

THE INTER MOUNTAIN'S ANACONDA DEPARTMENT

ANACONDA'S HOPE FOR A FAIR DAY

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB HOLD SWAY AT MOUNTAIN VIEW PARK ON FOURTH OF JULY.

BASEBALL, DANCING AND ATHLETIC EXERCISES

Several Hundred Dollars in Merchandise and Money Will Be Given Away to the Winners of the Various Events—Many People of the Smelter City Will Go to Capitol Dedication.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 3.—"Is it going to rain tomorrow?" From small boys, big boys, men, women and children without number, comes the all-important question. Who knows? Maybe Berry Harrison does; he hasn't said that it isn't going to rain and he is by far too wise to say that it is going to rain. In the country where he came from people have come to grief by saying less than that about the Fourth of July.

Nevertheless the preparations for the big day go right along. At Mountain View park the Twentieth Century club will hold sway and they have made arrangements for a monster celebration. Several hundred dollars in merchandise and money will be given away to the winners of the various athletic events. Dancing, boating and baseball will form some of the attractions of the day and, above all, will be the good social time for which the picnics of the club are noted and which they want every one to have tomorrow.

Under the Trees. And a better place could not be found for it than on the grass and under the trees of Mountain View park.

Many Anacondans will depart for Helena tonight to be present at the dedication of the new capitol building tomorrow, and as this will happen but once, it will be worth going to.

For several years past the city of Anaconda has had no separate celebration. Those who wish to spend a quiet day can do so right at home. Those who wish to go to Butte and find baseball, horse races and red lemonade in plenty. Some wish to mix the thing and they can do so to their hearts' content.

Friday all the Anaconda stores will close with the exception of the drug, confectionery and cigar stores, and the first named will keep Sunday hours.

TROUBLE OVER LITTLE CALF

Case Between William Callam and Joseph Carriehau in Court. [SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 3.—A very small calf has disrupted two families in Anaconda and has found its way into Judge Kennedy's court. Joseph Carriehau is suing Frank and William Callam for possession of the animal.

Both sides claim that they own the calf and that they have owned it since birth three years ago. Furthermore, both claim to own the mother.

Many witnesses are being examined on both sides and Judge Kennedy may have to resort to the logic of the late lamented Mr. Solomon in order to satisfy everybody.

DID PRINCIPAL KISS PUPIL?

Momentous Question to Be Decided by School Board Saturday. [SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 3.—At the meeting to be held next Saturday evening, the school board will make a final examination into the case of Principal Walker of the high school, who is accused of having kissed Amy Stebbins, a pupil, against her will.

The question has been under discussion for a long time, but the board promise to settle it at this meeting. A report exonerating Mr. Walker was recently submitted by a committee of teachers.

Attention, Elks. Regular meeting of Anaconda lodge, No. 239, postponed to Thursday evening, July 17.

JACK GRIM MAKES FRIENDS A CALL

SPOKANE MANAGER WAS AN ANACONDA VISITOR FOR BRIEF PERIOD YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

URBANE BALL TOSSER HAS GROWN MOUSTACHE

As in the Days of the Montana League Grim is Not Sanguine but Works for Results—Hopes to Carry Off Big End of Games in Butte Series—Has Many Admirers Here.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 3.—"Jack" Grim, the manager of the Spokane aggregation of ball tossers, and formerly manager of Anaconda's league team during the days of the Montana circuit, ran over from Butte yesterday and spent a few hours shaking hands with his old friends in this city.

Jack has lost none of his old-time cordiality and good fellowship, but is somewhat changed in appearance, for he now wears upon his face a delicately nurtured moustache of auburn tint, which shares with the Spokane ball team all of his care and worry. Manager Grim of course hopes to carry off the big end of the Butte series of games, but he is not at all sanguine, and those who have known him in the past know that as a manager he never gets to thinking he has a cinch on anything, but keeps his men working all the time, and by this method he has landed more than one team at the top of the percentage column at the close of the season.

Spokane is now in fourth place. Manager Grim hopes and thinks that this will be their low water mark.

When asked what was the matter with the lately ill-fated Portland team he said he didn't know. There was an elegant chance to do some knowing, but as usual, Grim passed it up. He thinks he has in the Spokane team the best gang of ball players in the Northwest.

Grim has many admirers in Anaconda and during the Butte series will get his share of the rooting from this city.

WOODMEN AND FORESTERS

Local Lodgemen Leave for Helena Tonight—Will Drill Tomorrow.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 3.—At 7:15 o'clock this evening the drill team of the local lodges of Foresters and Modern Woodmen will leave for Helena to be present at the dedication of the state capitol building tomorrow.

These teams are said to be the best in exhibition drill in any of the state, and their friends expect them to carry off the first honors in the Capital City.

Upon several occasions they have demonstrated to the citizens of Anaconda their excellence in drill and their showy uniforms make a striking display.

WILL START WORK SOON

Con Hayes of Gregson Springs Making Final Arrangements for Big Hotel.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 3.—Con Hayes was up from Gregson Springs this morning making arrangements to start work next week on the big hotel building he intends erecting there.

The plans for the structure were furnished by Link & Carter, Butte architects, and the building contracts have been let and all in readiness to begin work except for a few minor details which Mr. Hayes is looking out for himself.

It is expected that the big hostelry will be completed and ready for guests early in the fall.

It will be much larger than the one destroyed by fire last year and will be equipped with all modern conveniences.

COUNTY OFFICIAL'S TROUBLES

Assessor George Miller Has Them in an Abundant Variety.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 3.—County Assessor George Miller is in the midst of tax collecting and assessing, and he affirms that he has trials and troubles enough to place a man not used to it in many feet under the sod.

