

THE INTER MOUNTAIN'S ANACONDA DEPARTMENT

ALL ARE WAITING FOR THE FOURTH

ANACONDA'S BIG DAY WILL BE AT MOUNTAIN VIEW PARK.

BUTTE AND HELENA ALSO IN THE RUNNING

Different People Have Different Ways of Celebrating the Day—Those From the City Want to Go to the Country, and Those From the Country Are Dead Anxious to Get in Town.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 1.—Anaconda's big time on July 4 will be at Mountain View park, where the Twentieth Century Athletic club will hold forth and have a gala time in the way of athletic events, amusements, fireworks in the evening and the other things that go to make up a successful independence day celebration.

But lots of them will go to Butte and lots of them to Helena to be present at the dedication of the new state capitol building.

Mountain View is in the running big, however, simply because it is a short ride from the city. There's a good time doing when you get there and whenever one tires of the pop of the firecracker the sight of toy balloons and the surging mob, all that is necessary is to duck into the woods or take a train back to town. Either of these alternatives will place one at a goodly distance from the noise and confusion of the Fourth of July celebration.

Still another, and one of the most satisfactory ways of getting past this day with an unalloyed amount of enjoyment is to pack a basket full of cold ham, stow a cold bottle under the buggy seat and take to the hills, and in this manner a great many Anacondans will pass a quiet and restful day, while the inhabitants from those remote districts will be just as anxious to get to town early in the morning as the others are to get away.

However, that is the different ways different people have of celebrating the glorious Fourth.

STORM LAKE FISHERMEN GET THE DOUBLE CROSS

Party of Anglers Make Long Trip Into Hills Only to Return Almost Empty Handed.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 1.—Several weeks ago a party of Anaconda gentlemen went to Storm Lake on a fishing trip. It is a long and arduous journey for a day's sport and they expected to meet with excellent fishing.

They were disappointed, however, and after trying for some time all gave the thing up as a bad job except one, Carroll Smith.

He kept it and was rewarded by catching more than 70 trout in a remarkably short space of time, once they began to bite. It was then too late for the other fellows to get in and they were compelled to come home without any.

Bearing the excellent catch of Mr. Smith in mind another party went to Storm Lake yesterday to spend the day, and Smith was one of the party. Messrs. F. I. Cairns and H. H. Nell were also along, and as all are anglers of considerable experience they expected to meet with fair success at least. They struck the lake at the wrong time, however, and the fish refused to bite. Had it not been that they stopped at another lake and caught a few fish they would have been completely out of the running.

It seems that the Storm Lake fish have a system of their own and work accordingly, or some of them would fall victims to the skill of the fishermen at other times than just when they are hungry.

However, persistence is oftentimes rewarded in a case like this, and a good angler is in nowise disheartened because he happens to get "skunked" a few times.

Hunting Mysterious Character.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 1.—Residents of Anaconda have been disturbed lately by a man who prowls around the houses in the residence quarter of the town and peers into the windows, as if he were insane. The police are looking for the man to arrest him. He is about 45 years old and has a light moustache and wears a slouch hat. He is said to have asked for food two or three times and to have pointed a revolver at windows several times.

FUNERAL OF MISS MARY M. SHOWERS

SERVICES WERE ATTENDED BY AN IMMENSE CROWD OF YOUNG WOMAN'S FORMER FRIENDS.

FLORAL CONTRIBUTIONS OF UNUSUAL BEAUTY

In Life the Young Lady Was Widely Known and Immensely Popular—Her Former Schoolmates and Girl Acquaintances Attend the Last Sad Rites—Brother Not Yet Located.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 1.—The funeral of Miss Mary Showers, who died Sunday night of appendicitis, took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Episcopal church, Rev. Alfred Brown officiating. The interment was in the Hill cemetery.

A large concourse of Miss Showers' former friends and acquaintances followed the remains to the burial ground, and the church was filled to overflowing during the funeral services. Inasmuch as Miss Showers had lived in Anaconda from infancy she was widely known and immensely popular and the sorrow at her demise is widespread.

One sad phase of the case is the inability to locate her brother, Harvey Showers, who left here but a few weeks ago for the coast. He has evidently moved in the past few days, as telegrams to his former address have failed to elicit any reply.

The floral offerings at the home of Miss Showers were of unusual beauty and the immense quantity of them speak for the popularity of Miss Showers in life.

Her former schoolmates and girl acquaintances were present at the funeral services and her death is greatly deplored by them.

BACK FROM BONITA CLUB

First Party of the Season Meet With Excellent Angling.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 1.—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McNulta and Mr. and Mrs. George P. Wellcome returned yesterday from the country house of the Bonita Outing club on Rock Creek where they went to spend Sunday.

This is the first party that has visited the club house this season, the cold and uncertain weather having made it inconvenient to do so heretofore.

The gentlemen of the party report excellent fishing in Rock Creek, Mr. Wellcome hooking one trout that tipped the scales at more than two pounds.

From now on parties will no doubt visit the place every week, as it is a most delightful spot in which to spend the hot days of summer.

FUNERAL OF PATRICK J. RYAN LARGELY ATTENDED

Popular and Well-Known Young Anaconda Man Buried at 9 O'Clock This Morning.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 1.—The funeral of Patrick Ryan occurred this morning at 9 o'clock from St. Paul's Catholic church in this city. Rev. Father Coppman officiated, and the body was interred in Calvary cemetery. A large number of friends followed the remains to the burial ground.

