CUSICK HEARS COURT'S INDICTMENT STOLIDLY

Makes No Comment When Bill Accusing Him of Deliberate Murder Is Read.

James Cusick was brought before Judge McClerman this morning to listen to the reading of the bill of information filed against him by the county attorney.

The bill charges Cusick with deliberately and with premeditation shooting and killing Thomas Baggs.

The bill is equivalent to an indictment for murder in the first degree.

Cusick was represented by his attorney, Ed Booth, who entered an appearance, and the court set next Monday as the time for the defendant to enter his plea.

As yet Attorney Booth has declined to outline his defense, but it is pretty generally understood that there are plenty of men to swear that Cusick has been insane since his fight with the police officers and the clubbing he received.

In court Cusick preserved the same stolid demeanor which has characterized his actions for the time of his arrest.

WITHDRAWS FROM GODDESS CONTEST

MISS THOMPSON WILL BE OUT OF CITY JULY FOURTH AND IS OUT OF RACE.

LARGE SUM OF MONEY TAKEN IN FOR TOURNEY

Liberty's Prototype Will Have a Gown Worthy of Her Exalted Station—Civil and Military Organizations Desiring to Take Part in the Parade Should Notify the Committee at Once.

From now until Monday night it will be a three-handed fight in the Goddess of Liberty contest. Miss Thompson, one of the young women who was honored by her friends and was making good time in the voting, has withdrawn from the contest, as she will be absent from the city on the Fourth. This leaves Miss Kilgallon, Miss Bowman and Miss Zinn in the contest, all three running pretty close together. Miss Kilgallon leads with 910, Miss Mabel Zinn is second with 868, and Miss Bowman is a good third with 777.

As the votes registered for the young ladies cost their friends and admirers a considerable sum, it will be seen that a comfortable sum has already been realized from the contest.

Before tomorrow evening it is safe to predict that each of the contestants will have a hundred dollars' worth of votes, and as it is believed that all three are holding back a number to spring at the end of the contest, it is probable that when the last vote is turned in at 7:30 Monday evening the present treasury from the Goddess tourney will be almost doubled.

In response to the invitation of the committee several societies and unions have signified their intention of joining in the parade. The Elks will take advantage of the parade to show how they can march.

The Goddess' Gown.

Butte's Goddess will have a robe that is worthy her high station. The committee has already arranged for its construction. As it will be an elaborate affair it may rightly be said that it will be something out of the ordinary. For material, style, regal beauty and general magnificence of appearance, it will surpass any other gown in Butte, and when the fortunate young lady don it she will be a goddess "revealed" sure enough.

Captain D'Gay Stivers, who has been chosen as marshal of the day, is anxious to arrange the order of march and requests the secretaries of all civic and military bodies desiring to take part in the parade to notify Dr. Cowperthwaite, Rooms 9 and 11, in the Owsley block.

Cash Prizes to Be Given.

Cash prizes will be given for the best-looking turnout in the parade. Merchants are also invited to put floats in the display, and already many have signified their intention of having elaborate turnouts.

Rocky Butte has been chosen as the place on which the fireworks will be set off and the stars and the Milky Way are hereby notified to look to their luster on the night of the Fourth, for the fireworks committee is an energetic and capable one and will have a display that night that will make Butte famous and Rocky Butte radiant as the Northern Lights.

The Little Ones.

Mrs. C. V. Norcross, who will have charge of the car of state, today announced the names of the little girls who will ride triumphant on the car in the procession.

They are: Sadie Russell, Minnie Combs, Catharine Sullivan, Emma Williamson, Jennie Dunckel, Bertha Barron, Annie Meyers, Mabel Collins, Mabel Christie, Alma Beneeld, Victoria Nedred, Mary Murphy, Nellie Kelly, Ida Westbrook, Eva Kemner, Mamie Dolan, Millicent Gisert, Gracie Myers, Lucella Payne, Alice Hopkins, Mabel Termouth, Ella Smitheman, Mabel Toy, Gertrude Elliott, Mary Welsh, Bessie Bailey, Blodwen Johns, Fay Wright, Mamie Leonard, Edna Roberts, Elsie Reiser, Maggie Hehler, Blanche Cook, Cora Vedon, Inez Bray, Elsie Nichols, Mamie O'Neill, Stella Payne, Lillian Rickards, Edith Nute, Hagar Noe, Ellen Fagan, Lizzie Lundskil, Katie Boyles, Francis Schmitz, Annie Burch, Eveline Thomas, Mamie Holand, Nora Purcell, Hilda Muntzer, Katie Leary, Annie Mulholland and Agnes Cugin.

HARVEY THE DARK IS STILL A KING

COURT CHOPS CHOICE CHUNK OUT OF HOLMES' CROWN, BUT CANNOT HOLD HIM.

CRAP GAME MUST HAVE CONDUCTED ITS OWNSELF

Eight of the Monarch's Minions, However, Arrested in the Raid in Which the Calm and Even Tenor of the Royal Way Was Temporarily Disturbed, Are to Be Tried.

Harvey Holmes is still a "King." He hasn't been dethroned as yet, although County Attorney Breen this morning made an effort in Judge McClerman's court to chop out a chunk of the darktown crown.

It was in the case of the state against Holmes, James Jefferson and Will Jackson, charged with conducting gambling games at No. 128 South Arizona street.

The only witness who showed up for the state was Deputy Sheriff Walsh, who testified to finding a crap game in progress when he and Deputy Sheriff Fitzsimmons raided the "colored club."

Walsh could not swear that the place was owned by Harvey Holmes or the other defendants and as the complaint set forth the defendants as owners, Attorney Booth for Holmes, moved the court to advise the jury to acquit the defendants. The attorney admitted there was gambling going on but set up that the owners were not identified. The court took the same view of the case and advised under the instruction to acquit written by Holmes' attorney.

Witnesses Did Not Appear.

Deputy Sheriff Fitzsimmons did not appear and neither Jackson or Jefferson were present during the proceedings.

County Attorney Breen interposed to say that every one knew that Holmes conducted the place.

"I saw in the papers where Holmes had sold the place," said Judge McClerman with a smile.

"You saw also where the other man was arrested," retorted Mr. Breen.

"Well we can assume anything in this case," remarked the judge as he gave the instructions to the jury which returned a verdict without leaving their seats.

The cases against Holmes and Fisher in police court were continued at the request of Attorney Booth in order to permit of the presence of the men in the district court. The cases were set for trial by Judge Boyle next Tuesday.

All of the eight colored men arrested in the raid on the "colored club" by the police were released by Judge Boyle on their own recognizance this morning to appear for trial next Tuesday.