The chief trouble arises in telling the holders of personal property, who have no real property, that they are by law required to pay their taxes at the time of their assessment. Many different objections are raised by taxpayers who come under this head, and it is in convincing them that it goes that the assessor's trouble comes.

It takes explanations of the law, persistence and a most extraordinary amount of patience, but the assessor and his assistants have thus far been able to deliver the goods.

FOLLOW REMAINS OF C. T. W. CRESS

ANACONDA DRUGGISTS ASSOCIATION TURN OUT TO DO HONOR TO LATE BROTHER MEMBER.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 3.—At 7 o'clock last evening in a pouring rain, the druggists of the city, the Odd Fellows, the Odd Fellows Encampment and the National Union turned out to escort to the depot the remains of Charles T. W. Cress, the pioneer druggist and business man of Anaconda who died last Monday, and whose body was shipped to New Bethlehem, Pa., for interment. Despite the mud and rain there was more than 100 in the funeral procession, which followed along the sidewalk even with the hearse.

The Anaconda Retail Druggists' association, of which Mr. Cress was a charter member and promoter, came first. On the left breast of each was pinned a white carnation. Behind them came the members of the Odd Fellows Encampment and the Odd Fellows in their regalia, and lastly the National Union, all wearing the emblem of their order, the stars and stripes.

The gloomy skies, the muddy streets, the long array of silent men protected from the pouring rain by dripping umbrellas, formed a scene which those who saw will not soon forget.

In life Mr. Cress was widely known and popular, kindly to all, effusive to none, he commanded the respect and admiration of all who knew him. He had been identified with the history of Anaconda since its earliest infancy, and among the men who paid the last sad rites to his memory were numbers who were associated with him in business in early days when clothes did not make the man, when the rustler won out and became the respected and influential citizen of later years.

BENEFIT URSULINE CONVENT

Fine Musical Entertainment at the Margaret Theater Last Evening.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 3.—Students of Mount St. Angela school last evening treated the residents of this city to a fine musical entertainment as they have had for many a day. The entertainment, which was for the benefit of the new Ursuline convent, was held at the Margaret theater.

Owing to the inclement weather the audience was not large, but every one present was enthusiastic in praise of the music rendered.

Miss Jane Jefferies scored an immense success, and all the other participants came in for great commendation.

LOOKING FOR MR. SWENSEN

His Protracted Absence Causes His Friends Much Anxiety.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 3.—August Swensen of the Big Hole county is missing and it is thought he has lost his life in the mountains near Georgetown.

John Roach and others are searching for him there. Swensen came to this city from the Big Hole several days ago and said he intended to examine the Geneva claim near Georgetown. The mine is owned by John Peterson of the Big Hole, who prevailed upon Swensen to inspect it.

Swensen left here on horseback, stating before starting that he intended to remain away only two days.

He has relatives in Anaconda, and as he has been gone several days they are apprehensive as to his safety.

Cress, the druggist who died of heart failure in this city three days ago, and was accompanied to the depot by members of the National Union, Odd Fellows and druggists. The parents of the dead man live in South Bethlehem and will take charge of the body when it arrives there. During the funeral here all of the drug stores of the city were closed out of respect to the memory of the dead man.

TO MAKE ANOTHER CHANGE IN BRICK

PRESIDENT OF ANACONDA SCHOOL BOARD HAS CHANGED HIS MIND ONCE MORE.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, July 3.—President Fitzpatrick of the board of education is of the opinion that the brick intended for use in the make-up of the new high school building is not good enough and will ask the other members of the board at the next meeting to authorize the purchase of pressed brick for at least three sides of the building.

The original plans of the structure called for pressed brick for three sides, but when the amount which it was thought the building would cost was reduced it was decided to use common brick and the contract given to Dolan & Hamill.

Mr. Fitzpatrick believes that pressed brick will give the building a more finished appearance, and that if common brick is used the trustees and public will regret it. The pressed brick is more expensive than the other, but it looks better.

The foundation of the new building is nearly completed. There is a scarcity of brick masons in the city and some delay in getting this part of the work done is anticipated.

Is Willing to Resign.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Great Falls, July 3.—"I will resign as a member of the board of county commissioners, as suggested in the recent report of the grand jury," said Chairman Frank Cooper of the board yesterday. Then he paused dramatically and added: "Provided Delphy and Roalswick, the other members of the board, will do the same. More than that I will pay Delphy and Roalswick each $250 cash if they will resign. I made that proposition to them some time ago at a meeting of the board. I asked County Attorney Gormley for a legal opinion as to whether I could offer to pay them for resigning, but he did not decide." This is Mr. Cooper's first visit to Great Falls since the grand jury reported.

Police Officials Resign.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Billings, July 3.—At Tuesday night's meeting of the city council the resignation of Captain of Police U. B. Calhoun and Policeman L. M. Hayden were accepted. The resignations, filed two weeks ago, were caused by some trouble that arose between the police magistrate, the police officers and the police commission.

Officer Hayden gave the city clerk notice Tuesday evening before the meeting that he had decided to withdraw his resignation, but the council took no notice of such action. Mayor George appointed E. Jackson as captain of police to succeed Mr. Calhoun, and the appointment was confirmed by the council. No appointment was made in the place of Mr. Hayden.

Thomas J. Bouton, a well-known real estate and insurance agent, was appointed alderman to take the place of S. G. Reynolds, who resigned to accept appointment as agent for the Crow Indians.