Mr. Ryan was one of the best known and most popular men in the employ of the company in this city and his untimely death has been the cause of much sorrow among his friends in this city.

He leaves a father, mother, two brothers and two sisters in the old country; a brother, Edward, in Anaconda, and another brother who is a traveling salesman for a dry goods firm in San Francisco.

BODY WILL BE SHIPPED EAST

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 1.—The body of Charles T. W. Cress, the Anaconda druggist who was found dead in his bed yesterday, will be shipped to New Bethlehem, Pa., at 7:15 tomorrow evening, for burial. Mr. Cress was a single man and his parents and one sister, his only relatives, reside in that city. The Druggists' association of this city, of which Mr. Cress was a charter member, met in special session last night, and took appropriate measures on the death of their late associate in business. They will accompany the remains to the depot in a body.

Mr. Cress was also a member of the I. O. O. F. and of the National Union.

"Jesse James" Tonight.

Anaconda, July 1.—By the advance sale of seats for the drama, "Jesse James," to be presented at the Margaret theater tonight, it would seem that the memory of the dead outlaw is still green in the minds of the people notwithstanding the space of time that has elapsed since his demise. Press notices from other cities say that production is a very creditable one, and there will be a good crowd out to see it tonight.

EVENT IN SOCIAL MUSICAL CIRCLES

MISSSES ETHEL THOMAS AND LILLIAN SHIELDS TO ENTERTAIN FRIENDS TOMORROW NIGHT.

INVITATIONS ISSUED TO EIGHTY PERSONS

Entire Second Floor of Shields Building Will Be Thrown Open to Guests and Rooms and Halls Will Be Profusely Decorated With Flowers in Honor of the Social Event.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 1.—Anaconda society people have been immensely pleased at receiving invitations to an informal musical to be given tomorrow evening by Misses Ethel Thomas and Lillian Shields in their luxurious apartments in the Shields building.

Both of the young ladies are leaders in local social and musical circles. Miss Thomas has attended some of the best conservatories in the East and Miss Shields received her musical education in Paris.

It will be one of the principal social events of the year and is looked forward to with much expectancy.

The entire second floor of the Shields' building will be at the disposal of the guests and the rooms and hallways will be beautifully decorated with potted and cut flowers, palms, etc. About forty couples will be present.

CANNOT LOCATE HARVEY SHOWERS

YOUNG MAN CANNOT BE FOUND AND NOTIFIED OF HIS FAVORITE SISTER'S SAD DEATH.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 1.—Telegrams to various places have failed to locate Harvey Showers, the young girl who died here lately. The parents of the young lady, whose death was so sad, have been very anxious to find their son and inform him of his sister's death before her burial, and they have telegraphed to various places in the state of Washington, where he has been within the past several months and to other places where it was thought he might be now.

Miss Showers was a favorite of her brother, there being a very strong bond of affection between them. But in all probability she will have to be buried before he can be told of her death. He kept his parents posted as to his whereabouts till lately, and it is only a little while that he has been out of sight. He is a linotype operator, and learned his business at Anaconda, and he has been moving around Washington in hope of bettering his condition in some new place.

TODAY'S WALL STREET STOCKS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] New York, July 1.—The stock market opened dull and depressed with the grain carriers leading the decline. Prices drooped throughout the list until the demand for sugar became sufficiently urgent to advance it 1-2. Other stocks steadied and recovered small fractions. The leaders moved narrowly, but in the main showed a better undertone. Brooklyn Union Gas rose 7 points and Consolidated Gas 1 1-2. Bonds were dull. There was a hardening tendency in some of the grain and cotton carriers. The Coal Carriers were depressed. Chicago and Eastern Illinois made an extreme rise 5 3/8 and New York Central a point over last night.

WORLD'S FAIR TO BE OPEN SUNDAY SABBATH REFORM ASSOCIATION TRYING TO SEE THAT IT IS CLOSED ON THAT DAY.

WILL REFUND TAXES BEGINNING TO-DAY NATIONAL BANKS NOT INCLUDED IN GENERAL CHANGE ACCORDING TO RECENT DECISION

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] St. Louis, July 1.—A copy of Lord Lansdowne's letter to Joseph H. Choate, accepting an invitation to participate in the World's fair, was received today from the secretary of state. The display to be made by Great Britain at the fair will consist largely of educational and art exhibits. Opportunity will also be afforded by the British manufacturers to make exhibits. Mr. Willur F. Crofts of the Sabbath Reform association is continuing his propaganda for closing the Louisiana exposition Sundays in spite of the fact that the Louisiana Purchase Exposition company has given every evidence of a firm purpose to observe the Sunday clause of the law providing for federal clause for participation. A number of additional letters from ministers and religious bodies were received by the exposition company today. All of these letters were identical in content, asserting a Sunday-closing contract is intended that can be ignored without redress. One letter from a minister in Iowa enclosed a printed copy of a letter identical in content with others received. The exposition company is sending these correspondents copies of the paragraph relating to the closing of the exposition on Sunday. They believe an unbiased examination of this document will completely exonerate the exposition from the insinuation of double dealing and equivocation, which is laid upon them in the crusade which Dr. Crofts is conducting.
