Senator Hoffman and Mr. Gottschalk received with the bride and groom and there was a very large number of friends present at the reception. The rooms were decorated with cut flowers and potted plants and delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman were the recipients of a great many beautiful presents. They will be at home to their friends at their residence, on the corner of Olive street and Grand avenue.

The marriage of Miss Evelyn Corcoran and Mr. Martin A. Gary was solemnized at the church of the Holy Rosary Wednesday morning. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Gallagher immediately after early mass. There were a number of intimate friends and relatives present at the wedding, after which a wedding breakfast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray left on the morning train for Butte and other Western points for their honeymoon trip. The bride has been for several terms a very popular teacher in the westside school and has many warm friends in Bozeman. The groom is a prosperous young business man, being one of the firm of Gary Brothers, grocers.

The marriage of Miss Alona Tudor, daughter of Deputy Sheriff David Tudor, and Mr. G. W. Henry occurred at the home of the bride's parents on West Lamme street Tuesday afternoon. Rev. H. A. James of the First Methodist church officiating. There were a few friends present at the wedding and immediately after the ceremony a very nice luncheon was served to the wedding guests. Mr. and Mrs. Henry will make their home on a ranch belonging to Deputy Sheriff Tudor, west of the city.

The annual picnic of the Sons of Hermann was held at the Vogel grove near the East Gallatin river Sunday. The picnic was largely attended by the members of the order and their families and had a very enjoyable day.

Rev. Douglas Sutton of Livingston came to the city Wednesday to be present at the wedding of Mr. E. B. Hoffman and Miss Ellen Gottschalk, the resident rector. Mr. F. B. Lewis, being unable on account of illness to perform the ceremony.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Missoula, June 21.—Thrice have the conventions of the Episcopal clergy of the state been held in Missoula, the third occasion being this past week. The city has been gay with sunshine and flowers. It is evident that the clergy enjoy coming to the garden spot of Montana and the welcome never fails them. This time the church was to be consecrated. At each service Sunday there was a large attendance. The edifice was properly decorated in white and green. Fifty clergymen, fully vested, added to the impressiveness of the service, and Bishop Brewer formally dedicated the church structure to the service of God. A new soloist was given a hearing at the morning service Sunday. Miss Cora Webster, whose voice is a clear, high soprano, was a surprise to most who had not heard her sing. The solos were rendered by Lynde Catlin, Leslie Wood, Miss Della Harding and Miss Cora Webster. Mrs. F. M. Cronkite also sang. Miss Webster rendered "Rejoice With Me" very beautifully.

Tuesday evening Mrs. J. L. McBride gave a reception for the delegates and local church members at her home on East Front street. Mrs. McBride was assisted by the ladies of the guild, and an enjoyable evening resulted.

One of the features of the convention was the meeting of the Women's Parochial and Missionary society of the church, with fifty-seven delegates present. At this session Mrs. Lillian Race of Great Falls read a paper, "How to Interest in the Guild Auxiliary"; Mrs. Gesner of Billings read, "Bishop Patterson," "The Vision," an original poem by Miss Mabel Earle of Deer Lodge was extremely interesting. Mrs. Mary Reed Corbin of Missoula read "A Trip to China."

Wednesday Needlecraft met with Mrs. Souders in the Gibson block. The guests of the club were: Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. McIntyre and little daughter Lucile, Mrs. N. Hyde and little Miss Nona Hyde, Miss Winnie Feighner and little Miss Aileen Collins. This jolly club will soon adjourn for the summer, to the great regret of all who have enjoyed each Wednesday for months. Mrs. Frank Thomas entertains the members next week at her home in South Missoula.

Wednesday night R. Blinn Owen entertained the members of the Christian church choir at his home in North Missoula. The occasion was pronounced to have been exceedingly enjoyable.

Thursday the Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church met with Mrs. W. P. Mills, at her home on the ranch near Lo Lo. Many who are not members of the society were invited and took advantage of the opportunity to ride into the country. Thursday was the day selected by Mrs. Gus Maroz for a gathering of friends to play cards. The event was given at her pleasant home on East Cedar street and was a bright spot among the other pleasures of the week. Seven tables were employed for whist and other games for the non-card playing guests were provided. About forty guests were present.

Wednesday evening Miss Edna Parsons gave a "ping-pong" party to several members of the "Buds" of Missoula and a few of their friends. Cards also were part of MISS GOLDIE FULLER of Missoula.

Anaconda.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Anaconda, June 21.—Among summer social events thus far, was the card party given last Wednesday evening by Miss Evans at her home, 522 Hickory street. It was a strictly full dress affair. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and after the games a dainty and exquisite luncheon was served. There were 18 couples present, and the spacious home of Miss Evans was thrown open to them from top to bottom.

The first ladies' prize was won by Mrs. R. T. Williams, the first gentleman's prize by Mr. Walter Clark, and the consolation prize by Miss Louis Webb. The booby prize was awarded to Mr. Van Liew.

It is with regret that the Anaconda society people learn of the intended departure from this city of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hickey, they having determined to make their future home in Nampa, Idaho, where Mr. Hickey has accepted a position in the Bank of Nampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Hickey have long been identified with the leading social circle of this city and their departure will be a distinct loss. In musical circles also the absence of Mr. Hickey will be felt to a degree, as he is an accomplished musician.

The game of ping-pong has fastened its charm upon the society folk of Anaconda, and is fast becoming a favorite. There are several ping-pong outfits in the city and it bids fair to become the social rage here.

A large number of Anaconda theatergoers went to Butte last Tuesday night to see Richard Mansfield, who appeared at Sutton's Broadway theater. Among those who attended the performance were: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Spencer, Mrs. Pogson, Mrs. James Shields, Mrs. F. I. Caines, Mrs. W. B. Webb, Miss Louise Webb, Miss May Spencer, Miss Lillian Shields; Messrs. Norbeck, H. H. Durston, F. H. Clinton, I. C. Williams, J. Larabee, Magnus, James Whitehill, J. H. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lewis, Mrs. L. G. Smith, Mrs. J. H. Duffy and numerous others.

There will also be quite a crowd to attend the first performance of Kathryn Kidder at Sutton's Broadway theater tomorrow night.
